

Correspondents' Department

The news in condensed form from all parts of Centre County

YARNELL.

A festival will be held near the Baptist church Sept. 2; all are invited to attend.

C. A. Walker and Gertrude Confer, spent Sunday with the latter's sister Mrs. F. P. Strickland, of Ashtola.

Martin and Toner Fetzer have returned to Altoona where they are employed.

A number of people from this place spent Saturday evening at John Watson's, of Divide.

Lawrence Croft, was on the sick list last week.

Ross Fetzer is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

Miss Anna Everett, of Williamsport, is spending some time with Miss Kathryn Malone.

Walter Heaten, of Gorton, is visiting at J. L. Croft's.

Miss Viola Kline returned to Bellefonte Tuesday.

Miss Viola Reiter, after a pleasant sojourn with friends here, returned to her home at Keewadin.

Thomas Malone, H. Walker, Oscar and Thomas Walker, Sundayed at Butts station.

A number of people from this place attended the S. S. convention at Runville, on Tuesday.

Henry Confer transacted business in Bellefonte, Saturday.

Mrs. James Croft and son Edward, of Nanty Glo, are visiting her parents James Cook's.

Mr. Foringer, of Romola, is spending some time at D. W. Boyer's.

Rev. Miller, of Braddock, preached a very able sermon at the U. B. church, on Wednesday evening.

C. A. Walker, who has been visiting at this place, returned to his home in W. Va., Tuesday.

MOSHANNO.

Mrs. Mollie Rankin and daughter Maude have returned home after an extended stay in Clearfield.

Notice is hereby given that a collection will be taken up to buy H. Y. Yeager a new hat. He has a swelled head over the coming of that big daughter and is unable to wear his old one.

Mrs. John Confer, of Clearfield, is visiting friends here.

All are cordially invited to attend the Union M. E. and Presbyterian picnic to be held in the Presby. grove, Friday Sept. 1.

Miss Mollie Flanagan, of Clearfield, visited Minnie McGowan this week.

Richard Burns and several friends, of Snow Shoe, are frequent callers in our town.

J. T. Lucas is doing a rushing business at his saw-mill.

Manes Bowes, wife and children, visited the former's parents, Elizabeth Fleming, officiated as housekeeper during their absence.

W. C. Barrow put on his best duds and left our town on Monday.

A. A. Grove is spending some time abroad.

Miss Minnie McGowan spent a few days of her vacation in Billtown.

Miss Mary Connolly visited at the home of Eva McGowan this week.

Mrs. Mary Carson has returned from Winburne where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Reiter.

PORT MATILDA.

The cattle pasturing on the Allegheny mountain are dying from some cause not clearly known; Aaron Woodring lost 3 out of 5 head.

Geo. Meiss, of Barnsboro, has purchased the property of the late C. Ellenbarger, near Port Matilda.

Thos. Patton, who recently moved to Port Matilda, has moved to Philipsburg.

S. R. Pringle made a business trip to Philipsburg one day this week.

Gilbert Eller and wife made a trip to Atlantic; they expect to take in the different sea side places before returning.

Port Matilda was but lightly represented at the Firemen's convention at Philipsburg, Thursday and Friday of last week.

The Port Matilda steam and flouring mill has been thoroughly overhauled in the interior; it has been provided with the celebrated L. X. L. over head steel water wheel and flume, with the necessary gearing to complete it as first class mill.

There is a general complaint from those who travel with loaded wagons, etc., over the Allegheny mountain to Philipsburg by way of Flat Rock; they say the road from the foot of the mountain into the town in many places is in a very bad condition; where are the Rush trap supervisors? call them out for exercise.

S. R. Pringle is closing out his summer stock of ready made goods at and below cost, to make room for a full line of fall goods.

FILLMORE.

Misses Sarah and Rena Lucas, of Tyrone, are visiting at the Kephart home.

The base ball team will hold a festival, at Fillmore, on Saturday evening, Sept. 20. Everybody invited.

Clarence Rumberger spent a few days at home this week.

The Hubbersburg base ball team and the Fillmore nines crossed bats at Hunter's Park, on Saturday; the score was 7 to 9 in favor of the home team.

Quite a few of our young people attended the festival at the grange hall, Saturday night.

Miss Maud Musser is visiting friends at Lemont.

Mr. Mingle, of Bellefonte, gave Mr. Kephart and daughter a ride in his automobile on Sunday. Mr. Kephart is quite an old man and enjoyed it very much.

Henry Norris lost a fine horse last week.

Krumrine's Instantaneous Headache Powders will relieve the most obstinate cases of nervous and sick headache. 10 cents.

SPRING MILLS.

Samuel Sowers, who had been working at Newbury, returned Monday.

Miss Mabel Sones who had been visiting friends at Bellefonte and State College, returned home.

Miss Lottie Snyder, from Union county, is visiting friends at this place.

Misses Mabel Brown and Lottie Snyder spent Sunday at Rebersburg.

Miss Emma Sones spent Sunday with her friend Ruth Smith, at Potters Bank.

Miss Grace McClellan is visiting friends at this place.

Miss Bible, from Centre Hill, is visiting at the home of Michael Shires.

Mr. Dunkle, who is employed in Altoona, spent Sunday with his family.

Calvin Ziegler and wife and Mr. Sweetwood and wife left Thursday for a trip to Atlantic City.

James McCool and lady friend attended the bush meeting in Brushvalley.

Miss Carrie Gentzel who had been away for some time returned home, Saturday.

Miss Ruth Fenstamaker left Thursday for a trip to Watsonstown.

The picnic held here Thursday was largely attended.

There was quite a serenading in this town Saturday night; how about it Prof?

Our schools open next Monday.

Huckleberries are still plenty and are selling at 4cts.

Mrs. Maggie Ruhl is visiting at Altoona.

Prof. S. W. Gramley and wife also Miss Theresa Rachan returned from a trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo.

Miss Flora Duck will leave on Friday for St. Louis where she has been employed as teacher for the coming winter.

The corpse of Frank Neese was brought here from Auburn, N. Y. for burial in Georgesvalley, last week.

John Weaver, who had his home with Henry Roush, was laid to his final resting place on Saturday.

The seven Sunday schools of this place held a reunion celebration last week, near the Sand Spring, and was it a perfect success.

The Lutherans will hold their annual harvest home service on Sunday.

Wilbur and Harvey Burkholder also C. C. Bartges took advantage of the seashore excursion last week.

Elias Heckman, from Illinois, returned home on Wednesday after spending the past month among friends here.

The Penn Hall band were their new suits for the first time on Saturday evening at the festival at Brushvalley.

SMULLTON.

The recent heavy rains have prevented many of the farmers from plowing.

The majority of our people attended Sugarvalley campmeeting.

The latest industry in our town is the carriage shop of W. E. Smull. Wagons on exhibition at all times.

Geo. H. Smull and wife returned from an extended trip through the southern states.

H. I. Brungart and wife left for their home.

The Lutheran picnic on Saturday was a great success.

Next Monday the public schools of our township will open and parents should not neglect sending their children to school.

John Mallory who was sick at our last writing is no better.

Joe Solt is kept very busy working for the farmers and is in demand almost every day. Joe is a good worker.

John Styres and Perry Winters went on a pleasure tour to Niagara Falls, leaving W. E. Smull in charge of Styres' farm.

Jacob Walizer and wife took in the Sugarvalley campmeeting, Sunday.

The game of ball on Saturday proved quite interesting.

H. E. Strayer and family are visiting at Loganton.

Harry Smull is quitting blacksmithing and becoming a stockdealer instead.

MOOSE RUN.

John Brady spent Saturday night at J. B. Sikers.

Miss Nelle Zigler, of Howard, spent a few days last week with friends at this place.

Forest Aiken spent Saturday night with Lottie Bathurst, of Roland.

Orvis Zigler, of Howard, spent Sunday with his lady friend, Eva Brady.

Sidney Walter is spending a few weeks with friends at Yarnell.

Mr. Holterman and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the latter's parents.

Mrs. James Gray is visiting at McKeesport.

Grover Solt of Bellefonte, spent Saturday night at G. P. Heverly's.

Bessie Heverly and Clara Aiken spent Sunday at James Gray's.

Mrs. J. L. Aiken and son Forest, after ten days visit at Atlantic City have returned home.

Sadie Watson, of Milesburg, spent Sunday at Frank McKinley's.

Mr. Holter, of Howard, spent Saturday night at J. L. Aikens.

Miss Stella Quick, of Clearfield, is visiting friends at this place.

Tross if you want to hear any good of yourself get in a closet.

Elmer Pownell, of Yarnell, spent Sunday at J. L. Aiken's.

LEMONT.

Mrs. Tabitha Brisbin went to Philadelphia to spend a few weeks.

Miss White, of Milroy, returned to her home on Thursday after spending a couple of months at the home of John I. Thompson.

Robert Hoy who has been ill with typhoid fever is improving slowly.

John R. Williams, wife and daughter and Elliott Armstrong, are visiting friends in New York.

James Lytle and family, of Centre Hill, spent Saturday at the home of George Glenn.

Mrs. Alice Williams and Mrs. Sadie Rishel returned home on Saturday after spending a week in Altoona.

Alfred Rishel and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the home of William Schreck.

James Williams, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his mother.

WOODWARD.

A number of our people attended camp meeting in Sugarvalley, the hack being run by Stogy Brown.

The attraction over Sunday was a few families of gypsies on the old camp ground near this place.

Robert Kettner, an employe at the Lewisburg chair factory, is paying his parents a visit and taking in campmeeting.

J. W. Goodman and C. H. Hosterman, J. B. Gentzel and E. F. Orndorf made a business trip to Millheim, Wednesday.

W. E. Hosterman and family visited at the home of L. D. Orndorf, Sunday.

N. W. Eby and wife left for Yeager-town Saturday morning, where they will visit their daughter Mrs. Allen Hess.

Miss Mable Vonada and sister Lydia spent Sunday visiting near Coburn.

Ed. Sheely and mother visited friends at Carroll, Clinton county.

Robt. Glasgow and family attended campmeeting in Sugarvalley, Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Kessinger is visiting at the home of Mr. Kessinger in Nittany.

C. W. Hosterman shipped quite a few berries during last week.

Steward Weber and family, from Washington, D. C., spent some time visiting their many friends at this place.

Last Saturday while F. B. Yearick called at the home of Charles Stover he had the misfortune of a dog bite.

E. H. Musser, J. P., made a business trip to the P. O. S. of a convention, held at DuBois.

J. W. Keister who is working for Wm. Bressler near Coburn, spent Sunday with his family at this place.

Wm. Walter and family made a trip to Millheim Saturday.

WOODWARD NO. 2.

Boonastiel is the champion fisher at this place; while fishing on Friday he caught a dead chub with its tail pinched off, and that was all.

Geo. Walter and family, of Johnstown, after spending sometime in this community, returned home on Saturday.

Quite a heavy rain passed this community on Thursday afternoon which raised the waters so much that it burst in the sides of the sawmill and also tore out the pen stock below.

Miss Kate Benner went to Aaronsburg on Monday at which place she intends to work for Dr. Musser.

B. J. Gentzel and Jno. Sheesley made a business trip to Northumberland this week.

C. W. K. and Slipper started for campmeeting on Saturday night, but drew seemed to be a magnet which drew them to Aaronsburg where they stayed.

Mrs. Irwin Smith is on the sick list.

Mrs. Harry Kessinger visited in Nittany the past week.

UNION TWP.

BUSH GROVE.

Harry Watson is improving rapidly; he had a very narrow escape from death; while playing on the over-head of the barn floor he slid off and fell about sixteen feet to the barn floor.

We note the sad death of Clarence Jonson; while working at the lime kilns of Bellefonte, came in contact with a log that kicked him; he died from the effects. He was buried at Tyrone on Friday.

There is good prospect for game of all kinds back on the mountains; it will not be long and we will hear the crack of the hunters' guns.

Hanna Lucas, of Plum Grove, was visiting this place over Sunday.

There was a corn party at Chestnut grove Friday night, at Gust Witherite's; all reported having a good time.

Mr. Owen Resides catches a large ground hog almost every Saturday; he says he wished he could catch a nice, big bear as easy as he could a ground hog.

Rattlesnakes reported plenty this year around here; some thirty killed handy here.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure.

E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

JULIAN.

E. S. Bullock, oft efficient operator, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Joseph Kline, of W. Va., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Myers, of this place.

The "Free Methodist Campmeeting," at this place, was largely attended.

During a thunder storm on last Tuesday evening lightning struck the M. E. church at this place. It is estimated it will take $200 to repair the damaged parts of the church.

Geo. Bullock is working in the P. R. R. office, during the absence of his brother Eddie.

Mrs. Catherine and her son, of Osceola, are visiting friends in this section.

Do not forget the festival at this place on Friday and Saturday evenings, Sept. 5th and 6th.

We are sorry for the illness of James Andrews and hope for his speedy recovery.

WAY TO TREAT HAY FEVER.

No Stomach Dosing. Just Breathe Hyomei—Stops Sneezing and Smarting.

S. Krumrine is recommending to his customers as a cure for hay fever, Hyomei.

It is claimed for this remedy that it stops the spasmodic paroxysms, the sneezing, the smarting and running of the eyes and nose, and other acute symptoms of this disease.

Many persons have been cured of hay fever by Hyomei, and the discoverer of the remedy professes to be able to prevent both the occurrence of the annual attack and to stop the progress of the disease, even in the most chronic forms.

S. Krumrine's offer to refund the money if Hyomei does not do all that is claimed for it, is the strongest proof that can be given as to the confidence they have in Hyomei's power to cure hay fever.

The complete outfit costs but $1.00, for 50 cents.

It is cheerful to note that many a defaulter has never been a Sunday school superintendent.

HOWARD.

Two rural free delivery routes have been established from this point. Last Saturday eight men, citizens of this place, who had put in applications for carriers, were called to Bellefonte to take an examination for same. All felt they would be appointed.

Howard was well represented at the Bigler campmeeting near Clearfield on Sunday.

Mrs. Girard Gardner was a visitor at Howard this week and had the pleasure of taking a buggy ride behind Jas. D. Diehl's race horse.

Saturday our town was favored with another ball game. The boys from Romola crossed bats with the second team and won by a score of 13 to 9.

Charley Woodward had an exciting time holding his horse while he was kicking the pallings off the fence at the residence of Jackson Gardner.

John Forseman had a runoff on Saturday. His horse left the wagon hanging to the side of a cherry tree.

Mrs. Geo. Wistar and daughter, Mrs. Mary Spangler, from Chicago, were visitors at James Heverly's on Sunday.

Miss Fannie Johnson also made a short visit.

Wm. Long has been taking orders for winter supplies of anthracite and bituminous coal. The price is reasonable—give him an order.

Mrs. Mary R. Beck, from the College, is visiting friends in this place and vicinity.

The next attraction for this community is the Lyons Reunion, which will be held on August 30, in the Schenck picnic grove. All are invited. Hacks will be run to and from grounds all day.

BEECH CREEK.

Miss Mary Shultz, of Roland, was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Frank Gunsallus last week.

Mrs. David Whamond, who has been sick the past week is somewhat improved.

Elery Linn, who was home from Patton on a vacation, returned to his work last week.

Mrs. Geo. Metzger, of St. Benedict, spent a couple days at the home of her parents, David Gunsallus last week.

Miss Laura Huling, of Charlton, is visiting friends in this place.

The farmers here their threshing about finished.

Miss Inez Robb, of Bellefonte, visited her cousin, Anna Robb, of this place over Sunday.

Quite a number of this place attended the Bigler campmeeting.

Miss Sylvia Miller spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Cline Confer.

Miss Ethel Fear, of Johnsonburg, is visiting friends in Madisonburg.

Mr. Metzger and wife spent last Sunday at the home of David Gunsallus.

Communion services at the M. E. church were well attended last Sunday.

Rev. Wharton will hold three services at the M. E. church Sunday, one at 10:30 am., at 2:30 pm., and 7:30 in the evening; all are invited to attend.

The festival held on the church lawn last Saturday night was well attended; about 22 dollars was cleared.

Clayton must be looking for a housekeeper since he is so attentive to that young lady.

MADISONBURG.

After a week's visit with their brother Jos. Bierly, Mrs. Margaret Bair and Isabella Kerstetter returned home at Centre Hill, Monday.

Miss Pearl Deibler, and brother, from Shamokin, are the guests of Miss An-cannetta Miller a few weeks.

G. N. Wolfe, wife and children, from Spring Mills, were the guests on Sunday of the former's father Israel Wolfe.

W. H. Frain and wife, from Altoona, are the guests of the latter's parents Jacob Frank's.

D. C. Caris wife and two children spent Sunday at Greensburg.

Mrs. C. D. Rorabaugh, from Jersey Shore, spent a few days of last week with her father, Jos. Bierly.

Cloyd Shaffer, from Hanover, spent Monday with relatives in town.

Mrs. Alice Duck and nephew Samuel Kidder, returned to their home at Pittsburg Monday, after a two weeks visit with the former's father, Jos. Bierly.

RUNVILLE.

Rev. Miller, wife and children, who have been visiting at Edward Poorman's, returned to their home at Braddock.

Rev. J. K. Mumau, of this place, is at present holding meeting at Clarence.

Earnest, the infant son of Jacob Emenhiser, died Aug. 21, aged 1 year, 5 months, 24 days, of cholera infantum; interment in Messiah cemetery, Aug. 23.

Wonder where Unionville scribe is? you must be sleeping, waken up there.

If you want to know about the corn boiling ask the girls?

Thomas Poorman and Clarence Smoyer, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday at this place.

Thomas Quick, who has been nursing a very painful hand, is some better.

Miss Clara Mann, of Howard, is visiting at Mrs. Green Watson's.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Bitner and son Blaine, of Spring Mills, were visiting Alice Bright a few days last week.

Rev. Dr. Irey, minister of the Baptist church at Rochester, Pa., preached in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening.

Prof. W. T. Meyer, of Philadelphia, presiding at the organ.

Thos. Weaver, who has been employed at Juniata Pa., very agreeably surprised his friends by coming home on Saturday evening.

Please Your Hair

Don't have a falling out with your hair. It might leave you! Then what? Better please it by giving it a good hair-food—Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair stops coming out, becomes soft and smooth, and all the deep, rich color of youth comes back to gray hair.

"I was troubled greatly with dandruff until I used Ayer's Hair Vigor. It completely cured the dandruff and also stopped my hair from falling out. It