

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

Mrs. Henry P. Harris is now at Canton, Ohio, visiting friends. Desk blotters, 19x24 inches, given away at this office for the asking. Saturday's rain was timely and welcome—just what was needed to help the corn. Mrs. Patsy Stewart and two grandchildren are on a two weeks' visit at Wilkesbarre. Mrs. Rose Sternberg Lyon, of Philadelphia, is a guest at the home of Mrs. C. M. Bower. Mrs. Hannah Ayers, of Bridgton, N. J., is visiting the family of Rev. Dr. William Laurie. The Misses White and Crissman will open their dancing class in the Bush Arcade, Oct. 1st. Will Rowe has successfully passed the civil service examination for a clerk in the railway mail service. Mrs. J. E. Ward and children returned last week from a two months' visit with friends in Freeport, Ill. Bass fisherman are returning from the Baldeagle thoroughly disgusted. Either are scarce or don't bite. There is little danger of our town council taking up the steam street roller question for some time to come. Miss Bertha Shaffner, of Philadelphia, is a guest for the summer at the home of her uncle Clifford Thomas. The steam Heat Company are putting the finishing touches on our streets. Bellefonte has had an awful dose of it. Prof. John Hosterman, assistant principal of the Bellefonte High school, has leased the Ryan property on Thomas street. Miss May Judge, of Thomas street, is entertaining Miss Smith, of Philipsburg, and Mrs. Francis McMorgan with her three children, of Philadelphia. J. Coburn Rogers, son of Mrs. Evelyn Rogers and nephew of Col. James P. Coburn, has been made first assistant surgeon in the State hospital at Hazleton. Nineteen passengers from Bellefonte and a great many from other points in the county took advantage of the Pennsylvania railroad excursion to Atlantic City last Thursday. A large number of foreigners have quit work at the limestone quarries and furnaces in this place and gone to other parts of the State to work on the railroad, where higher wages are paid. The monument and soldiers' picnic committee held a meeting in the office of Esq. Henry Musser on Saturday. Hecla Park was chosen as the place to hold the next Veteran's annual picnic, August 17. H. C. Baney, of Atlantic City, accompanied H. H. Benner to Bellefonte Wednesday evening, who is in poor health and will remain with his sisters in the hope that the change of climate will benefit him. Mrs. W. E. Delaney and two children, Lucille and Eugene, of State Run, are visiting her sister Mrs. James Noonan at the Brandt house. The Noonan's also are entertaining Howard Gargan and Richard McDermott, of New York City. Strohm Lose, son of John Lose, formerly of Bellefonte, is now a member of the crew of the U. S. warship Texas. He recently passed an examination for a machinist in the navy with an average of 99.50, and was at once appointed junior machinist on the Texas. People living on the high points of town frequently are out of water. When that $5,000 was spent on a 12 inch line to the reservoir, that was claimed to overcome the trouble. The Water committee should try some other expensive experiment—at any cost, no matter if we have exceeded the debt limit. Dr. Hiller, who has been visiting here for a month, last week went to Potter county where there was reported good trout fishing. But he returned, reporting the speckled beauties were every bit as scarce up there as in these parts. Where, oh where, are all the trout? Father Meehan, call the roll. Harry U. Tibbens, who now is an ad. writer for the Geo. W. Snook company, of Wheeling, W. Va., with his wife and two sons, Frederic and Louis, are here on a two weeks' visit to friends in this vicinity. Mr. Tibbens has become an expert in that line having worked on some of the best papers in the state. We are glad to learn that John Van Pelt has so far recovered in health as to be able to appear upon our streets. He expects to spend next winter in California in hopes that the mild climate of that section will be of benefit to him. Just now he is looking for some one to care for his business interests during his absence.—Barnesboro Star. The prospects for the opening of the Bellefonte Academy never were more promising than at present. Principal James R. Hughes reports many new students enlisted from all sections, while the day students will be more than usual. The Academy now enters upon its second century in a most flourishing condition. The opening date will be Tuesday September 12th.

Tuesday morning we had the best attended market of the season. Col. J. L. Spangler and wife have returned home from Bedford Springs. Wm. H. Walker, of Philadelphia, is visiting his brother, John S. Walker. Miss Effie Hamilton, of Beaver Falls, Pa., is being entertained by Miss Emma Aiken's. Philip Beezer is making some extensive improvements to his home on Bishop street. Mrs. Daniel Heckman and Miss Della Heckman are visiting friends in Penns valley. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCarger have returned home from a delightful two weeks outing through Canada. Charles P. Hughes, Esq., and daughters, Miss Rebecca Hughes, of Erie, Pa., are Bellefonte visitors this week. Mr. and Mrs. Al S. Garman, of Tyrore, are in Atlantic City, where he is assisting at the new Centralia hotel. Miss Frances Elmore submitted to an operation in the St. Luke Hospital in Philadelphia under Dr. Vischer on the 17th. Bellefonte escaped the base ball fever this season. We have a few enthusiasts who diligently watch the daily score. Mrs. Jacob Valentine and two children, of Pittsburg, was called home by the serious illness of her father, William Houser, of this place. Jas. A. B. Miller, Esq., has purchased the house on Curtin street now occupied by Miles Walker for the purpose of making it his permanent home. Herb Shaffer and family moved this week from Pittsburg to Bellefonte. Being unable to secure a suitable home, they will store their goods temporarily. Misses Jennie, Charlotte and Lillian Crittenden are in Bellefonte for the summer visiting their father Rev. Richard Crittenden at his home on Curtin street. Wm. Kurtz, formerly the book store man in Bellefonte, spent several days of the past week in town, visiting friends. Billy is located in Berwick, Pa., where he is managing a job office. The United Brethren church will hold a festival this Thursday evening in front of Amos Gerberich's residence at Coleville. All are cordially invited to come and bring their friends. The open air concert on Saturday evening will be an attraction. The Coleville band will hold forth as usual in front of the Bush House and Smith's orchestra will be in front of the Brockerhoff. Doc. O. W. McEntire and Will Weber, two prominent individuals from Howard, were in town on Monday making contracts for supplies for the big fireman's picnic at that place August 12th. They promise much in the line of entertainment. On Monday evening about 7 o'clock Mrs. Emil Joseph and Mrs. Samuel Lewin were driving out the pike and when about half way to Axe Mann Brook's automobile came along and the horse frightened backing over the embankment and throwing the ladies out. The ladies were bruised but not seriously injured. The law firm of Gettig, Bower & Zerby will have a branch office at Millheim, in the room occupied by D. L. Zerby, Justice of the Peace. Some member of this firm will be there on the second Friday of each month for the purpose of consulting clients in that section. This will prove a great convenience to their clients. J. C. Stere, merchant, of Fleming, was in town Monday morning attending to business. He became successor to the firm of "H. M. & J. B. Stere" of that place, August 1st and will give the mercantile business his entire attention in the future, enlarging his stock and will be better prepared to meet the demands of his patrons than formerly. He has a good business and hosts of friends. Robt. F. Hunter purchased a fine Franklin automobile in Philadelphia last week and made the tour home with the critter. Instead of making the trip in about two days as scheduled, it was nearer six. The delays and accidents on the route are too numerous to mention and since home has put it in the auto-hospital for repairs, and have not heard the result of the diagnosis. Bob is cheerful, and in a few days expects to have the "chew" machine in operation when he promises to dust some fellows. The ponderous roller used on High street last week to pack the crushed stone covering, was sent back again to Williamsport after a trial, because it was not suited for the purpose desired. It would not pack the crushed stone to such a solid mass as to withstand the tread of horses and the passage of wagons, which would readily loosen up the crushed stone dressing after being smoothed by the roller. For roads differently constructed and concrete pavements in cities and elsewhere, these rollers will do good work. Ordinary hauling over High street will gradually pack and render solid the stone dressing now covering this street.

Mrs. Frank McCoy is quite ill at her home. Robert Pierson, of Burnham, is visiting friends in our town at present. Olin Meek, of Philadelphia, is spending part of his vacation in Bellefonte. Jim Furst wound up the trout season by landing a 15 inch trout, extra heavy. The new iron bridge over the Buffalo Run creek at Coleville is about completed. Mrs. Mary B. White, of Milroy, is visiting her brother, Gen. James A. Beaver. The next big event will be the Business Men's Picnic at Hecla Park August 22nd. Mrs. Andrew J. Cook gave a large dinner party Tuesday noon at her Linn street home. Miss Jennie Thomas, of Minersville, Lancaster county, is visiting her brother, Mr. F. H. Thomas. Mrs. Mollie Valentine gave a card party to a number of friends on Tuesday evening at the Bush House. Mrs. Flora Dale and her two children, Jack and Virginia, have returned home from a two months' visit to Richmond, Va. Mrs. Nathan Reisman and daughter Miriam, of Princeton, Ind. and Mrs. Joseph Metz and little son, of Trenton, Ky., are visiting their father, Abram Baum. The brick on the race bridge in spots need relaying as there are many low places where pools of water form, and make it decidedly unpleasant for pedestrians. Misses Lenore Hoop and Della Cross, of Philipsburg, came to Bellefonte on Tuesday to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. Hugh Taylor. Miss Ruth Irwin will join the party on Thursday. To-day the colored folks Sabbath School picnic will be held at Hecla Park, and will no doubt be largely attended, as the population of those people here is quite large and they have a flourishing church. Rev. L. W. Gross of Maryland will fill the Lutheran pulpit of this place on Sabbath next, morning and evening. He is a young man, graduate of the college and Seminary at Gettysburg, and is now serving his first charge. Dr. Fisher, of Zion, just before the close of the trout season, helped a "speckled beauty" out of upper Spring creek, that weighed a few ounces less than two pounds. The Doc. always has something big—big suckers, big trout and big practice. Last Saturday Thomas A. Shoemaker, of this place, was awarded the contract for building two tunnels on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, at Mt. Airy, Md. The contract is a large one and will require the largest part of the year, with a large gang of men, to complete. Recent callers: S. S. Williams, who graduated recently at Bethany College, W. Va., now of Howard; Jas. L. Neff, of Mingoville; Ed. Emel, of Buffalo Run; Homer Noll, of Lock Haven; Jacob Harter and son, of Haines, who report all crops, except apples, good down there; W. P. Jingle, of Gregg; and reports apples scarce over there; F. I. McClellan, of Tusseyville, about to move to Clearfield county, in the employ of the N. Y. C. R. R.; F. H. Stover, of Coburn; Arbor Evert, of same place, and reports all crops good in that section; Mrs. Cora Marks, of Clearfield, and Annie Marks, of Vilas; R. B. Lucas, of Roland; A. J. Reesman, of Centre Hall, who came here Tuesday to meet Mrs. Reesman on a return from a five weeks' visit to Joliet, Ill. Station Robbed. Friday evening the baggage room at the Penna. R. R. station was entered and a suit case and a telescope were taken. Entrance was gained by pulling the staple on the sliding door, with an iron rod. Next day the suit case was found almost entirely burned, including the contents, having been thrown on the hot slag at the cinder dump of the Nittany Furnace. The case belonged to a young man who came here the next day to work in Sasserman's barber shop. The telescope was owned by Mrs. Ott of this place. It is supposed that the robbery was committed between 10 and 11 p.m., as two men were seen going out by the Match Factory at that hour with similar bundles and they acted very peculiar, trying to avoid being seen. The officers have no idea who committed the deed. There were no valuables outside of wearing apparel in the two packages taken. Nothing else was disturbed by them. The Potato Crop Outlook. According to the Lock Haven Express farmers predict that potatoes will bring a dollar per bushel by fall. It is already apparent that the crop will be a failure. It appears, however from reports received from various quarters, that a blight has fallen upon the potato crop and the yield may be scarcely half a one. In many fields the potato vines are dying or are already dead. Potatoes grew nicely until about a week or so ago when they suddenly turned black and began to droop and die. A jolly crowd of young ladies have been camping at Hecla Park for the past ten days at "Kamp Komfort." In the party are Misses Grace Miller and Decker, Pearl Hoy, Nell Rothermel and Mary Rumberger, of Hubbersburg, and they are having a good time.

OVER THE COUNTY. The Howard fire brick plant is now in operation. Michael Segner bought the Alfred Osman property, east of Boalsburg from Geo. Hosterman. Mrs. Geo. Meyer is laid up with an attack of typhoid fever at her mothers home in Baileyville. F. K. Kaup left Boalsburg Monday for Sunbury where he will be installed as night clerk of the Alden hotel. Dr. James C. McIntyre, of Bellefonte, was admitted to the Lock Haven hospital for surgical treatment on Friday. Rev. C. T. Aikens delivered an address at Lakemont Park, Altoona, last Thursday. The occasion was Lutheran day. The Houserville United Brethren church will be reopened with services Saturday evening and Sunday morning, August 13 and 14. Nights and morning are cool. An old German saying runs, "Wann der Wind ueber die haver Stubben geht, dann muss die Weibslait an's Spinn." Last week Peter Smith, of Centre Hill, was stricken with paralysis. He has much improved since, although his left side and arm are somewhat affected. The Howard Canning factory will be put in operation this week. They will run two days a week at the start. The establishment proved a good investment last season. S. Ward Gramley, of Spring Mills, has been elected principal of the Mt. Union, Huntingdon county, schools, at a salary much higher than he received as teacher at Centre Hall. The Lutheran Sunday school of Pine Hall will hold their annual picnic, August 12, in Johnson's woods at Pine Hall. It will be a basket picnic to which every one is cordially invited. H. H. Long, of Lemont, who recently graduated in dentistry from a Philadelphia college, has decided to locate in Berwick. He expected to have his office open by the first of August. O. C. Frank, principal of the Rebersburg High School, resigned his position, and will go to Bloomsburg where he has been elected assistant principal of the High School to teach Latin, Greek, botany and history. Theodore Boal, of Boalsburg, bought Harry C. Shirk's farm and also another tract of land from Michael Segner near Boalsburg. Mr. Boal now has a continuous strip of land extending from Oak Hall, southward to the foot of Tussey Mountain. The members of the Reformed church of Houserville will hold a festival on the church lawn Saturday 12th. Arrangements are being made to make it one of the largest occasions of the kind of the season. Come and have a good time and serve a good purpose. Centre Co. Pomona, No. 13, will meet in the hall of Bald Eagle Grange at Milesburg, August 24, (Thursday) 10 am. All 4th degree members are cordially invited to attend; 5th degree will be conferred in the afternoon. Geo. Dale, master; D. M. Campbell, secretary. Rev. Amos A. Parr was installed pastor of St. John's English Lutheran church of Lock Haven last Sabbath. The address to the pastor was made at the evening service by Rev. J. N. Reaick, of Centre Hall, president of the Central Pennsylvania synod of the Lutheran church. C. P. Reese, of near Snow Shoe, will leave for Vancouver about the middle of August where he is engaged in the lumber business, the family however will not go until spring, they hope to make their home in Seattle. Mr. Reese early in spring made a trip through that section and decided to make this change. Lewis Isele, many years ago having his home with Samuel Huston east of Centre Hall, is in that vicinity. He buried his wife, nee Nettie Krader, some two months ago. Mr. Isele has been living in Philadelphia since he left Centre county, and will be remembered by many of the Democrat's readers on the south side. On Tuesday Wm. Tyson of Tyrore, entertained at the Country Club, the two parties camping at Hecla Park. The following were guests: The Misses Grace Miller and Laura Knight, of Lock Haven; Edna Decker, Pearl Hoy, and Mary Rumberger, of Hubbersburg, and Nelle Rathmael of Lamar at Camp Komfort, Messers. Tyson, Francisius, Davis, Freeman and Mock of Tyrore, at Camp Tyrore. Will Smith, of Spring Mills, contributes the following to the season's crop of snake stories. He says he killed a black snake eight feet long and of unusual thickness. The reptile was unusual when it was discovered she had swallowed two lambs weighing one hundred and fifty pounds. Attention to the presence of the snake had been called by the pitiful bleating of the lambs while in the snake's slimy belly.—Next! G. N. Erhard, of Wellington, Ks., a son of the well known T. G. Erhard who went to Kansas many years ago from Aaronsburg, was a caller being in on a visit to friends in this county. The young man likes Kansas for farming, they average 15 to 20 bushels of wheat to the acre, and he says the item some one sent to the Democrat of a yield of 90 bushels to the acre, on a certain farm, is a big mistake. His father, Thomas Erhard, he informs us, is in good health and is also pleased with Kansas.

Mrs. J. B. Heberling of Pine Grove Mills, is on the sick list. At most places in the county huckleberries are selling for 5 and 6 cents per quart and are plenty at that. M. B. Fisher has purchased Thomas M. Allen's general store at Boalsburg. An entire new and fresh line of goods is being put in. The high schools of Aaronsburg, Centre Hall and Pine Grove Mills are all wanting teachers, the first two at $60 per month, the last at $50. The school directors, of Philipsburg, to accommodate the increasing roll of scholars, are obliged to add another room or two to their fine school building. Mrs. Lizzie R. Crum and sister, Emma Reese, of Port Matilda, left on Wednesday for an extended visit to friends at Lock Haven and Driftwood. They will be gone about three weeks. By direction of President Roosevelt, Captain H. William Hay, of the Tenth Cavalry, is detailed as professor of military science and tactics at the Pennsylvania State College, to take effect September 15, 1905, to relieve Captain Edward P. Lawton Nineteenth Infantry, who will join his regiment in the Philippines. Joseph Lauer, a young man aged 18, son of Jacob Lauer, of Lock Haven, while swinging at the Reformed picnic at Hecla park slipped from the board while high in the air, fell to the ground at the edge of the lake, and then rolled into the water. He was rendered unconscious, in which condition he remained for an hour and a half. Drilling for oil, gas, or anything that may be struck that is valuable, is still going on at Centre Hall. The depth thus far reached by the drill is some 400 feet. Obstacles encountered upon several occasions have greatly retarded the drilling. The depth to be sounded was fixed for 3000 feet unless "pay dirt" was struck sooner, which would cause rejoicing. The United Brethren church at Houserville, Pa., will be re-opened with appropriate services on Sunday August 13, 1905 at 10 o'clock am. This church has been remodeled inside and out and is now one of the prettiest little churches in Centre county. The executive committee of the church is composed as follows: James Clark, president; Rev. D. J. Davis, secretary; William Schreck, treasurer; Geo. Williams, Arthur Wasson, Christian Houser, and Rev. D. J. Davis, pastor. LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS. NOTICE.—The firm of "H. M. & J. B. Stere" merchants, doing business at Fleming, Pa., was dissolved Saturday, August 1st, 1905. The assets of the firm are being sold to the highest bidder. J. C. Stere becomes the successor to said firm and will continue the business. All accounts are left in his possession for collection. Those holding claims will also present same to him for payment. H. M. STERE, J. B. STERE, Fleming, Aug. 1st, 1905. REGISTER'S NOTICE.
