

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

New potatoes are selling at the groceries at 65c per bushel. Mrs. H. S. Taylor, Jr., spent Saturday at her old home in Philipsburg. Mrs. Wm. Dix, of Dayton, Ohio, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Munson. Temp Cruse, of Pittsburg, visited his mother, on Saturday and Sunday. Herbert Bartley, of Lock Haven, visited his parents in Bush's Addition over Sunday. Desk blotters, 19x24, for free distribution at this office. Come and get one-free for the asking. Mrs. Lucy Moyer, of this place, is visiting at the home of her daughter in-law, Mrs. Clara Moyer, in Tyrone. It was a whopper—the sucker Jerry Shutt caught last Friday morning, an 18 inch sample. Spring creek at once fell. James McKee, of Wilkingsburg, is here to spend a two week's vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Stitzer. Misses Lulu and Hilda Thomas, of Philipsburg, are on a visit of a couple of weeks at the home of E. E. Davis, of this place. Berries of all kinds are quite plentiful in this county—also new potatoes, which sell at 60 to 65 per bu., old potatoes 25 to 30 cts. Wm. Daley, Harold Storm, Roy Landis and Jerome Dale have a camp in the mountain near Runville. They are out for ten days. Mrs. W. W. Rishel and daughter Margaret, of Braddock, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kramer, of South Spring street. Trout fishing season does not close until August 1st. By mistake sometime ago an item appeared in this paper stating that it closed on July 15th. The auto-livery of Samuel Brooks, at this place, is kept busy night and day answering calls. Some of the liveries in town talk of adding automobiles to their equipment for hire. Not every one who goes up Spring Creek these days is a fisherman, or pretends to be one. Some never attempt to catch a fish—it is a nice place though during this warm weather. Rev. Lightbourn, rector at Medina, Ohio, and Mrs. Lightbourn are spending the month of July as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Swayne. Mr. Lightbourn will preach in St. John's Episcopal church next Sunday morning. R. A. Beck, the barber, sold the residence on Linn street, occupied for several years by the J. Wesley Gephart family, on Monday to Dr. R. G. H. Hayes, which his family will occupy permanently as a home as soon as they gain possession. The price was $3500 which is remarkably low. An auto party consisting of Dr. O. W. Pellman, John Kleckner of Millburg; Miss Ruth Bottorf, of Lewisburg, and her sister Ella of Lemont arrived in town on Monday. They started from Millburg, and while here were the guests of their sister, Mrs. John Olewine, at the Masonic Camp; Miss Ruth Bottorf is an instructor in the musical department, Bucknell Seminary, at Lewisburg. Last Friday the Country Club held their annual meeting. The financial report showed that the organization never was on better footing. The officers elected are: President, Col. J. L. Spangler; Vice president, Dr. Jos. Brockerhoff; Edmund Blanchard; Treasurer, Geo. R. Meek. Board of Directors: Thos. Beaver, W. H. Walder and DeLon Stewart of Bellefonte, and John Anderson and R. B. Freeman, of Tyrone. The cutting down of the shade tree at the corner of the Brockerhoff House was a mistake. It was an ornament there, and since its removal the building looks bare. A beautiful shade tree beats all the stone, mud and brick that can be assembled; it takes a life time to grow trees and they should not be destroyed until it is absolutely necessary. One of the features in our town is the abundance of shade trees along our streets, although some are sadly neglected. Last Friday Geo. Hazel purchased the grocery store of Jared Harper, in Crider's Exchange and will continue the business. Mr. Harper sold for the reason that he wished to retire from business, as by force of circumstances had taken this store in charge. Mr. Hazel had been connected with the Joseph store for years as a clerk, and knows how to cater to the wants of the public. He is a young man of energy and integrity, and will be sure to get along in good shape. Burdine Butler, of Howard, illuminated the Democrat sanctum Monday morning, and made us happy by his presence. With him were three young Butlers, viz: Hugh McAllister, (named after Capt. Hugh Taylor and H. N. McAllister,) Thomas and daughter Margaret Ellen. One son was left at home; this one, he informed us, is a 17-pound boy who arrived there last week one day, and he will be named Fortney, in honor of an upright lawyer and member of the Bellefonte bar. Burdine's choice of names is to be commended and the little ones never need be ashamed of their names or their "Pap."

Wm. T. Burnside is on a health seeking journey to Atlantic City. Early apples made their appearance at the curb market a few days ago. Miss Helen Crissman is on a visit to friends in Sunbury, Bethlehem and Lansford. Mrs. Curtin Sprinkle, of Pittsburg, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jas. Sharp, on East Lamb street. Mrs. W. I. Dagget and three children left last week for a month's visit with friends in Tioga county. Prof. Wm. M. Davis, of Harvard College, and a party of nine were in town on Friday studying the rock formations. Maurice A. Jackson is away on a weeks visit with his mother and sister, Mrs. Geo. W. Jackson and Mrs. Geo. P. Brew, at Ronceverte, West Va. We are not hearing of any brag catches of bass from the Bald Eagle Creek. The man with a mess of trout in his basket is an equally rare sight. Frederick K. Foster, who sold his insurance business to H. E. Fenlon, left Bellefonte on July 2nd for Radnor, Pa., where he has accepted an excellent position. Mrs. J. Victor Royer, of Altoona, is a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Faxon, on High street, while Mr. Royer is attending the encampment of Co. B. The McEntire family expects to locate at Bradford, Pa., but will not move until later in the season. Guy McEntire is now located at that place and holds a splendid position. Miss Helen E. Overton, head of the primary department at the Academy, will spend her summer vacation with friends in Clarksburg, West Va., Wilmington, Del., and in Philadelphia. The old Rankin property, corner of Howard and Spring streets, has been torn away by M. I. Gardner who will erect a residence for himself. His present home will be occupied by C. M. Parrish. The new bridge across the race at the Pa. R. R. station is completed and has all the appearance of being a first class job. The railroad company will raise the siding there to conform with the bridge level. Charles Lucas and Thomas Shearer, of this place, who have been working on the High street bridge have been given a permanent job with the York Bridge Company. They went along to Huntingdon county where the company is putting in a new county bridge. J. Fred Kurtz and wife of Lewisburg, accompanied by Mr. Rogers of New York, the principal inventor for the firm that manufactures the Mergenthaler Linotype machine, also with his wife, toured a part of the county by carriage last week, were in Bellefonte last Saturday. By an explosion of natural gas in the record vault at the court house, Charleston, W. Va., last Friday Col. George W. Patton, an attorney, was seriously injured. Mr. Patton years ago was a resident of Bellefonte and conducted a jewelry store in the room now occupied by F. P. Blair & Co. While driving near Roland on Sun-Isaac Seger had a peculiar experience. The horse tramped on a loose stone in the road and fell, breaking its leg between the hoof and the joint. The injury was so serious that it was deemed best to kill the animal. It was one of the best drivers from Geo. Beezer's livery. Wm. H. Miller, for several years express messenger on the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania from here to Mill Hall, left on Monday for Punksutawney where he has accepted a position with the American Express Co., on the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh from Punksutawney to Indiana county. His place on the Central will be filled by Walter Armstrong. Recent callers: Jacob Emeric, of Millheim; C. P. Long, the Spring Mills merchant, Mrs. Geo. Murray and daughter Imilda, of Richmond, Ind.; Miss Nannie Campbell, of Julian, an interesting trio, Mrs. Murray and daughter being here on a visit from Indiana; J. T. Zeigler, of Pleasant Gap; Mary Eberhart, E. High street; Philip Grenoble, wife and little son Curtis, of State College; Isaac Frain, of Marion; Hon. J. A. Daley, of Curtin; John Miller, of Rock Springs, stopped to give us a handshake. Hecla Park Picnics. The following dates have been engaged for picnics at Hecla Park this season: July 21st—M. E. Sunday school, Lock Haven. July 22nd—1st Baptist church of Lock Haven. July 26—United Brethren of Bellefonte. July 27th—Reformed church reunion of Centre and Clinton counties. July 29th—Sunday school at Nigh Bank. Aug. 2nd—Salvation Army, Bellefonte. Aug. 3rd—A. M. E. church of Bellefonte. Aug. 5th—M. E. Sunday school, Mill Hall. Aug. 9th—Sunday school, Salona. Aug. 10th—M. E. Sunday school, Bellefonte. Aug. 15—Yearly families reunion. Aug. 22nd—Business Men's Picnic. Sept. 4th—Union Labor Picnic, Bellefonte. Every Friday afternoon and evening free concerts by Christie Smith's orchestra during the summer season.

Mrs. Edward Garman is visiting friends in Philipsburg. Mrs. Kate Rhoads, of Williamsport, is visiting John P. Harris. Frank Sasserman is acting as barber for the soldier boys at Erie this week. Miss Bessie Gilmore returned Tuesday morning to her home in Philadelphia. W. Homer Crissman attended the funeral of Wm. Grauer, at Altoona, on Tuesday. Col. E. R. Chambers left Wednesday for the National Guard Encampment at Erie. Hon. A. O. Furst's office is being refitted this week and will be a cozy den when completed. John Hollenbach, of Philipsburg, recently passed a successful examination before the State Board permitting him to practice dentistry. During a heavy thunder and rain storm last Thursday the lightning struck the Lutheran church at Shiloh, Centre county, and shattered it considerably. Samuel Ellenberger, of Hoff Moon Valley, has a Bible which his ancestors brought from Germany where it was printed in 1553. The book is well preserved. The marriage of James Sandoe, a son of Wm. Sandoe of Centre Hall and Miss Grace Lena Casterline, of Allegheny took place recently. The groom is a railroad engineer. Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Gruver, of Howard, announce the marriage of their daughter Flora L., to George X. Draucker, of Lock Haven, Pa., which occurred recently at Wilmington, Del. John Scott and Bertha Warner, both of State College, were married at the residence of B. F. Marshall, Lock Haven, by Rev. M. F. Fosselman of the Evangelical church, on Sunday evening. Miss Nettie Herman, daughter of Jacob Herman, of College township, and a graduate of the Bellefonte hospital training school, has accepted a position in the Cottage hospital Philipsburg. Surg. Fred Dale, U. S. A., will spend several weeks with his parents at Belmont. He has been assigned to the post at Walla Walla, Wash., and in the fall he will be raised to the rank of Captain. Walter Loveland Weaver of Axe Mann and Miss Laura Mary Runkle of Centre Hall were united in marriage Tuesday morning. Rev. John A. Wood, Jr., of the Methodist church performed the ceremony. C. W. Hosterman has taken charge of the mail line from Woodward to Coburn, vice A. M. Yearick; C. M. Sheets, the line from Madisonburg to Millheim; vice J. F. Miller, and M. C. Haines the line from Rebersburg to Coburn, vice C. H. Smith. James Corl, of Fairmont, Neb., who with his father, Nathan Corl, left Harris twp. during the sixties, is visiting the old homestead. Mr. Corl was engaged in the mercantile business, but recently sold the business to his sons. He is a nephew of Robert Corl, of Boalsburg. During a thunder storm Monday of last week lightning struck and badly shattered the barn of C. H. Small at Rebersburg. The electricity followed the wire netting surrounding the poultry yard, near the barn and played the peculiar prank of stripping a number of chickens of their feathers. Mrs. Henry Eisenhuth, of Ingleby, Centre county, was severely bitten by a copperhead snake on the morning of July 6th. She went to the wood house in her bare feet when the snake bit her on the toe. She is in a very serious condition and is being attended by Dr. Frank of Millheim. A large sawmill located east of Aaronsburg and owned by G. W. Keister was entirely destroyed by fire Friday morning, June 30th. About 10,000 feet of chestnut boards and 30,000 lath were also burned. Loss $600, with no insurance. The engine was not damaged to any extent. Adam Finkle has moved his mill to the timber tract he recently purchased from the Evans estate in Gregg township and is now converting it into lumber. This tract contains several giant trees, last week one was cut measuring at the stump one inch less than six feet in diameter and making logs one hundred and forty-seven feet in length. The thirteenth annual picnic of the citizens of Pennsylvania Furnace will be held Saturday, August 5, at the Baileyville driving park, one-half mile east of Pennsylvania Furnace station. There will be all kinds of races and other amusements, abundant refreshments, and an evening cake walk and festival. Several bands are expected. The L. & T. trains will stop at Crain's crossing for the convenience of picnic passengers. Haymaking and harvest in this county are about ended. In some counties the season is from a week to ten days earlier. The hay crop was gathered nearly two-thirds of it, in good condition without having been exposed to showers, the balance, last week, was caught by the frequent rains. The wheat has been hauled in mostly this week in good condition; farmers tell us it was not as well filled in the heads as expected but that the kernel is of good quality. It is somewhat less than an average crop, which was owing to the cold weather in May and the exposure to cold weather early in the winter, from which it recovered later under the snows that fell and afforded the plant the needed protection.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Chas. W. Smith, of near Howard, at present is in California on a visit. A festival will be held at Fillmore, Saturday evening, July 29, for the benefit of the Sunday school. Mrs. Rebecca Sparr, of Boalsburg, has been ill for the past few months and is in a very critical condition. The Disciples of Blanchard will hold their annual picnic in the grove, near that place, on Saturday, July 22nd; all are invited. The Farmers Mills Union Sunday school will hold a festival at the Union church July 22nd. The Penn Hall band will furnish the music. John Hollenbach, of Philipsburg, recently passed a successful examination before the State Board permitting him to practice dentistry. During a heavy thunder and rain storm last Thursday the lightning struck the Lutheran church at Shiloh, Centre county, and shattered it considerably. Samuel Ellenberger, of Hoff Moon Valley, has a Bible which his ancestors brought from Germany where it was printed in 1553. The book is well preserved. The marriage of James Sandoe, a son of Wm. At an adjourned session of court at Middleburg, Snyder county, James G. Crouse, one of the oldest and most prominent members of the Snyder county bar, presented his petition to withdraw as an attorney from the several courts of the county. In an interview Mr. Crouse said that when he makes his reasons public they will prove of intense interest to every person in Pennsylvania. Mr. Crouse has taken down his sign and is now forever precluded from practicing law in Snyder county. This caused much speculation, and Mr. Crouse promises a sensation when he announces his reasons. When the landlord can't collect his rent, its time to get a move on.
