

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

Madam Lockhart will make a balloon ascension each day of the fair next week. Ceaders have the concession for the eating stand on the Fair grounds next week. That's O. K. Miss Margery Knowles, of Richmond, Va., is visiting at the home of Mrs. Florence Dale. Earl Corman, one of Nittany's good farmers, was a caller and advertised a sorrel mare for sale. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will all be big days at next week's fair to see the whole show. J. L. Walkey, who was on his way home from a visit to friends in Perry county, paid us a short visit on Monday. Mrs. Sam Buck is visiting her sister, Mrs. Burrows, of Linn street. This is Mrs. Buck's first visit here in several years. The erection of the Curtin-Soldiers' monument will soon take place and be the main topic between this and the holidays. Miss Myrtle Showers fell down the stairs Monday morning at the home of her uncle, Samuel Brooks and broke her arm. A mare twenty-one years old with twin colts will be at the Great Centre Fair next week, and a great cattle exhibit. Ira D. Garman, jeweler, 101-S. 11 St., Philadelphia, favored us with a handsome blotter, which is a credit to his business. H. B. Aikey, the Wingate gardner, reports a successful year, but the cold weather was unfavorable for cantaloupes and melons. The exhibit of agricultural implements at the fair next week will be something the like of which has never been seen in this county. "Dreamland," a beautiful show of illusions, posturing and vaudeville, has been booked among the other attractions for the fair next week. H. S. Ray has sold his Cadillac runabout to Hugh N. Crider, who now has the automobile craze. Mr. Ray says he has enough for this season. Tuesday morning opened with the first real, biting frost this fall. Vegetation got a drop, and chestnut burrs got an opener that makes 'em grin. Rev. W. M. Rearick, the new minister for the Lutheran church of this place, is expected to move hither with his family the first week in October. While pushing his automobile into the barn, Hugh N. Crider stepped on a nail which penetrated his foot a half-inch which has kept him at home. H. O. Miller, while in town this week, called to put his label ahead and assure us of democratic success this year, and especially from his part of Boggs twp. T. O. Henderson, who is in Baldwin Locomotive Works, Philadelphia, is spending his vacation at his parent's home in Benner twp. He has a good position down there. Will Brouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brouse, who was in the employ of the Westinghouse people, came home on Monday, and hereafter he will clerk for his father in their grocery store in the Bush Arcade. Mrs. Louisa Bush left on Monday for a five weeks' trip to the Lewis-Clark Exposition and other points on the Pacific coast. With her sisters, Miss Amanda Tome and Mrs. Moulton, of Philadelphia. Messrs. Emanuel Noll and Hammond Sechler, of Bellefonte, who are among the few survivors of the brave 131st Regt., Pa. Volunteers, attended the reunion of that regiment at Selinsgrove last week. S. H. Williams and a force of men have finished the work of painting and papering the interior of the new First National Bank at State College. They have been doing a great deal of work up there this season. A colossal monument of fruit and grain is being built by Mr. Stroymer, the artist who designed the shaft for the Grangers picnic at Centre Hall. This will be something entirely new for many people in the county at the fair. The family of the late J. W. Gephart moved from the R. A. Beck house on east Linn street to the house adjoining, Miss Sallie Hagerman having stored her goods in rooms in the Petriken Hall and gone to board with Mrs. Harris. The county race will be one of the greatest attractions at the fair. Henry Lowery, Lew Wallace, John Wagner, Reuben Conley and several other gentlemen with horses that have a strong road gait are going to show some of these professional horsemen that amateurs can do a little driving too. Daniel Long, of near Hublersburg, was a caller and left samples of his Twenty-Ounce apples, which are beauties and hard to beat. They are of healthy democratic stock and measure slightly over twelve inches in circumference. Beat that if you can. Mr. Long is fortunate in having a large crop of apples.

High street is again passable. According to the list of jurors drawn there will be a three weeks' session of court in November. C. C. Ramsey, of Pleasant Gap, was in to tell us about Pleasant Gap's boom, and push his date along. Next week is the time for the famous county fair. When you come to town don't fail to call around and see us. Thomas and Michael Nestor, former residents of Bellefonte, but now of Pittsburgh, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Daniel O'Leary. M. C. Gephart, the Bellefonte music dealer, is having a very creditable exhibit of fine pianos at the Lewisburg fair this week. For want of time we could not get our illustrated pages ready for this week's issue. Will appear again in future issues. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hoffman, of Pleasantville, Pa., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Harrison Walker, Linn street. We are emphatically, constitutionally and radically opposed to any further ripping up of the streets—at least within the next forty-eight hours. M. I. John, the marble man is putting down some fine sawed stone pavements in our town. They beat brick, concrete or any other combination. There will be pigs in abundance at the Fair next week and the two that Henry Houser intends bringing will beat anything in Nittany valley this fall. Miss Mary and Boyer Nestor, former residents of Bellefonte, but now of Pittsburgh, left Tuesday for their home after a brief visit to their aunt, Mrs. Daniel O'Leary. Clarence Hoffman, editor of the Lewistown Free Press, came to town on Saturday in his new Cadillac. How a country editor can enjoy such luxuries is past all understanding. Unionville's most popular citizen, ex-register G. W. Rumberger, was a pleasant caller, after shaking hands with his many friends in town, who are ever glad to see his genial face. Miss Julia Bidwell, of Pittsburgh, a former Bellefonte typo, is home on a short visit and will return to the "Smoky City" in a few days. She tells us Pittsburgh is much to her liking. The Centre County Fair next week will be the closing event of the season and promises to be the best of all. It is worth the price just to see the horses come down the home stretch. There will be a large gathering of Odd Fellows in Bellefonte, October 16th, to 18th, when the annual Communication of the Grand Encampment of the Penna. I. O. O. F. will meet there. At the same time the Department Camp Patriarchs Militant will convene here. A short time ago Henry Twitmore, formerly of Bellefonte up to within fifteen years ago, now living in Blair county, was a visitor in this place, among old friends. He is now over 80 years of age. He joined Centre Lodge, I. O. O. F. in 1848, and most likely is the oldest living member of that Lodge. The following year, 1849, Harvey Benner, now an invalid, also of this place, became a member of same Lodge. Dean Baker was arrested by officer Montgomery at Lock Haven Saturday on oath of D. H. Shively charged with taking his purse containing over $100. He was taken before Squire Musser on Monday morning. There was quite a number of witnesses but there was not evidence enough to hold him and he was discharged. Baker had been in the employ of Mr. Shively for some time and disappeared about the time his purse was lost. Recent callers: John Breon, of Unionville, reports sharp frosts last Thursday morning; B. K. Lucas, of Altoona, formerly of Centre Hill; H. E. Shreckengast, of Altoona; Prof. Hoosterman, principal of Spring Mills Academy; Geo. S. Small, of Dakota, Ill., on a three months visit to old friends in Penns valley gave us a call—now nigh 80 years of age, barely looks 70 years; Mrs. Jerry Miller and pretty little daughter, of DuBois; W. A. Brungart and A. N. Brungart, of Wolf's Store, were business callers; Isaac Frain, of Marion, was an entertaining caller. Among the entries that are sure at the Fair next week for the races are: Lewis Wallace, Milesburg; Bruce Lingle, Milesburg; W. J. Woodring, Port Matilda; C. W. Lytle, State College, and Henry Lowery, Bellefonte. There are a number of other gentlemen interested who will probably be in at the start. It should be remembered that a horse that will go in this race has never been tracked or faced for money. This will be the feature attraction of the week because the average person enjoys a race far more when they know the horse and driver and know that there is no jockeying in it. The county race will be run Wednesday afternoon. A barn on the Cooper farm on the mountain north of Loganton was totally destroyed by fire Tuesday. A spark from an engine that was furnishing the power for a thresher started the fire. The thresher belonged to Mr. Harmon. The loss is said to be over $2,000.

OVER THE COUNTY.

The leaves are getting ready to leave. The potato rot is still on the go to a limited extent. The next thing on the carpet is the Bellefonte fair. The mountain foliage will soon have all the autumnal tints of beauty. Pic-nics have about run their course for this season—and there was no scarcity in the crop. Rev. Wm. H. Dale, of Cleveland, O., visited his father Wm. J. Dale, at Pleasant Gap, recently. Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Luse, of Tyone, are spending this week with friends at Madisonburg, Centre county. The wheat fields in this county, as also in Buffalo valley in Union county, have a promising appearance. Frosts fell upon different localities in our county within the last two weeks, but not of a severity to do harm. The railroad station at Centre Hall is to be enlarged and improved as it never was of proper size for the business. Nights and mornings have been cool, afterwards pleasant—this has been the weather condition for more than a week. D. K. Geiss, of Centre Hall has the job of repairing the lightning rod, damaged by lightning, on the Boalsburg Lutheran church. The wheat fields over the county are showing up nice and green. The season was favorable for planting and seed got a good start. State College wanted a telegraph office and the citizens are making an effort to induce the Postal Telegraph Company to extend its line and open an office in that borough. Married at the parsonage of the United Evangelical church at Howard, on Sept. 20th, 1905. Alonzo E. Schenck to Miss Edith Thompson, all of Fairview, Centre county. H. G. W. English of Pittsburgh a brother of Mrs. Morris Furey, of Bellefonte, is mourning the loss of his son, who died in Pittsburgh Friday of typhoid fever aged 19 years. Harry Confer, who belongs to the United States army hospital corps, stationed at Washington, D. C., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Confer at Millheim. He has a ten days' furlough preparatory to his leaving for the Philippines on the 26th of this month. The dwelling house occupied by A. N. Bitner, at Pine Station, was destroyed by fire, Monday of last week, as well as all Mr. Bitner's personal effects, except a musical instrument. Mr. and Mrs. Bitner were absent at the time of the fire, and consequently the origin of the fire is a complete mystery. Mr. Bitner is a native of Potter township, also a graduate in telegraphy of Paddy Mountain. The American Lime and Stone company, on Wednesday of this week, began surveying for a branch road from Peru, on the line of the Lewisburg and Tyone railroad to the Woodring farm west of Pleasant Gap, which they recently secured and where they will open up operations in the near future. This will mean the building of from four to six kilns, at least, and the employment of a large number of men. We are indebted to Mrs. Rowe, of Ingleby, for courtesies shown, with some fine apples (not pine-apples) thrown in. The lady with her husband has been summering at the place named for the past three years for the benefit of her health. The other day she ascended to the top of Eisenhuth's Peak, through brush and over rocks. The peak is about 500 feet high, at an angle of some 60 degrees, its summit capped with a layer of rock some 40 feet high, a piece of nature's mason work. There are wide open spaces in this ledge, and here is where Henry Eisenhuth found his "City of Refuge" during the late war when he was in fear of the draft and from thence could "view the landscape over." Mrs. Rowe accomplished the steep climb successfully, and felt the better for the exertion it cost. Embezzled Postoffice Funds. A dispatch from Pittsburgh states that certified copies of papers in the case of Charles Brainard, caught at Cheyenne and charged with embezzling postal funds from the Curwensville, Pa., postoffice were sent Saturday to the chief of police of Cheyenne, Wyo., and it is expected that an officer will start east with the prisoner as the papers reach Wyoming. The young man was a clerk in the postoffice where R. H. Brainard, his father, was postmaster. He was in charge of the money orders, and it is alleged that Brainard would get an application for a money order, say for $100, from a customer, and after issuing the order would alter the application to make it appear as though it was an order for $25. The difference, $75, he would put in his pocket. The scheme would remain unknown until the accounts of the sending and receiving offices were checked against one another. It is declared that by this method young Brainard got $491.76. A good laprobe. G. F. JODON, Auctioneer, Bellefonte, Pa. Offers his services to the public as an auctioneer. Farm sales a specialty. 345

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

The Centre county Commissioners have at last pledged their word that the bridge at Beech Creek will be rebuilt without delay. They understand the business, but the excursion season is about over. The three-year-old son of Frederick Muthler of Beech Creek township was kicked by a horse last week on the side of the face and broke his jaw bone and cut a deep gash in his cheek. It is remarkable that the little fellow was not instantly killed. Work was resumed Monday morning tearing down the old buildings at the Mill Hall axe works. A force of 50 men are engaged. The old mill property will also be torn down, which will mean the passing of one of the oldest buildings in the town, having been erected in 1783, and having up to about 20 years, been used as a grist mill. The company will expend in all $25,000 in improvements to their works at that place. The Pennsylvania railroad introduced and put to trial the largest and most powerful locomotive ever used in the service of the road, last Saturday, on the Pittsburgh division. This engine was built by the Schenectady Locomotive works and is equipped with the piston valve motion. It broke all records for hauling heavy tonnage, equalling the hauling capacity of two of the ordinary locomotives now in use. The monster is No. 2762 and it was run by Engineer C. C. Parsons, of Tyone, with two firemen. John Rinker, of Scranton, holds, he believes, the world's championship as a beer drinker. Last Friday night he drank on a wager eight gallons in twenty-eight minutes. He bet he could do it in an hour. Rinker placed a tube in the barrel and, with a large lot of men and women watching, he drank steadily for twenty-five minutes. Then he complained that no more beer came. The keg was tilted and he drank the last drop. So little was he inconvenienced that he stood at the bar and drank several glasses. We have some beer drinkers in our town who swear that is impossible, and they speak from long experience. U. B. Appointments. At the close of the Allegheny conference of the United Brethren church at Johnstown Monday Bishop J. S. Mills made the appointments for this district. For this section the following are noted: Presiding Elder, J. Q. Ressler; Altoona, First church, G. L. Graham; Altoona, Second church, W. N. Deller; Bellefonte, A. Davidson; Bellwood, May Whitehead; Birmingham, J. C. Erb; Clearfield, C. C. Miller; Houserville, A. S. Wolfe; Huntingdon, U. B. Brubaker; Johnstown, First church, N. Burtner; Mapleton, H. S. Seelhammer; Middleburg, J. H. Dean; Oriskany, W. A. States; Phillipsburg, R. Head; Port Matilda, G. W. Shires; Runville, C. C. Bingham; South Williamsport, George Cananough; Tyone, R. Jameson; Woodland, J. J. Funk; Williams Grove, W. H. DeFoe. Kennedy Players. It is almost incredible that one year can make so great a difference in a person as the past twelve months have in Miss Nellie Kennedy, of Kennedy Players. This was demonstrated to a large audience at the Academy of Music last evening. The notable development, physical and artistic, that has taken place in Miss Kennedy, has raised her into the front rank of popular actresses. The part she essayed last evening required versatility and force, and to these she added a deal of natural grace. John J. Kennedy did a comedy part with all his wonted humor, and the rest of the company made a well-balanced cast—Scranton Pa. Truth. At the Garman opera house, every evening next week—admission 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents. A FINE SET OF HARNESS. 10 PER CENT. REDUCTION ON ALL GOODS SOLD—WHY YOU SHOULD VISIT THE COUNTY FAIR. You can combine business with pleasure, and make the trippay for yourself. You will save more than your expenses by calling at Schofield's Harness Factory and purchase bargains that we will offer you during the Fair week. This offer is only good while the Fair is in blast, as all leather goods are advancing in price. Why we make this special offer to you is that you make special effort to come to the Fair, so that this year's Fair shall be the greatest in the history of the county. It won't be a success unless you come and bring your friends along. Make Oct. 3, 4, 5 and 6, 1905, the grandest of all. We have now in stock a very large assortment of hand-made Harness—light and heavy—at all prices. Our stock of Blankets and fine Robes is complete—and nicer patterns than we have had for many a year. You can contribute to it materially, and give it a far more prosperous look at the same time. Perhaps the public property needs a good coat of paint. Devoe will supply that coat with two-thirds of the number of gallons required of any other. Devoe will last twice as long as any other. Devoe is all paint and full-measure. Devoe is the strongest paint known. Devoe will take care of the property, in the long run, for half the money required by any other. The reason is stated above: Devoe is all paint and full-measure: the strongest paint known. E. D. Jewell, Corry, Pa. painted his house 5 years ago with a mixed paint; took 14 gallons. Last spring he repainted with Devoe; bought 14 gallons and had 4 left. Saved $15 to $20, for painting costs two or three times as much as the paint. Yours truly F W Devoe & Co New York

PROVIDING WATER SUPPLY.

Pennsylvania Railroad Will Protect Itself Against Drought. The Pennsylvania Railroad company is getting itself in position so that in times of drought it will always have enough water on hand to meet all its wants. The dry weather of last year showed that the old system of depending on nearby streams and towns for water for the locomotives will no longer serve. At one time nearly one-half of the motive power was laid up on account of the corrosion of the boilers by impure water. This happened at a time when the business was the heaviest. It meant a loss of large sums of money and was in a measure responsible for the piling up of freight trains which could not be moved on account of there not being enough locomotives in service. President Casat realized that more up-to-date methods would have to be employed. Since then he has through his officers secured the water rights to many streams and the work of constructing a water pipe line is to be extended throughout the section where at times the water ways become very low. The outlay for this pipe line will be considerable, but it will be of immense advantage to the company when water is scarce, as it will insure the railroad a supply of pure water at all times. Katz's Millinery Opening. In this issue of the paper we will not forget to mention the fact the millinery opening on Tuesday at Katz & Co's most have proved very successful. About 250 hats, draped in a beautiful case of white, surrounded by palms and foliage made one of the prettiest showings we have ever seen. Smith's orchestra was engaged for the occasion and the whole scene was one long to be remembered by the thousands of visitors who were there. Weather Report. Weekly report—Bellefonte Station.
