

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

Next Monday evening the Strollers will be here. Henry Armagast, of Fillmore, was a business caller. With this issue we resume our Historical Review. Mr. and Mrs. Al. S. Garman spent Sunday with Mrs. Hamilton Otto. Miss Ella Gates is spending several weeks with friends in Williamsport. Remember we have the best facilities for doing all kinds of job printing. R. F. Vonada, of Millinburg, formerly of Coburn, gave the Democrat a call. E. W. Hess, one of the practical farmers of College, favored the Democrat with a call. W. H. Macker, of Port Matilda has moved to Waddle, and gave the Democrat a call. B. F. Vonada, of Walker, was a pleasant caller, and reports having good corn and other crops. G. W. Crouse, of Smulton, came in from Renova to do his duty as a citizen by voting on Tuesday. Charley Haines, of Beaver Falls, arrived in Bellefonte on Sunday to remain until after the election. Coburn Rogers, a student in the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, was home for the election. George Harpster, of Hubersburg, was in town Monday, and remains the same adamant democrat as of old. H. C. Valentine, bookkeeper for the Standard Scale Co., at Beaver Falls, was home over Sunday to remain until the election. Mrs. Daniel Eberhart, an aged lady living on High street beyond the cemetery, has been ill the past two months but now improving. Work on the new Y. M. C. A. addition is progressing nicely and it is expected to have the building under roof before winter sets in. The Strollers is decidedly the best attraction booked thus far for the opera house. Coming next Monday evening. It is far above the average. A large number of invitations are out to the wedding of Anna E., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Carson, to Walter C. Armstrong, Wednesday forenoon, November 16. Bruce Garman may have good intentions, but after a week's hunt was unable to supply a game dinner at the hotel last Sunday. You can imagine the disappointment. Wesley O'Day, who was employed by Thos. A. Shoemaker, at Indiana, Pa., arrived in Bellefonte last week with a car load of horses which will be quartered here during the winter. The new furniture placed in the Bush House office is decidedly elegant, being heavy polished oak, leather seated. They have about as fine an office as can be found in this part of the state. A barn dance was given in the Expo. building at the fair grounds Thursday night. Pumpkins, corn, apples and other products of the farm were used for decorations. Smith's orchestra furnished the music. The records in the Bellefonte post-office show that no edition of the Centre Democrat since last July weighed less than 513 pounds. As there are 13 copies to the pound you can calculate the extent of our circulation. Ed. Nearhood sold his cigar store in the Bush House to Harry Reacker and James Lose, the new proprietors took charge Thursday morning. Mr. Nearhood is back again in Yeager & Davis' shoe store as a salesman. H. E. Schreckengast, of Spring Mills, having been at Altoona all summer as a master carpenter, gave us a call, having come in to vote and then hunt, intending to remain all winter. Week before last, he informs us, that with a gang of fourteen men he framed seven houses, and last week raised and roofed three houses in Altoona. He will go back to Altoona next spring. When the name of Nixon & Zimmerman is connected with any theatrical production you can depend upon it being first class. For that reason our people can feel assured that the attraction at the opera house on Monday evening will be decidedly first class. The Strollers had a remarkable run in all the large cities and is one of the stage successes, that seldom ventures into smaller towns. Remember Monday night, 14th, is the date. Secure your seats early at Parrish's Drug store. When Bellefonte ladies undertake anything "it goes" always. The hospital auxiliary society made a success of their country store. From the rummage sale they realized $473; from changing off the organ contributed by M. C. Gephart, $19, a total of $492, which they turned over to the treasurer of the hospital. In addition to the above the hospital fund was enriched $15 from collections taken up in the churches of the town and $12, the receipts from Friday's matinee races.

The Strollers Monday evening. Mrs. W. F. Sproul, of Mingoville, was a pleasant caller. Scott Lose returned home from the Danville sanitarium, very much improved in health. Lawrence McCaffrey, of Braddock, is visiting his sisters, Misses Ann and Kate McCaffrey. The Strollers at the opera house on Monday evening. This is classed as a really fine production. Thomas E. Smith and Seymour Winkblech, of Fiedler, were callers being election board officers. L. A. Frank, of Rebersburg, accompanied by John A. Minnick, were callers being return judges. Also Hon. Willis R. Bierly, of Rebersburg and Williamsport. The Rev. Father Convers of church of Ascension Atlantic City will hold a "Communicants Class" in St. John's Episcopal church on Friday, to-morrow, evening, he will preach on the two following Sundays. Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Pearl Shellenberger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shellenberger of Braddock, to Robert Bruce Barnhart, of Bellefonte on Wednesday, November 23, at six o'clock. The annual inspection of Gregg Post 95, will be held in Post room at the regular meeting night, Nov. 12, 1904. The nominations of officer for 1905 will be part of the business of this Post meeting. On this account a full attendance is requested. Wednesday Henry Gault, of Bellefonte strained his back while working at the Y. M. C. A. building, from which he is suffering severe pain. Thursday his younger brother, James Gault, was working on the same building with his older brother, Henry, when he fell on the scaffolding in something like an epileptic fit and to be taken home. Frank Edwards a graduate of Otterbein University and is planning for Missionary Work, and was born in Freetown, Sierra Leone, West Africa, will give an address in the U. B. church, next Sunday evening at 7:30. Subject: "Africa and some of its people." Mr. Edwards will also speak in the U. B. church at Paradise, on Monday evening. Raymond Long, an employe with The Linden Hall Lumber Co., tells us after sawing there for sixteen or eighteen years, and cutting thousands of acres of timber in the Bear Meadows, the company have shut down their mill and are taking up the dinkey track preparatory to laying it again in the mountain gaps of White Deer, where the company is carrying on newer operations. The mill building there is to be sold. A few of the men are leaving for the work at White Deer, among them being Elmer Crissman, the local superintendent. The mountain tracts have been sold to the State for a forestry reserve. The tram road has already been taken up to across the second mountain south of Linden Hall. Centre County Pomona will meet in Hall of Bald Eagle Grange at Milesburg, Tuesday, Nov. 22nd, 10 a. m. All 4th degree members are cordially invited to attend. The program is as follows: Opening grange; music; roll call of officers and Fire Insurance Directors; reading minutes of last meeting; welcome address by Bald Eagle Grange; response, Geo. L. Ebbs; appointment of committee; select reading by Mrs. Wm. Grove; music; report of Secretary of Fire Insurance Company; "How can the Pomona Grange best aid the local granges," by Jas. A. Keller; recess for dinner. 1 p. m.—Music; report of Committee on Credentials; report of Committee of Encampment; report of finance committee; recitation by Miss Edith Lutz; "What legislation is most needed by the farmer to make his industry more remunerative," Geo. L. Ebbs; recitation, Miss Florence Rhone; "How can we devise a more systematic method of book-keeping for the Pomona Grange, and should the investment of its funds be in the name of the county organization," by Jas. C. Gilliland; conferring of 5th degree; talks on good of the order. Next place of meeting. Closing. GEO. DALE, Master. D. M. CAMPBELL, Secretary. Gordon Miller. Thursday noon 3rd Miss Ella D. Miller and Jacob L. Gordon, of Bellefonte, were married at the home of the bride's parents this place. The groom is employed by the American Lime & Stone Company, and is a very industrious young man. The bride received a large number of very pretty and useful presents. They will go to housekeeping in Bellefonte. The way Billy Runkle ran away with Grandfather Harshbarger now satisfies us that the latter really did not want the office. TOM HARTER now realizes that when he tackled Capt. Taylor he run up against a buzz-saw.

GATHERED OVER THE COUNTY.

Mr. Zubler is making preparations to rebuild a barn on his farm near Farmers Mills. We gave an account of the fire in last week's Democrat. The Ladies Missionary Society of the Lutheran church of Pine Grove Mills served a chicken dinner on election day in the Odd Fellows Hall. A large company of hunters from Shamokin and vicinity are camped in the Seven Mountains for the deer season. Pat and Walter Garrey must not let the outsiders kill all the game. Leroy DeLong, of Chicago, spent Sunday at the home of his father H. S. DeLong, of Romola, having been called to Pittsburg to attend the funeral of the wife of his brother, C. V. DeLong. William Rossman, of Pleasant Gap, shot a 24 pound wild turkey Saturday at 92 steps with No. 8 shot. Ray Cader, of the same place shot a 20 pound gobbler on the same day. Gosh! what whoppers for a Thanksgiving feast. The Martha Pa. Baptist church will hold a series of special Evangelistic services, beginning on Monday, Nov. 14th. The pastor will be assisted by Evangelist, Rev. J. L. Kreamer of Philadelphia. The public are invited. Messrs. W. S. Montgomery, E. H. Ellsworth and J. Edward Horn, citizens of Philipsburg, who recently disposed of the Philipsburg Electric Light plant, which they successfully operated for a number of years, have just closed negotiations by which they become owners of the Troy Electric Light and Power Co's plant at Troy, Bradford county, Pa. W. G. Stover, of Millheim, was a passenger on the Bald Eagle west bound morning train and when the Unionville station was reached he had an attack of vertigo. As the train stopped he was thrown forward and struck the seat in front of him, cutting a bad gash under his chin, which rendered him unconscious. A doctor, who happened to be on the train, attended him and when Bellefonte was reached he had his injury dressed. Jacob S. Bickle is seriously ill at his home in Mill Hall from what is thought to be cancer of the stomach. He was employed in the axe factory at that place. In September he went to the woods and three weeks later came home ill. Mr. Bickle formerly lived in this county and for a time had charge of the Boggs township poor farm. He was a good citizen and has many friends in this section who will be sorry to hear of his ailment.

J.; Charles, Harry and Mrs. Alice Green, of Clintondale. The deceased had been a resident of Clintondale for half a century. His death was due to a cut he received on his hand which resulted in blood poisoning. His funeral took place on Saturday, burial was made at Mt. Bethel. MRS. ELLEN McLELLAN—82 years old, widow of William McLellan, late president of the Chambersburg National Bank, died at her home in Chambersburg, from the effects of an internal hemorrhage. Mrs. McLellan was Miss Ellen Chaney, of Maryland, before her marriage. She spent most of her life in Chambersburg, and her greatest activities were exerted during the Civil war when that town was threatened time and again by raids and fire. Jack McLellan, who twenty or more years ago was associated with W. T. Speer in operating the car works plant here, was a son of the deceased. MRS. MARY W. JACKSON—died at the Brockerhoff House, Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. She had been ill since last December suffering from a complication of diseases. The deceased was married twice her first husband being Rev. G. W. Wait, a well-known Methodist minister. Her second husband was M. W. Jackson, a prominent business man of York, Pa. She leaves one daughter, her first husband, Mrs. Wilbur F. Reeder and one by her second husband, Mrs. Joseph Ervin Borches, of Knoxville, Tenn. She also leaves a sister, Mrs. Phoebe Harris, of Lock Haven. The remains were taken to Lock Haven on Saturday afternoon and the funeral took place from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Phoebe Harris, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Jackson was 68 years of age. MRS. C. V. DeLONG—death visited the home of Chas. V. DeLong, of Homestead, on the morning of Nov. 1st, and took from it his wife, Winora, Mrs. DeLong died of that incurable disease, diabetes. Her death although expected before many months, came very suddenly, she having been confined to her bed only thirty hours. Mrs. DeLong was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Patterson, of Fayette City. Mr. and Mrs. DeLong became acquainted at the Pan American Exposition in 1901, and were married June 3, 1902. She was 23 years old May 31. Besides her husband and little son Hugh, who is twenty months old, she leaves to mourn her loss her parents, three sisters, Mary, wife of Andrew Brown, of Fayette City; Miss Sarah Patterson, of Chicago; and Cora Patterson and brother George, at home. Interment was made at her home in Robobeth cemetery near Fayette City, on Thursday p. m. November 3rd. The husband and other sorrowing friends have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in this their sad hour of bereavement. Mr. DeLong is a native of Roland, and for number of years was one of the prominent school teachers of our county and is known to many of our readers. Even the woman who makes her own clothes can put on frills.
