

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

See that you are registered before Thursday, Sept. 7th. Miss Haldeman, of Harrisburg, is the guest of Miss Mary Linn. Miss Bessie Hart, of this place, is visiting Miss Grace Orner in Altoona. There is reckless driving on our streets—not alone by the automobiles. Miss Caroline Orvis has gone to Wilkesbarre for a brief visit with friends there. Mrs. John Noll has recovered from her long illness since April and is able to be out. Mrs. Joseph Nolan has returned home from an extended visit to relatives in Georgia. Chas. M. Heisler has gone to New Jersey to visit his brother for the next three weeks. Mrs. Charles E. Dorworth, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider. S. Cameron Burnside, of Philadelphia, is suffering with a bad case of Bright's disease at his home. Miss Nannie McClain, daughter of James A. McClain, of Spangler, is in Bellefonte visiting her grandmother. Miss Mary Kelley has opened up her new grocery store, in the room formerly occupied by S. H. Williams on High street. Belmont Beck, of Smithville, N. J., is home on a visit to his parents at Nittany and while in town paid us a call. He is an electrician and has a good position. The engagement of Dr. David Dale, of this place, to Miss Anna D. McPherson, of Gettysburg, was announced on Wednesday. The date for the wedding has not been set. An unusually large delegation of Philsburgers are in attendance at court this week. This is due to the Platt, Barber Co. case and the murder trial from Osceola. Thursday evening we had a heavy shower, accompanied by severe lightning. A flash struck Aiken's residence, and a telephone pole near Hume's, but no damage was done. Chas. P. Hilder, of Berwick, spent part of the last week in Bellefonte visiting Mr. Frank Galbraith. He left here seventeen years ago and now is employed in the car shops at that place. Samuel Brooks has retired from the auto-livery business, his equipment having been purchased by John Lyon who will continue to furnish autos for hire, in the same location, Bush Arcade. S. S. Pletcher, of Washington, D. C., is spending his annual vacation among friends about the county. In company with his brother A. A. Pletcher, of Howard, he paid us a short visit. Thos. J. Shaffer, of Dakota, Ill., who left Madisonburg for the west some ten years ago, is in on a visit here and paid us a call. He is pleased with Illinois and prefers it to old Centre. He reports crops good out there. Alex Hart, managing editor of the State College Times, while in town recently paid us a brief visit. He was a member of the last graduating class and is a progressive young man who has been making an improvement in that paper. Owing to the rain the display of fireworks for the Business Men's Picnic at Hecla Park, was called off. Mr. Sourbeck informs us that it is likely that, some evening to be fixed later, the display will be given, and a special excursion will be given over the road. A. E. Schad, sanitary plumber of Bellefonte, has engaged the services of Wm. Reiberson of Williamsport, who is a practical tinner of long experience and who will, with Mr. Schad, give bids and complete contracts for roofing of all kinds, including slating, tinning and all forms of modern building protection from the elements. Friday afternoon the following persons formed a congenial party who left here for Niagara Falls: Mrs. Frank Miller, Geo. W. Homan and wife, of State College; Austin Brungard and wife, and nephew Austin Hockman, Emanuel Garbrick and wife, Michael Corman and wife, Geo. Rocky and wife all the latter being from about Zion. The black martins are migrating already for their southern homes. These birds are the first to leave. When the birds leave and the corn commences to get yellow summer is beginning to wane, and the summer girls left over will have to wait until next season. That is why Fall is the saddest season of the year. Among those who went to Atlantic City last Thursday morning for the closing days of the season were Mrs. Mary Butts and her daughters Mary and Henrietta, Misses Daisy and Kate Brisbin, Marie White, Anne Harris, Ella Twitworth, Ella Alexander, Mrs. J. P. Gephart, Walter Furst, John M. Bullock, R. Russell Blair, Louis Daggett, Hugh Crider, Laird Curtin, W. E. Burkholder, Frank Deitrich, Robert Larimer, Mrs. C. M. Bower and their grandchild, Miss Emma Holliday, Mrs. U. H. Reamer, Capt. and Mrs. Hugh S. Taylor. In all there were twenty-five persons from this station.

Miss Bess Sharp, of Pittsburg, is visiting her parents. Centre county candidates are attending court this week. Edward Fleming is ill with the typhoid fever in the hospital at this place. Miss Gertrude Klingler, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Miss Florence Lowrey. Miss Lillian Rearick has returned home after a visit to friends in Lock Haven. Thomas J. Sexton, Esq., of St. Mary's, has been attending court this week. Miss Laura Hafer, of New Haven, Conn., is visiting her father, Dr. A. W. Hafer. Olewine's hardware store this week shipped several dozen hand rakes to the Sandwich Islands. The eclipse was on time here yesterday morning, 5:30, and gave a free exhibition until 7:30. Mrs. Harry Dawson, of Philadelphia, is a guest at the home of Theodore Cherry on North Thomas street. Miss Elizabeth Ward, of Pine Grove Mills, is a guest at the home of Dr. J. E. Ward, on East Curtin street. Mr. and Mrs. D. Eber Rothrock, of DuBois, are visiting Mrs. Rothrock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ott. Wm. T. Speer, Jr., of Pittsburg, is visiting his father, W. T. Speer of this city. He is accompanied by his son, Hunter. Rev. Frederick G. Gottwald, of York, will preach in the Lutheran church of this place, next Sabbath morning and evening. Thursday, Sept. 7th, will be the last day on which you can register if you want to vote in the fall; it is well to give this your attention. The Ladies' Aid Society of the U. B. church will sell ice cream in the Aid Society room next to the church Saturday evening Sept. 2, 05. Benj. Gentzle received a car load of fine milk cows on Monday, and Wednesday he had all sold, some going back down to West Chester. J. Perry Wood, a son of Rev. J. A. Wood, Jr., of this place, has just been appointed a Police Judge at Pasadena, California, where he resides. The Osceola murder case is booked to come before court this Thursday morning. The general impression prevails that there is no evidence to convict the men of the charge. Mrs. Katie Schaeffer Allison, of Nittany, accompanied by her accomplished daughter Verna, historian of the Shaffer-Hazel association, were agreeable callers in the Democrat sanctum. Mrs. Rogers and daughter, Miss Margaret of Logansport, Ind., the Misses Watson, of Bedford, and Mrs. W. O. Hickok, Jr., of Harrisburg, are being entertained at the Hastings residence. The new uniforms worn by the Undine boys at Philipsburg were pronounced the neatest outfit seen there that day. It is in order to mention that they were secured from Sim the Clothier. Capt. John H. Harter, of the Bucktails, a native of Aaronsburg, now a resident of Ohio, arrived here yesterday and took our sanctum by surprise. He is a brother of T. H. Harter, of the Gazette. The Bellefonte Trust Company makes an important announcement this week in regard to its saving fund feature, that is being instituted. The old saying is: Take care of your pennies and the dollars will care for themselves. Edward C. Eckley, of Chicago, a former Pennsylvanian who was down Bald Eagle visiting friends the beginning of the week, went down to the business men's picnic. While there he either had his pocket picked or lost his pocket-book which contained forty-six dollars in money, his return transportation to Chicago and a couple receipts and business cards on which was his Chicago address. Mr. Eckley was compelled to telegraph home for funds to get back to the Windy city. Recent callers in our sanctum: Miss Ella Decker, a pleasant daughter of Green Decker, of Georgesvalley, who is in North Dakota now, while Miss Ella is managing the farm on the old homestead—her father thinks of returning some time this fall; F. W. Shank, of Mingoville, and reports potatoes rotting down there; Chas. Royer and Andy Shook, jurors from Centre Hall; W. B. Shaffer, of Madisonburg, who reports potatoes rotting down there; C. C. Brungard, of Pittsain, on a visit to friends in his native county; W. W. Witmer, of near Bellefonte; A. J. Johnson, of Port Matilda, juror; D. L. Bartges, juror, Centre Hall; Mollie Talhelm, of Julian; Sam'l and Mrs. Hosband, of Julian.

RECENT DEATHS.

JOSEPH BANEY —the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Baneay, died at the home of his parents in Bush Addition Saturday morning at 6 o'clock, aged seven weeks. Death was due to whooping cough. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon. Interment in the Catholic cemetery. HARVEY LEWIS —who was seriously injured by falling from his baggage car near Rustic station on the Cambria and Clearfield branch Monday evening, died Wednesday afternoon; he passed away at his home in Tyrone. The deceased was born at Dix station and was aged 34 years 2 months and 18 days. MRS. SAMUEL T. BROOKS —died Friday morning at 3 o'clock at her home on East Bishop street after an illness of several weeks. The deceased was the daughter of Wm. C. Bell, deceased, and was born at McAlevy's Fort, Huntington county, May 8, 1868. For many years the family resided at Pleasant Gap where the mother and sisters still live. She is survived by her husband and two children, Pomeroy and Eugene. She also leaves to mourn their loss her mother, Mrs. Nancy Bell, two sisters, Ida and Mame and one brother Roy, all of Pleasant Gap. Interment in the Lutheran cemetery, Pleasant Gap Monday. MRS. REBECCA SPARR —the oldest woman in Harris twp., died at her home in Boalsburg Sunday evening at 10 o'clock. Her death was due to the infirmities of old age she having passed the 82nd milestone in life's journey. About a year ago the aged lady visited California and she has never been well since her return. She was married twice, her first husband was Joseph Meyer, a well known musician, who died in 1862 while playing the organ at the dedication of the Reformed church at Boalsburg. She then married Jacob Sparr, a prominent citizen of the county who died many years ago. She leaves no children but is survived by one sister, Mrs. Brungart, of Rebersburg. The funeral took place on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The services were held at Boalsburg. Interment in Boalsburg cemetery. DR. JAMES C. MCENTIRE —died in the Williamsport Hospital, Tuesday evening at 11 o'clock. Two weeks ago he was riding in an automobile at Mill Hill, when the auto ran into a fence and he was thrown out, injuring his knee cap. His death was due to blood poisoning. The deceased was the son of Lawrence McEntire and was born at Houserville 54 years ago. He graduated from a dental college and practiced his profession in Bellefonte and other places. Of late years he had been practicing at Howard. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Martha, Lulu and Guy, of Pittsburg, and Nannie, of Bellefonte. He also leaves three brothers, Dr. O. W. McEntire, of Howard, Harry and E. C. McEntire, of Williamsport. MRS. MARY JANE HOOVER PARKER —died at her home in Homer City, Pa. on August 27th, aged 70 years and 6 months. The deceased was formerly a resident of Unionville and much of her life has been spent in Centre county. In 1868 the family went to Kansas where in 1869 the husband died. They then returned and have resided since in Pennsylvania. She is survived by two sons and one daughter, George, Lorenzo and Ella, all at home. There also survive her three brothers and two sisters, Harvey Hoover, of Union township; J. C. Hoover, of Julian; Wm. Hoover, Williamsport; Mrs. Martha Eastman, of DuBois; and Mrs. Clarissa of Port Matilda. The remains were brought on Tuesday to Unionville where services were held in the M. E. church, conducted by her pastor Rev. S. B. Laverty, assisted by Rev. A. C. Lathrop. Interment was made in the Unionville cemetery.

RECENT WEDDINGS.

Aug. 19, 1905. Dr. Fred C. Perry and Miss Bessie Elliot of Washington were married. Mrs. Perry is well known in Bellefonte, having frequently visited relatives here. Harold G. Glenn, a son of Dr. W. S. Glenn, of State College, and a graduate of the class of '03, but who now holds the responsible position of chemist in the Lock Haven paper mill, and Miss Fannie Randecker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Randecker, of Lock Haven, were quietly married in that city, Wednesday of last week. Announcement was recently made of the marriage of Perley Osman Ray, an instructor in history and political science at the Pennsylvania State College, and Florence E. Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Nelson, of Burlington, Vt., the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's parents on August 9th. Mr. and Mrs. Ray will be at home at State College after October 1st. Mahlon J. Rentschler, an instructor in chemistry at the Pennsylvania State College, and Miss Bessie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lytle, of College township, went by auto to Boalsburg, Wednesday evening, 23, where they were married by Rev. A. A. Black, at the Reformed parsonage. From Boalsburg they came to Bellefonte and left on the 8:16 train on a brief wedding trip.

Platt Case Settled.

After a day's contention between the parties interested in the case of the Platt-Barber Company against John G. Platt, former Secretary and Treasurer, charging embezzlement and misappropriation of funds to the extent of $168,000, it was settled Tuesday without coming to court trial. Ever since Monday noon the attorneys on both sides worked hard for a settlement of the case without subjecting Mr. Platt to the odium of a trial. In the settlement the District Attorney withheld the indictment from the Grand Jury. Platt pleaded guilty to the charges against him and gave his note to the Platt-Barger Company for $120,169.87, which is a compromise on the part of the firm. The note will be at once entered as a judgment against Platt in both Centre and Clearfield counties, in which it is said he has ample coal lands and operations to meet the judgment.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Thomas Shaffer, of Dakota, Ill., is on his first visit to his old home at Madisonburg since he left for the west ten years ago. John G. Uzzle, of Snow Shoe, who was badly injured by a fall, is not as serious as was reported. He is up and driving around and good for many a hustle. Dr. J. F. Raine, formerly editor of the Millheim Journal, has located at Dubois to practice his profession. Dr. Raine took the state medical examination recently and passed very creditably. The Milesburg Baptist church, which has been undergoing some repairs to its interior, will be reopened with appropriate services on Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock. The public are cordially invited. Members of the U. B. church of Julian will hold a festival in the J. C. Nason hall, on Friday and Saturday evenings Sept. 1st and 2nd. All kinds of refreshments will be served and everybody is invited. The County Convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Milesburg Thursday and Friday of this week. It will open Thursday evening with a lecture from Mrs. Cora E. Seaberry whose talk here in May so interested all who heard her. Monday evening 21st while working in the stable near the stone quarries up on Benner twp. a 14 year old son of William Johnson, of Unionville, was kicked in the abdomen, by a horse. He was taken home that evening and the next morning he died. Leslie Sunday, the little son of Lewis Sunday, of near Centre Hall, had the index finger of his right hand severed by a blow from an axe in the hands of his older brother, Adam. The lad was holding a stick, while his older brother wielded the axe. A rat on the diamond at Millheim and a number of young boys attempting to kill it was the cause of breaking one of the large plate glass windows in Hosterman & Stover's hardware store. Some one threw a stone which resulted in breaking the glass instead of striking the rodent. An 18 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Yergler, of Bellefonte, died on Monday 21st at the home of Mrs. Yergler's mother, Mrs. J. Z. Long, at Howard. Funeral services were held on Wednesday at the Long home and the remains were brought to Bellefonte for interment. Miss Ella Decker, while on her way home from a visit to Pittsburg and other parts of the state, tarried in Bellefonte and paid us a call. She resides in Potter twp. and since her father Green Decker, moved to South Dakota, she has displayed enough tact to successfully manage the homestead farm. Mrs. Henry Eisenbuth, of Highvalley, has about recovered from the bite of a copperhead snake, mentioned in the Democrat some three weeks ago, although still suffering some pain. The sting was upon her foot and the limb up to hip became swollen and spotted. We are pleased to note her recovery. Potato rot is still threatening in many parts from reports we get from farmers—at this stage it is not alarming but may prove so later, and befall the tubers after being raised. This would cause prices of the potato to go up. Should the rot only be local and not serious prices will be low as the yield will be quite large. The accommodation train on the Bellefonte Central railroad consisting of two box cars and one passenger coach while running between Pine Grove and State College backwards was partially derailed Friday evening, owing to a spreading of the rails. One car was forced from the tracks and landed in a field, while another car and the engine left the tracks. None of the passengers or trainmen were injured. Simon Neyhart, of Snow Shoe intersection, will get a $15,000 legacy left him by a rich aunt who died recently in Iowa. Mr. Neyhart knew absolutely nothing of his good fortune until a relative whom he hadn't seen for years called to apprise him of it. He didn't go home and lick his wife either, like a fellow in another part of the state did upon getting a fortune. Mr. Neyhart knows how to appreciate things better. At a meeting of the election committee of the Williams reunion, on Saturday evening Aug. 26, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, J. R. Williams; vice president, A. S. Williams; recording secretary, G. A. Williams, assistant secretary, Margaret Williams; corresponding sect., O. D. Eberts; asst. corresponding sect., R. R. Hartsock; treasurer, W. A. Hartsock. The Williams reunion has been a success for the sixth time and it is hoped that it will continue so to be under the new officers. The huckleberry crop was a large one this year and thousands of bushels were shipped out of our county, and there are still many on the bushes unpicked in some mountain districts. We were informed that there was no longer sale for these berries in some sections of Pennsylvania, on account of the market having been overstocked. Many of the poorer class of people in the mountains and from the valleys made good days wages picking huckleberries. Five and six cents per quart were the prevailing retail prices, except in the earlier part of the season when eight cents per quart was the price.

Robert Hoy, of Lemont, is at his home very low with inflammation of the bowels and typhoid fever. The order of Golden Eagles of Centre County have a day during the Encampment and Exhibition at Centre Hall. Nathan Haugh, who was severely burned July 5, while fighting forest fire in the vicinity of Livonia, is not yet able to get out of bed. Elmer Bowersox, who has been acting as the Government Revenue Collector in Porto Rico, resigned his position and is visiting his many friends here. Mr. Bowersox served through the Spanish-American War as a musician. The Freeport, Ill., Bulletin, of 24 inst., says: The members of the Rocky family from all over this county as well as southern Wisconsin assembled at the Folgate grove in Buckeye township for the annual gathering of the descendants of the lamented Margaret Dautin Rocky. There were at least 150 persons present and at the dinner that was served and afterwards there were many pleasant things said about the members of the family who left Centre county, in an early day and came to this county to make new homes for themselves and those who followed them. HISTORICAL SOCIETY. The next regular meeting of the Linn Historical Society will be held in the arbitration room in the court house, on Monday, Sept. 4, at 11 a.m., open to all, ladies included. Papers appropriate to the objects of the society will be received and read, and kept on file. An election of officers for the ensuing year will also be held. Persons signing the constitution on or previous to above date thereby become Charter members. On account of the convenience of location, the Secretary's minute book will be found for a short time at the Democrat office where persons desiring to become members can do so by appending their signatures. The following have already signed the Constitution in order as contained upon the minute book: James A. Beaver, Fred. Kurtz, Ellis L. Orvis, J. Thomas Mitchell, D. M. Wolf, John Blanchard, W. Harrison Walker, Henry C. Quigley, Harry Keller, D. F. Fortney, E. R. Chambers, H. S. Taylor, Abram V. Miller, C. L. Gramley, Henry Meyer, C. P. Long, W. M. Allison, H. S. Branght, F. Potts Green, John C. Rowe, James P. Coburn, Chas. M. McCurdy, Wm. P. Humes, Clement Dale, Chas. R. Kurtz, Edward K. Roads, John I. Olewine, David O. Ethers, E. R. Chambers, Jas. A. B. Miller, W. L. Fleming, James Harris, Wm. Groh Runkle, W. Fred. Reynolds, W. H. Musser, John M. Shugert, Geo. T. Bush, George Israel Browne, Jonas E. Wagner, Edward L. Hoy, Frank Warfield, A. M. Sloteman, Claude Cook, F. K. White, Mrs. H. C. Valentine, Mrs. Wm. P. Wilson. The book for membership enrollment will be open at all times, ladies included. County pride should impel all, from every part of old Centre, to join and labor to make the Society the equal of that of any county in the state, as we have the material, personnel and historic, to attain that end. It is to be regretted that the organization of such a society was not effected at least a half century ago. Tabernacle Meeting. The last quarterly meeting of the Bellefonte Circuit Free Methodist church will be held at Colyer, Pa., September 7 to 10th, under the large tabernacle of J. K. Mumau, preacher in charge. This meeting will be continued for two Sabbaths; District Elder A. Bean will preside with other ministers to help. All are invited to attend. J. K. MUMAU. Weather Report. Weekly report—Bellefonte Station. DATE TEMPERATURE Maximum Minimum Aug. 24, pt cloudy 91 62 25, cloudy 85 69 26, clear 79 69 27, clear 79 59 28, clear 80 44 29, pt cloudy 82 48 30, pt cloudy 82 66 Rain: On 24, thunderstorm afternoon and night, .85 inches.
