

Correspondents' Department

The news in condensed form from all parts of Centre County

HOWARD.

Mrs. Shuman Fletcher and daughter Miss Emma came home after a three weeks' visit to Williamsport and Hazelton.

Mr. Kurtz, of Williamsport, visited the home of his brother Dr. Kurtz.

Miss Helen Bennisson arrived on the noon train on Saturday from Johnsonburg where she visited her sister Mrs. John S. Holter.

Thomas Moore and wife, of Philadelphia, were pleasant visitors in our town this week.

Ed. Cook, wife and daughters, Hazel and Genette, were at the home of Mrs. Robt. Cook on Saturday.

Miss Marie Reese is staying with her aged grandmother, Mrs. A. L. Holter. Miss Marie is a very bright girl and has many friends in our town.

Dr. Hensly, of Williamsport, is spending his vacation with his mother.

Hensly Heverly and wife, of Johnsonburg, are at his home for a week, after which they will reside at Buffalo.

Mr. Pidgeon and sister, of Ohio, are visiting Rev. Burcher and wife.

Miss Mittie Lucas is visiting relatives at Milton.

A. O. Yergler, wife and children, of Bellefonte, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. J. Z. Long.

Miss Eliza Williams is visiting relatives at Port Matilda.

Mr. Olewine, of Bellefonte, was a visitor in our town one day this week.

Misses Mabel Schenck, Mabel Lynn and Vivian Snyder, of Eagleville, spent a day with friends in town.

Al B. Weirick, of Altoona, visited his home over Sunday.

Mrs. Louney and children, of Lock Haven, are at the home of her parents, D. W. Fletcher's.

J. E. Jones, wife and son and Mrs. Stuart, of Carnegie, and Mrs. L. Jones, of Beech Creek, spent Thursday at the hospitable home of Mrs. S. H. Fletcher.

Mrs. Annie Long spent part of the week visiting at Snow Shoe.

Mrs. Alice Fletcher, one of the leading milliners of Philadelphia, is spending the week at Snow Shoe and Bellefonte.

OAK HALL.

Howard Homan and son, of Altoona, are spending a few weeks at the home of B. F. Homan.

H. A. Wagner transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday.

Miss Miriam Riddle, of Pleasant Gap, visited her aunt Mrs. Sue A. Peters, a few days last week.

Mrs. Braser and children have gone to Snyder county where they intend visiting friends and relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Lantz, of Pleasant Gap, is staying at the home of her son at this place.

A few of our young folks attended the festival at Houserville, on Saturday night.

The infant son of Clayton Etters has been ill for some time but is now slowly improving.

On Wednesday while being hitched up, a colt belonging to Ralph Louden became frightened and started to run away. The buggy was upset at the school house and then the horse started back home leaving Ralph sitting on the ground behind him. No one was hurt but the buggy was badly broken.

Mrs. James Irvin and daughter Augusta, of Snow Shoe, are visiting at the home of Anthony Knopf.

GILLINTOWN.

R. White, of Washington, D. C., is visiting with A. A. Grae.

Miss Minnie McGowan, from Pittsburgh, is on her vacation. Everyone is pleased to see our friend Minnie again.

John O'Connor and wife, of Philadelphia, are visiting the latter's parents, Thos. Gleason's.

Quite a number of our people attended the Frenchville picnic. All said they had a good time.

Miss Margaret O'Brien, of Curwensville, is visiting with the Ward girls.

Edw. Paul has moved his family from Peale to the home of his mother-in-law Mrs. Besterman.

Kathryn and Sarah Ward are visiting their parents here.

Festival held by the M. E. church was well attended. Rev's Shucharts and Williams were both present.

Steps of our churches are becoming favorite spooning places. Trustees of both churches should look into the matter. (Let 'em alone and the preacher will soon have a job.—Ed.)

Lamah and Henry Cole visited at Harry Wagner's recently.

Bruce Lomison is again home with his parents.

FARMERS MILLS.

The heavy rains over Sunday made it almost too wet to plow.

Most of the farmers are done hauling oats.

Geo. Meyers and Mrs. Danie Lose, of Centre Hill, were callers Sunday at J. H. Rishel's.

Mrs. Millard, who has been on the sick list, is improving some.

Some of the young folks attended the festival at Centre Hill Saturday evening.

Rev. Gress delivered a very able harvest home sermon to quite a large audience Sunday a.m.

Some of the people from this place attended Bush meeting at Tusseyville on Sunday.

Wanted! To know where the Penn Cave scribe is that we did not hear from him through the C. D.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c

ROMOLA.

Mrs. Josephine Beezer and daughter, of Rossiter, Pa., is visiting at the home of her cousin Mrs. Thomas McCloskey.

D. W. Robb, wife and children, of Bradford, are visiting at the home of their parents at this place.

Misses Sarah and Emma Bechdel were Bellefonte visitors on Monday.

Mrs. Slighammer and Mrs. Cass and daughter Edith, of Atlantic City and Wm. Batchlet and wife, of Beech Creek, Mrs. G. W. Hartsock and daughter Lorena, of Phillipsburg, Wilson Heaton, of Milesburg, Jerome Confer, of Yarnell, and Emma Robb, of Romola, visited at the home of Mrs. Wm. Robb on Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Heverly is very ill at this writing.

Jacob W. Brickley was taken very ill last week and is no better at this writing.

Miss Inez Robb, of Bellefonte, who has been visiting her many friends in this place returned to her home last week.

Mrs. G. W. Hartsock and daughter Lorena, of Phillipsburg, are visiting at the home of her friend Miss Emma Robb.

ROMOLA NO. 2.

The festival on Saturday evening was nearly a failure on account of the rain.

Miss Nancy Uhl was at Lock Haven on Sunday to visit her brother Henry who went to the hospital last week.

Miss Mary Poorman has been on the sick list the past week.

Harvey Mann had his sale on Saturday noon.

Scott Holter, wife and children, of Fairview, visited at the home of Wm. Meyers' on Sunday.

Miss Effie Wensel, who has been employed at Hayes returned home on Saturday.

Hazel McCloskey is on the sick list.

Miss Lola Delong came home from Lock Haven last week and prepared for her wedding on Wednesday.

Al McCloskey and family, of Clarence, spent a few days at N. I. Packer's and David McCloskey's.

FILLMORE.

Mrs. Harry Meyers and son are visiting at the home of Mr. Kephart.

Mrs. Henry Benning is visiting at her brother's Henry Morris.

The Fillmore base ball club was at Houserville on Saturday, the score was 10-0, when they had to leave for home, the boys report having a fine time and a good game of ball; of course there is some attraction at Houserville for some of the Fillmore boys.

We noticed in last week's Gazette that the strong Rock Forge and the Fillmore boys crossed bats; they did, and the score was 10-0; but the reason that the Fillmore boys could not play any better, some of the Rock boys have such large mouths that when they open them, the Fillmore boys think there is going to be an earth-quake, and get scared, that the grand stand was full of Fillmore rooters; I think there were quite as many there from Rock.

Miss Marian Taylor, who has been sick for some time, we are glad to hear is improving.

Miss Della Rocky, also Mrs. Foster Young, are on the sick list.

Mrs. Wm. Gray who is visiting at the Green home lost her pet dog last week; he got in a quarrel with another dog and had his eye torn out and they had to kill him.

Mr. Reamey, wife and little son spent last Sunday at the home of J. B. Rocky.

Mr. Taylor preached a fine sermon on Sunday to a small congregation as a number of people attended the reopening of the United Brethren church at Houserville.

BEECH CREEK.

Elery Linn, who has been employed for some past years in Patton, is visiting at the home of his father, F. M. Linn, of this place.

Preaching was well attended at the Hubbard school house last Saturday night. Preaching will be held in the same building, Saturday evening August 26.

There must be some attraction in Madsville for Mr. Bitner, as he travels that way on Sunday nights.

James Mann is all smiles since the arrival of that new dish washer.

Mrs. John DeHass is very poorly at this writing.

Quite a number of persons from this place went to Pine camp meeting Sunday.

Miss Lena Huffman and Howard Brady, both of Coalport, are visiting relatives in this place.

Mrs. Matilda Schwinghammer and Mrs. Charles Cast and little daughter, of Atlantic City, are visiting at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Wm. Batschelet.

FERGUSON TWP.

The whistle of the steam thrasher is again heard in this vicinity.

Bertha Cupp has been very sick the past week and little hope of her recovery.

Roy Stephens and Miss Templeton, of Sinking valley, visited at Asa Kaufman's over Sunday.

The Grangers picnic at Warriorsmark was well attended on Saturday.

Roy Buck and Miss Harpster visited Alvin Corl's, of State College, over Sunday.

When you take your lady friend to a picnic don't let any Tyrone young man take your place until time to go home.

Mrs. Henry Cupp and Mrs. Irene Nolen visited Edgar Cupp and family of Sinking valley.

Hello! Possum Ridge scribe, who are you that you want to hear from Centre Line? News is not so plenty here as it seems to be at Possum Ridge.

In Baltimore a negro was fined $50 for beating a mule, while a white man who beat his wife was set free. The Cleveland Leader asks you to figure on whether this is a race antipathy. Southern chivalry, or a native love for the great American mule.

—Consult us on any kind of job printing when in need of same.

AARONSBURG.

John Grenoble and part of his family, of Yeagertown, spent a few days with Clymer Stover and Geo. Weaver's.

Mrs. Wetherhold and daughter and Maggie Mayes, of Allentown, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Caroline Mayes.

Miss Kathryn Smull has gone to spend some time with friends at State College.

Albert Stambach and wife, of Lock Haven, spent Saturday and part of Sunday with friends in town.

Rev. D. D. Uhl, of Salona, preached for Rev. Sheeder on Sunday evening in the Lutheran church. Prof. Meyer presided at the organ.

Mrs. Jennie Wyle and children are visiting friends at Millinburg.

Wesley Wyle does a rushing business selling water melons, cantaloupes and bananas; the fruit seems to be in great demand.

Miss Kathryn Frank had made a picnic for her mother together with some of Kathryn's most intimate friends, near one of our mountain springs; they took their dinner which was gotten up in a most tempting manner.

Miss Beckie Snyder, of State College, visited her aunt Polly Thomas over Sunday.

Miss Keichline, of Pine Grove, is the guest of the Mingle sisters.

Miss Elsie Phillips, of Philadelphia, is spending her vacation with her parents at this place.

Mrs. Joana Fuster and daughter, of Carlisle, are the guests of Mrs. Frances Foster.

Mrs. Louisa Kurtz, of Milton, is tarrying a few days with friends in town.

Mrs. Fred Limbert and granddaughter Stella Musser, are spending a few weeks with Mr. Swarms at Olean, N. Y.

Mr. Eckerts and wife, of Penn Hall, spent Sunday at Ralph Stover's.

Miss Ruth Swabb is staying a few days with her sister Mrs. Burd at Coburn.

Sarah Hatley, of Bellefonte, has come to spend her vacation under the parental roof.

RUNVILLE.

Rev. J. K. Mumau and family, who have been holding campmeeting at Tyrone, returned to their home at this place.

Fidell Rodgers, who has been visiting his grandmother Mrs. Lydia Witherite, of this place, returned to his home at Osceola.

Mrs. Kate Marks and two children and Mrs. Stewart, of Vilas, spent a few days at this place.

Mrs. James Smoyer and son spent Friday at this place while on their way back from Polk, Venango county.

Miss Bessie Fetzer spent a few days at Mt. Eagle.

Miss Celie Smoyer, of Snow Shoe, is visiting here.

J. L. Heaton, who has been working at Altoona, spent Sunday here.

Miss Lucy Smoyer spent Sunday at Bellefonte.

Mrs. Edward Poorman, of this place, spent Sunday at Phillipsburg.

Misses Grace, Ida and David Robinson, who have been visiting at this place returned to their home at Phillipsburg.

Mrs. C. M. Gay, who had been living here has moved to Milroy.

Mrs. E. Lucas and daughter, who have been visiting returned to their home at Altoona.

James Lucas and Charles Rodgers, of Tyrone, spent Sunday here.

WOODWARD.

Miss Mabel Vonada accompanied by Lizzie Brindle spent Saturday in Bellefonte.

Miss Emma Eberhart was on the sick list.

Miss Laura Dorstler, who had been visiting friends at this place, left for Madisonburg, Thursday.

Prof. E. S. Stover and family visited at the home of C. W. Hosterman, left Thursday for York state where the Prof. will conduct a term of winter school.

J. B. Gentzel and wife visited friends in Brushvalley Sunday.

Maud Ard visited friends in Rebersburg a few days.

Mrs. Laura Ard is visiting at the home of her parents at present.

The new porch at the Woodward house is quite an improvement.

Miss Mable Guisewite who spent a few days in Loganton returned home Saturday.

The steam saw of Motz & Stover is about ready to operate.

Mike Eby lost one of his horses, Saturday.

JACKSONVILLE.

Mrs. Rachel Beck, of State College, is visiting relatives in our section.

Clarence Yearick, who was badly injured by falling on the hay ladder, running the rungs through his face, is able to be out again through the skillful treatment of Dr. McCormick.

Prof. Wood Mark and family, of Punxsutawney, are visiting her father I. S. Frain.

James Vonada and family spent Sunday at her sister, Mrs. Garbrick, of Zion.

Mrs. Geo. Sheasley and son, of Flemington, visited friends in town.

J. Wesley Shamp is ill at this writing.

Mr. Glossner and wife, of Lock Haven, visited relatives in this section.

Israel Greninger, of Howard, was doing some carpenter work for Henry Glossner, last week.

MADISONBURG.

Miss Edna Roush returned home on Saturday after a very pleasant visit with Bellefonte friends.

Rev. F. W. Solvur, from Reading, preached an able sermon in the Evangelical church on Sunday afternoon.

C. H. Brown and family, from Wolfe Store, were the guests of Israel Wolfe's Sunday.

Rev. A. H. Dorstler and family, from Tamaqua, are the guests of friends in this vicinity a few weeks.

Dr. F. E. Gutelius, wife and two children, from Millbana, spent Sunday at the home of W. E. Yearick.

Mrs. Mary Nestlerode and daughter Miss Alice, spent Sunday with relatives at Hartleton.

PORT MATILDA.

George Laird cut his foot badly last week while making railroad ties, which will give him a lay off for several days.

E. J. Stephens, of Doran, Va., a former resident of Port Matilda, is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. H. Asman; this being his birthplace he meets hosts of old time friends who are pleased to shake hands with him.

The U. B. picnic held at Laurel Run on Saturday last was a success; although the day was quite unfavorable many visitors from a distance were present.

A. P. Stevens, of Houtzdale, is visiting friends in Port Matilda.

Herbert Rothrock, of Lock Haven, passed through this place this week in his automobile on a return trip from the West.

W. T. Hoover is agent for the Kangaroo Brand fertilizer and also the Big crop grower Banard fertilizer. Billy always has his eyes open for the best; a visit to his warehouse will convince you.

Gilbert Eller, of the firm of Eller & McKinney, is at present in Bellefonte under medical treatment.

BUFFALO RUN.

Last week the children and grand children of Mrs. Elizabeth Stine, held a family picnic in honor of their mother and grand mother, she being a lady of 82 years. There were many guests present from near and far.

James Sellers, after spending a five weeks' visit with his parents here, returned to his home at Dunbar.

John Harris has gone to Tyrone, at which place he expects to make his future home.

Rev. J. C. Hartsock is spending his vacation at Phillipsburg, Glenn Hope and Altoona.

F. H. Clemson and family, have gone to Beech Haven where they will spend a six weeks' vacation.

Edgar Buzzell, a young druggist of Phillipsburg, is visiting Clark Hartsock.

John Marshall and family Sundayed with friends at Fillmore.

YARNELL.

Miss Viola Rider, from Keewaydin, Clearfield county, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Adaline Poorman.

A festival which was held near this place Saturday night, 10, was well attended.

Toner and Martin Fetzer, who are employed at Altoona returned home Saturday.

France Confer and a friend, of Sunbury, are preparing for a trip to Syracuse, N. Y.

The base ball team of this place expect to play Pleasantvalley, Saturday, Aug. 19.

Ray Martin spent Saturday night at J. A. Confer's.

UNION TWP.

Geo. Barton was a pleasant visitor at Harry Carver's on Sunday.

Owen Resides had a narrow escape while bolting on the stove mill at that place, by a bolt turning his hand in to the saw; his hand was only cut with the wedge of the saw, or it would have taken his whole hand off; he is under Dr. Irwin's care.

Revs. Eversall and Gradie will preach at this place on the 15, 16, 17, of this month.

James Fetzer, of Runville, and Torrence Marshall, of Chestnut Grove, were seen at this place on Sunday.

Clayton Eckley visited John Resides at Unionville over Sunday.

TYLERSVILLE.

Miss Lizzie Rishel, of Sugar Grove, visited Geo. Eyer's on Saturday.

Grieb's killed a few large snakes in their oats field last week.

Howard Caris and Miss Gertie Greninger attended the festival at Smulton, Saturday.

The Evangelical festival at this place was well attended; all that was needed was some more good music.

Harvey Caris add Harris Lutz intend to go to Kauchtown on Monday to work.

We are sorry to say that a R. F. D. route for this place is at last announced.

Krumrine's Instantaneous Headache Powders will relieve the most obstinate cases of nervous and sick headache. 10 cents. 1-05

Pa. R. R. Excursions.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has selected the following dates for its popular ten-day excursions to Niagara Falls from Washington and Baltimore: July 7 and 21, August 11 and 25, September 8 and 22, and October 23. On these dates the special train will leave Washington at 7:55 am., Harrisburg 11:40 am., Sunbury 12:55 pm., Williamsport 2:30 pm., Lock Haven 3:05 pm., Renovo 3:55 pm., Emporium Junction 5:05 pm., arriving Niagara Falls at 9:35 pm.

Excursion tickets, good for return passage on any regular train, exclusive of limited express trains, within ten days, will be sold at $10.00 from Washington; $7.50 from Altoona; $7.40 from Tyrone; $6.45 from Bellefonte; and at proportionate rates from principal points. A stop-over will be allowed at Buffalo within limit of ticket returning.

The special trains of Pullman parlor cars and day coaches will be run with each excursion running through to Niagara Falls. An extra charge will be made for parlor-car seats.

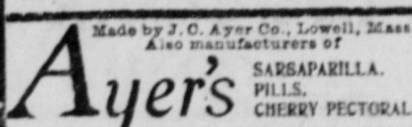

An experienced tourist agent and chaperon will accompany each excursion.

For descriptive pamphlet, time of connecting trains, and further information apply to nearest ticket agent. If

Is It Your Own Hair?

Do you pin your hat to your own hair? Can't do it? Haven't enough hair? It must be you do not know Ayer's Hair Vigor! Here's an introduction! May the acquaintance result in a heavy growth of rich, thick, glossy hair! And we know you'll never be gray.

"I think that Ayer's Hair Vigor is the most wonderful hair-grower that was ever made. I have used it for some time and I can truthfully say that I am greatly pleased with it. I cheerfully recommend it as a splendid preparation."—Miss V. Brock, Wayland, Mich.

TOUR TO PACIFIC COAST

Including Yellowstone Park, Lewis and Clark Exposition and Rocky Mts.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company has arranged a special personally-conducted tour to visit the Pacific Coast, including the Yellowstone Park, Portland (for the Lewis and Clark Exposition) and the beautiful resorts among the Colorado Rockies. This tour will leave New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and other cities on the Pennsylvania Railroad Saturday, September 2nd, by a special train of high-grade Pullman equipment. The itinerary will cover a period of three weeks, the party reaching the East on the home-bound journey September 22nd. The special train will be used by the party over the entire route, except during the five and one-half days in the Yellowstone Park, when the fine hotels now in service in the Great Preserve will be utilized. The train will be side-tracked in Portland for occupancy there, and all meals en route, except in the Yellowstone Park and in Denver, will be served in the special dining car.

Round-trip tickets, covering all necessary expenses for twenty-one days, $350 from all points on the Pennsylvania Railroad except Pittsburgh, from which the rate will be $195.

For itineraries and further information apply to ticket agents; C. Studds, Eastern Passenger Agent, 263 Fifth Avenue, New York; Hugh Hannon, Jr., Passenger Agent Baltimore District, Baltimore, Md.; B. M. Newbold, Passenger Agent Southwestern District, Washington, D. C.; Thomas E. Watt, Passenger Agent Western District, Pittsburgh, Pa.; or address Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia. 21

Ocean Grove Camp Meeting Excursion.