

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

—Edward Nearhood has gone to New York city on business. —Miss Mary Bradley left Monday for Philadelphia where she will visit friends. —The premium list for the coming Centre county fair was issued this week. —Our public schools opened on Tuesday with a larger attendance than usual. —Mrs. Nettie Hutchinson and two sons, of Kane, are visiting Mrs. Hutchinson, on Howard street. —Mr. and Mrs. Frank Derstine and their little child, of Altoona, spent the past week in Bellefonte. —Prof. Louis E. Reber and family, of State College, are the occupants of the Masons' camp this week. —Misses Margery Lieb and Jennie Irvin left Thursday for New York where they will visit Mrs. Samuel Taylor. —"King Richard the Third" at the opera house Friday evening, 8th. Manager Garman assures this to be a strong attraction. —Rev. Focht, of Selinsgrove, will fill the pulpit of the Lutheran church in this place, on Sabbath, Sept. 17, morning and evening. —Miss Gussie Smith, daughter of J. P. Smith, is the new organist at the Methodist church. Miss Smith took charge last Sunday. —Chairman Taylor has opened up democratic headquarters, in the Garman opera house building, the same location as formerly. —Will Rowe, son of Recorder and Mrs. John C. Rowe, left last Friday evening, for Toledo, Ohio, where he has secured a good position. —Judge Harold McClure, of Union county, will preside at a special term of Argument Court, which will open on Wednesday of next week. —Miss Ella Rhone, now living in Arizona, arrived in town Wednesday for a visit among friends. She is a daughter of Dr. J. W. Rhone, deceased. —Mrs. Wagner, widow of the late Jacob Wagner, and her family will leave Bellefonte for Altoona where they expect to make their future home. —The opening attraction at the opera house, on Friday evening will be "King Richard the 3rd" by John Griffith the tragedian and a strong company. —John A. Wood, Jr., has returned home from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he graduated from Eastman's Business College standing third in his class. —The engagement of Miss Blanche Cook, youngest daughter of Andrew Cook, of Linn street, to Mr. Gibson, of Philadelphia, was announced last week. —Prof. John Hosterman has secured apartments in Petriken Hall and his family and household effects will be here from Lancaster in a short time to occupy the same. —Sheriff Taylor has purchased the Morris Cowdrick property on East Linn street, now occupied by Dr. Holloway, and will move in at the expiration of his term, this coming January. —In the Labor Day ball game at Hecla park, Monday morning, the Carpenters defeated the Painters by the score of 8 to 3. The picnic was largely attended and proved a success. —The announcement of the production of "King Richard the Third," on Friday evening, September 8th, with the eminent tragedian John Griffith in the title role, promises a great deal to the admirers of Shakespearean drama. Mr. Griffith's supporting company is excellent, and his scenic, electrical and mechanical equipment will prove quite a revelation to local theatre goers. —Mr. Coxe, the grocer on Bishop street, left with a short branch from a stalk of cultivated black raspberries, filled with a second crop of berries the size of large hazel nuts. This stalk at its regular crop, which was picked early in July, yielded him eighteen quarts of fine berries. Mr. Coxe tells us the bush was literally covered with berries from its first crop. Such a yield, from a single bush, is hard to match. —On last Sabbath morning, after services in the Lutheran church of this place, a congregational meeting was held for the purpose of choosing a pastor for the vacant pulpit, at which a practically unanimous call was given to Rev. Rearick, of West Milton, who will undoubtedly accept the same. There will be no preaching in the church next Sabbath morning or evening, as no supply was engaged for the occasion. —The congregation of the Pleasant View chapel, below Thomas A. Shoemakers' are making great preparations for a big rally day, on Sunday, September 17th, for the purpose of raising money sufficient to liquidate their small indebtedness of about one hundred dollars. A number of the ministers of the town have signified their intention of being present on the occasion and take part in the services. up to this time the congregation have not only supported the church but have paid off about $300 of the original indebtedness and spent over $500 in furnishings and improvements. And now they want to wipe out their last cent of indebtedness and to this end will hold a rally on September 17th.

The northern conference of the Lutheran church will be held at Pine Grove Mills the last week in September. The Howard canning factory is now busy putting up corn and tomatoes, the beans are about all finished. The factory is doing better work and more of it this year than last. Land, formerly of Centre Hall Reformed charge, has assumed the duties as president of Allentown College for Women, and has removed from Millersville to Allentown. Mr. Boob and family will become residents of Millheim next spring. Henry M. Swartz, whose barn was recently destroyed in Penn twp, by lightning, has the foundations built for a new barn. Thomas E. Smith, contractor and carpenter, of Fiedler, with three assistants, is busily engaged in framing the timbers. Abraham King, of Millheim, while at work with a manure fork, accidentally ran one of the tines of the fork into the instep of his left foot, causing a painful, if not dangerous wound. At this time he is unable to step on the foot and gets about on crutches. Albert Emerick has offered his house at State College for sale and is making preparations to move to Harrisburg, where he has accepted a fine position. It is reported that P. H. Gentzel, '05, will succeed Mr. Emerick at the Engineering building. A number of properties about Pine Grove Mills are changing owners: Frank Miller purchased the Wm. J. Meyers house; W. H. Martz brought the J. B. Mitchell residence; J. W. Sunday is contemplating buying the Dr. Smith home, and Charles Snyder the Anna Musser residence. The State Department of Agriculture is having all stock in Pennsylvania inspected, thus insuring purchasers who buy stock in Pennsylvania, trees not affected with disease. There are five inspectors, among them are Prof. W. A. Buckout and Prof. George C. Butts, of State College. On Monday 27, C. H. Stover sold his house and store room in Aaronsburg to Mrs. Lucretia J. John Jackson, a well known character of Lemont, was arrested last week on complaint of Jacob Houser for securing money by false pretence. Houser claims that Jackson worked him for $114 by means of a bad note. He was taken to Bellefonte by Constable Meyers but escaped and is now at large. The ground has been broken for the High Standard Garment Co's new factory, situated on Sixth street, near Spruce, at Philipsburg. The building will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. The structure will be of brick, and will be commodious, up to date in respect to modern conveniences, and also be ornamented. Prof. H. E. Bierly, professor of philosophy in Grant University at Chattanooga, Tenn., arrived from the South on Wednesday to spend two weeks with his mother and other friends in and about Rebersburg. Mr. Bierly is editor and publisher of the Southern Educational Review, the general educational organ of the southern states. He is also managing editor of the Southern Educational Series and is making a success of these enterprises. On Friday afternoon Emanuel Kerstetter, of near Coburn, while assisting Jacob Moyer at his planing mill, accidentally had the shirt sleeve of his right arm caught in the planer and before he could loosen it his arm was drawn into the machinery. Only the looseness of the belt on the machine saved the arm from being torn from his body. Several terrible gashes were cut in the arm from the wrist to the shoulder. S. G. Clements, of Bellefonte, some time ago entered suit against Mill Hall borough for an injury received while walking from the depot to the hotel, alleging that said injury was caused by a defective boardwalk. The suit was tried in the Clinton county court and the jury decided against Mr. Clements. He made a motion for new trial, and evidence is now being taken before Attorney W. C. Kress, subsequent to an argument for a new trial. Last Saturday Walter C. Cooke, station agent at Howard, received from the Homing Defender club, of Rochester, N. Y., a consignment of eighty-five carrier pigeons. On Sunday they were all returned loose at 8:10 o'clock in the morning, and a letter received Thursday from the secretary of the club stated that the first batch of them arrived safely home at 12:23 the same day while all of them got in before night fall. And this, notwithstanding there was a strong wind blowing from the north.

Monday was a busy day in W. B. Shaffer's peach orchard at Zion, as about 55 bushels of the choice fruit were picked. The Rock Farm base ball team will play a game with the Flemington team next Saturday afternoon at Hunters Park, and in the evening will hold a festival at the Rock Farm school house. Peaches are plenty in Sugar valley. The Delong orchard is now being picked and disposed of at prices ranging from $1 to $1.50 per crate. The Auman peach crop from Tylersville is offered at $1 per bushel, measured out of the wagon with a half bushel measure. Mrs. D. L. Miller, of Ferguson, had a close call last Saturday 23ult. While gathering her little chicks to save them from a watery grave during a fierce electric storm, a bolt of lightning struck near by. Through the timely arrival of Otis Hoy, a big conflagration was averted in Harry Musser's store at Strubles Station recently. Mrs. Musser and her little two year old child were in the store when the child overturned the large lamp. Mrs. Musser threw a large rug on the flames when Mr. Hoy appeared outside and put out the fire that in a few moments would have burned them out of house and home. Mrs. Moon of Blanchard was operated upon for appendicitis Saturday afternoon by Dr. F. P. Ball of Lock Haven and Dr. H. H. Mothersbaugh. Her case was extremely serious and the appendix was found to contain nine distinct particles, one as large as a hickory nut, of peculiar formation, not foreign substances. This condition is regarded as extraordinary. Mrs. Moore is about 60 years of age and stood the operation well. She is expected to recover. She was taken to the Lock Haven hospital. Rev. D. J. Davis, pastor of U. B. church, will preach his farewell sermon at Houserville U. The project to erect a fish hatchery of the state at Barree, Huntingdon county, has fallen through. An effort is now being made to get the department interested in locating a hatchery at Spruce Creek. More fish hatcheries add less fish. In one of the hatcheries, a short time ago, all the little fish starved. R. H. Brainard, ex-postmaster, of Curwensville, and for many years publisher of the Curwensville Review, died at his home in that place Tuesday, aged 57 years, 7 months and 28 days. Two years ago he was stricken with paralysis, and has been a helpless invalid ever since. He leaves a widow and two sons. An unknown and peculiar disease has broken out among the horses in certain parts of the country and the veterinarians are at a loss how to treat them of what is the cause of the affliction. The disease, if it might be so termed, resembles a severe attack of the heaves, with a loud rattle in the throat. The animal is prostrated and might as well be dead as it is useless to its owner. The state veterinarian is unable to offer relief and owners of afflicted animals are greatly worried. Sheriff Shearer arrived at Lock Haven on Monday from Charleston, W. Va., having in charge Joe Schrist, who was one of the two who robbed the Clinton house at Mill Hall of a sum of money and a lot of cigars, whiskey and a gold watch. The robbery occurred over one year ago, yet the guilty have been apprehended, one of whom is serving a two years' sentence and this one will doubtless get a much longer term. Quite a crowd boarded the train at Mill Hall to get a glimpse of Joe. Weather Report. Weekly report—Bellefonte Station.
