

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

Our sale Register, on page 3, had several additions during the past week.

Mrs. John Porter Lyon has been quite ill for the past week, the result of vaccination.

Mrs. Barbara Rankin has been quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Hastings.

John Trafford is now employed as day watchman over Ira Green and Wm. Dillen, in the county jail.

Guy McIntyre has secured a position with the Westinghouse Air-brake Co., at Wilmerding. He is a Bellefonte lad.

James Harris, the retired merchant, has had his head tied up the past week on account of a fall on the stone steps in front of his residence on Spring street.

A gang of Pennsylvania Telephone company linemen during the past week took down the cable, wires and poles on South Water street, recently vacated by the company.

The condition of Hon. A. O. Furst, who is still in the U. of Pa. hospital, Philadelphia, is much improved and it is possible that he will be home during the coming week.

McCalmont & Co., of Bellefonte, will retain their main office at its present location in the Bush Arcade, but will give up the store rooms as previously stated after the 1st of April.

A. R. McNitt, of the firm of McNitt Brothers & Co., who recently broke his leg at the company's mill at Nittany, is improving in the Hayes Hospital, Bellefonte, where he has been for several weeks past.

Owing to the Eby robberies and February election returns this week all our local items and correspondence had to be condensed and cut down. Have too much news this week to give full space to all.

John Porter Lyon purchased the Burnside home, corner of Curtin and Spring streets, and the family residence in the future will be Bellefonte. Mr. Lyon expects to take up the acetylene gas illuminating business in this section of the State.

While down at the steam heat works one night last week Sheriff Taylor was struck on the head by an iron rod. It made him dizzy for a time, but since then has suffered no inconvenience further than a cut in the scalp. You know he is pretty tough and don't mind such little things.

The entertainment in the Petrikin Hall last Thursday evening by the Bellefonte Choral society was liberally patronized. One of the best things on the programme was the rendition of Annie Laurie by eight ladies, while the solos of Noah H. Swayne and F. J. Saunders were exceptionally fine.

The Bellefonte Window Glass company is offering for sale the site of the old glass works. There is enough loose captiol lying about Bellefonte to place some good enterprise there, if only some man with the brains, and honest enough to be trusted, will come along and point out the method.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church of this place will hold a Patriotic Social and entertainment in the Lecture room of the church Thursday evening, February 23rd. An interesting feature will be a camp fire by members of Gregg Post. An admission of 15 cents will be asked. Ice cream, cake and candy will be sold.

The funeral of the late J. W. Gephart, last Friday, was largely attended. Many floral tributes were received. All business places were closed from 1 until 3 o'clock. The public and private schools, also the Bellefonte Academy, of which he was director and trustee closed at 12 o'clock, to give all who desired an opportunity to attend the funeral.

Sheriff Taylor had quite an increase in the number of his boarders in the county snuffbox. Only a few weeks ago he had less than a half dozen prisoners behind lock and key, now the number has been increased to twenty-three, the latest accessions being on Friday evening when the detectives landed four new boarders concerned in the Eby robbery.

Tuesday morning W. J. Auman attempted to board the freight train on the Lewisburg road as it was pulling out from the station. He missed his hold and was thrown back on the adjoining track, falling across a rail. None of the crew saw the accident, but some men found the injured man and later he was removed to the hospital. He is suffering with a broken hip bone. He is a single man and lives at Coburn.

Woodward is adding to the local history of our county. Within a few years it had the sensational Etlinger tragedy fresh in the memory of the readers of the Centre Democrat, and this week we give an authentic account of the arrest of the robbers of the Eby brothers of some $4000, one of the prisoners being the wife of the outlaw Etlinger and now the wife of another also a prisoner. The arrest was made through the tact and skill of two detectives from Philadelphia who did a clever piece of detective work as will be seen from the account given elsewhere.

A. C. Mingle transacted business in Altoona, Monday.

Laurant, in Petrikin Hall next Tuesday evening.

The Verna May Company opens at the opera house on Monday, next.

A young lady, residing in Bellefonte, can learn printing at this office. Apply at once.

Miss Annie G. Redding, of Snow Shoe, is visiting the Misses Curry on Logan street.

A. A. Tate, of Punxsutawney, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tate of near Bellefonte.

Rev. Dr. Holloway preached in the Presbyterian church of this place on last Sabbath morning, filling Dr. Laurie's pulpit.

George Smith, of East High street has been ill for over a week from the effects of a severe cold contracted while at work to loosen up a frozen hydrant.

Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Centre Hall, filled the Lutheran pulpit of Bellefonte, last Sabbath morning and evening, interesting large audiences by able discourses.

Fathers Kennedy and Devine, two of the Paulist Fathers of New York city, opened a series of interesting meetings in St. John's Catholic church Sunday morning which are being largely attended.

Mrs. Al Garman, while visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Otto, was taken ill with a throat affection which at first was pronounced tonsillitis. Since then it has developed into diphtheria and the house is quarantined.

Dr. Theo. Christ and Dr. E. A. Russell, of Fleming, resigned from the local pension board about two weeks ago and up to this time the vacancies have not been filled. Dr. Hayes, of Bellefonte, remains on the board.

Merchant W. Galor Morrison, of Reiland, was attending to legal business on Monday in town. He tramped on a nail recently that penetrated his foot and for a time he was doubled up, threatened with lockjaw, but pulled through all right.

Laurant, the magician and illusionist and company, presenting a superb entertainment of original mystical creations will appear in Petrikin Hall, Tuesday evening, February 28th. This magnificent attraction is one of the finest of its kind.

Captain Taylor will not have an opportunity to exhibit his crack military company at Roosevelt's inauguration March 4th, as only a small portion of the state troops will be there and this regiment is not fortunate enough to be in the select list.

D. C. Harpster, of Stormstown, was here Saturday to arrange for sale bills. You will notice from his advertisement on page 3 that he has an unusually large amount of live stock in his list and it is of a choice quality. His sale is on Friday, March 24, and will be a big one.

Sunday noon as Charley Wetzel with his two children were driving down the hill from the Reformed church by the Armory his horse began kicking. The shafts were broken, and the vehicle crowded on the horses' heels. The dash board was demolished next and the animal struck Mr. Wetzel in the face, the pointed "never slips" sinking into his nose and face inflicting deep wounds. James Cornelly ran out from the steam works and caught the animal which was still attached to the buggy. Mr. Wetzel bled freely from the wounds. None of the children were injured, and since then he has been about the streets, with his face in bandages.

Persons who paid their respects to the Centre Democrat the past week were: A. H. Vonada, of Madisonburg; Daniel Wagner, of State College; Rocky the produce dealer, of Tusseyville; James Huey and W. D. Marshall, of Fillmore. All pleasant gentlemen whom it is a pleasure to chat with. But for hunting and marksmanship brother Huey takes the medal for luck; S. J. Reasner, of Benore, who has moved to Reading in old Berks; G. C. Harvey, of Altoona, formerly of this county, and who has some large building contracts in the mountain city; Jerry Breen, of Axemann; And Breen, of State College; Elias Breen, of Axemann; Hiram Lutz, of Zion; Lawrence Hile, of Pleasant Gap; Jacob Hazzard, of Moshannan; Mrs. Joseph Baird, of Milesburg; Israel Freeze, of Milesburg; D. P. Luse, of Centre Hall; W. T. Somers, of State College.

Hunters to Take out License. With the game commission backed by practically every sportsman in the state, endeavoring to have passed a bill which will compel each would-be hunter, resident or nonresident to take out a license before venturing into the fields, there seems every possibility that such a law will be enacted. The bill to that effect was introduced in the house some time ago by Mr. Kenney of Beaver. State Game Commission Kalbfus says that the sentiment for such a law is overwhelming all over the state, except among the farmers. Doctor Kalbfus returned recently from Pittsburg, where he had spent several days, and he says the sentiment there is as strong as in any other section.

GATHERED OVER THE COUNTY.

W. J. Hackenberg, formerly postmaster and merchant at Smullton, has sold his store at New Berlin.

B. F. Kister, of Millheim, has accepted a position with the Clearfield Republican, and now is at that place.

The next Shaeffer Hazel reunion will be held at Grange Park Centre Hall, June 14. It will not be at Hecla as previously reported.

Last week three sheep, the property of Harry Frankenberg, of Penn township, were attacked by dogs and terribly mutilated. The owner or owners of the dogs are unknown.

J. B. Irish has purchased the controlling interest in the Citizens Water Co., of Philipsburg. He bought out J. M. Schoonover, Mrs. A. Y. Casanova and T. G. McCausland.

Saturday evening, 11th, at the home of Benjamin Vonada, near Woodward, Wm. M. Kreamer and Miss Sallie P. Vonada, both of Haines township, were united in marriage by Rev. I. N. Bair.

The engagement of Miss Sarah L. Hastings and Bruce Lingle has been announced. Miss Hastings is the daughter of George H. Hastings of Buffalo Run, and Mr. Lingle is a prosperous young farmer of near Milesburg.

There is a lucky printer down at Millheim. The Journal says: "Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hosterman, on Saturday afternoon, a dear little baby daughter, and the proprietor of the Journal thinks himself a head taller, and we don't blame him."

Ira Proudfoot, of Milesburg, is the first foreman of the paint department in the Berwick, carshops and the workmen presented him with a gold watch and chain a few days ago as a token of their respect. He formerly worked in the Pennsylvania railroad shops in Altoona.

Charley Wright, of Ferguson, is gunning for the wretch who, on Saturday night, gained an entrance to his barn, overfed a horse with chop and literally cut a pair of new gears and bridles to shreds, as well as cut his large spring wagon top in slits.—Oh Lord, what mean people some are!

D. S. Love, farmer for Sidney T. Isett, near Spruce Creek, met with a painful accident a few days ago while hauling paper wood. While descending a hill the horse slipped, throwing the sled load of wood and the driver over side of the hill. In the fall Mr. Love had a leg broken.

Quite a number of cases of petty larceny are reported in Miles twp., especially at the home of Emanuel Harter in Brush valley, where at different times money has been taken out of his horse and harness from the barn. They even stole his pocket knife and account book. Mr. Harter is very anxious to find out the thief who is plying his trade so industriously.

Samuel Ilgen, of Tylersville, has purchased an instrument for the location of coal, and as soon as warm weather comes will begin to prospect for coal on the Garret farm, which he recently purchased. He is confident that a large coal field underlies the mountain in that locality and perhaps extends for miles down the valley. After he locates the coal field next in order will be to construct a first class railroad into Sugarvalley to market the product.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church, at Snow Shoe, will hold a bazaar in the basement of their new church on Friday and Saturday, March 3rd and 4th. They will have on sale a fine selection of fancy articles and needle work and refreshments such as ice cream, cake and confections will be served. Friday they will have an oyster supper and on Saturday evening chicken and waffles. If you only come, they will be sure to entertain you in royal style.

The religious revivals held during the past two months and still going in, a dozen different sections of the county, are reported to have brought about many conversions. May the "born again" remain true to the new birth and keep the ball rolling. These revivals have been shared in by all the denominations and the pastors and their helpers deserve great credit for their assault upon satan's Port Arthur, and their victory is far greater than that of the Jap against the Russ.

On last Monday, while Clayton Auman, with several other men, was trailing logs down the mountain southeast of Wells Store, they came across a black bear which had three wee little cubs, which were so young that they did not have their eyes open yet. An effort was made to capture the old bear alive which could not be accomplished. Finally a well directed bullet was sent through her skull which settled her hash. The little cubs were taken home by some of the men and well taken care of. But later one of them died.

W. H. Close, of Oak Hill, is in possession of a relic of the Civil War which he would not easily be persuaded to part with. Mr. Close was a member of Company H, 148 Regt. P. V. I., at the Battle of Spotsylvania Court House, May 12, 1864, he was struck on the left cheek with a minnie ball which passed through his mouth and lodged in his neck where it was extracted the evening of the day he was wounded. Although badly wounded and somewhat disfigured by his wound yet he remained in the service of his country until the close of the war. Mr. Close keeps the bullet taken from his neck as one of his many souvenirs of the army experiences.

RECENT DEATHS.

MARY ANDERSON:—the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, of south Spring street, died Tuesday night 14, of stomach trouble.

MISS LYDIA GENTZEL:—daughter of Thomas Gentzell, deceased, of Sober, died near Beech Creek, Monday 13, aged sixteen years. Interment will be made in Heckman's cemetery, near Penn Hall last Friday.

CHRISTIAN SMITH:—died at Luthersburg, Pa., Tuesday 14th and was buried at that place last Saturday. Age 78 years and is survived by seven children. He was born and reared near Howard this county, but left there about forty years ago.

DAVID J. GATES:—died at his home in Halfmoon township, Friday 10, of consumption, after an illness of several months. Deceased was aged 61 years. He was a carpenter by trade. He is survived by his wife, Mary J., and three children William H., David J., and Lydia J.

MRS. SHILAS GIBBY:—died at Sausburg, Huntingdon county, stricken with paralysis, last Thursday morning. Deceased was about 76 years of age. She was favorably known about Hoalsburg where, prior to her moving to Sausburg, she made her home with her son, Dr. Kidder.

MRS. AL. ROBERTS:—died suddenly in Bellefonte, Thursday noon, even though she had been sick for a long time. Mr. Roberts was away from home at the time on a trip selling his preparation and it was with some difficulty that he was located. The interment took place on Sunday afternoon in the Union cemetery.

MRS. J. W. BAER:—died at her home at Potters Mills, Wednesday 8th, from cancer of the breast, aged thirty-five years, six months. The deceased's maiden name was Mary C. Rishel, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rishel, deceased, of Madisonburg. She is survived by her husband and one son, aged thirteen years.

MRS. JENNE SNYDER:—wife of Aaron Snyder, died at her home at Bradford last week of paralysis, from which she suffered the past two years. She is survived by her husband and three children, also her father, John Dietz, Sr., sister, Mrs. James Beddel, of Howard, and brother Robert of Rebersburg. Interment at Bradford.

CHRISTIAN SWARTZ:—died at his home, East Bishop street, at 10 o'clock Saturday evening, of catarrh, having been ill all winter. His age is over 60 years, was a veteran of the civil war. His wife and one son, Milton, survive. He was a member of the Methodist church. Funeral was held Tuesday afternoon; interment in the Union cemetery.

DANIEL MOSER STUART:—a son of postmaster John W. Stuart, of State College, died on Friday morning 17 at Port Norfolk, Virginia, due to rupture of the heart and pneumonia, aged 25 years. He graduated from State College and since that time has held several important positions. At the time of his death he was manager of H. J. Heinz's large factory at Port Norfolk. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stuart, one brother, William H., and two sisters, Elizabeth and Margaret. The funeral took place Tuesday. Interment in the Branch cemetery.

MRS. LOUISE HARRIS HOY:—widow of the late Judge Adam Hoy, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Col. W. Fred Reynolds, last Thursday 16 at 6 o'clock. She had been in declining health the past year and was stricken with paralysis Sunday morning and never rallied from the effects. Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James D. Harris, one of the oldest families in the town, and was aged 65 years. All her life with the exception of the past two years that she spent at Rock View with her son, J. Harris Hoy, was spent in Bellefonte, the home of her birth. Her husband, Judge Hoy, died in 1887, but she is survived by seven children, as follows: Anna H., Mary, Albert, Louise (now Mrs. W. Fred Reynolds), J. Harris, Edward L. and Randolph Hale. Interment Saturday afternoon in the Union cemetery.

MRS. AMELIA STOVER:—wife of J. C. Stover, of Aaronsburg, died on Tuesday morning between 3 and 6 o'clock; her death was sudden of apoplexy. She retired the evening before in her usual good health and was the same when she got up in the morning, when death took her away. Her age would have been 72 years the coming August. She arose that morning and proceeded to prepare breakfast with some assistance from her husband, when she remarked of beginning to feel unwell and sat down upon a chair. A few moments later her husband asked her about something and receiving no answer he went to where she sat and found that she was dead. The deceased was a life long member of the Reformed church, and a woman of strict religious life. She leaves a husband and 6 children—five daughters and one son to mourn her loss, namely: Mrs. John Grenoble, of Spring Mills; Mrs. E. E. Artery, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Frank Geiswite, of Fiedler; Mrs. Geo. Weaver, of Aaronsburg and Mrs. Thomas Meyer, of Coburn, her son was Clymer Stover, of Aaronsburg. She was a daughter of John Hosterman, and was born near Fiedler on the Hosterman homestead of the early days. Funeral on Friday morning, 24; interment in the Reformed cemetery at Aaronsburg.

The tailor's goose is seldom the one that lays the golden egg.

Rheumatism is one of the constitutional diseases. It manifests itself in local aches and pains,—inflamed joints and stiff muscles,—but it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires constitutional treatment acting through the blood, and the best is a course of the great medicine Hood's Sarsaparilla which has permanently cured thousands of cases.

For testimonials of remarkable cures send for Book on Rheumatism, No. 7, C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

Announcement.

Prof. John S. Hosterman will conduct, at Hubsburg, Pa., a summer school of eight weeks, beginning Monday, April 10th. Tuition $5 for the term. The work of the school will be mainly along the line of the common branches ranging from the common grammar grade to the advanced teachers' class. Board will be secured at reasonable rates. For further information, address Prof. JOHN S. HOSTERMAN, Hubsburg, Pa.

BUT NOT OTHERWISE.

See how quickly they forget us When we go away from home, And how slightly they regret us As in foreign lands we roam. Is the wood of friendship rotten? Man for solitude designed? Ah, how quickly we're forgotten! If we leave no debts behind!

WITHOUT STOMACH DOSING.

Hyomei Cures Catarrh by Simple Breathing. S. Krumrine Refunds Money if it Fails to Cure.

A long stride toward solving the mystery of curing catarrh was taken with the discovery of Hyomei. In fact, the percentage of cures by this treatment proves it equal to the final tests.

The folly of taking medicine into the stomach to cure catarrh of the nose, throat and lungs, has been realized by physicians, but not until Hyomei was known, had they a practical method that would obviate stomach dosing.

A complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1, and consists of a neat pocket inhaler that can be used anywhere without attracting attention, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. Extra bottles of Hyomei costs but 50c.

Breathing Hyomei through the inhaler, every particle of air that enters the nose, throat and lungs, is charged with a healing balsam that soothes and allays all irritation, kills the catarrhal germs and enriches the blood with additional ozone.

S. Krumrine has so much faith in the power of Hyomei to cure catarrh, that he is selling it under his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not give positive relief.
