

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

—Miss Mary McSully spent Sunday in Williamsport.

—Chas. Mensh has gone to St. Louis to take in the big fair.

—J. F. Lohr, of State College, favored our sanctum with a call.

—Edward Smith, of Fleming, gave our sanctum a business call.

—I. J. Lucas, one of Howard's active young men, gave the Democrat a call.

—Dr. Irvin, of Fleming, popped in to see "how we stood it." Found us lovely.

—V. R. Snyder, one of College township's prominent citizens, favored us with a call.

—Chas. R. Kurtz is away since Thursday of last week attending the world's fair at St. Louis.

—J. C. Sunday and wife, of Penn'a Furnace, called to look round and inspect the Democrat office.

—Mrs. Amos Mullen has returned from a month's visit to friends in Lancaster, York and Hanover.

—A. S. Meyers, of Altoona, a former Centre counsiller, was here to see friends and give the Democrat a call.

—David Whitman, of Hubersburg, and son J. W. Whitman, of Renova, favored our sanctum with a call.

—R. V. Miller, wife and daughter Lyde, of this place, spent Sunday in Williamsport, the guests of J. F. Howard's.

—Orin Ishler came in to his parents, Will Ishler's, like a good democrat to cast his vote, and left again two days after the election.

—Frank P. Davis, of the Standard scale works, who has been home on a visit with his family returned to Beaver Falls on Saturday.

—George Harpster moved to Bellefonte from Hubersburg last week and is in the employ of the Shoemaker railroad construction work as blacksmith. George is a never faltering democrat.

—Alice a little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Shilling of West Beaver street slipped on that thoroughfare Sunday afternoon and broke both bones in her right leg between the ankle and the knee.

—Matter to be printed in a newspaper should not be written on both sides of a sheet, nor should words be abbreviated. By observing this much time lost at "guessing" and correcting can be saved in the printing office.

—At the United Evangelical church parsonage, on Friday evening, Jacob H. Weaver, Jr., of Hubersburg, and Miss Maude E. Shank, of Jacksonville, were married by the pastor, Rev. W. B. Cox. The happy pair are worthy our congratulations.

—Rev. J. Victor Royer, of Frugality Cambria county, Pa., came in to vote at his old home at Spring Mills, and called to give us good bye. He is well and favorably known in Bellefonte where he spent several years and gained the esteem of all.

—The unchanging method of stopping a run-away horse, by the Democrat's own observation, is "whooa whoa, whoa." Then there are 500 whoas along the line, while the fleeing steed says to himself, "go to halifax with ye, I'm off." The whole performance usually ends in woe.

—The storm Saturday night was very destructive in the east and along the Atlantic coast where much harm was done. Snow and rain fell in considerable quantities in most of the sections named. In our own county there was a fierce wind but no destruction of property and the rainfall Saturday night only amounted to a trifle, with skiffs of snow in some parts of our county. It has been "windy" since and cold and winter-like.

—Burdine Butler brought a beet to the Democrat office, 10 inches in length and 19 inches in circumference. As it is hard to beat that beet, Mr. Butler had it sent to Judge Love with his compliments to His Honor. Burdine says he feels happier now than if he had been given one of the Crider farms, and was around shaking hands with his friends. All will be so glad to know that Burdine Butler is so glad.

—The big storm some weeks ago shaken over 'half the apples from the trees, has caused a partial scarcity of the fruit, and consequently the price is not as low as supposed before the storm. Hundreds of bushels of fallen apples went to destruction in this county as the supply was too great for the time being and much of the fruit was left to rot on the ground. Good, picked apples are worth from 30 to 40 cents per bushel as per quality.

—There was a good joke at the Spring township polls last week when our good natured republican friend, Hen. Kline, brought the veteran democrat Michael Daugherty to the polls in his buggy, Kline feeling sure that he had the veteran safe. Arriving at the voting place, a knot of republicans were at once ready to help Daugherty out and tie the horse, and requested Kline to go at once with the old man, who was offered an assistance, to have his "ticket fixed." "Ach" says Daugherty, "Bill Noll has been doing that for twenty years," and the vote went democratic.

—Pleasant callers were Elizabeth G. Glenn, Jennie Parks and Jennie Graham, all of Snow Shoe.

—Mrs. John McSully and four interesting children spent Sunday with her parents in Williamsport.

—W. T. Mayes, of Hubersburg, one of the reliable employes on Huyett's lumber mills at Hecla, gave us a call.

—C. C. Smull and Elias Breen, two of Miles township's prominent teachers gave us a call, while attending institute.

—D. C. Harpster, wife, and pretty little daughter Stella, of near Stormstown, came in to inspect the Democrat office.

—J. B. Gentzel is now in the west purchasing some more colts for the eastern market. Watch next week's papers and look out for sale bills.

—The Marlin repeating rifle chanced off by W. H. Miller in Bush's store last evening was won by Geroge Kniesly, whose number was 80.

—H. C. Quigley, Esq., is slowly improving from his serious illness, though may not be out of danger. He has now been laid low over a month.

—Next Tuesday morning at 10:30 the annual Home Mission Day service will be held in St. John's Reformed church. The Sunday school and congregation will unite in this service.

—Wm. W. Rishel, a former typo in this office, writes us from Braddock, Pa. "We have a big girl at our house since Oct. 2, 1904, fat, big, pretty like her pa." Our congratulations to the happy parents.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fountain Wilson Crider have issued invitations to the wedding of their daughter May Sullivan and Charles Edwin Dorworth, on Wednesday evening, November 30. The contracting parties are residents of this town and highly esteemed. The groom is on the editorial staff of the Philadelphia Press.

—Among the many callers in the Democrat sanctum we recall names of the following: Rev. Crow, of Hubersburg; also the following teachers: A. M. Butler, Howard; C. W. Heller, Rebersburg; Prof. T. A. Hosterman, Coburn; Geo. F. Weaver, Gregg; Irvin A. Meyer and N. H. Corman, Coburn; Edgar Smith, Zion; A. L. Duck, Gregg; D. E. Robb, Liberty; Orvis M. Shall and Dale Musser, Millheim.

—From every section of the county, by democrats and republicans, we hear denunciation of the new ballot law. It deserves all the cursing it gets. From over the state the abomination is receiving merited disapproval. Votes were lost in our own county because voters were unable to understand what was required to vote your preferences and to be misled into marking for what the voter did not want, was discovered at almost every polling place. It was framed to mislead and in that it is a success.

—The teachers' institute now being in session in this town, reminds us of the fact that townsmen, ex-farmer L. C. Rearick, holds a teachers' certificate dating back fifty years, when he started in to wield the hickory and "teach the young idea how to shoot." Mr. Rearick could celebrate his "golden wedding" on that, at next institute when he should be put on the program to tell "how things used to be" when he had among his branches, the hickory branch, boarded round, and such like.

—Frank T. Kerns and Miss Elizabeth F. Nolan, two of Bellefonte's popular young people, surprised their friends on Thursday evening, 9 by quietly slipping out to the Lutheran parsonage where at 8 o'clock they were united in holy bonds of wedlock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. C. Holloway, D. D., Harry Otto was best man and Miss Mary Nolan bridesmaid. The bride is the daughter of the late Jerry Nolan and the groom is head office man for the Penn. Chemical company, of this place.

—And on Monday forenoon the pedagogues—male and female—from all parts of the county, came streaming in, to attend the County Institute. And they are a good looking set—especially the school marm—and along with qualifications, the Centre Democrat will pit them against the same class of any county in the Keystone state. Having given the names of teachers of the various school districts in the county after being appointed during the summer, and having printed the program for this week's Institute in our last week's issue, we deem it unnecessary to add this matter in this week's issue.

—The dedication of the Carnegie Library at State College, on Friday, 18th, to-morrow, will be an interesting event Mr. Carnegie, Hon. John Morley of England, Governor Pennypacker and other notables, will be present. The Bellefonte Central Railroad will run special trains. There will be a military drill and sham battle, by the Cadet Battalion in the afternoon. The special trains will run as follows: Leave Bellefonte 8.00 a. m. Fare round trip 75 cents. As the "jerkwater" train was backing onto a siding at Phillipsburg, August Frank, a German, and a veteran of the civil war, who resides in South Phillipsburg, stepped in the way of the moving locomotive. He was thrown to the track, and run over by the massive engine, with the result that the left arm and leg were severed. The unfortunate man was taken to the hospital and may recover.

Mountain fires in Centre county are often caused like the one below. Hunters should be careful about starting fires in the woods. Last week in Blair county one set fire to a hollow tree to drive out a squirrel. The woods caught fire and the flames spread all over the surrounding territory and the populace worked over three days and nights fighting the fire. And all this damage and trouble was caused by one man trying to smoke a little squirrel out of a hollow tree.

Mrs. Catharine Luce, widow of Joseph Luce, died at the home of a daughter in Chicago on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 2, and the remains were taken to her late home at Elkhart, Ind., on Friday, where funeral services were held and interment was made. Her brother, Henry Swartz, of Millheim, alone survives.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bitner, in Penn Hall at noon on Thursday last. Their daughter Jennie Bitner, was at that time united in marriage with Paul Swab. Lohengren's wedding march was played by Miss Dora Meyer when the happy couple presented themselves before the Rev. R. F. Fetterolf, and were soon pronounced man and wife; congratulations were then showered upon them by the thirty or more invited guests who were present.

Prof. Irvin C. Stover, a professor of elocution in the Union Seminary at New Berlin, will give one of his excellent recitals in the United Evangelical church, Milesburg this Friday evening, Nov. 18. He comes highly recommended and it is hoped that he will be greeted by a large crowd. The object is a good one and should be liberally patronized.

It is reported that one evening last week Michael Eby, of near Woodward, was robbed of a large sum of money. The robbery occurred while the family were sitting in the summer kitchen in the evening after supper and no one was in the house. How much was stolen is not known but that the amount is large there is no doubt for in their haste to escape $1500 were dropped on the stairs. Mr. Eby, it is claimed, has no faith in banks and thinks himself the best custodian of his money with the result that frequent and sometimes successful attempts are made to rob him. There is no clue to the robbers.—Journal.

Hold Miniature Train.

Two masked men robbed a train on the miniature railroad, at the World's Fair. After securing money and valuables amounting to $100, the robbers escaped. The train, carrying the engineer and three passengers, one of them a woman, was making its last trip and was crossing a deserted plot of ground when two masked men, with drawn revolvers, forced the engineer to stop. The woman passenger was robbed of considerable money.

Several nights ago when Mrs. Thomas Cryder was going to her home a short distance below Woolrick she was attacked by an animal, supposed to be a wild cat, as she was passing C. H. Rich's deer preserve. C. M. PARRISH SAYS.

Yesterday was a record breaker for Vin-te-na, and five of the bottles sold were to people who had been told of its merit by those who have been greatly benefited or entirely cured by its use. Not one asks for a return of money, although I always allow them to be so judge. If you are run down and out of sorts generally, if your appetite is failing, if your nerves have given way under heavy strain, come in and get a bottle of Vin-te-na at my risk.
