THE RACKET

Furs and Blankets.

The chilly winds of November bring thoughts of warm Blankets and comfortable Furs. Our advance sale of these goods has been so promising that our second lot is unusually large. We quote Cotton Blankets from 50c. upwards. A special extra large size Cotton Blanket, worth $1.25, at 85c.

A Scarlet Blanket, large size, strictly all wool both warp and filling, at $3.25, worth $4.

Fine white Blankets, positively all wool, $3.50 to $4.50.

We want to increase our sales of Furs and have marked our large line at extremely low prices. A very nice Fur as low as 98c. Finer Furs up to $15.

We urge you to call and see our stock of Ladies' Underwear. It is the daintiest and cheapest we have ever had.

The Mountain Fires.

There were mountain fires in different sections of our county last week, in the Bald Eagle, seven mountain and Snow Shoe districts, but not with the destructiveness of fires in former years, the timber having been cut out. Harm being done to the new growth. In Blair county the recent mountain fires destroyed many fences and cut wood, especially paper wood, and several saw mills were only saved by the untiring work of the employees who fought the flames night and day. Along the Brush mountain in Scotch valley the woods and paths extending parallel with the mountain were scraped bare of leaves and brush, thus preventing the fire from burning down to the extreme foot of the mountain and destroying fences and cut timber. These fires are frequently caused by camping hunters through carelessness or accidentally, and by throwing lighted matches into leaves, when lighting segars or pipes while traveling through the woods.

To Our Correspondents.

Since the election is over the Centre Democrat will relapse into its former sphere of usefulness—gathering and publishing the news from all parts of the county. Therefore we solicit all those correspondents who have not sent any items for some time to try and remember us regularly in the future.

If you are in need of supplies, do not hesitate to call on us. Please be sure to sign your letters so that we may know who is writing, otherwise it will be omitted.

Continental Money.

The Millheim Banking company has in its possession a continental bank note in a good state of preservation that was issued in 1779. This note was issued by act of congress of that year and is of $50 denomination, says the Journal.

Well, these notes are a curiosity, but the Centre Democrat has about a dozen of such notes amounting to several hundred dollars.

Wm. Reynolds is the name of a Jersey Shore boy, aged nineteen years, who until this week never had his hair cut. But the desire to join a local drum corps that is organizing was strong enough to induce Billy to sacrifice his Sampson locks, so he marched himself to a barber shop and directed that the necessary amputation performance proceed, for it is a rule of the new drum corps that no long eared or long haired urchin shall belong to it. Young Reynolds has attracted a great amount of attention by his singular whim both at home and abroad.

FROM THE ASHES.

Baltimore Family's Experience Points a Moral to Residents of Bellefonte.

The visitor to Baltimore to-day scarcely realizes that less than a year ago the city was almost destroyed by a memorable fire. A similar comparison might be made by George W. Nally, one of the leading citizens of Baltimore, as to the change in his own locks.

A short time ago, Mr. Nally, writing from his home address, 2213 Barclay St., says: "I have been troubled for years with catarrh and had resorted to all remedies that could be thought of. My wife was also afflicted with this terrible disease, but all the treatments we used were an absolute failure until we tried Hyomei. It worked like a charm and has made a complete cure in both of our cases. There is no disagreeable stomach dosing in using Hyomei. We breathed it, and its fragrance, so clean, pure and bracing, killed all the catarrhal germs in the head, throat, and lungs."

The experience of Mr. Nally and his wife certainly points a moral to all readers of the Centre Democrat who are suffering from catarrh. It shows how they can be cured of this frightful disease, without dangerous stomach dosing. S. Krumrine, the local agent for Hyomei, has so much faith in the treatment that he gives his personal guarantee to refund the money in case it does not benefit. A complete outfit costs one dollar, the extra bottles are but fifty cents. Ask to see the strong guarantee under which Hyomei is sold.

George P. Shaffer Badly Hurt.

As George P. Shaffer, of Lock Haven, accompanied by his housekeeper, Mrs. Gramley, was returning on night of 3rd, from Sugarvalley, with horse and buggy and had reached a point in Mill Hall just above the school house bridge, along Fishing creek Mr. Shaffer drove too near the edge of the bank and horse, buggy and occupants were suddenly dropped over the high embankment. Mr. Shaffer and the lady were thrown out. The horse and buggy caught on a small tree which held them from being precipitated to the bottom. The screams of the two people brought the residents near by to their aid who assisted them out of their predicament and they were taken to the home of Alex Flanigan just opposite. Dr. A. B. Painter was called and it was found that Mr. Shaffer had his collar bone broken and was otherwise bruised. Mrs. Gramley was but slightly bruised. The horse was uninjured and the buggy had but the single tree broken. After being fixed up friends accompanied the couple to their home in this city, coming down on the street car. Truly it was a lucky escape from instant death.—Cl. Democrat.

It is rumored at Ebsenburg that Thos. Cunningham, who is in Cambria county jail awaiting trial on the charge of murdering his wife, has made a confession stating that he had attacked his wife and administered the beating which resulted in her subsequent death, after she had threatened to expose him for his participation in the Portage hold-up, when Charles Hays was shot to death and Patrick Campbell seriously wounded. Rumor also has it that three men, who are well known in the vicinity of Portage have been named as accomplices by Cunningham.

Ira D. Sankey, the famous evangelist, now blind, who stirred thousands on two continents by his magnetic singing of gospel hymns, has lost his health and it is feared by his relatives that he may not live through the winter. Mr. Sankey is at present living in seclusion in the Adirondacks.

Will Gfrerer left yesterday for the St. Louis Fair, also on the same trip H. G. Strohmeyer and Wm. Keller, all of Centre Hall.

AS A GENERAL RULE.

When a farm is getting seedy and the place is running down,
When the fields are bare and weedy and the paint is turning brown,
Tisn't hard the cause to tell, oh, for as sure as you are born
It's the work of just one fellow, and his name is Barleycorn.

When a store is losing custom and the goods are getting stale,
When the owners never dust 'em but just tell a doleful tale
And about the hard times bellow, they will realize some morn
That they've hired a worthless fellow, one whose name is Barleycorn.

When a man gets frayed and rusty and no longer cares to work,
When his clothes are soiled and musty and he's satisfied to shirk,
When he claims the world is yellow and his life is all forlorn,
He is traveling with a fellow who is known as Barleycorn.
