

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

—Dr. Barker, the Coburn veterinarian, gave us a pleasant call. —J. W. Fullmer, of Milesburg, was a pleasant caller in our sanctum. —A progressive euchre was held in the Catholic hall, Tuesday evening, November 22nd. —Miss Rebecca Moyer, of Bellefonte, is visiting her grandmother Mrs. Chestie Stover, at Rebersburg. —Geo. W. Yeung, of Jersey Shore, is at present visiting his son Andrew, on East Allegheny street. —The case of Green and Dillon will be argued before the Supreme Court the first Monday in January. —Ex-teacher Pletcher, now the popular implement agent, gave us several calls while attending institute. —Cephas Royer, of Alexandria, formerly of Miles township, gave us a call; yesterday he left for Jewell City, Kansas. —Mr. and Mrs. Murray Andrews have closed their home on Allegheny street and left for Philadelphia where they will spend the winter. —Dr. Feidt, our near neighbor, is more than jubilant over the young medical student that called at his home and was royally welcomed. —Mrs. Cal Brackbill and family have located in Williamsport where her son John has an excellent position. They expect to make that place their future home. —Charles Moerschberger, of Free-land, Luzerne county, purchased from Jesse Cox his wholesale beer business, restaurant and pool and billiard room in this place. —Miss Margaret Sechler who has spent the summer with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Sechler has returned to Baltimore to resume her work as a trained nurse. —David Graham and Chester Canoway, both of Snow Shoe, gave us a call on Monday. Canoway was on his way to Linden Hall where he has employment at the grist mill. —Christmas this year falls on Sunday, but according to the law in Pennsylvania, Monday, this being the day following the legal holiday of Christmas, is the proper day to keep. —Wednesday morning of last week Catharine, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy, of East High street, was badly bitten in the face by a dog with which she was playing. —November term of court commences on Monday of next week. A busy session can be expected as much litigation was postponed from August session owing to the campaign that just closed. —Someone borrowed from our office library a valuable volume comprising the worlds best poems, compiled by Wm. Cullen Bryant. It was a useful reference book that we hardly know how to duplicate and therefore its return would be greatly appreciated. Who has it? —Judge Francis J. O'Connor, and wife, of Ebensburg, Pa., were guests at the home of Col. J. L. Spangler several days of last week. While here they met many of our leading citizens and their visit proved enjoyable. Judge O'Connor was elected in 1902 and for a time was annoyed by a contest, but finally won out. He is one of the able jurists of our state. —Jerry Kerns moved his family here from Cincinnati, this week, and are occupying a part of the Larimer property opposite the Court House. Mr. Kern is an expert barber and will assist his brother in the shop at the Garman House. They have put in a new chair and have ordered other new furniture, intending to make it the finest shop in the town. The Kerns brothers are first class workmen. —Too late to announce the following callers in last week's issue, of the teachers attending institute, are the following: The Misses Grace A. Vallmont and Jerusha C. Daugherty, of Pine Glenn; B. Maude Reimert, of Howard; Ida and Margaret Williams, sisters, of Martha Furnace; Messrs. Clair E. Kreamer, of Fiedler, Rob't Bitter, of Spring Mills; Thos. Moore, of Centre Hall; A. J. Hazel, Madisonburg; Dr. Jas. McEntire, Hubersburg; A. M. Butler, Howard. The Democrat is always pleased to have calls from such pleasant ladies as above named. —The action of the Bellefonte School Board in prohibiting the practice of scholars making presents to the teachers at Christmas time, is to be commended. Many evils grow out of this custom, although it comes with a good motive. There are institutions in this town in the habit of assessing the public to make presents to their poorly paid employees that should be stopped. No merchant in Bellefonte has the nerve to send some lackey around among his customers to demand tribute for his clerks; a newspaper would have an equal claim for its numerous employees, but none ever thus imposed upon its patrons. There is no need to be personal in this matter, but almost any business man understands what institution is referred to, and the hold up that is annually practiced. In this we are voicing the sentiment of many others.

—Read Sechler & Co's new announcement in another column. —Mrs. Daniel Rhoads returned Saturday from a very enjoyable trip to St. Louis. —H. C. Quigley, Esq., is reported as improving from his serious attack of pneumonia. —Jas. B. Bathurst who recently went to Kipple has returned and will be an employee in the Lingle foundry in this place. —J. C. Weaver, one of Coburn's leading business men, transacted business in town and favored the Democrat with a call. —Miss Elsie Rankin, who is attending school in Lewisburg, arrived home Saturday to spend Thanksgiving with her parents. —Isaac Smith, of Farmers Mills, was a pleasant caller in our sanctum. He is a stalwart republican in that strong democratic district. —Howard Homan and wife, of Altoona, were callers in our sanctum, they were on their return from a visit to Centre county friends. —C. E. Finkle, merchant at Ertle's Mills, was a pleasant caller, he reports Penns creek as being very low from the prolonged dry spell. —Mr. and Mrs. Harter, of Pine Creek Mills, while shopping in Bellefonte, Saturday, gave the Democrat a call, and inspected the printing office. —Messrs. Ferd and Wm. Beezer, Clay and Abner Rider, Allen Waite and four others of our glass working fraternity departed for Mt. Jewett, McKean county, to work in a factory. —Herb Shaffer arrived home on Tuesday from Pittsburg, to spend a few days in this section hunting deer. He can't keep out of Centre county during either the hunting or fishing season. —The Woman's Guild of St. John's Episcopal church will give a turkey dinner and sale of fancy articles in Petrikin Hall, on Thursday, Dec. 1st, from 5 to 9 o'clock. Dinner 50 cents including ice cream. —Pork seems to be plenty with farmers. It is worth, dressed, $6 per hundred in market, and one dealer thinks it is likely to go down to $5. Much of the article has been brought to town within the past few weeks. —This being Thanksgiving, let all observe it properly. Oft it is a day of carousal with some, and the bar is frequented instead of the place of worship. Self respect should lead no one to be thus guilty. Adding sin to sin instead of thanks to the Almighty for all good gifts, is a mockery offered the Deity. Let there be thanksgiving and gladness. Carousing brings sorrow and woe. —Wednesday of last week Dr. Tryon moved from the Harrison house on east Bishop street to the Zeller house on Howard street, formerly occupied by Dr. Kilpatrick. His sister Mrs. Elliott, of Atlantic City, is here and was assisting in the moving. In the evening she opened what she supposed was a closet door and went to step inside but the door proved to be the cellar stairs, sustaining a severe cut on the head. —Hunting thus far has been attended by the usual number of accidental shooting of persons—accidental discharge of guns and carelessness on the part of hunters being the cause. Those hunters who escape accidents this season may bide their time, as they may get their dose of lead next time. Every hunting season closes with a considerable percentage of hunters being shot instead of game—and thus it will continue to be. —In talking of bears in another item reminds us of a "narrative" told us a few years ago by Mr. Thomas, that when a tramp bruin leisurely came into Bishop street, in the early day, turned into Allegheny street and on to the diamond to see the old court house, no doubt. By this time the alarm went out of the presence of a dangerous stranger, and there was a rush of men, boys, and the rest, with clubs, guns and axes, and an attack was made on him—and he was defeated. —When "A Little Outcast" comes to the opera house next Thursday, Dec. 1st, it will not be difficult to understand why it has been the biggest success in its class on the road for the past two seasons. "A Little Outcast" the story of a New York waif, is a play for all classes. It shows one how the world lives and every scene is true to life depicting the pleases, misery and crime in the crowded sections of New York as well as that of misery and grief hidden in the mansions of "Millionaires Row." —Lumberman Huyett, from Centre Hall, was in town and informs us his lumber operation at Hecla will continue four to five years yet before the stock, in the woods he is operating in, is exhausted. Mr. Huyett is one of the large and successful operators in lumber of our county, and has been at it over twelve years on a large scale. He operated in different sections, among which are Brushvalley, the Seven mountains, Hecla and several other parts. He is about the last of the extensive operators in lumber; with the many hands in his employ there never was a jar.

GATHERED OVER THE COUNTY.

Frank Wingard, of near Coburn, on Tuesday shot a bear on Poe mountain that weighed over 400 pounds. W. W. Dunkle last week moved from Braddock to Milesburg, driving the distance between Pittsburg and Milesburg. Henry Deitweiler, a teacher in attendance at the county institute, last week, was hastily summoned to his home in Smulton, owing to the serious illness of his wife. At the Union Thanksgiving service to be held in the Lutheran church, Centre Hall, Thursday morning, November 24, an offering will be taken for the benefit of the Bellefonte Hospital. Dr. McEntire, the Williamsport dentist, has opened an office in Jackson Kline's building, Howard, Pa., where he is prepared to do all kinds of dental operations at reasonable prices. F. T. Cole, of the Class of 1900, and Miss Mary M. Ewing, of State College, were united in marriage by Rev. J. O. Denniston at the home of the bride Wednesday evening, November 16. J. B. Wagner, operator at the Penna station at Milliflunburg, with his wife and children, is on a visit among relatives and friends in Linden Hall and other points in Centre county, where he formerly resided and had charge of Paddy Mountain station. He expects to spend part of his vacation hunting. An inquiry comes from Roland as to whether there is an act of assembly which allows an old soldier to vote, who has paid no state or county tax, and especially when he owns no property. No such law can be enacted that would be constitutional. Everybody must pay a tax in order to vote. Matilda Cole was found dead on Monday by the little girl of Zena Woodring, in the lot back of the house, at Port Matilda. She had gone out to cut some wood and had only three sticks cut. When found she was lying face downward and arms outstretched. Philipsburg has had another fire. This time it occurred Thursday last and burned the home of Wallace Shimel and family, consisting of his mother and sister. They were at dinner when the fire occurred in a bedroom on the second floor. Shimel lost all his tools when the Moshannon Manufacturing company's plant was burned Tuesday night. This week the mountains in Centre county are overrun by hunting parties from all parts of the state, who have an idea that deer are as plenty as cattle in the pasture fields. Centre county has much wild mountain land but deer seem to be growing scarcer each year, and the entertainment or encouragement of outside hunting parties should cease, in order to preserve what game is left. This Thanksgiving day, Nov. 24, the Hoy family will hold a reunion at the John S. Hoy homestead, about 1 1/2 miles west of Jacksonville, in Marion township, in honor of Cyrus Hoy, Esq., of Minnesota, who is now visiting relatives in the county. The Hoy family is numerous over this county and this gathering should prove an interesting one for them. The Democrat calls the attention of such as on R. F. D. routes to the following: The Postoffice Department has made a new ruling in the matter of rural mail boxes. From now on more than one family will be permitted to use the same box, provided a written notice of such agreement between two or more families be filed with the postmaster of the distributing office. It was also ordered recently that all approved rural delivery boxes be equipped with a suitable signal to indicate whether there is mail therein. Samuel Wilson's farm home near Graysville was completely destroyed by fire Friday night Nov. 11, about midnight. Mrs. Wilson was away from home, and Mr. Wilson and the three small children were in bed asleep. Becoming suddenly aware of the fire, he had quick work to wrap the children in blankets and get them out of the house, and to escape himself. The house with all its contents was completely destroyed, although the insurance, $1300, will about replace the building. Mr. and Mrs. George Gross, of New Berlin, drove to Lewisburg to allow Mrs. Gross to do some shopping while he looked after some business matters. Mr. Gross tells us that the railroad for his town is a certainty and its early completion can be expected. Mr. Gross is still in good health, although having passed the eightieth mark, and has by no means lost any interest in matters local and general, says the Lewisburg Journal. Mr. Gross will be remembered as at one time, in the '50 ties, a leading merchant at Rebersburg. Butchering is now in full swing among farmers and others. The weather had been very favorable for that kind of work during the fall on account of the coolness. Upon these occasions sausages, wurst, hams, fitch, and dry beef are laid up for a year's supply, as also lard. The home article in this line is always clean and pure and the flavor of home cured hams and fresh and smoked sausage superior to the output of the large slaughtering establishments which is shipped to retailers. Living at farmers' tables now gets to its highest notch and they fare in epicurean style. Think of buckwheat cakes and sausage and sauerkraut and speck, and with the other home dishes—where, oh where, is first class hotel grub in compare!

Still a little corn to husk. Mrs. Benjamin Gentzel is visiting Mrs. Alex Flanigan, at Mill Hall. J. B. Royer purchased the small W. W. Royer farm, at Centre Hill, from Mrs. Sarah Royer. Rev. D. G. Davis will preach in the U. B. church, at Paradise, on next Sunday at 10:30 am., instead at 7:30 pm. Mrs. Hufnagle, of East Nittany valley, died Monday night at 10 o'clock. Funeral will be held Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Rural free delivery service is to be established in the upper Bald Eagle valley, on December 1st, with Julian as the distributing office. One carrier will be employed. Aaron C. Shaffer, son of Henry and Judith Shaffer, died at Elkhart, Ind. Deceased was born at Madisonburg in 1861, where he is well remembered by the older residents. Aunt Mae Fortney while visiting at the home of Samuel Slack, near Potters Mills, last Wednesday morning, slipped on an icy plank causing her to fall and break her leg near the hip. A successful protracted service is being held at the Baptist church at Martha; pastor Lathrop is being assisted by Rev. J. L. Kreamer, of Germantown. They expect to begin meetings at Milesburg on Monday. H. M. Gates is one of the active young democrats of Snow Shoe, who is rejoicing over the result of the recent election. That township made a splendid showing and he was one of the lads who helped to win the victory. The Democrat is not at all extravagant in estimating that not less than 200 visitors went from Centre county to the St. Louis World's Fair. At an average expenditure of $30 per head this would mean $6000 as the contribution of this county to the big show. Wm. C. Frank, of Pine Grove Mills, last Thursday morning, was kicked on the leg by one of the horses, the blow breaking the bone. The accident is particularly unfortunate for Mr. Frank, for he can hardly be spared from the work of the farm at this time. Hunting in this county, and outside, this year, has turned out more fruitful of bears, catamounts and wild cats than at any time, perhaps, since the last redskin got out of these hunting grounds. The mountain districts being denuded of timber, and a general disturbance of the woods by dinkys, tramroads, and the tramp of the lumberman and reports of his axe in the felling of the forests, the Centre Democrat would be inclined to the thought that all this may have driven away game and made it scarce; we leave it to some naturalist to explain why the varmints have appeared again in unusual numbers. —Mr. Maurer and wife, of Clintondale, gave our sanctum a pleasant call. —J. S. McCargar brought that "loving cup" to our office on Wednesday—empty! —Miss Ella McClain is spending this week in Philadelphia, at the home of Mrs. Jacob Thomas. —Editor Earl Tuten reports a big time last week at St. Louis. He was there by his loneliness. —Mrs. Wither Smith returned home Monday evening from a ten days visit to friends in Williamsport. —The next attraction booked for the opera house is "A Little Outcast," for next Thursday evening, December 1st. —Miss Weiser, of Ashland; Miss Bougher, of Philadelphia; and Miss Longneker, of Mt. Joy, Pa., were guests at the home of Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler, last past week. —Johnny Allen, erstwhile miller at Red Mill in Potter, now of near this town, gave us a shake of his friendly hand. Johnny is 84 years old but does not near look that, and can get over the ground as quick as a deer chased by hounds—almost. —Mrs. Isaac Thomas and son Isaac, Jr., left on Monday for Jersey City to attend the funeral of the former's daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Thomas who died in that city Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock of consumption. She is survived by her husband and three children. —Ed Gephart, of Drifting, Clearfield county, is visiting at his former home near Zion, this week. He stopped in to renew his subscription so as to keep posted on the happenings in the county. He seemed pleased over Roosevelt's election and the result in our county. —Thanksgiving turkeys are not a glut in the market. Dressed turkeys are 22 cents per pound in Bellefonte, and live birds 18 cents. In Harrisburg live turkeys are 15 cents per pound, and dressed 22 cents. In Philadelphia live turkeys are 18 cents per pound, and dressed 22 cents—these prices for choice birds. Star Course of 1904-05 The celebrated Katharine Ridgeway Concert Company opens the Star Course in Petrikin Hall December 3rd. This is a fine attraction and worthy of liberal patronage. Season tickets for course of five entertainments only $1.50. —We are selling at 40c per gallon the finest all sugar syrup that has ever been sold in Bellefonte at that price. Other grades on about the same basis. Maple sugar and maple syrup. Saratoga potato chips. Sechler & Co.

After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served to about 70 invited guests. The bride is one of Bellefonte's amiable and accomplished young ladies while the groom is a trusted and worthy employee in the grocery store of Harper Bros. May long life and happiness be theirs is the sincere wish of a host of friends. Clerical Orders for 1905. Pursuant to its usual custom, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will issue clerical orders for the year 1905 to ordained clergymen having regular charge as settled pastors of churches located on or near its lines. Clergymen desiring such orders should make individual application for same on blanks furnished by the Company and which can now be obtained from the Ticket Agents. Applications should be sent to the General Office of the Company as soon as possible, in no case later than December 15, so that orders may be mailed by December 30, to all clergymen entitled to receive them. Foot ball about coming to an end by winter setting in, the next will be snowball. MRS. CARTON'S STORY. Maine Women's Thrilling Experience Duplicated in Bellefonte. There are scores of families in Bellefonte and near by towns who will read with interest the wonderful experience of Mrs. A. L. Carlton, one of the best known women in Rockland, Me. Her statements are confirmed by the physicians who treated her and by C. H. Pendleton, the druggist who sold her Mi-o-na, nature's cure for dyspepsia. Mrs. Carlton says: "I suffered with stomach trouble for eight years, growing worse all the time. Three of the best doctors in Maine diagnosed my case as cancer of the stomach and declared I could not live two months. Utterly discouraged by their treatment, I began using Mi-o-na and commenced to gain at once. At this time, I was reduced to almost skin and bones, as I had lost nearly 100 pounds during my sickness, but when I began to take Mi-o-na, my flesh was built up and I gained 22 1/2 lbs. the first month. When I discharged my physicians, I was suffering great pain and distress, and vomiting from two to six times a day, but after the first weeks use of Mi-o-na, the pain ceased and the vomiting stopped entirely. I have taken only six packages of these wonderful tablets, but my health is about restored and I firmly believe that Mi-o-na saved my life." S. Krumrine has local agents for Mi-o-na, which sells for 50 cents a box, and offer it under personal guarantee that if it does not cure the worst form of stomach trouble and resulting disorders, the money will be refunded. —We have our own Mince Meat now ready.
