

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

"Waifs of the Sieras" at the opera house to-night. -Wm. Johnston, of Pleasant Gap, always pleasant, was a caller. -D. W. Miller and wife, of Pinegrove, favored the Democrat sanctum with a call, while shopping in town. -D. C. Lingle, juror of Gregg, gave us a call and also favored us with a few samples of fine apples he raises. -Gertrude Confer, one of Yarnell's most amiable young ladies, pleased us with a call which dare be repeated often. -Miss Rose Hoover and her brother Phil, of Port Matilda, were pleasant callers to illumine our sanctum, on Saturday. -Boro. politics is gradually warming up. The republican primaries on Saturday evening promise to be intensely interesting. -Clayton Corl, of Penn'a Furnace, was a business caller in our sanctum, and is one of those persons whom it is a pleasure to meet. -There are no new smallpox cases over the county. The epidemic at Milesburg and Roland is practically stamped out. -Mrs. Wilson Romig, daughter of the late A. V. Hamilton, left last week for Kansas where she will visit her husband's relatives. -A progressive euchre will be held in St. John's hall, this place on Tuesday evening January 31st. All are cordially invited to attend. -Merchant John W. Harter, one of Rebersburg's most pleasant citizens, favored our sanctum with a call, having been a juror this week. -Richard Bartlett had the middle finger of his left hand cut off by a car door catching it. The accident happened last week at Coleville. -John Allen Wood, a son of Rev. J. A. Wood, Jr., has gone to Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he will take a course in Bastman's Business College. -E. B. Poorman and wife, of Zion, were among the welcome callers upon the Democrat, and took interest in seeing how work was done in an up-to-date printing office. -Friday evening there was an informal reception at the home of Mrs. D. H. Hastings, in order to celebrate the 81st birthday anniversary of Mrs. Rankin, who makes her home there with her daughter. -A. H. Spayd and wife, of Habelsburg, gave the Democrat a business call, and Mrs. Spayd embraced the opportunity to get an insight into the manner of doing work in a printing office. -We were pleased to have a call from two of Liberty township's school directors, Wm. Batchlet, president of the board, and G. W. Eaton, secretary of the board, both taking a deep interest in the common school cause. -Friday evening the hardware firm of Potter & Hoy banqueted their employees at Cender's. This is an annual event with the firm and proves a delightful affair. Thirty sat down to the feast, after which there was a flow of eloquence becoming the occasion. -A new orchestra with Henry J. Dickinson first violin, Samuel Bryan cornet, Lewis Hill clarinet, Chas. Cruse piano, with drums as yet unsupplied has been organized in town. Are prepared for engagements for dances, receptions, and all other functions. -On account of the fine skating at Hecla Park the Central R. R. of Pa. will, commencing at once and until further notice, sell special excursion tickets from Bellefonte to Hecla Park and return for parties of 10 or more persons at rate of 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. -H. A. Confer, of Marion township, was in town on Saturday with his face covered with adhesive plaster and a number of teeth missing. He sustained his injuries while working on a telephone pole, a pike handle slipped and struck him in the face, knocking him out for a brief time. -A quartet of the most handsome young ladies of Miles township, pretty enough, to be queens, gladdened our sanctum with a call. They were, the Misses Celia and Mabel Brungart, of Wolfs Store, Mayme Wolf, of Smulton, and Mary Meyer, of Rebersburg. Call often as you wish, ladies. -On Tuesday of last week, Joseph Katz & Co., dealers in clothing, began business in Lewistown, Pa. The head of this clothing firm was one of Bellefonte's prominent young business men, being a son of A. Katz and for some years was associated in the firm of Katz & Co., one of the largest dry goods stores of Bellefonte. "Joe," as he is familiarly known, is a hustling business man, who grew up under good direction. His genial and pleasant manner won him many friends in Bellefonte, all of whom are sorry to hear of his departure. We can most heartily commend him to the people of Lewistown as an excellent young man, who is honorable and manly in his deportment, and worthy of the highest confidence. That he will succeed we will feel assured, for he will merit it, the same as Katz & Co. have done in Centre county.

-Mrs. Isaac Miller, of East High St., is on the sick list. -L. P. Kornman, juror from Coburn, was a pleasant caller. -The Chicago Lady Entertainers, Petriken Hall, Friday evening. -Gentle, the horse dealer, is arranging for another sale at Millheim. -Miss Jennie Noonan, niece of James Noonan, left on Monday for Los Angeles, Cal. -H. K. Small, of Smulton, was a business caller and reports all O. K. down there. -Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Rankin, of Harrisburg, were in Bellefonte for several days past. -Mrs. Gotlieb Haag has been quite ill the past week, and her condition is not very hopeful. -"Waifs of the Sieras" at the opera house to-night. It is a western comedy drama in four acts. -Ira C. Ohl, of Nittany, attended Directors' convention and gave the Democrat sanctum a call. -The public roads in this county have been fine since fall for sleighs and wagons, and are yet thus. -Mrs. Frank Montgomery returned home on Saturday evening, from an extended visit in Philadelphia. -Mrs. Dan'l Eberhart, of East High street, is improving somewhat from her illness of the past three months. -Manager Garman insists that "The Minister's Sweethearts" will be a strong attraction next Wednesday evening. -The Chicago Lady Entertainers' at Petriken Hall, on Friday evening. This will be a first class attraction, fit for anyone to attend. -"The Minister's Sweethearts" will be the attraction at the opera house next Wednesday night. The play is breaking house records everywhere. -J. W. Gunsallus, of Nittany, favored our sanctum with a call. He informs us the Weaver hunters a few days ago killed a she bear and two large cubs. -Mrs. William Jones, of East High street, had a slight stroke of paralysis Sunday evening at 5 o'clock. She is reported as improving this morning. -Maurice Jackson, the deer slayer, has entered the political arena and will be an aspirant for borough auditor, hoping to win the republican nomination at the primaries on Saturday evening. -Tickets are now on sale at Sheffer's store for the "Chicago Lady Entertainers," the next entertainment in Petriken Hall, on Friday evening. General admission 50 cents, reserved seats 15 cents extra. -Plumbers have been at work putting pipes into the Y. M. C. A. building now in the course of erection, and it will soon be warmed by the town plant, and enables mechanics to go ahead with the work. -We had the pleasure of taking by the hand a few days ago, two of Centre county's most esteemed citizens, ex-sheriff B. F. Shaeffer, and ex-commissioner Geo. Swabb, both looking in good health. -Sam'l Kreamer, Jr., and Jacob Harter, jurors of Haines, gave us a call, report grain fields promising down there, which is the usual good luck of those farmers. Although Sam'l Kreamer was born in Haines township, this is his first appearance in Bellefonte. -Samuel Diehl, the republican Boro Overseer of the Poor, has an advertisement in this issue of the Centre Democrat setting forth what he has done for the taxpayers of Bellefonte, by way of economical management in that department. He certainly is entitled to a hearing. -Lumberman A. R. McNitt, who had his leg broken while at the operation in Nittany valley, was brought to the Bellefonte hospital last week so that he may have the best attention. His injuries have caused him much suffering and it is thought the change will prove for the better. -Dr. James Hosterman favored our sanctum with a call. The doctor sold out his medical practice in the western part of the state and is putting in a vacation at the home of his parents, A. P. Hosterman's at Centre Hill. We are pleased to note that the doctor is enjoying the best of health. -We repeat again: Correspondents and others will please omit sending us the names of scholars attending schools, for publication. There being upwards of 300 schools in the county it would take several copies of the paper to print such lists and to the exclusion of matter more interesting to the reader. -Frank Williams, the electrician, stopped long enough to inform us the other evening, that he would be a candidate for the nomination of Boro Overseer of the Poor, at the republican primaries on Saturday. With Sam Diehl for a nomination, and Geo. Smith after the same office some lively politics can be expected Saturday evening. If Frank Williams can pull as many wires for himself as he generally does for others he will throw a lot of dust in some people's eyes on this trip.

-A. P. Zerby, of Gregg, favored our sanctum with a half hour's call. -Our old friend, J. B. Moore, of Centre Hall, gave our sanctum a call. -Evelyn Gill and brother Forest, of Unionville, were pleasant callers. -James E. Solt, the shoemaker, fell and dislocated his wrist and is unable to work. -Isaac Underwood is a candidate for Borough Auditor on the republican ticket. -January term of court lasted but a day and a half under the new court—not so expensive, is it? -Captain Amos Mullen, of the Bellefonte police, force was stricken Wednesday morning with paralysis. -McClellan Gramley and Charles Small, also constable R. C. Diehl, all of Rebersburg, were business callers. -Wm. Carlin, of Rebersburg, was a caller on Monday and thinks of again entering the race for the nomination of county treasurer. -Conductor John Hall, of the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, was called to Atlantic City, Tuesday evening by the serious illness of Mrs. Hall. -General and Mrs. James A. Beaver departed for Pasadena, Cal., where they will remain for five or six weeks visiting Mrs. Beaver's sister, Mrs. Thomas R. Hayes. -Last week some of our machinery broke down at the hour of going to press and the Gazette press room was at our service to get the paper out, for all of which we were grateful. -Wm. Frank and Ed. Jones, two strenuous young democrats of Philipsburg, unloaded some of their boodle on us while in town attending court. They had a hand in it too last fall. -A report has been in print that the Washburn railroad had purchased the Huntington & Broadtop line, and would extend their line eastward through Penn's valley. Railroad people in Bellefonte are unable to give any information on this point, knowing nothing of it. -Prof. Blair, of Millheimburg, did some fine singing in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and in the Episcopal church in the evening. The professor is a noted musical instructor, having taught the science in a number of localities in this county within the past few years. -There was no large attendance at court this week—the foolishness of lawing is gradually drawing to a low ebb in this county. Under the new officials, Judge Orvis, Prothonotary Kimpfort and District Attorney Runkle, the court runs without friction and the people seem pleased. -Judge Mayer, of Lock Haven, was in town on Friday and presided in the hearing of the Craig litigants from Julian. It is twenty-three years since Judge Mayer officiated in our courts, and now is filling his fourth term on the bench in Clinton county, and is quite frisky yet. -The contest for the premium books to the school teachers receiving the highest number of votes, opened briskly from the start, and is proof that the Centre county teachers stand in high favor with the public. The ballot published in the Democrat each week during the contest will show "which way the wind is blowing." -Among our callers on Monday was E. M. Boone, of Feidler, Pa., who is now preparing to make sale at that place, and in March, with his family will move to Scotland, S. D., where he has rented a 300-acre farm. Mr. Boone is said to have the finest lot of live stock that will be offered at a public sale this year. All is in fine condition and well bred. His line of implements are the latest and best. His advertisement appears in another column of this issue. -Services of a nature varied from the usual were held in the Lutheran church of this place last Sabbath. The pastor having resigned the congregation assembled as before, and after close of the Sabbath school in the forenoon, a service of song, prayer, scripture readings and remarks filled the regular morning hour under good attendance to the edification of the audience. The same was the program for the evening service, in connection with the Luther League. This course will be pursued each Sabbath as long as the pulpit may be without a pastor, the council naming the leaders for each service. The hour for Sabbath school has been changed from 9:30 to 10 a. m., and the song, prayer and scripture service. The League will meet at the usual hour in the evening, and the general service begins at 7:30 p. m. -T. M. Gramley recently bought the Shook Brothers' interest in the Spring Mills creamery, and has now become sole owner of the plant. -The great revival at Fairview United Evangelical church closed Monday evening. The meeting was in progress nine weeks, with crowded houses. Resulted in 50 conversions and 44 united with the church. Meeting is now in progress at Howard. -P. E. Hicks, of Benore, met with quite a painful accident while testing his new gun. The barrel of this one is short, while the other one was long. Forgetting the difference between the two guns, he allowed his hand to come too near the muzzle and shot a hole through his forefinger.

GATHERED OVER THE COUNTY.
A. N. Finkle purchased the Evans' homestead, near Spring Mills, paying $7,000 for it.
Communion next Sunday morning at Zion Lutheran church, Rev. Fleck, the new pastor, will officiate.
Ben. Meek, one of the proprietors of the State College drug store, sold his interest to his brother, H. D. Meek.
Mrs. J. H. Reifsnyder, of Millheim, is seriously ill with rheumatism at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Burd, at Philadelphia.
Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Shirley departed from Unionville for their new home in Arkansas City, Ark., where Mr. Shirley holds a good position.
Curtin station, on the Bald Eagle valley railroad, was opened for all kinds of traffic last week. The smallpox epidemic is completely under control.
H. W. Hafer, of White Deer, has leased the Coburn hotel and will take possession April 1st. The retiring landlord, Mr. Eckert, will move to Woodward.
Mrs. Phoebe Brown, of Philipsburg, has been granted a pension of $8 per month, and also the accrued pension of her late husband up to the time of his death.
Marian Myers of the Branch, who has secured a good business education by attendance at the Bellefonte Academy, began duty as clerk in the First National Bank of State College.
A successful revival has been in progress at the Forge church, near the furnace, the past week, under the direction of Rev. J. K. Mumba, of Runville, who is an able sermoneer.
From the Democrat's sale register it will be seen that public sales in all parts of the county will be plenty. We have account of over sixty sales between this and April 1. In all at least seventy.
George W. Kline and father, John Kline, of Oak Hall, have leased the flouring mill of J. K. Moyer, at Spring Bank, between Millheim and Rebersburg, and will take possession in the spring.
The grain fields over the county do not show well since the snow has disappeared. The low places are covered with ice from water gathered during the thaw and that will not better the condition.
Amos Koch, of Pennsylvania Furnace, next spring will become a resident of Harris township after living in Ferguson township for a period of eleven years. He will move to the Mertz farm, about three miles west of Boalsburg.
Feidler village is to have another store. The grange store will be moved from its present location to near the creamery. There will also be another blacksmith shop started soon. Feidler is no back number by any means; business is booming.
A sharp swindler who advertises to send a "recipe for $3 which if followed strictly will positively prevent one from growing old." The receipt says "We would advise all fools such as you, to commit suicide at about the age of twenty-five."
John Confer, a son of P. F. Confer, of Millheim, while cutting wood on Brush mountain, cut a terrible gash in his right foot, with an axe. He was brought from the mountain as soon as possible. It took four stitches to draw the wound together. The cut is directly over the ankle.
The ground hog is due to come out on Feb. 7. If he sees his shadow he will scuttle back in his hole. Six weeks of cold weather will follow. If the skies are overcast the woodchuck will remain out to frisk about. According to tradition, the weather during the ensuing forty days will be moderate.
"The Pharosians," an organization of students at State College, will give an entertainment in the town hall at Boalsburg, on Wednesday evening, February 15th. The program will contain some choice musical selections and a play entitled "Conductor's Troubles." Proceeds benefit of the Macabees, recently organized at that place.
Two young men from Harrisburg, who were putting out poison on the State's land near old Monroe Furnace, were arrested and taken to Huntingdon, the county seat, to obtain bail. It is claimed that they put poison on lands belonging to several of the farmers and several dogs were poisoned. It seems as if there was going to be trouble in consequence.
A. C. Millward, of this place has received his commission as special Fish Warden, for Centre, Clearfield and Cambria counties, by Commissioner of Fisheries, W. Meehan, dating from Jan. 16. Andy is the right person for the job and will do his duties to the best of his ability, and we congratulate him on the appointment. Law abiding citizens need have no fear of him.—Philipsburg Journal.
A party of young people from Hunters Park spent an evening of last week very pleasantly with Miss Clara Gentsel near Zion, among the number being the Misses Nancy Henderson, Anna Treaster, Eva Bathgate, Bertha Johnston, Bertha Henderson, Nettie Lutz, Nellie Marshall, Mary Bodie, Eva Marshall and Carrie Miller, of Bellefonte; Messrs. Boyd Tressler, Oliver Whitmer, Harry Roan, Andrew Shively, Percy Woerner, Samuel Tressler, John Fannon, Harry Smeltzer, William Whitmer, Harry Woerner and Robert Tressler. All report having a very delightful time.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.
by total applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed it becomes swollen and its normal function is lost, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give one Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Hunters License.
The Schuylkill county sportsmen have prepared a bill that is likely to receive favorable consideration by the present legislature. It provides that every person in the state who wants to hunt must take out an annual license to the county treasurer of $1.00, 25 per cent. of which shall go to the county for game and 75 per cent. to wardens for the protection of game and fish. Bounties to be paid on animals that are destructive to game. Unnaturalized foreigners to be prohibited from hunting.

OF INTEREST TO TAXPAYERS.
TO THE EDITOR OF THE DEMOCRAT:
I am a candidate for the office of Overseer of the Poor to succeed myself and I ask the use of your paper to let the taxpayers know why I want this office again.
For the years ending in March of 1899 and 1900 the tax rate was 5 mills on the dollar and the debt of the poor department in 1900 about $1375. In 1901 the rate was reduced to 4 mills and during my first term, the year ending in March 1902, with 4 mills of a tax rate I had over $1000 of cash on hand and less than $500 of debt.
In the following year we reduced the rate to 3 mills and for the past three years have kept it there; and the last auditors' statement will show about $161 of debt with over $2000 of cash assets in the hands of the collectors.
I am able to give practically all my time to the care of the poor and I feel that I have accomplished some saving for the taxpayers of whom I am one. Mr. Love, the other overseer, and myself have certain plans which we feel will still further reduce the cost of caring for the poor of this town, and I want another term to see these plans carried out. A new man, who is not familiar with running the poor department, will cost the tax payers more money to learn the business than it would if they will re-elect me to the position.
Following are the figures taken from the auditors' statements since 1896, viz:
Year Cash on Hand Debt
End'g Millage Receipts Paid
1899 5 $700.72 $161.50 $257.80
1900 5 743.45 none 124.47
1901 4 516.27 566.44 178.95
1902 4 670.11 1241.79 485.30
1903 3 976.27 496.43 188.85
1904 3 618.60 none 61.13
As one mill of tax should bring at least $1500 into the hands of the overseers, I feel that I have saved the tax payers $4500, during the last three years, and I want them to give me a chance to save them some money.
S. H. DIEHL.
