

Correspondents' Department

The news in condensed form from all parts of Centre County

SPRING MILLS.

C. J. Finkel has sold his lot where his store stands, near the postoffice, to J. H. Rishel the Farmers Mills merchant...

WOODWARD.

Roy Musser had the misfortune of being bitten by a dog owned by Adam Weaver.

JULIAN.

Mrs. Eva and Nina Davis visited G. W. Parsons of Williamsport last week and both girls report of having a fine time.

HOWARD.

Mrs. Spangler and daughter Alice, of Chicago, Ill., are visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Wistar.

NITTANY.

Miss Talitha Hoy, of Hublersburg, was the guest of Miss Ida Gunsallus over Sunday.

R. U. Bitner, the practical house painter, has more contracts now than he will get through with this fall.

A. C. Finkel in now sawing out the Evans tract which he bought last winter; there never was any better lumber of all kinds shipped out of this county...

H. M. and J. W. Goodman fetched a traction engine from Clintondale, Thursday.

J. B. Gentzel and wife attended the clearance sale at Millheim, Saturday.

Mrs. G. S. Mixon and Effa Bodle of Punxsutawney are visiting parents for a few weeks.

Mrs. Faxon and daughter Belle, of Bellefonte, were guests at the home of L. C. Bullock this week.

Mrs. Louise Comertford made a visit with friends in Williamsport.

Mrs. Mabel Mann was visiting friends and relatives in Beech Creek.

Messrs. Wm. Weber, Wm. Mayes, W. E. Confer and daughter Pearl were to Mill Hall to see the ball game between the Trolley Dodgers and Renovo.

Mr. Daley and his wife departed for a two week's visit to Philadelphia and other cities.

Mrs. McGhee and baby have returned to their home at MaGhee's Mills.

Miss Alice Long, a graduate of Lock Haven Normal, departed for West Virginia where she has secured a school for the coming winter.

Cameron Holter was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday.

Last Thursday a very destructive storm passed over the farming district, east of Howard. The hail was so large and heavy that the corn stalks were completely stripped of their leaves...

Do not forget the Firemen's picnic that is to be held in Butler's grove, on Aug. 12. They have promised a good time for everybody...

Squire Grove and Peter Smith were in town on business.

The Centre Hall scrub ball team crossed bats with our team last Saturday; the score stood 8 to 25 in favor of our team.

G. C. King has finished his house with a new coat of paint which adds greatly to the appearance of his home; let others follow.

No complaint yet among the farmers of any starvation—plenty of everything; but some think that the potatoes will be a scarcity, at the same time they have about two or three acres' but the late rains fixed up the corn.

Smith Bros's furniture wagons are out all the time delivering furniture; there is no let up from their spring trade, they have the best furniture in the valley...

Mrs. Mary Smith and son, and Mrs. T. A. Hugg, of Milesburg, spent a few days of last week at H. A. Witherite's.

John Coakley, who has been working at Medix Run, returned to his home at this place.

Mrs. Laura Walker spent a couple of days last week at Mrs. D. F. Poorman's.

Miss Eva Witherite spent Saturday in Milesburg.

James Smoyer, Claud Lucas and Thos. Poorman, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday at this place.

A pie party was held at Miss Jennie Shirks, of Chestnut Grove, on last Saturday at Wingate.

Forest, the three year old son of Rev. Mumman, who had his arm broken recently is getting along nicely under the skillful treatment of Dr. Irvin, of Unionville.

Preaching services at the U. B. church next Sunday evening at 7:30 by Rev. Bingham.

Mrs. Alice Quick and children, who spent last Sunday at Tyrone, returned to their home at this place.

Mrs. John Coakley, who has been attending campmeeting at Tyrone, returned to her home at this place.

Miss Mabel Page, of Eagleville, is visiting with her aunt and uncle Daniel Boob's.

Charles Kunes, wife and little daughter are visiting at the home of G. D. Hoover's.

Verna Moran, of Unionville, spent a few days at the home of G. D. Hoover's.

Misses Mayme Moore, Alma Iddings and Eva Gill departed on Saturday for Pittsboro.

David McCloskey, while on the Allegheny mountain on Saturday, captured two rattlesnakes one measuring 4 feet, 3 1/2 inches, and the other 3 feet, 2 inches.

Willis Hoover, of Altoona, Sundayed at the home of Ezra Fisher's.

Misses Edith Wagner and Ester Frieze accompanied by Dr. Peters, of Milesburg, spent Sunday at the home of Dan'l Boob's.

Clara Hoover, of Altoona, is spending a few days at her home.

Diddle, how do you like huckleberry pie? Horseback riding and boat rowing is all the go now.

Those who are on the sick list are improving.

Howard Bowersox spent a few days at this place last week.

Say Slipper, how would you like to be an expert driver for such good pay.

C. W. K. and Slipper made a flying trip to Aaronsburg, Saturday night.

Motz & Stover moved their steam saw mill from the Reed job, on their own job in the Narrows which will soon be in full bloom.

Say Lute next time they come around you want to be about or there will be others.

Warren Smith and family were the guests at the home of Allen Yearick's Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Huss, from Rising Spring, is the guest at the home of N. W. Eby's.

Geo. Earhart and wife were welcome callers at the home of E. H. Musser's over Sunday.

Wilson S. Ard, after spending some time in Denver, Col., returned home on last Monday.

Geo. Walter and family, from Johnstown, are visiting their friends and relatives in this community.

While Mr. Walters was fishing at the dam on Saturday he had the misfortune of losing his pocketbook, which contained $5 in gold, in about eight feet of water and after grappling for some time and not getting any signs of it he offered $5 to the one who would get it for him. Clayton Sheesley was the lucky contestant.

Miss Meriam Keister, from Aaronsburg, is visiting her brother Wm., at this place.

Wm. Bowersox, from Brushvalley, visited at T. D. Bowersox's on Sunday.

Charles Sampsel, who is working at Harrisburg, is visiting his friends in this community.

Miss Agnes Scanlon, of Axeman, after a fortnight visit with Mrs. Ross Wallace, returned home.

John Green and wife, of Canton, Pa., after a short visit with his father and sister, returned home.

Frank Shroyer, of Tyrone, was a recent guest of his parents.

John W. S. Morris, son of J. C. Morris, is very ill at this writing.

The base ball game played Saturday the 5th, between Curtin and Milesburg, was won by Milesburg. Score 24 to 13. James Jeffries is a hard striker, landing the ball far away making a home run.

Wm. B. Miles has made improvements to his dwelling home, has now a very pretty home.

John E. Miles has built an addition to his house which improves it very much.

Mrs. John Fulton, of Phillipsburg, after a brief visit to her mother returned home.

Mrs. Solomon Shay with three of her children visited her parents at Yarnell.

Miss Mae Appleton, after a weeks visit with her parents at Curwensville, returned home.

Miss Wilson, of Pittsburg, is visiting her friend Miss Sarah Hartsock.

Mrs. G. S. Mixon and Effa Bodle of Punxsutawney are visiting parents for a few weeks.

Mrs. Faxon and daughter Belle, of Bellefonte, were guests at the home of L. C. Bullock this week.

When a young man asks the father politely for the daughter to become his wife and the father resists, what is the next best plan to take?

Danl. Gross says, go to York state, well he was wise and took this plan and was accompanied by Miss Fannie Milton who boarded the 9 a. m. train one day last week.

The couple are from Warriors Mark; Fannie came to grand-ma Fousts about a week prior to Mr. Gross, and this little game worked all to the good in their part of the bluff.

It is a very bad habit for the young men to jump freight trains, but does it better if any for young ladies to fall in to this habit? There are two young ladies who thought they were having a good time one evening last week jumping on and off a west bound freight train not realizing the danger that was ahead of them. Now don't do it again, or F. W. Dillen will give you a call.

John DeHaas left last Monday for Eagleville to work on a farm for a couple of months. And now the report is Jack is homesick already, he says he can't find time to play ball down there like he can here.

James Andrews is on the sick list, we all wish him speedy recovery.

Ira and Alfred, on the night of the festival, did not think it was so muddy, well it was not so bad on the road, but traveling through a corn field caused both young men to purchase a new pair of shoes next morning. Ira said he did not care for the shoes as he ate half of six pumpkin pies that night—where is the other half Alfred I—? This caused both boys to leave afterward as Milligan was after them.

We understand the festival held by the M. E. Church was quite a success, the net receipts were 40 dollars.

Fred Lucas, who is employed on the B. R. & P. R. R., is visiting his parents in this place. Everyone is glad to see Fred again.

Mr. Deihl, an enterprising Sabbath school worker, spent a couple days in our town getting up a Sunday school convention.

Our hats off to the young man in Snow Shoe who paid such a flattering compliment to our girls. But at the same time please permit us to say that if he saw any thing green it must assuredly have been the reflection off of himself.

W. C. Barrow returned from a weeks visit with his parents in Ringtown.

Ye people should come and take in our new race track. An exciting race was held there some time ago between Burn's ex-Dan Patch and McGarrity's mule. Of course Dick came out best man as usual. For particulars inquire of J. Hamler, also certain of the Moshannon girls may be able to give some information regarding its location.

Dr. Cramer has purchased a fine new pacer, Dock Bridget is a fine driver. Hire her, Doc, and she won't break your neck helping you out either.

Mrs. Jno. McGowan and infant daughter Helen is visiting her brother Fred Mosebarger, at the Haag House in Bellefonte.

Miss Margaret Gleason, brothers Jas. and Maurice, are attending the A. O. of H. convention in Houtzdale.

Miss Margaret Kerrin is visiting her cousin, Maria Kerrin, in Houtzdale.

Mrs. Geo. Ritter and daughter Madeline, of Harrisburg, are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. J. W. Howard in this place.

Mrs. John Meyer, formerly Miss Gertie Viehderfer of this place, is visiting her many friends here.

Mrs. Frank Holt, of Clearfield, visited friends here this week.

Ella and Gussie Croft, of Clearfield, are visiting friends here.

The festival held by the Beech Creek band Saturday evening was well attended.

Quite a hard rain storm passed through this place about 11 o'clock Saturday night also on Sunday morning about 3 o'clock, with some very sharp lightning which struck the chimney on the summer kitchen owned by S. E. Batschelet and shattered it but did no other harm.

Mrs. Ira Rorabaugh visited Mrs. Martha Gunsallus of this place.

Charles Lindsey and bride returned home from their wedding trip Saturday night on the 7:45 train; may they live a long and happy life. Mr. Lindsey is a well known resident of this place and has a large number of friends.

YARNELL.

H. E. Leathers, of Snow Shoe, circulated among his many friends at this place, last week.

A festival will be held at this place, near the Baptist chapel, Saturday evening, Aug. 12th. All are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Gertrude Confer spent last Saturday in Bellefonte.

The family of Orvis Fetser is surely sorely afflicted. Mr. Fetser is just recovering from an attack of the typhoid fever, and his wife and sister both being very ill with the same disease, and his mother with rheumatism. As yet they are unable to secure a nurse.

J. Edw. Confer and Anna Shank are on the sick list.

Elmer Powell has embarked in a new business. It is now located in Shank's Hollow and raising chickens, with H. Hoover as assistant.

Misses Laura Powell and Tricie Confer visited over Sunday with Mrs. Wm. Walker, at Milesburg.

A union picnic will be held at this place, Saturday, Aug. 19th, above Mr. Coakley's in the woods, generally known as the "Tar Hollows." Everybody is invited to attend, and a pleasant time is promised to all.

Ray Martin, of Bellefonte, is a pleasant visitor at J. L. Croft's.

We wish to correct an error made in last week's items. John Long of Sunbury, did not spend Sunday at this place as was stated.

Mrs. Jerome Confer, who is still unable to walk, was out for a drive last week.

Edward Williams, of Williamsport, is a pleasant visitor at this place.

Mrs. Jno. Packer returned home from Tyrone where she had been attending Free Methodist campmeeting.

Henry Uhl and wife, of Clearfield, are visiting friends at this place.

ROMOLA.

Mrs. Agnes Moore, of Flemington, visited over Sunday at the home of her sister Mrs. James Mann.

There were quite a few people from here attended the festival at Beech Creek on Saturday evening.

Miss Emma Robb, who has been spending part of the summer as instructor of music in Phillipsburg, returned home last Thursday.

C. M. Fox, of Howard, was seen in our village last Monday.

Charles Weaver, who is employed in Logue, Potter county, spent a few days with his family in this place and returned on Tuesday to his work.

John A. Dally and wife are spending a few weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Harry Yearick of Lake Hurst, N. J.

Clayton Poorman, wife and child, spent Sunday at the home of his parents at this place.

Miss Relda Robb is spending a few days at the home of her brother J. M. Robb of Howard.

Miss Lydia Kerchof was a Bellefonte visitor last Tuesday.

There will be a festival held at the Christian church on next Saturday eve. Everybody is invited.

Rev. Lewis Robb, wife and children, of Wilkinsburg, visited at the home of his brother Peter Robb, last week.

GORTON HEIGHTS.

A family reunion was held at the home of J. U. Wiggins, Wednesday.

L. Poorman, our night operator, after spending a few weeks at his home in Lock Haven resumed his work Wednesday evening.

Mrs. George Clark and son Elvyn visited at Peale on Friday.

Miss Olive Wiggins is visiting at Phillipsburg.

Miss Helen Williams, of Peale, spent Sunday at this place with her friend Sadie Wiggins.

Mr. Clark, wife and daughter, of Jersey Shore, are visiting with the former's brother.

T. Gleason, of Moshannon, was seen on our streets on Tuesday.

T. M. Wiggins, wife and son Pierce, spent last Thursday and Friday at Phillipsburg.

F. Poorman and wife visited at Snow Shoe Sunday.

Some detectives couldn't even catch a fish.

PORT MATILDA.

The members of the U. B. church of Mt. Pleasant chapel held their annual picnic on Saturday, August 5th; the weather was fine during the day favoring a large crowd who were in attendance; the gathering met in the grove near the chapel.

It is reported by many potato growers that the crop of late potatoes will fall short of a full crop on account of a stoppage in the growth from blight and in some cases rot has set in.

The members of the U. B. church will hold a picnic on Laurel Run picnic grounds on Saturday August 12; come every body.

Mrs. W. M. Jackson, of New Brunswick, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Susan McKinney of this place, accompanied by her three interesting little children.

It looks like old times to see S. S. Miles behind the counter in Eller & McKinney's store; he is filling the place of Gilbert Eller the senior partner who is on the sick list.

W. M. Jackson, of Brunswick, spent Sabbath in this place the guest of Mrs. Susan McKinney.

H. H. Osman went to the Methodist hospital in Philadelphia for medical treatment on Aug. 7, for physical disabilities.

The M. E. church held a festival in Eagle Hall on Saturday evening last which was largely attended.

C. W. Crain has on hand about 100 yds of calico which he is selling at 4c per yd. to make room for his fall and winter stock.

COBURN.

Mr. Fiedler and wife, of Millheim, stayed several days at the home of Reuben Harter who became suddenly very ill on Saturday and is in a critical condition at this writing; we hope for his speedy recovery.

A. J. Everett, wife and son Randall, of Milliflora, visited their former friends a few days this week.

N. B. Shaeffer and family and Miss Sarah Keen, of Plum Grove, visited at the home of T. W. Hosterman on Sunday.

Orvis Meyer, who is a student and teacher in the Pierce business college at Philadelphia, is spending a short vacation at home.

J. R. Corman and wife attended the festival at Farmers Mills on Saturday and spent the Sabbath with friends at the same place.

We are surprised at the incredulity of the Woodward scribe about the berries that were gathered by certain persons at this place. No doubt he (if he is no sbe) could see some of the berries yet. But we are sure if he would take the trouble to come and investigate he could find enough proof to be convinced that what we mentioned was a fact.

Mrs. Jacob Hazel and daughter, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. Amelia White of Bellefonte, visited at Eph. Bartholomew's last week. Among their other visitors were McClellan Poorman and wife, of Flemington, and Mrs. Wm. Eddy of Williamsport.

TYLERSVILLE.

On account of the rain Friday night, the missionary society meeting was postponed until the evening of the 11th.

The Evangelical association of this place propose to hold a lawn festival on Saturday evening, 12th.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the Reformed picnic at Rockville.

Charles Weaver, who has been working at Hyner for some time past returned home on Saturday.

Rembrandt Mechtly has gone to Altoona in search of work.

If headache always resulted from butting in there wouldn't be so much of it.

Weak Lungs Bronchitis

For over sixty years doctors have endorsed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs, colds, weak lungs, bronchitis, consumption. You can trust a medicine the best doctors approve. Then trust this the next time you have a hard cough.

"I had an awful cough for over a year, and nothing seemed to do me any good. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and was soon cured. I recommend it to all my friends whenever they have a cough." - Miss M. MEYERS, Washington, D. C.

Ayer's Pills keep the bowels regular. All vegetable and gently laxative.

Pa. R. R. Excursions. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has selected the following dates for its popular ten-day excursions to Niagara Falls from Washington and Baltimore: July 7 and 21, August 11 and 25, September 8 and 22, and October 23.

Excursion tickets, good for return passage on any regular train, exclusive of limited express trains, within ten days, will be sold at $10.00 from Washington; $7.50 from Altoona; $7.40 from Tyrone; $6.45 from Bellefonte; and at proportionate rates from principal points.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has arranged for four low-rate ten-day excursions for the present season from Lock Haven, Bellefonte, Williamsport, and principal intermediate stations (including stations on branch roads), to Atlantic City, Cape May, Wildwood, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Avalon, Angelsea, or Holly Beach, on Thursdays, July 13 and 27, August 10 and 24, 1905.

Excursion tickets, good to return by regular trains within ten days, will be sold at very low rates. Tickets to Atlantic City will be sold via the Delaware River Bridge Route, the only all-rail line, or via Market Street Wharf, Philadelphia.

Stop over can be had at Philadelphia, either going or returning, within limit of ticket.

For information in regard to specific rates and time of trains consult hand bills, or apply to agents, or E. S. Harrar, Division Ticket Agent, Williamsport, Pa.

Advance in Lumber Price. The announcement is made that the price of lumber has been increased $5 per thousand feet, and in consequence of this fact the cost of buildings will be increased from now on. This will mean hundreds of dollars extra for those who intend to build homes, and who have not yet awarded the contracts.

It doesn't make a girl any cooler to have her rival cast her in the shade.

SAVE TIME! Use Rubber Stamps! We make all kinds.

BELLEFONTE STAMP WORKS, 2nd Floor, Crider's Exchange, Bellefonte, Pa. WRITE FOR CIRCULAR. X17

NEW YORK CLIPPER

IS THE GREATEST THEATRICAL SHOW PAPER IN THE WORLD.

$4.00 Per Year. Single Copy, 10 Cts. ISSUED WEEKLY.

SAMPLE COPY FREE. FRANK QUEEN PUB. CO. (LTD), ALBERT J. BORER, PUBLISHERS, MANAGER, 47 W. 29TH ST., NEW YORK.

Always Remember the Full Name Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in Two. E. W. Grove on Box. 25c.

IS YOUR BACK ALLRIGHT. If It Isn't the Chances Are That Your Kidneys Are Calling For Aid. The kidney's are the most important of all the organs; they have more work to perform than any other, hence the necessity of heading the first symptoms of their derangement. They filter or strain the blood, thus removing the impurities and poisons from this vital fluid. By keeping these greatest of Blood Purifying organs in good health, many diseases are prevented. Pains in the back and loins are evidence that the kidneys are affected, and they in return will affect the Nerves, causing nervousness, sleeplessness, restlessness, irritability, etc. In frequent or too frequent urination excessive, painful or scanty urinary passage are all conclusive proof that the kidneys need assistance. For any of these troubles Krines Kidney Pills are a positive cure and for them to fail to do what they were designed to do would be like reversing the law of cause and effect. These pills are sold and guaranteed at Krumer's Drug store. If you are not benefited you get your money back by asking for it.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c. The fellow who is lucky at cards is the one who lets them alone.