

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings
in Short Paragraphs

—Prof. Geo. Bible and family are visiting friends in Bellefonte.

—Mrs. John Hoffer is visiting her son C. U. Hoffer, at Phillipsburg.

—Wanted—a young lady residing in Bellefonte, to learn typesetting at this office.

—Col. Austin Curtin, of Roland, is frequently seen in town on important business.

—John Olewine and family are in charge of the Masonic camp, down the Bald Eagle this week.

—Mrs. Samuel Lewins and daughter, Miriam, of Philadelphia, are visiting at Emil Joseph's on High street.

—Mrs. Julia Frank and her niece, Miss Celia Lehman, of York, Pa., are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Louis Doll.

—Frang Naginy has a slight attack of auto-fever; thus far nothing serious has developed. Recovery is uncertain.

—F. T. Kerns, the laundryman, is putting in a new boiler and other machinery in his establishment this week.

—The fire departments were called out on Monday by a fire at Pleasant View, north of town in Hassinger's house.

—During the past week members of Company B have been preparing for the annual encampment, which opens near Erie, Pa., this week.

—William Farris, of Pittsburg, accompanied by his daughter, Nellie, were the guests of County Commissioner Philip H. Meyer this week.

—Dr. Edith Schad and two children, Frederick and Mary, left Saturday for a ten days' visit to friends in Lock Haven and Emporium.

—The Allegheny Conference Ministerial Institute of the United Brethren church is in session in Bellefonte this week, and is largely attended.

—Mrs. Louis H. Gettig and her two children, Ethel and Donald, are on a visit to friends in Pittsburg. Mr. Gettig will keep bachelors' hall in their absence.

—Prof. John Harrison, who has been teaching at Jersey Shore, the past year, is selling school supplies this summer, and is traveling through this section of the county.

—Wednesday morning the fire departments were given exercise by a call from the West ward. A burning fire at Homer Crissman's residence was throwing sparks like a young volcano.

—Edward Lucas, of Philadelphia, was a visitor in Bellefonte Monday. He used to clerk for the late Samuel Lewin of this place, but is now head clerk in Lewis Fabian's clothing store in Philadelphia.

—Dr. R. H. Hayes and family are located at the Brockert House, since their home on Spring street was converted into a private sanitarium, on the first of the month. They will secure another home in the town.

—In another column will be found a notice for a meeting of the Linn Historical Society, in the court house, Friday, July 21, 11 a. m. Read it and show your interest in the cause by preparing a paper to be read and filed.

—Miss Helen Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia, and her friend, Miss Nellie Millward, of the same city, are visiting the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dawson, of this place.

—Rev. Kozar, of Nebraska, some years ago pastor of the Pine Grove Mills Lutheran charge, filled the Lutheran pulpit of this place Sunday last, Rev. Dr. Sieber being detained at Gettysburg by the illness of Mrs. Sieber.

—A message on Tuesday informed S. A. Donachy, Supt. of the match factory, that a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Derstine, of Altoona. To be called Grandpa makes him about as happy as a man can be. Grandpa Derstine is all "stuck up" over the affair too.

—The Odd Fellows of Centre county will hold their annual reunion this year at Centre Hall, on Thursday, August 10th. It will be a basket reunion, to which the public is invited. The program for that day will be announced later, and will include addresses by prominent citizens.

—Rev. J. A. Wood, Jr., pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at this place received a telegram Friday evening announcing the death of his father, Rev. John A. Wood, Sr., which occurred Friday noon at his home in Lincoln Park, California. Rev. Wood has been in bad health for some time. The deceased was 77 years of age and is survived by three children Rev. J. A. Jr., of Bellefonte; Melvin, of Minneapolis; Mrs. Mary E. Barden, of Passadena, Cal.

—Very few accidents of a serious nature occurred in town on the 4th of July from handling fireworks. A son of Geo. Eberhart was struck on the forehead by a torpedo; the explosion rendered him unconscious and made a painful bruise. Miss Hamilton, while sitting in a window at the Brockert House, sustained a bruise and burn on her arm caused by a torpedo striking the sill. It burned part of the sleeve. These torpedos were thrown by gun slings in a manner liable to do much injury.

—Ask Francis Speer about "Fewer gallons."

—Edward Beezer, the popular landlord of Peale, Pa., was visiting friends in Bellefonte this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. James K. Barnhart and two children, Martha and Philip, have returned home from a visit to relatives and friends in Punxsutawney.

—During July and August all the stores in Bellefonte will close at 6 o'clock in the evening. This does not include the drug stores, restaurants and hotels.

—Editor T. H. Harter and wife, who were away the past month on a jaunt with the National Editorial Association to Oklahoma and Portland, arrived home on Thursday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Claud Cook left last week for a trip through the western part of Canada. On their route they will visit the Portland Exposition and the Yellowstone Park.

—Editor P. Gray Meek and wife left last week for a trip to Portland, Or., and other points on the Pacific coast. They are in a party who have chartered a car for the trip.

—Mrs. John I. Rogers and daughter, Miss Catharine, of Wyncote, Pa., and Miss Henkels, of Philadelphia, were guests at the home of Mrs. D. H. Hastings the past week.

—James A. Feidler was in town Tuesday, looking after the interests of the "Star" magazine published at Williamsport by his son Hugh Feidler. The publication is improving right along and promises to develop.

—T. W. Kreamer, who is located at Renovo, and is becoming a successful contractor and builder at that place, came back to town to spend the 4th with former acquaintances, about here. We are glad to hear that he is prospering.

—A. C. Mingle, the shoe dealer, recently invested in a double-seated Cadillac automobile and can be seen spinning along the roads these days in fine shape. It did not take him long to get control of the critter, which he manages like an expert.

—During the past month extensive repairs have been made about the jail. The interior of the prison has been repainted and the balcony refloored. The walls of the jail yard have been recovered with cement and all put in first class order, something that was needed long ago.

—The Coleville band will play at Hunter's Park every Thursday evening, during the summer season. Special trains are run for these evening concerts, and the young people who enjoy dancing can use the pavilion for that purpose. It is a delightful spot and is being well patronized.

—Edw. R. Chambers, Esq., has been afflicted the past week with an attack of rheumatism that makes walking difficult without the aid of crutches. His brother, James Chambers, of DuBois, who was badly wounded recently by several shots from a revolver by an intoxicated man, is rapidly recovering and will be able to be about in good shape.

—Boyd Musser and family moved from York to Scranton, Pa., the past week, in order to be more centrally located for his work, as representative of the York Bridge Company. Since Mr. Musser has been with this company he has developed into one of their most useful men and has secured for them the largest line of business they have ever handled.

—Travel to the sea shore has begun, but the most of us are poor devils who must stick at home, keep grinding along at the same old job, so as to make ends meet. After all, the latter probably has more comfort of mind and body, and usually ends up the year with a more creditable standing, financial and moral, than those who chase continually after giddy pleasures and a summer's social dissipation. Be industrious and as a rule happiness follows.

—Rev. Newton S. Bailey, who has been stationed at Beaverdale, Pa., eight miles south of Johnstown, in the mining districts, is paying a visit to his former home in Bellefonte. He is now an ordained minister of the United Brethren church, and seems to be greatly interested in his work. Although located in a mining town, amongst a rather rough class who care little for moral or religious sentiment, he has accomplished much good. Mr. Bailey formerly was connected with the Gazette office, this place.

—At a meeting of the school board last week the school term was fixed at nine months, a six mill tax was laid, John D. Love and John Klingner were elected janitors. The President announced the following committees for the year: Finance: A. C. Mingle, J. P. Harris, J. K. Barnhart. Supplies: D. F. Portney, G. R. Parker, T. M. Longwell. Text books: John P. Harris, D. F. Portney, G. R. Parker. Accounts: T. M. Longwell, W. H. Crissman, J. K. Barnhart. Repairs: H. C. Quigley, W. H. Crissman, A. C. Mingle. Grounds: G. R. Parker, J. P. Harris, D. F. Portney. Library: J. K. Barnhart, H. C. Quigley, A. C. Mingle. High school: W. H. Crissman, T. M. Longwell, A. C. Mingle.

—Did you miss your paper last week.

—Ask your Minister about "Fewer gallons; wears longer."

—1905's Fourth in Bellefonte was a fire cracker day only.

—Frank Shaughnessy, of Pittsburg, is visiting his parents in this place.

—Mr. and Mrs. Claud Thompson and children are visiting friends in Pittsburg.

—Donald Cooke, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cooke, of this city.

—Misses Emma Aikens and Maimie Ceaders have returned from a two weeks' outing at Atlantic City.

—By the end of this week the new bridge across the race at the station will be completed.

—Miss Bessie Gilmore, of Philadelphia, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ceadar.

—Prof. John D. Meyer is attending the Harvard summer school to better fit himself for school work.

—Charles Reese, of near Snow Shoe, returned last week from a trip to Portland and other parts of the West.

—N. B. Spangler, Esq., spent part of last week at St. Paul, Minn., looking after some real estate in that section.

—Mrs. Dr. A. E. Blackburn, of Philadelphia, and two little children, are guests at the home of Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler.

—Everybody admires the appearance of the Brockert House since it received its new coat of paint. The colors are well selected.

—Joe McMahon, employed by the Standard Scale Company of Pittsburg, came back to Bellefonte to spend the 4th in Bellefonte.

—Thomas Shaughnessy, Jr., of Mannington, West Virginia, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaughnessy Sr., of this place.

—Thomas Fleming, Jr., who holds down a good position with the Standard Scale company at Beaver Falls, was at home to spend the Fourth.

—Barber R. A. Beck was on the sick list several days last week, but is around again chipper as ever. The Undine parade must have upset him.

—Miss Carrie Bayard has returned home for the summer vacation. She holds a position with the Soldiers' Orphan school at Jumonville, Pa.

—Mr. and Mrs. Baney have occasion to rejoice over the advent of twins, at their home, last Saturday. That is genuine prosperity, hard to beat.

—Miss Adaline Harris is at Morris-town, New Jersey visiting her friend Miss Hendrickson. From there she will go to the Adirondacks for the month of August.

—Rev. Sylvester Beach, who has been preaching at Paris, France, to the art students for the past four years, was visiting at the home of Mrs. N. J. Orbison, the past week.

—Charley Schad and Col. W. Fred Reynolds each have large peach orchards from which large crops are expected this season. Schad's orchard is on the north side of the mountain back of the Armor Gap.

—Robert Morris, of Columbia, South Carolina, who had been reported seriously ill, was in town last week and assured his friends by his appearance that he was not going to shuffle off this mortal coil quite so soon.

—On the evening of the 4th it is supposed a sky rocket set fire to the roof of the Brockert building on Bishop street. The fire department responded quickly but the fire was extinguished without any trouble, and no damage was done.

—Wm. H. Housel, who conducts McAllister Hall, at State College, was one of our recent callers. Since the college Hotel is being rebuilt, he has decided to keep his house open during the summer vacation for the entertainment of the public.

—The Red Men order, of this place, made a fine appearance in their new uniforms in the Undine parade. They looked like genuine redskins, real fierce, but no one was frightened by them. They have a large membership in this section.

—Miss Nellie Herman, who graduated from the Bellefonte Hospital Training School in April has accepted a position in the hospital at Phillipsburg. Miss Eunice Clarke who graduated at the same time is doing private nursing at her home in Ansonville. The other member of the senior class Miss Shipley, will finish her course during the Autumn.

—The large 24-inch terra cotta sewer is being laid on High street this week and it is quite a job. The pipe will be laid deep enough to pass under the other service pipes. Most of the properties along the street have good drainage in the open rock, but this will prove a great saving by carrying away all the surface water, and the sewerage from other parts of the town.

—Mrs. Wm. L. Kurts and sons Wilfred and Jack, and daughters Anna Belle and Emily, of Berlin, Somerset county, are having a two weeks' visit at the home of the editor of the Democrat and on Tuesday spent a day at Aaronsburg, visiting the great-grandmother of the children, Mrs. Wm. Harter, aged 91 years, and thus present was a line of four generations with the aged lady, who is in fair health yet.

OVER THE COUNTY.

H. C. Robinson, of Zion, will place a stove mill on the Houser timber tract, on Nittany mountain.

Milesburg defeated Unionville at base ball Friday afternoon by the score of 5 to 2. The game was played at Unionville.

Miss Lena Walizer and George Gladfelter of Clintondale were married in Lock Haven Thursday evening by Rev. Reeser.

C. Dale Musser, son of W. H. Musser, of Bellefonte, was married July 4th, 1905, in Philadelphia to Miss Lizzie Quinn.

Last week in June, J. S. Carson, tenant on a farm near this town, housed 30 loads of hay without having a drop of rain fall on it.

James Gregg, of Milesburg, has been elected principal of the Mt. Union, Huntingdon county schools. Jim was one of the prominent teachers of our county.

Mrs. May Lawrence, of the State College Times, left for the home of her mother in Lewistown, Me., on Saturday to spend the rest of the summer in taking a well-earned rest.

Harry Cox, the seventeen-year-old son of Joseph Cox, of Tyrone, has left his home, and his parents will be thankful for any information as to his whereabouts. The boy is about 5 feet 5 inches tall, and has light hair and blue eyes.

Warriormark grange No. 974. Patrons of Husbandry, will hold their annual picnic at Warriorsmark, on Saturday, August 12th. The picnic of this grange will be held each year on the second Saturday of August.

David Barr, son of Samuel Barr, recently of Phillipsburg, was killed by the cars, near Pittsburg, Friday morning. He was employed as brakeman on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. He was aged about 23 years, married, and leaves a wife and one child.

The members of the Jacob Wagner, dec'd, family in Pennsylvania, will hold a family reunion, Thursday July 27th, in the grove at the end of Tussey mountain, near the old homestead. An invitation is extended to all relatives to join in this family reunion.

Wesley Sowers, of State College, has given up his position at the creamery and has gone to Altoona where he is now handling a controller for the Altoona Traction Co. He intends to move his family and household goods as soon as a suitable house can be secured.

The great Centre County Fair will be held this year on October 3, 4, 5 and 6th at the Bellefonte fair grounds. Committees are already at work, planning and making arrangements for the largest and most successful display of exhibits in the history of the association.

Robert L. Scott, of Phillipsburg, has been elected cashier of the First National Bank, Bellwood, Pa., and will enter upon his new responsibilities on the 7th inst. While most of his life has been devoted to coal interests, he has had several years experience in the banking business.

Monday afternoon's thunder gust was quite severe in Snyder county. James D. Gentzel, formerly of Spring Mills, writes us from McClure, Snyder county, as follows: We had an awful hail and rain storm on Monday afternoon. The lightning struck our barn and tore it pretty badly, killing a horse for us.

Peaches will be so abundant the fruit will be cheaper than any previous year—there may not be market for the entire crop from all reports. All the orchards in this and adjoining counties are loaded with the fruit and the Maryland, Delaware and New Jersey orchards are also richly laden.

The annual picnic and reunion of the Reformed Sunday schools and congregations of the Nittany valley, Lock Haven and Bellefonte charges will be held at Hecla Park on Thursday, July 27, 1905. Everybody is cordially invited to unite in making this a gala day and enjoy the addresses, music and amusements at the beautiful park.

The apple crop in this county, by reports from various sections will be below the average. Peaches, according to same reports, will be an abundant crop. Berries of all kinds are plentiful. Potatoes are likely to be a large crop. Wheat, rye, oats and corn will be a fair crop. The hay crop already mostly harvested, has been average and hauled into barns in good condition, this is true of the larger part of it.

Earl Mung, aged 12 years, of Rock Springs, Centre county, was bitten by a large rattlesnake Monday morning. The lad was out in the woods and saw the snake under a log. He grabbed the snake by the tail and pulled it out from under the log when it turned and bit him severely. Dr. Woods of Pine Grove Mills is attending him and he is reported to be getting along nicely.

A heavy thunder gust passed around this section Monday, striking the country below Spring Mills and in Brush-valley. At Millheim a young man, Edward Brown, a telephone hand, was struck by lightning, and a number of persons stunned by the discharge. Young Brown was up a telephone pole some 30 feet when the bolt struck him. Some men along the line saw the electric spark follow the wire and describe it as having been the size of an egg; Brown also saw it coming but it was impossible to avoid it. He was picked up unconscious and remained so for about an hour. He was seriously harmed by the stroke. The rainfall was heavy.

MARRIAGES.

On July 4th at Hubersburg, by Rev. A. I. Crow, Harvey T. Mann and Margaret A. Kreager, both of Romola, were united in marriage.

Horace W. Winkleman, of Nittany, and Edith A. Johnson, of Rote, were united in marriage Friday afternoon, 30th, by Rev. Amos A. Parr.

Harvey Eminhizer, of Milesburg, and Miss Fannie Peese, of Bellefonte, were united in marriage Tuesday, July 4th, at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. J. A. Wood.

George E. Furey, of Martinsville, Ill., and Miss Ethel Gray, of Bellefonte, were married on Tuesday, July 4th at the Methodist parsonage at Snow Shoe, by Rev. H. J. Schurhart. The groom is the son of Morris Furey.

On Thursday evening, 29th, Harry Otto and Miss Mary Nolan, of Bellefonte, were married by Rev. P. McArdle at the parsonage. The bride is a daughter of the late Jerry Nolan. The groom is in the wholesale and retail tobacco business at this place.

Thursday, June 29th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Shuman Pletcher, of Howard, their daughter, Miss Mable C., and G. Harvey Mann, of Folsom, West Virginia, were married by Rev. E. M. Aller. Only a few of her most intimate friends were present. After August 1st they will be at home to their many friends at Folsom, West Virginia, where Mr. Mann is employed by the South Penn Oil Co.

Joseph Rhoads Promoted.

On July 1st Joseph Rhoads was promoted from supervisor of the New York Division of the Pennsylvania four track line between New York and Philadelphia, to Assistant Engineer of the Eastern & Susquehanna Division of the Philadelphia & Erie Railroad, with headquarters at Williamsport, Pa., and will therefore move his family from Tacony, Pa., to the latter city. This is a good advance in standing with an increase in salary, and is a decided compliment to the young man, who is a Bellefonte boy, being a son of Mrs. Daniel Rhoads, of this place. Such promotions are won only on merit, and mean a great deal.

Fish Commissioner W. F. Meehan, of Harrisburg, was a Bellefonte visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Scott, cashier of the Equitable Life Insurance company of Pittsburg, is visiting at the McCargar home on East Bishop street.

Williams Reunion.

Saturday July 1st a meeting was held at Sugar Grove to arrange for the annual reunion of the Williams families. It was finally determined that the reunion be held in Miles Park, near Martha on Saturday Aug. 19th, 1905. For this event no special invitations will be sent out to anyone, and all members of the Williams families, friends and the public in general, are cordially invited to be present. Addresses will be made by prominent citizens, a programme of amusements will be provided including a game of ball, and a band will be present. All trains will stop at the grounds. For special information address G. G. Fink, Julian, Pa.

—Postmaster W. W. Montgomery was taken ill last week and since then has been confined to his home and now is able to be about the house. His condition is not considered serious.

—Early this Thursday morning members of company B, of Bellefonte left on a special train for the annual military encampment of the 2nd Brigade near Erie, Pa. The ambulance corps also of this place, went with them. Capt. Taylor has his company in good shape, and they are sure to have a nice location this year for the outing. They will be gone about ten days.
