EDITORIAL.

THE present legislature has passed an act making it obligatory upon the coun ty commissioners, upon petition of ten freeholders, to purchase metal markers for soldiers' graves. The governor has signed the bill and it is now the law of the Commonwealth. The legislature of 1903 had passed an act, making it optional with the commissioners. This last and makes it imperative upon proper package with the name of the person petition. THINGS are boiling hot in Philadelphia. The gang that has stuffed its ballot boxes to keep control of the city and robbery in contemplation, nothing less any mountains to be known as the state plunder it have a monstrous game of than to rob the city of its gas works worth a hundred million dollars by paying only twenty-five millions for it! This is to be brought about by passing legislature and congress for their private stuffed ballot boxes. The citizens of the town are aroused over the attempted tion. But the machine gang having the of the mountains, which would give the council on its side persists and intends to have the scheme passed at all hazards and let the people kick. The business men are up in indignant opposition; the best men of the city are protesting; but the gang encouraged by its past miquitous doings is determined the enormous outrage shall be put through councils, for was it not for this the machine gang stuffed the ballot boxes while the people of the city slept these many years and were deaf to the continued warnings sounded by the anti-gang press of the city? Perhaps the arousing of the public opinion may defeat the scoundrels in their dastardly attempt to commit this gigantic wrong. A few days will tell. While Philadelphians are to be pitied, they deserve all they are getting.

TO DIVIDE PENNSYLVANIA.

Separate State.

There is a strong move on foot in the Pittsburg district to have Pennsylvania divided into two parts, the twenty-three western counties this side of the Alleg hof Alleghany. A lot of bad feeling against the "bosses" in Philadelphia and the eastern part of the state who are said to have manipulated the state gain, cutting the western part of the state out, is responsible.

The dividing line proposed is the crest state of Allegheny a population of 2,100,by the last census and by the census of 1910 should make it the seventh state in the Union. The Pittsburg Leader devotes several columns to the project and evidently voices the sentiment of the western Pennsylvania "bosses." No, say we, don't divide the grand old commonweath of Penn. It will not prevent the dividing of millions of spoils by the bosses of the machine. The Pittsburg bosses and the Philadelphia bosses have played together in plundering the state as it now is, and division would add two new senators and hundreds of new office holders to feed and fatten off the taxpayers. Public robbers are at the bottom of the scheme.

CLOTHES CONTENTMENT

OU'LL enjoy wearing our clothes for what they are as well as for what they look. Clothes that fit even better than the highest custom tailor's product, and with more ear-marks of style than he can give; Clothes that will retain their shape until worn out. Such are the clothes we show and, as we believe, clothes as you would be pleased to wear.

Look over the showing we are makingmore new clothes than you will find in all other Bellefonte stores.

You'll be pleased with the materials, both in patterns and colors. There's scarcely a new design but what we show. The new popular gun-metal and steel grays we alone show.

Clothes contentment, Sim's Suits, go hand in hand. You may have been led to other ready to wear clothes without your complete satisfaction. But once you form the acquaintance of Sim's clothes you'll never want for anything better.

Sim, The Clothier,
