

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

Everybody will go to hear Billy Flack tomorrow evening. Mrs. Harriet Thomas Kurtz, who for two months has been abroad this summer returned last week. Harry Irvin has purchased Harry Rearick's cigar store in the Bush House block and will conduct the same. The Media Dramatic Company will be at the opera house, Friday evening. Billy Flack is one of the principal actors. Services in the Lutheran church of this place next Sabbath morning and evening, by Rev. Dr. Focht of Selinsgrove. Andrew Knisely, of Shamokin, Pa., is visiting his parents in Bellefonte. He is conducting a flourishing bakery at that place. Miss Jennie Crittenden came home from Waterbury, Conn., to spend her two weeks vacation with her father and friends in this place. Miss Elizabeth Schofield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield, and Charles Larmer, will be married on Wednesday Sept. 20th. Mrs. Lettie Thomas and daughter, Miss Mary, who have been spending the summer with Mrs. Louise Harris, have returned to their home in Philadelphia. Miss Lillian Muffy, a nurse in the Presbyterian hospital at Philadelphia, is spending her vacation with her sister Mrs. Jos. Montgomery on Linn street. R. B. Spangler, of Spangler, Pa., paid his parents at Centre Hall and friends in Bellefonte a brief visit this week. He reports the coal business as improving. Dan Reemer, formerly connected with the Krumrine Pharmacy, spent the past week among old friends. He was on his way from Ridgway to accept a position in New York city. The family of the late J. W. Gephart will move into the Hagerman property and the residence they occupy will be occupied by Dr. R. G. H. Hayes who purchased it recently from R. A. Beck. Warren Wood has purchased the furnishings of Spring Mills Hotel from Philip Drumm, the present landlord, and will continue the same as soon as the license is transferred. For several years Mr. Wood has been connected with the Brockerhoff House, and is a clever and obliging young man, well suited for the place. Gephart, the music dealer, had a fine exhibit of pianos at the Huntington county fair last week, and it resulted in making several sales. Mr. Gephart will have an exhibit at the Grange Picnic, also at the Centre county fair. He delivers goods throughout central Penna. and is known as an enterprising and reliable dealer. Knisely Bros. have started their new cigar factory with John McGinley as superintendent. In a week or two the product will be on sale. They will make a specialty of 5-cent goods, and the name will be "Tango" which the Japs gave a battleship they captured from the Russians and rechristened it. John McGinley used to make a fine cigar, and knows a few good points about that business. The Media Dramatic Company, of Media, Pa., will be at Garman's opera house on Friday evening. This is the same company that has been engaged to supply the evening entertainments in the Auditorium at Grange Park this year and so successfully entertained large audiences last season. Wm. Flack, formerly a barber in Bellefonte, is a leading member of this dramatic company and his many friends in Bellefonte will give him a rousing welcome when he appears on the stage. Ed. Nearhood has resigned his position with the Yeager & Davis shoe store at this place to travel as a salesman for the Mackintosh Shoe Company of Springfield, Mass. He left on Monday for that place to secure his outfit, and his territory will be in Pennsylvania and the family will continue to reside in Bellefonte. He will have an established trade and a good firm which makes his work easy to take up. At present no one has secured his former position. The Bellefonte Steam Heat Co. is making some extensive improvements to their plant by which they hope to better the service in the future. A large boiler is being added which will increase the capacity. The supply pipes leading from the works are being enlarged which will give better pressure. A line of pipes will be run along Allegheny street up to the Brockerhoff House, and out Linn street to catch all the condensed water from the steam traps in buildings and carry it back to the works. This water will be returned almost at the boiling point and will save a vast amount of fuel. As this water had been evaporated once is free from lime stone deposit and will be a great saving on the boilers, and will cut down considerably the quantity of water used. A gasoline engine and pump, stationed near the creek will enable the company to secure water for less money than that charged by the borough. Mr. Taylor is giving these improvements his personal attention and assures us that it will enable them to give the community better service than formerly. Free shoes at Yeager & Davis. Nights and mornings are cool. Mrs. F. W. Crider returned Saturday from Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Wade Cruse, of Pittsburgh, are visiting friends in this place. Charles Miller, son of John C. Miller, of Barnesboro, Pa., arrived in town to visit friends. Miss Ursula Bayard left this week for a visit to friends and relatives in Canton, Ohio. Judge W. F. Richards, of Stubenville, Ohio, was the guest over Sunday of Gen. and Mrs. James A. Beaver. Mrs. Fred Blair and little child are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Blair of North Spring street. Katz & Co. have greatly improved the appearance of the interior of their store by a new steel-paneled ceiling. Rev. Rearick, of West Milton, recently elected pastor of the Lutheran church of this place, will move here some time early in November. Prof. Angel, the eye specialist, will make his next visit to Bellefonte, Thursday, September 21st, and will be found at the Brockerhoff House. Thursday evening of this week the Epworth League of the Methodist church will give a peach-pie social in the Lecture room of the church. Frank Miller, one of the employees of the Potter-Hoy hardware company, was injured Wednesday morning at the store by a stove falling on him. Merchant D. E. Harter, of Howard, was in to pay us a visit and inspect our plant yesterday. He reports the Howard canning factory as booming. Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Garman have closed their house. Mr. Garman is touring the state with Noella taking in the races at the various county fairs. Hon. R. M. Foster, of State College, was in to see us on Wednesday exulting and boasting over that little lady that called at their home a few days ago. Friday evening the Misses Crissman and White will open their dancing school in the Bush Arcade. The Bellefonte Orchestra will be present for the after dance. Wallace Reeder, who came over from Lewistown to assist in the building of the branch for the limestone operations near Pleasant Gap, was taken ill and is confined to the house. Mrs. Henry Harris and Hard P. Harris returned last week from Canton, Ohio, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Harris' sister, Mrs. Uanderhill, who died there recently. The house occupied by Rev. Dr. Holloway, on Linn street, having been sold to Sheriff Taylor it is reported the Reverend will shortly move to Harrisburg and preach for the students of Gettysburg college. Dr. O. W. Pellman and Druggist Klechner, of Millifield, making a trip by auto through several counties, were in town Tuesday. It is by special request that we omit all comment regarding their experience in reaching here. The Workmens Bargain Store in the McBride building was enlarged recently by an extension of 16 feet to their room. This was found necessary owing the extensive stock carried by them. They certainly have a large assortment, chock full of bargains. First Lieutenant Roland Curtin, of the United States Navy, visited several days past with his parents, General and Mrs. John I. Curtin. After nine years service on the sea he has been detailed for land duty in the ordinance department at Annapolis, Md. From a notice in this issue, automobiles and bicycles will be required to pay toll on the turnpike between Bellefonte and Centre Hall. This will be a surprise to the owners of those kinds of vehicles, but it is only fair that if they want to travel over a road they should be willing to contribute their share towards its maintenance. J. Feron Mann, formerly of Bellefonte, now living at Lewistown, Tuesday morning, Sept. 5, went to a window on the second floor to remove the screen and in some manner lost his balance and fell to the yard below. No bones were broken and the only visible injury was a cut on one foot, probably received on a shutter as he fell. No serious results are apprehended. The members of the U. B. church of Julian, will hold a farewell reception in the hall on Saturday evening, Sept. 16, in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Davis, who expect to depart for conference the following week. All are invited, both great and small. Ice cream, cake and other delicacies will be served during the evening. Come to us to get your winter shoes, free at Yeager & Davis. Sunday 24th at 2:30 p. m. the corner store of the new M. E. church will be laid with appropriate services, at Millhall, Dr. H. R. Bender, of Lock Haven, and Rev. Grover, of Flemington will be the speakers. Read our free shoe ad—Yeager & Davis.

OVER THE COUNTY.

One afternoon last week the Howard canning factory canned 8,600 cans of corn and tomatoes. Last week lightning struck and killed four cows grazing in a field on the farm of John G. Schrack in Sugarvalley. E. G. Henderson, who has been living at Windber, Somerset county, has returned to his former home at Howard, Pa. The Coleville band will give a dance at their hall, in Coleville, Thursday evening. An admission of 25 cents will be charged. A thief or thieves one night a short time ago stole about a dozen bushels of fine peaches from the orchard of Doc. Barker, at Ingleby. John Reish, formerly landlord of the National hotel, at Millheim, will be found at the Irvin House, Lock Haven, where he is engaged as a bar tender. The teachers institute for this county will be held at Bellefonte during the week beginning November 13th. The new superintendent, Prof. D. O. Ethers, will seek to make it unusually interesting. The new Lutheran church at Penn Hall will be dedicated on Sunday, October 15. Rev. A. Stewart Hartman, of Baltimore, general secretary of the board of home missions, will officiate on that occasion. From Brushvalley we have reports of frost on last Saturday morning, but not harmful. Keep away a little longer, Jack, farmers are not yet ready for you. Come along last week in October and no one will growl. The Millheim Journal says: The peach crop in this section is being rapidly disposed of. Day after day loads of them pass through town and are distributed all over the county. The prices range from 40 cents to $1.25 per bushel. John Alters, son of Jacob Alters, of Millheim, who lives at New Haven, Connecticut, and is a motorman, had a narrow escape from death; while running his car was thrown 30 feet on account of it leaving the track. He was slightly injured. Howard Smith, of Loganton, who has been suffering with an internal affection, was taken to Williamsport and submitted to an operation, which disclosed a growth of a cancerous nature on the liver. No hope is therefore entertained for his recovery. Mrs. Annie Miller, of Ferguson, one day last week, while gathering eggs in a dark shed, she touched a live viper coiled on the eggs. Her screams brought her brother, Reuben Tressler, with his Marlin rifle, who quickly sent Mr. Snake to the happy hunting grounds. D. Clemson Williams, living at Scotia, this county, was seriously injured last Friday by falling from a car on which he was acting as brakeman. The young man had two ribs broken, his back was badly injured and he received other injuries which are not serious. L. C. Bullock has sold out his interest in the Bullock Chair and Swing company to the rest of the stockholders and in the future will devote his entire time to his wagon and carriage works at Milesburg and to pushing the sale of his patent table and ironing board combined. Considerable sparring is now going on between the two local phone companies in Pennsvalley where special service for farmers is being established. In the lower part of the county a large number of phones were put in by the Bell company. The United is adopting the same plan and competition is becoming more than lively. Benner M. Wilson, of Stormstown, Pa., and Martha L. Packer, of Beech Creek, were united in marriage Thursday morning, Sept. 7, at the home of the bride's mother, in Beech Creek by Rev. E. M. Aller, of Howard. The bride is one of the most highly respected ladies of Beech Creek and the groom is a prosperous farmer and business man of Half Moon valley. The will of the late Mrs. Rebecca Spahr was probated a few days ago. In it the testator divides all her personal property among various relatives and makes a few minor bequests after which the estate is to be divided into twenty-two equal shares which are left to as many beneficiaries. The estate is now estimated at from thirty-five to forty thousand dollars. Fish baskets are beginning to make their appearance in Penns creek since last week. At the White Riffle above Ingleby Messrs. A. D. Harter, landlord Shaver and Mr. Brown, of Millheim, put up a substantial one, and erected a shanty close to it. Henry Fryer, the Coburn fisherman, also erected his fish basket for operations; it is quite large. Henry last fall, from his fish basket at the same point, sold $90 worth of fish and eels as we are informed. Fish baskets are laid out for several other points. A number of licenses have been granted by the county treasurer to persons to place fish baskets in Penns creek for the purpose of catching eels. Years ago, when no license was required, numerous baskets were built in Penns and Elk creeks and great numbers of eels were caught. As eels are not protected by law and no game fish are caught in these baskets, then why are the people compelled to take out this license? The whole system of fish protection in this state is a fraud upon its citizens as will be seen later.—Journal.

The limestone boom at Pleasant Gap has induced the Noll Brothers to enlarge their store room. There will be a Tabernacle meeting at Runville, commencing on September 21, continuing over the Sabbath. All are invited to attend the services. J. K. Mumau, pastor. A letter was received this week from Port Matilda, ordering the paper sent, and the cash was enclosed. As no name was signed, we have the money and would like to know who sent it to us. W. L. Foster, one of the leading merchants at State College, this week sold out his entire stock and business to Messrs. Dr. John I. Robinson, Prof. M. S. McDowell and R. M. Foster, who will continue the business under the firm name of the "State Supply Co." They also purchased the McCalmont livery and will continue the same. RECENT DEATHS. MRS. EVA V. BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY. Friday, September 1, 1905, will long be remembered as one of the happiest days in the experience of William R. Schenck and family, of Liberty township, and a host of their most intimate friends. It was the 31st anniversary of the birth of Mr. Schenck, and his wife and children resolved to give him a genuine surprise. This was no small task, for Mr. Schenck is one of the most industrious farmers in Bald Eagle and rarely leaves home, except when business calls him elsewhere. But notwithstanding the difficulties encountered they succeeded admirably and a sumptuous feast was prepared for the occasion. On Friday morning, though very busy with his corn and tomatoes, Mr. Schenck was induced to go to Beech Creek to meet one of his daughters, and upon his return found his home in the possession of seventy-five friends and neighbors who had come to wish him many happy returns of the day. The dinner was a veritable feast and reflected great credit upon Mrs. Schenck and daughters. The social feast that followed was thoroughly enjoyed by every one present. About 3 o'clock the entire company of about eighty guests were gathered in and near the house and Rev. E. M. Aller delivered a short address, at the close of which, in behalf of his many friends, he presented Mr. Schenck an elegant rocking chair. In response Mr. Schenck expressed his warm appreciation of this marked evidence of esteem upon the part of his friends and neighbors. Other expressions of good will followed. Rev. Aller offered prayer, a number of beautiful hymns were sung, and about 5 o'clock the happy company separated feeling that the day had brought them untold pleasures. —Dream of the lucky day and get your winter supply of shoes free, at Yeager & Davis.
