

E. P. IRVIN. L. C. IRVIN.

THE RACKET

New Spring and Summer Goods.

WHITE GOODS, EMBROIDERIES

New White Goods for Spring and Summer; Cotton Goods, mercerized, some look almost like silk. Much finer and cheaper than last year.

Embroideries, new designs and patterns, 5c. to 50c. per yard.

All-over Embroideries for Corset Covers, 60c. $1, 1.25.

Ladies' Embroidered Collars, and Collars and Cuffs in sets, the newest and most up-to-date styles, 15c. to 50c.

You never get any old style Ladies' Neckwear here; only the newest and latest designs.

Racket Store Co.

Correspondents' Department :

Continued from 7th page.

TAYLOR TWP.

Sallie and Elizabeth Hoover, of Hannah, recently visited relatives in Altoona.

Many of our people are attending the revival meeting at Black Oak, which is being conducted by Rev. Free, of Port Matilda.

The oyster supper which the U. B. church held at the home of John Henderson was a very successful affair. A very large crowd attended and the church cleared over $25.

George Hoover, of Fillmore, visited relatives in this vicinity last Friday and Saturday.

Mary and Maude Erhard, of Unionville, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of John Henderson.

Sue Dixon, of Tyrone, transacted business at Hannah last Saturday.

Norton Dowling, of Sinking valley, visited at the home of Samuel Hoover last Sunday.

We are sorry to note the illness of John Shively; we hope for his speedy recovery.

Duey Cowher and son Levi, came home from Blandburg for a day or so.

MILES TWP.

WEST BRUSH VALLEY.

Israel Haugh, from Smulton, visited his brother Irvin Haugh, of this place.

Mrs. George Grenoble came home on Friday from a two weeks' visit with her mother in Lock Haven.

The quilting at Israel Rachau's on Friday was well attended.

Mrs. Scott Rachau and Mrs. Jacob Smith spent Friday with Mrs. George Grenoble.

Minnie Grenoble visited Elsie and Carrie Haugh, on Friday.

C. I. and G. E. Grenoble transacted business at Spring Mills, Wednesday.

At the home of Harry Haugh, Brushvalley, a very interesting party took place on Friday evening, in honor of their daughter Elsie, to celebrate her fifteenth birthday. Elsie was entertained by her sister Carrie and Thomas Taylor till her many friends had come to her home; when she heard them she hurried for the stairway but did not get far till they caught her: all were served with ice cream and cake, and she received many handsome presents, all wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Harry Haugh and wife visited their daughter, Mrs. Grove, on Sunday.

LEMONT.

The race that was held at the home of Wm. Houtz on Thursday night was largely attended.

Jane Holderman spent a couple of days at State College with her sister, Mrs. Bumgardner.

John Mitchell transacted business in Bellefonte, on Thursday.

Robert Evey's two daughters, Mary and Pearl, are ill with chicken-pox.

George Williams is visiting friends at DuBois.

Henry Evey and wife spent Friday at State College at the home of Ed. Houser.

Maude Mayes is spending a couple of days in Bellefonte.

Al Irwin and sister Sue, of Howard, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Elmer Ross.

The Ladies' Mite society of the Presbyterian church will hold a social at the home of William Thompson, on Thursday eve the 19; everyone is invited to attend.

MOSHANNON.

Mrs. C. R. Crownover spent a few days in Bellefonte last week.

Miss Amanda Lucas, who is employed in the Altoona silk mills, is spending some time at home.

Michael Gleason, of Houtzdale, is spending some time with his parents.

Coasting is fine, and seems to be the principal occupation here. "That's right boys."

Mrs. Mollie Rankin has taken her departure for Clearfield, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Alex. Black.

The Presbyterian and M. E. Christian Endeavor Society is progressing rapidly, there being nearly fifty members on roll.

Miss Ethel Barnes, of Karthaus, visited at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Williamson.

POTTER TWP.

Miss Sallie Wright, of Spring Mills, visited her brother Samuel of Yeagertown. Miss Wright reported having a nice time.

Miss Carolina McCloskey after visiting the Western states, returned to her home at Potters Mills.

PLUM GROVE.

Mrs. Geo. Brian returned home after spending a week with her parents in Deckerville.

Mrs. Mary Carper, of Linden Hall, is at present staying with her daughter Mrs. Zeigler.

Wm. Keller and Geo. Sharer took a sleigh ride on Sunday; that was right boys, you can't go in the sleigh next summer.

Miss Sarah Keen, who is working at the home of N. B. Schaffer, went to Coburn on Saturday where she will spend a few days with her parents.

Mary Keller and mother Mrs. Heckman, took a sleigh ride on Sunday.

Mrs. Eliza Stump and daughter Annie spent last Thursday at the home of Geo. Koch.

Ben Wingard, of Coburn, spent last Tuesday at the home of P. A. Auman's.

Sidney Poorman and wife attended the Odd Fellow banquet at Boalsburg last Thursday night.

The popcorn was all right on Sunday, just ask Philip about it.

Quite a number of folks attended preaching services week of prayer at Centre Hall.

J. Ziegler and son Charley, from Pleasant Gap, Mr. Lingle and wife, from Old Fort, also Prudence Swartz, spent Monday of last week at the home of Nathaniel Ziegler and family.

Calvin Swartz, of Smithtown, spent Tuesday with his brother W. H. Swartz.

Harry Dinges and family, of Centre Hall, also Maggie Kuhn all called at the home of W. H. Swartz and family.

Mrs. Rudy Gingerich is reported on the sick list.

W. H. Swartz expects to move to Northumberland county, he expects to have sale in the near future.

FRUITTOWN.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of Jacob Royer, were: David Bohn and family and Calvin Cooney and family.

Charley Bodtorf, Yeagertown, spent several days last week visiting friends and relatives here.

Quite a number of people from Fruit-town and Colyer attended the protracted meeting at Sprucetown on Sunday evening, which is still in progress.

Daniel Royer, wife and two sons, Domer and John, and Wm. Long and wife, from Milroy, spent Sunday very pleasantly at the home of Susan Stover.

Edward Bubb spent Sunday with friends at Pine Grove Mills.

Quite a number attended the I. O. O. F. banquet at Boalsburg.

Susan Stover left on Sunday for Milroy where she expects to spend the rest of the winter.

Charley Stover and wife passed through town on Sunday.

FRUITTOWN, NO. 2.

Blanche Philips and Eva Bubb returned home after spending a few weeks at St. Louis.

Ella Philips and her friend Vera Beaver, from Milroy, spent Sunday at her home.

Bessie Cooney came home to stay.

W. M. Moyer and Arthur Holderman are making their trip to Millintown.

Albert Kliefelder and Frank Philips spent a few days at Burnham and Millintown.

EARLYSTOWN.

Herman J. Royer and Roy T. Stover left Thursday for Burnham where they are employed.

Sara, daughter of Harry Frantz, is one of the many who are on the sick list.

Geo. Bradford and wife visited friends at Pine Grove Mills, Saturday.

Mrs. D. L. Bartges will leave for Johnstown in the near future where she will spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Reiber.

Miss Mamie Kline accompanied by her friend Maurice, was around delivering her goods.

Mrs. Alvin Meyer and son Harold arrived from Altoona on Saturday to spend some time with her parents, Geo. Stover's at this place.

Miss Mary Fetteroff, one of Centre Hall's accomplished young ladies, spent Saturday and Sunday with her friend Rosa Taylor, at this place.

Miss Jane Sylvison, who for the past two weeks was visiting at Geo. Bradford's, left Saturday for home at Aaronburg.

WALKER.

Prof. Meyers is conducting a large singing class in the Reformed church at Jacksonville.

The members of the United Evan. church of Jacksonville, will hold a chicken and waffle supper at the home of Mrs. Barbara Condo above Jacksonville, on Saturday, eve, Jan. 21.

Married:—at Baltimore, Md., by Rev. Spangler, Kate Condo and John Smith, both, of Walker. We extend our congratulations.

A new blacksmith shop will be built in our town in the near future.

CENTRE HALL.

Our excellent citizen, Wm. Sholl, who for many months has been confined to his home, is now bedfast. He will quit farming and make sale of his farm stock.

Mrs. Ellen Bradford has been on the sick list.

John McClellan left on Monday for Karthaus where he will have charge of a lumber team.

D. F. Luse was in Bellefonte Tuesday in the interest of the foundry, which is now the live industry of this section.

FERGUSON TWP.

Frank Fisher has returned to school at Gettysburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beck, son Hugh, and Mrs. Hannah Burchfield returned after a visit with relatives in Altoona.

Mrs. Haze Willis is on the sick list.

There was Local Institute held at Warriorsmark, in the Grange Hall, Jan. 14.

GREGG TWP.

CONFREVALLEY.

Dr. Frank is called pretty often to this valley.

Mrs. Lydie Immiel fell on Saturday noon and broke her arm.

Coon Auman is very ill.

William Krisher cut his foot pretty badly one day last week.

Henry Zerby made a flying trip to Plum Grove one day last week.

Mrs. Lydie Bryan and little son Morris were visiting friends and relations in this valley.

Frank Lingle returned home from work and says its too cold to work in the woods.

James Zerby and father are getting out props.

Jim Leitzell, the medicine peddler, made a trip through this valley.

Dannie P. Weaver moved to the home with Mrs. Elizabeth Zettle one day last week.

Wm. Lingle and wife were the guests of Conrad Auman's on Sunday.

John Galer is able to be out again.

Mrs. Mary Poorman had a very small school last week on account of sickness.

Henry Stoner and Howard Lingle, from Tusseyville, made a trip to Poevalley.

Susan Snavely, from Tattletown, made a flying trip through this valley.

SOBER.

C. K. Sober, of Lewisburg, was a caller at this place last week.

David Neese is still on the sick list.

Miss Bertha Steiger expects to go away to work in Millin county soon.

W. M. Auman came home on a visit last Saturday.

J. P. Wolf, the merchant of Spruce, was seen in town on business.

U. G. Auman is taking out laggins.

Ezra Confer went back to Yarnell to work on the stove mill.

The oyster party at H. V. Gentzel's last Saturday night, was not largely attended.

Alice Heckman was a visitor at U. G. Auman's.

D. Breen expects to move soon to the lower end of the valley.

Mrs. Johanna Gentzel and daughter Dora were at Millheim, Saturday.

Miss Sadie Breen made a call at D. D. Breen's.

Misses Tona Wolf and Lottie Winkleblich were callers with Lizzie Wolf and her sister Furl; the evening was spent with music.

Mrs. Alice Delong and husband, of Milroy, are visiting at Saul Lingle's.

Mrs. Howard Eisenhuth, of Renova, is visiting her parents.

Miss Lydia Gentzel went to Beech Creek to work for Millers.

We saw in Brushvalley items that Col. Decker was over there looking after his gas machine.

Alfred Ebert, Loyd Smith, Daniel Smith and Myles Barger were to Woodward on Monday evening.

BEAVER DAM.

Chas. Lingle and wife started on Thursday on their honeymoon trip to the eastern part of the county.

Wonder where the Buzzard's Glory

CONFERVALLEY.

The visitors at Wm. Zerby's on Sunday were Harvey Bailey and family, John Zerby and family, William Lingle and family, Wallace Bartges and Ohas. Zerby and George Sittler.

Daniel Ripka had his family out sleighing on Sunday.

Wonder how the gas man is getting along by this time.

GEORGEVALLEY.

Chas. Lingle went to Aaronburg to spend a few weeks with his father-in-law, Geo. Winkleblich.

If there's anyone who wants to rent a house call at W. P. Lingle's.

Elmer Ripka our clock fixer and bicycle repairer is on the sick list.

Rumor says there will soon be another wedding in our town; how about it Eddie?

James Zerby our up-to-date jeweler says he is going to buy lumber to build a jewelry store at Coopertown; he says it will be a mansion of a story and a half high; we all wish him success.

TATLETOWN.

Sadie Weaver, who has been working at Madisonburg, has returned home.

Irvin D. Gangler, of Northumberland, spent a few days with his lady friend.

Mrs. Wm. Musser is ill with rheumatism.

The young boys and girls of our community were out coasting on Sunday and all reported a good time.

Look for a wedding in the near future.

Mrs. Henry Snavely visited at the home of T. B. Motz, on Sunday.

Christie Steiger spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. B. F. Shaffer.

D. L. Kerstetter returned to Millintown, on Monday, after spending a few weeks with his family.

Miss Susie E. Snavely visited at the home of her friend, Annie Kerstetter, on Sunday evening.

FARMERS MILLS.

Weather is cold and sledding is good.

Samuel Frederick delivered four loads of flour and feed last week.

J. H. Rishel and wife were guests at Wm. Myer's at Centre Hall on Sunday.

Elmer Rossman was the guest at Samuel Frederick's, Sunday.

Coasting is all the go in our town.

Harry Hagan, of Bellefonte, was home on Sunday.

SUGAR VALLEY.

In looking over the births and deaths, it was discovered that in Greene township there wasn't a death under 65 years during the last year. The deaths range from 65 to 79 years.

Franklin Beck, of Carrol, died Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after a lingering illness, aged 59 years. He is survived by his wife, one son, Elmer, who is in the Philippines, and three daughters, Ida, wife of Ambrose Douty, of Madisonburg; Vernie, now Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Harry Douty, of Wolfe's Store, Centre county.

"Rags to Riches," will be the attraction at the opera house next Wednesday evening, 25th.

—Vote for your favorite teacher.

LINDEN HALL.

Cal. Wiland, wife and two sons spent Sunday with F. E. Wieland's.

Mrs. Agnes Meyer spent last Saturday at Centre Hall as the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Weber.

Miss Ella Witmer is here on a few months' visit to her sister Mrs. John Bohn.

Mrs. Drucilla Hess has gone to spend the winter in Onoccola, the guest of Thos. Himes; Mrs. Hess returned to her home on Thursday after a few weeks visit in Elkins, W. Va., with her grand-daughter Mrs. Geo. M. Hall, and with friends in Huntingdon.

Mrs. William Catherman and daughter Eva spent Saturday at Centre Hall.

Farmers are taking ice off the mill dam this week and it seems to be very nice.

Miss Anna Ross entertained a few friends on Friday night.

Mrs. S. E. Goss and son Curt, of Bellefonte, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Ross.

Quite a few people from here attended the I. O. O. F. banquet at Boalsburg on the evening of Jan. 12.

Miss Sadie Lee, of Tusseyville, visited her sister Mrs. P. C. Bradford last week.

MISS SADIE GOSS, of Pine Grove, visited her friend Ella Ross a few days last week.

Carl Bradford son of P. C. Bradford is ill.

Mrs. Harriet Long, of Spring Mills, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. C. McClellan.

PINE GLENN.

Director John Fye entertained Laurel Run school with his new phonograph on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. G. R. Boak spent Monday with friends in Munson.

Rev. Watts has been successfully conducting revival services in the M. E. church of this place, for the past two weeks.

W. C. Snyder and wife, of Snow Shoe, were callers at the home of G. R. Boak one day last week.

Sleighting is fine at the present time.

Boston Daugherty, of Spruce Run, was a Pine Glenn visitor on Saturday.

John Bows and Oscar Fye spent Sunday at home.

No teacher has yet been secured for Star school, the former teacher having resigned.

Messrs. George and Lloyd Daugherty were Snow Shoe visitors on Sunday.

WHERE DO YOU BUY SCHOOL SHOES?

Are you satisfied that they are as good as can be gotten for your money? If you are not, here's where we can serve you. We know just how strong School Shoes should be. Just how flexible—just what lasts and widths must be carried in stock in order to fit the feet properly; and we figure so close on prices, that our School Shoes cost no more than poor ones. Bring in the Boys and Girls for their School Shoes. You take no risk—your money back if anything goes wrong. $1, 1.25, 1.50 and 1.75.

A. C. MINGLE, THE SHOE MAN.

It is Not What You Make, but What You Save That Makes You Rich.

A GENERAL WIND-UP

OF OUR GREAT WATER DAMAGE SALE

Two weeks ago this Sale started. Ask your neighbor what kind of Bargains she found here. COME NOW TO THE GENERAL WIND-UP. We've more bargains to offer you—some that you've never seen before.

READ! READ! READ!

Sheets 59c. each for Sheets 81x90 inches; regular 75 cent values.	Pillow Cases 12½c. each for Pillow Cases 45x36 inches; regular 18c. values.	Crochet Bed Spreads Good quality, hemmed, good designs; value $1.50, sale price 98c.	Crochet Bed Spreads Good quality, hemmed, good designs; value 95c., sale price 59c.
Women's 12½c. Handkerchiefs 7½c. A jobber sends us a lot of perfectly fresh 12½c. handkerchiefs. Some neatly embroidered and hemstitched, which, while the lot lasts, we will sell at 7½c.	All-wool Brussels Carpet at 49c. Yard Our Annual January Sale of Carpets, beginning to-morrow, provides without any question the greatest values in best wearing Carpets ever made. Think of buying all-wool Brussels for 49c., Hartford all-wool Ingrains for 50c., Best Axminster for 90c., and so on. We are not going into lengthy details, because you know what these Carpets are. If you have any immediate or future needs, we guarantee the prices to be lower than any for months to come. Hartford Best All-wool Ingrains: extra superfine; 70c. quality 59c. All-wool Brussels; fine selection of patterns; the 60c. quality 49c. Alex. Smith & Sons' and Lowell Axminster; 81.25 and $1.50 quality 98c.	American Beauty Corsets. The best Corset made; retail price 50c., 75c. and $1; a limited number go on sale at 39c.	Ladies' Corset Covers. No skimp but all blouse effects, values 35c. to 50c., sale price 23c.
Ladies' Skirts Full widths, deep flounces, all lengths; values 69c. to 89c., sale price 49c.	Ladies' & Children's Stockings Regular 15c. grade, never before sold under 2 pair for 25c., now per pair 9c.	Children's Ribbed Underwear In sizes 16 to 24, regular price 25c. a garment, sale price 9c.	Ladies' Flannelette Wrappers. Values from $1.25 to 1.75, sale price 79c.
Bleach'd Table Linen Regular values 35 and 45c. a yard, full width, handsome designs, per yd. 25c.	Ladies' Drawers Neatly tucked or trimmed with lace or embroidery, value 39c., sale price 25c.	Silkalene. This season's importation; regular value 12½c., sale price 7c.	Yd-wide Sheetting, Lansdowne and Dictaton LL, full 36 in. wide, value 8c., now per yd. 5½c.

See our immense Stock of Ladies' Fur Scarfs being slaughtered without regard to cost.

KATZ & CO.,
Makers of Low Prices and Terrors to All Competitors. The Store that Solicits Your Trade.

We sell you Ladies' and Children's Coats at Your Own Figures before we carry any over.