

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

Our public sale register will be found on page 2 of this issue. The Lincoln Day exercises at State College was pronounced a grand fizzle by nearly all who went up there on Monday. Mrs. Louisa Hoy was taken seriously ill on Sunday while visiting at the residence of her son-in-law, Col. W. Fred Reynolds. Mrs. Joseph W. Rightmire is lying very low at her home on east Howard street, a sufferer with that dread disease, consumption. Mildred Gillum, the noted reader, will give a reading in the Lutheran church of Bellefonte on Monday evening, February 27th. Hon. Charles Emory Smith, of the Philadelphia Press, will attend the coming Centennial celebration at the Bellefonte Academy in June. Samuel Stover, of Altoona, formerly of this town, is visiting friends here and vicinity. He has charge of material in one of the P. R. R. shops. The Bellefonte Choral society will give a delightful entertainment in Peterkin Hall Thursday evening for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. James Lose has retired from the cigar store in the Bush house block and George Eckley has taken his place. The firm is now Rearick & Eckley. Some farmers in this county are making complaints of scarcity of water, cisterns being empty and wells getting low, making it necessary to haul water. Archie Davidson, who is clerking in a store at Curwensville, was home over Sunday; his mother has been confined to her bed for the past three weeks by illness. In some parts of the town the thermometer was 12 degrees below zero on Tuesday morning. It was a cooler, enough to nip the aspirations of local candidates. Major Frank Waite, of Buffalo, Division officer of the Salvation Army, is in Bellefonte and had charge of the meeting in the Salvation army hall on Tuesday evening. Matthew Dooley, bookkeeper for the Fuel & Supply Co., left Friday afternoon to visit friends in Baltimore. When he gets back there will be some more fun. Dooley is a sly one. The engagement of Miss Leah Mildred Dagget, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Wells Dagget, of the Bush House, to Maynard H. Murch, of Cleveland, Ohio, has been announced. Divine services will be held in the Lutheran church of this place next Sabbath, 19, morning and evening. Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Centre Hall, will fill the pulpit for that Sabbath. Miss Blanche F. Jacobs departed Tuesday for Philipsburg to attend the Mid-Winter dance held there. While in Philipsburg Miss Jacobs will be entertained by Miss Maude Moore. The Parish Priest drew a large house on Monday night and the Logan Fire Company realized a nice benefit. The company was royally entertained at the company's house, after the play. Our whilom townsman, Charles McCafferty, absent most of his time in Philadelphia, and now in Jersey, paid our town one of his accustomed visits, looking hale and hearty and finding much friendly handshaking to do. Thomas Donachy, the janitor at the court house, was called to Linden, Pa., by the death of his brother Jeremiah Donachy on last Friday. He was aged 86 years and for a long time had been a justice of the peace at that place. Joseph Runkle, the plumber, has purchased the Runkle home on East High street now occupied by T. J. Murphy and will move there from Curtin street in the spring. Mr. Murphy will move to the Schrom house on East Lamb street. Newton S. Bailey, who was the collector of the Bellefonte Gazette for a number of years, has entered the ministry of the United Brethren denomination and has been appointed to a charge in a mining community in Cambria county. Mrs. Catharine Haupt, widow of the late Isaac Haupt, had the misfortune to fall down a couple steps last week while going from the bath room to her bed room, fracturing the ankle bone. Mrs. Haupt is enfeebled with age and fast-failing eyesight. Mrs. Web Kerstetter, of Curwensville, and three children are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Furey, of near Bellefonte. Miss Margaret Furey, who had been making an extended visit to friends in California, has also returned to Bellefonte. The Bellefonte Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution met at the residence of Mrs. D. H. Hastings on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Keller read an interesting and thoughtful paper. Mrs. Evelyn Rogers was elected as delegate to represent the Chapter at the annual meeting at Washington, D. C. The National D. A. R. will build a Continental Hall in Philadelphia and the local chapter voted to contribute $50 toward the enterprise.

David Vonada and H. W. Rote, of Gregg twp., were callers in the Democrat sanctum. Miss Floyd Sanderson and Miss Erhard, of Fleming, were pleasant callers in our sanctum. Lew Daggett is home from Baltimore for a short vacation as he had been ill for a week or more while attending school. Misses Anna J. and Caroline M. Valentine left Monday morning for Camden, North Carolina, for a several weeks' visit. W. C. Kremer, of Milesburg, who holds a good position in the Berwick, Pa., car shops, is home this week on a short vacation. That institution has plenty of work. The list of liquor license applications will be found in this issue, as filed in the prothonotary's office. There are 47 in the list of which number 8 are for new places. Perry Breon, tenant on the Gilliland farm near Centre Hill, gave us a call. Perry is one of those ever pleasant fellows—always in the best of humor, and a straight man too. There were a number of additions to our sale register the past week, and every day our presses are turning out large attractive bills. Farmers know that it pays to thoroughly advertise their sales. O. C. Gates, of Galeton, Pa., one of our continual readers, was in town on Monday. He reports business booming at that place, the chief industry being lumber, which is conducted on a large scale. On Monday a lot of disorderly college students caused a row on the Bellefonte Central R. R. Windows in the car were smashed and other damages done. By paying a $1 a piece they escaped arrest. Every generous man in Bellefonte who can possibly spare a dollar should cheerfully contribute to the fund for improving and beautifying the Academy grounds. The place should be an ornament to our town, instead of an uninviting eyesore. The great demand for advertising space and other matter unavoidable, again obliges us to cut down correspondence somewhat. When the rush is over we can find more space. We ask indulgence even though it cause tears as large as Sober's chestnuts. Mrs. Frank Davis, of East Logan street, had a narrow escape from choking to death while at supper Wednesday of last week, food became lodged in her windpipe causing strangulation. The family at once tried heroic remedies but without avail. Dr. John Sebring was summoned and she soon was out of danger. From the present condition of things, the Boro. election next Tuesday does not promise to arouse much enthusiasm. The only hustling going on is for sewerage of the poor, and thus far that has hardly reached the proportions of a healthy scrap. Geo. Smith, as an independent candidate, is after Sam Diehl's scalp, while Thos. Howley is likely to step away with the office. A pretty and very enjoyable St. Valentine party was held at the home of Miss Minnie Showers, on Spring street on Tuesday eve, attended by eight couple of Miss Minnie's friends—eight young ladies accompanied by eight gentlemen. The evening was spent in music, games, with elegant refreshments served, and altogether it was a social evening pleasurable spent. Some half dozen applicants have applied for the Lutheran pastorate of the charge left vacant by the resignation of Rev. Dr. Holloway. This would indicate that there is no scarcity of laborers for the vineyard. Services of some kind will be kept up at the regular hours each Sabbath by supplies or leaders appointed from among the membership until a pastor has been secured. The different congregational societies and Sabbath school also meet at the regular hours as heretofore. Last Saturday afternoon Patrick Garrity met with a bad accident at Crider's planing mill, in which he has been employed for a long time. He was working about a flooring machine when his left arm was caught in a part of the machinery and was badly torn and mangled between the wrist and shoulder by revolving knives. At first it was feared that amputation might be necessary, but it is thought possible to save the arm. No bones were broken but the flesh is badly lacerated and torn. Mission opens in St. John's Catholic church, this place, on Sunday morning, with high mass at 10:30 and will continue for two weeks. The first week will be for members of the Catholic church, and second week for non-Catholic. These services will be conducted by the Paulist Father's, of New York City. Services will be held every evening. The last visit of the Paulist Father's to this community was about ten years ago and they attracted large attendance, as they are men of recognized ability in that church. The public is specially invited to the services during the second week.

Mrs. Carl Lilldale and little daughter, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of David Barlett. All incoming and outgoing mail will be weighed at the postoffice, beginning Feb. 14, 1905, until further notice. The Racket store has an important announcement to make in this issue regarding a special sale that has been inaugurated. John G. Love has leased three rooms in the Larimer property on East High street opposite the court house for his law offices. The room is being remodelled for his occupancy. Foreign Mission Day services will be held in St. John's Reformed church next Sunday morning at 10:30. The Sunday school and congregation will unite in this service. An interesting program has been prepared. A literary treat will be given in the Lutheran church, Monday evening, Feb. 27, by Miss Mildred Gillum, of the Ithaca Conservatory of Music. In all the large cities where she has given readings, the audience have been captivated. She is a delightful reader and all audiences give her breathless attention throughout. The family of the Rev. C. C. Miller pastor of the second United Brethren church at Braddock, is sadly afflicted with diphtheria. Mrs. Miller and five children were all ill with the disease and on Tuesday one daughter, Ida Dorothy, died from the disease. She was six years and six months old. The Rev. Mr. Miller was formerly pastor of the United Brethren church at Bellefonte. The venerable Daniel Garman was taken ill the past week from the effects of a cold and his condition has been critical for the past few days. He reached his 87th year last Sunday, and at this age there is little vitality left to battle with any kind of ailment. During the past winter he has been able to take his customary strolls about town and up to this time enjoyed fairly good health. Since the democrats have no nominee in the north ward for school director, there is a disposition on the part of many to unite on J. C. Meyer, Esq. For several years he was one of the instructors in our schools and in educational work has had much experience. Mr. Meyer's election would be a benefit to our schools. He is in Missouri at present on a business engagement and has no thought whatever of having his name before the public for the place. He has no favors to ask or axes to grind, and such men are needed in our school board and town council. Last Saturday a party of young people were preparing to leave for a sled ride, and while on Bishop street were attacked by young boys throwing snow balls. A snow ball containing a stone struck Melvin Helman, an Academy student, on the forehead cutting a deep wound that bled freely and for several days he was confined to his room suffering intense pain in his head. Had it struck a little lower the eyesight might have been seriously injured. The missile was thrown at the crowd and the ladies were in like danger of being hit. The boys who did the throwing had no provocation, except to be mischievous. It is likely that arrests will be made.

Zeigler, of Rebersburg, attend the following sales, prepared to accept money on subscription to this paper and receipt for the same. He will attend the following: Friday, February 24, E. M. Boone, at Fiedler. Tuesday, March 14, Jonathan Spangler, 2 miles east of Rebersburg. Wednesday, March 15, J. H. Corman, west of Coburn. Tuesday, March 21, A. E. Bartiges, 1 mile south of Aaronsburg. At Rebersburg any day prior to March 21st.

CURES CATARRHAL DEAFNESS. One Week's Use of Hyomei Did More Than Six Month's Treatment by Specialists. In the treatment of deafness which is often a result of catarrh Hyomei acts almost immediately upon the inflamed membrane and the hearing begins to return at once. A few days treatment will bring relief, and in three or four weeks, according to the severity of the case, a cure will be accomplished. Miss Meeks of Mattewan, N. Y., says: "Hyomei is truly wonderful, I have used it but a short time and see a great change in my condition. My hearing is improving rapidly, and I had no idea I would improve so rapidly in so short a time. My breath which was so offensive to myself and others, has lost its bad odor entirely. I have spent a great deal of money with catarrh specialists and can truly say that six months of their treatment is not equal to one month of Hyomei." S. Krumrine is selling Hyomei upon the unusual plan of agreeing to return the money if the medicine does not cure. A complete outfit costs only $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler will last a lifetime and there is enough Hyomei for several weeks' treatment. Additional bottles of Hyomei can be procured for 50 cents. Compare this small expense with the fees charged by specialists and then remember that if Hyomei does not cure S. Krumrine will return your money.

A farmer drove into Portage Saturday with about a yard of red flannel attached to the end of the spring pole. The people naturally came to the conclusion that there was a case of smallpox aboard and gave it a wide berth. The farmer later laughingly explained that it was merely a ruse to keep boys from climbing on his wagon, as he was a little particular himself as to who rode on his vehicle during the present conditions. Needless to say he had no trouble from the youngsters.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured. by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
