The news in condensed form from all parts of Centre County

PORT MATILDA.

The venerable George Moore, residing at the head of Bell Hollow, is dangerously ill at his home, from lung disease and an enfeebled condition incident to old age.

If it were not so late in the season we could give the readers of the Centre Democrat a dandy snake story. (Send it along.—Ed.)

The whistle of the steam thrasher is heard in our valley busily engaged in thrashing out a large crop.

Grandpa Laird put on his best duds and started on a trip to the upper end of the county to visit relatives.

Visitors at the home of S. S. Miles in the past few days were: His son John and wife, of Wilkesburg; E. E. Fink, Wm. Fink, Charles Strong, wife and three children, and Mrs. Hattie Straw, of Clearfield county; and Mrs. Howard Cowher and son, from Tyrone; Mrs. Frank Martin and two sons, from Greely, Colorado; Mrs. Mattie Williams, from Columbia, Pa.

Gilbert Eller has returned from Bellefonte where he was undergoing medical treatment, and reports having been benefited by his visit.

While Jacob Frantz, wife and daughter Maud, Laird and Tommy Cowher were returning home from the Williams reunion on Saturday last, they met with an accident which afforded lots of fun and no damage, as they were driving through a narrow place in the road, a high bank on each side, they met an automobile coming at full speed which frightened the horses considerably; but to say it frightened the ladies would be making it easy on them, for when they saw the auto coming at them full speed, they got out of the wagon, up the steep bank they leaped nearly as quick as if dynamite had helped to move them; one lady went so fast she couldn't stop until she landed over the fence in a field. Never mind, Maud, we will not say who it was got over the fence so quick.

H. H. Osman has returned to the M. E. hospital at Philadelphia where he was under medical treatment, and greatly benefited.

Miss Lizzie Pringle, of Altoona, is visiting her parents in this place.

Geo. Shade with his lady friend, of Lock Haven, paid his many friends here a visit over Sunday.

Several of our sports expect to go to Atlantic City this week.

If you would have told our popular landlord, R. S. Stover, twenty years ago that vehicles would stop at his hotel in years to come that would resemble carriages and run over these mountain roads without ox or horse power he no doubt would have said "the man's crazy." However, last week Mr. Larsen, of Williamsport, came to our town with his automobile and took dinner with Mr. Stover and he persuaded him Stover to take a ride with him in his horseless carriage. Now he says, "That's the way to go boys, what's the use fooling with a horse."

Thos. N. Stover, our real estate dealer, was to Somerset county last week, where he bought the largest body of original White Pine timber left in this state; he had with him on this trip his estimator, M. W. Adams of Livonia.

Mrs. Arctura DeLong returned home on Saturday evening, after a very pleasant visit with Milton, Williamsport, Lock Haven and Hyner friends; her brother C. Aubrey DeLong accompanied her from Hyner where he has spent most of the summer in making estimates, surveys, etc. for the Forestry Commission of Pa. with which he has been connected for several years.

HAY FEVER FOR 27 YEARS.

Well Known New England Woman Cured of Hay Fever—Cure was Lasting.

The thousands of discouraged people who dread the approach of summer because they have hay fever and cannot find any relief from it, will read with interest and gratitude the following statement from Helen S. Williams, of Mansfield, Mass.:

"For 27 years, from the month of August until heavy frost, I have been afflicted with hay fever, growing worse and worse each year, until of late years I was unable to attend to my work during that period."

"Last summer I fortunately gave Hyomei a trial, and I am happy to say that it entirely cured me, and I have had no occurrence of the disease since."

Breathe the germ-killing and healing balsams of Hyomei and get rid of your hay fever.

The complete outfit costs but $1. extra bottles 50 cents. Sidney Krumrine agrees to refund the money to any hay fever sufferer who uses Hyomei without benefit.

You can't insult some fellows more than by asking them for the money they owe you.

TOUR TO PACIFIC COAST

Including Yellowstone Park, Lewis and Clark Exposition and Rocky Mts.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company has arranged a special personally-conducted tour to visit the Pacific Coast, including the Yellowstone Park, Portland (for the Lewis and Clark Exposition) and the beautiful resorts among the Colorado Rockies.

This tour will leave New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and other cities on the Pennsylvania Railroad Saturday, September 2nd, by a special train of high-grade Pullman equipment. The itinerary will cover a period of three weeks, the party reaching the East on the home-bound journey September 22nd. The special train will be used by the party over the entire route, except during the five and one-half days in the Yellowstone Park, when the fine hotels now in service in the Great Preserve will be utilized. The train will be side-tracked in Portland for occupancy there, and all meals en route, except in the Yellowstone Park and in Denver, will be served in the special dining car.

Round-trip tickets, covering all necessary expenses for twenty-one days, $200 from all points on the Pennsylvania Railroad except Pittsburg, from which the rate will be $195.

For itineraries and further information apply to ticket agents; C. Studds, Eastern Passenger Agent, 263 Fifth Avenue, New York; Hugh Hannon, Jr., Passenger Agent Baltimore District, Baltimore, Md.; B. M. Newbold, Passenger Agent Southwestern District, Washington, D. C.; Thomas E. Watt, Passenger Agent Western District, Pittsburg, Pa.; or address Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia. 2t

For specific rates consult ticket agents.

A Tyrone life insurance agent was trying to do business the other day with a midding old man who has a young and pretty wife. "If I were real sure who would spend the money," the old fellow said, "I might take out a policy."

My Hair is Scraggly

Do you like it? Then why be contented with it? Have to be? Oh, no! Just put on Ayer's Hair Vigor and have long, thick hair; soft, even hair; beautiful hair, without a single gray line in it. Have a little pride. Keep young just as long as you can.

"I am fifty-seven years old, and until recently my hair was very gray. But in a few weeks Ayer's Hair Vigor restored the natural color to my hair, so now there is not a gray hair to be seen."—J. W. HAZEN, Bonfield Creek, Cal.

Niagara Falls Excursion.
