

Correspondents' Department

The news in condensed form from all parts of Centre County

ARRNSBURG.

Mrs. Maria Deshler has returned from a three-months' visit to her son at Glidden, Iowa, and friends in Chicago and Ohio. She came home much improved in health.

Mrs. Alice Luse, of West Fairview, and Mrs. Kremer, of Renova, are the guests of A. S. Stover's.

John Thomas and wife, of Green Burt, returned a few days with Mary and Zach Thomas.

Mrs. Maggie Sylvis, of Oak Grove, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Frank Burd.

George Weaver and wife spent the Sabbath with friends near Wolf's Store.

Clymer Stovers are now comfortably settled in J. C. Stover's home and Clymer has his grocery in the room formerly occupied by the Citizens band.

E. R. Wolfe spent part of the Sabbath pleasantly at the home located on "Banker Hill."

Ebon Bower returned home on Thursday after having taken a business course at College.

Jessie Wert and wife spent one day last week with Mrs. Wert's aged mother at the home of Reuben Smull.

Dr. D. L. Bowersox has greatly improved the looks of his home by having the front yard fence taken away.

Warren Winkleblech and wife spent the Sabbath at Rebersburg with Warren's parents.

John Haines and wife, of Penn Hall, were visiting Mr. Haines at the toll-gate one day last week.

Miss Mary Meyer has resigned as teacher of the intermediate school. Nevin Moyer, of Rebersburg, has been elected in her place.

On Sunday evening Dr. A. S. Musser and Blanche Burd were quietly married at the Lutheran parsonage by Rev. Scheeder. Congratulations are now in place.

On Saturday evening Miss Kathryn Frank entertained a number of her friends, before returning to their homes she served the company with ice cream, cake and candies.

OAK HALL.

Joseph Brooks has gone to Clarion where he expects to find employment.

Miss Nelle Holter returned to Howard on Monday after spending the summer at this place.

Mrs. Harris Bloom and daughter, of Pine Grove, were seen in our vicinity on Saturday.

J. W. Peters and family, of Rock Springs, visited with his mother on Sunday.

Chas. Wilt and Miss Stella Gramley, of Altoona, spent part of last week at the home of R. C. Lowder.

N. J. Rishel is confined to his home with symptoms of typhoid fever.

Last Wednesday John Lontz took leave of Oak Hall and moved to Centre Furnace where he has been employed by Mr. Mitchell.

Miss Rose Meek, of Altoona, visited with Miss Elsie Peters recently.

Murray Knopp, of Pittsburg, is spending a few weeks with his parents.

Miss Mary Dale quietly slipped away on Tuesday to Altoona where she was met by Newton B. Miller, whence they journeyed to Pittsburg and were there married by Rev. William Dale, of Canton, Ohio. They expect to go to house keeping in Altoona where he is employed; their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

CENTRE HALL.

Frank Bloomister, the last of workmen at the oil well, left for his home in Mt. Jewit, Monday.

Philip Meyer, of Bellefonte, is said to have bought the Kurtz property now occupied by Wm. Mitterling.

Mrs. Shaffer Derstine and daughter Margaret, left for her home at North Bend, Tuesday.

Sam'l Rowe has been ill for several days; he is able to be out now.

Rev. Gress and wife have returned from Adamsburg where they spent their vacation.

Mrs. Michael Derstine, who sprained her hip several weeks ago, is slowly improving.

Quite a number of Bell telephones are being placed in town.

Cyrus Luse and wife, of Tyrone, are visiting friends and relatives in town.

Geo. Condo, wife and children are spending their annual vacation with Philip Darst and family, Mrs. Condo's father.

Wilbur Henny came home to visit his mother, last week. On Sunday he returned taking with him his son Ralph, who had been staying with Mrs. Henny. He will again resume housekeeping. He was also accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harper.

MADISONBURG.

Mrs. W. C. Noll returned home on Sunday after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Henry Royer, in Nittany valley.

Mrs. G. N. Wolfe and son Walker, of Spring Mills, spent a day of last week with her parents-in-law, Israel Wolfe's.

Miss Bessie Rachau, from Williamsport, was the guest of friends in our burg on Friday.

Mrs. Adam Yearick and daughter, Maude Stover, from Lamar, Mrs. Harry Fiedler and daughter Madeline, from Avis, Mrs. F. E. Gutillus and two children from Millheim, were the guests of Mrs. W. E. Yearick on Saturday.

W. E. Gramly and wife, and Mrs. J. W. Hazel, from Spring Mills, spent Sunday in our burg.

Mrs. K. A. Miller, from Shawville, Pa., spent a few days with B. P. Miller's.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure.

E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. Be sure.

MOSHANNON.

Miss Elizabeth Yeager, of Elton, is visiting friends here.

Rev. Currie preached a good sermon in the Presbyterian church last Sunday.

Rev. J. Ellis Bell, presiding elder of the Methodist church, held the Quarterly Conference here on last Friday, and preaching in the evening was largely attended. Rev. Bell was the guest of J. T. Lucas.

Mrs. Geo. Hodgson, of Philadelphia, visited with Mrs. A. A. Groe this week.

Miss Harriet Bowes, of Pine Glenn, was seen on our streets recently.

John Hazzard has returned home after spending some time at Grampan.

Wonder what can be done to keep those Pine Glenn boys out of our town?

Dick Burns, of Snow Shoe, spent several weeks visiting his numerous friends in this place.

I. Heaton, of Gorton Heights, was seen on our streets this week with his ex-Dan Patch.

M. L. Bare, of Etters, Pa., who is agent for the York Bridge Co., is spending some time here.

A. A. Groe had a good foundation laid for his ice house by Israel Hoover of Milesburg.

Miss Margaret Gleason is visiting friends in Houtzdale.

Mrs. Kathryn Breen visited her daughter Mrs. A. A. Groe of this place.

W. T. Vail made a call in Williamsport recently. Will and William must take turns now.

Rev. Currie, wife and son John were guests of B. B. Beightol over Sunday.

Mrs. Eva Lucas is visiting her mother, Mrs. Eckley, in Runville.

Mrs. F. T. Zimmerman spent some time in Clearfield this week.

Miss Benton Leeder has returned from Patton where she spent the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Ann Styers.

There will probably be something doing in old Giltintown before long. Boys get your cow bells, etc. ready.

Joseph Fleming, wife and children, of Karthaus, spent Sunday at the homes of Rush Quick and M. J. Bowes.

Frank Holt, of Clearfield, was a Moshannon caller this week.

The good people of "Hurricane Point" better known as the Pike, were awakened out of their slumbers one night by what they thought must be a part of Barnums circus passing by, but which upon investigation, proved to be a load of Moshannon young people returning home from church (think of it) at Snow Shoe.

John Easton, who has been employed at Cherrydale, spent Sunday at home.

Geo. Duck, who is employed at Monument, spent Sunday at home.

PINE GLENN.

Jack Frost has made his appearance in this vicinity.

James Hipple, wife and baby, of Baltimore, are visiting their parents and friends here and at Karthaus.

Miss Maude Watson, of Trenton, N. J., and Homer Watson, of Altoona, are spending their vacation with their parents.

Rev. Elmer Meredith delighted his audience by a very able discourse in the Advent church on Sunday morning.

George Loy spent Sunday at home in this place.

Evert Daugherty, of Clearfield, visited his wife and parents in this place last week. Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty will move to Clearfield in the near future.

Mr. French, of Peale, was a guest of Hattie Bowes on Sunday.

Mrs. Nannie Beates and son, formerly of this place, but now of Sharon, are visiting friends and relatives here.

Rev. Dr. Bell conducted services in the M. E. church on Sunday evening and pleased his large audience by a fine sermon.

John Bowes was a Bellefonte and Centre Hall visitor last week. What's the attraction Johnny?

Boston Daugherty, of Spruce Run, was circulating in Pine Glenn on Saturday.

Mrs. Minnie Overdorf, and little son, of Jersey Shore, is visiting her parents, Ed. Lewis and wife of this place.

Misses Agnes Healy, of Karthaus, and Anna Healy, of Pittsburg, were seen on our streets Saturday.

A number of our citizens are preparing to attend the great Centre County Fair.

Miss Jennie Askey returns to Bellefonte on Monday where she is learning to sew.

CLINTON COUNTY.

Ex-Senator S. R. Peale, of Lock Haven, who represented Clinton county in the senate in 1877-78, celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary Wednesday of last week. Senator Peale is one of Lock Haven's most progressive and public spirited citizens.

James Edwards, aged 81 years, assisted in cutting corn for M. C. Jobson at Mill Hill and in less than ten hours Mr. Edwards cut 81 shocks of corn, 8 rows in a shock. This is pretty hard to beat, especially when it is considered that Mr. Edwards is over four score years old.

Work at the Mill Hall axe factory is progressing very satisfactorily, the older buildings are being torn down and the debris is being moved as fast as it can and it will not be a great while until the foundation for the new buildings will be commenced.

John Quiggle, of Mackeyville, and a son of William Wilt, residing near Salona, each fell on the same day last week and broke an arm.

Two cases of typhoid fever are reported from Cedar Run, Potter township, those down with the dreaded disease being Harry Shearer and Miss Clara Yearick, at the home of John Yearick. Mr. Shearer's brother is also ill with typhoid fever at the Lock Haven hospital.

TYLERSVILLE.

J. H. Sharp, magician and ventriloquist of Hubersburg, gave an exhibition of his powers here, Saturday night.

Taylor Williams, of Little Sugar valley, visited old acquaintances here last week.

Wm. Weaver is papering at Lock Haven this week.

Henry Glantz, who is working at Beech Creek, spent a part of last week with his mother.

PORT MATILDA.

A few Sundays since a hack load of nitro from in and near this place visited the Allegheny mountains; they claim they were on a pleasure trip picking a few huckleberries to eat to pass away the time pleasantly. Yes, but a fellow who is acquainted with them says they were engineering a suitable place to hunt this fall. Well, of course, well we wont tell you who they were, we might want winter huckleberries.

An unusual crop of corn is on shock in this immediate vicinity, the best we have had for several years.

Mrs. Hellen Williams, wife of Conrad Wilson Williams, of near this place, who is in her 72nd year, fell a few days since sustaining painful injuries in shoulder and back; on account of her advanced age her case is a serious one.

The committee of the U. B. church at Black Oak chapel met on Saturday the 23rd to arrange the sale of burial lots. Although it had been advertised properly, the attendance was small.

The greater number of game and fish warden installed in our county; the scarcer the game and fish appear to be getting.

On Sabbath last about 2 o'clock, a hay barn on the farm of C. Sharer was burned with about 50 tons of hay which it contained; the origin of the fire is not known, but supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Miss Fannie Cowher was called to Sandy Ridge one day this week on account of the severe illness of her brother Levi's wife.

The recent visitors at the home of O. P. Reese, was Mrs. Short and three children, and Mrs. Thompson and child, from the western part of Indiana state, and Mrs. Lawson, of Punxsutawney, Pa.

Mrs. Bella Woodring is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Olie Robison in Altoona.

The three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Boyer residing in Curwensville, died Sept. 6, of inflammation of the bowels; interment was in the M. E. cemetery. Little Daisy, as she was called, was a bright little child, a pet of the household—another flower transplanted from earth to Heaven.

Sam'l Osman has returned from Pittsburg where he was taking instructions from lectures on embalming given by the Pittsburg Casket Co.

Katie Reese had thought of visiting Homer City with her friend but George insisted so strongly that she abandoned the idea for the present.

Robert so punctually observed the laws of etiquette that he came near causing a sensation returning to his boarding place, after several hours of pleasant chat with a lady friend; of course it was not quite daylight when he attempted to slip to bed unnoticed by the inmates, but the pug dog was too sharp for him, he gave the alarm causing a cry of burglars in the house.

NITTANY.

Mrs. Isreal Rachau, of near Madisonburg, visited James Nolan's and H. P. Zerby's one day the last week.

James Donahue and family, of near Mill Hill, were the guests of P. S. Rossman's on Sunday; also Calvin Fravel and family, of Elk Creek, Somerset county, visited Mr. Rossman's.

Dr. Irvin and wife, of Washington, D. C., are guests of the former's mother and brother of this place, James Irvin and mother.

Miss Minnie Winkleman has returned home to spend her vacation and will attend the Lewisburg fair next week, accompanied by her sister Mittie.

Some of our people attended the grangers picnic last week.

Bert Robb and lady friend, of Bellefonte, were guests at the hotel at this place on Sunday. Bert was formerly a Nittany boy and has a host of friends here.

Korman Yearick and family, of Huyettville, visited Earl Korman's, Sunday.

Miss Amanda Dorman, employed at Zion, visited her parents and many friends here recently.

Rube Colyer, who works at Zion, was the guest of W. J. Manck's one day last week.

Mrs. S. R. McCaleb is visiting friends at Millersville, Williamsport and Jersey Shore.

Mrs. Tate is visiting her daughter Mrs. Boarder, in Altoona.

The ladies of the Ev. church will hold a sociable at the home of Mittie Winkleman on Saturday night, October 7th. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Sam Rossman, of Mill Hill, visited his brother at this place on Sunday.

MILES TWP.

WEST BRUSHVALLEY.

Sunday was a fine day and all seemed to enjoy it, especially the young folks out on a chestnut hunt; the nuts are beginning to burst open.

The farmers are busy cutting off their corn fodder.

Most of our farmers are done sowing.

C. E. Duck, accompanied by J. Wert took a trip down the valley on Sunday. What was the attraction boys?

Prayermeeting was largely attended at James Wert's on Sunday evening.

Isaac Smith, of Farmers Mills, spent Sunday at the home of Clarence Hontz.

Quite a number of our young folks took in the Sunday school entertainment at Madisonburg in the Reformed church on Sunday.

Sam'l Frederick, wife and daughter, from Farmers Mills, spent Sunday at the home of Isral Spayd.

The average young fellow's love is greater than his bank account.

YARNELL.

Beautiful weather at this writing.

Ira Confer, our enterprising merchant, is taking a vacation and attending the U. B. conference which convened at Johnstown the past week. He will also visit friends in Altoona and other places before returning home.

Mrs. Wm. Shank, of Bradford, visited at this place last week.

J. Edw. Confer and family and Miss Fannie Confer spent Sunday at Edw. Burd's, near Milesburg.

Miss Mame Croft returned last Tuesday from a month's visit with friends at Nanty Glo.

A number of people from here attended the past week the tent meetings which are in progress at Runville.

Mrs. Rebecca Watson, of Bush Hollow, is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Nettie Powell.

Mrs. Ino. Croft and son Harry spent a couple days last week at Snow Shoe visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Sayers.

Alfred Shank, wife and two children, spent Sunday with W. E. Brown at Snow Shoe.

Miles Heaton and family accompanied by Miss Rosa Heaton spent Sunday at Runville, also Miss Anna Shank.

Charles Shope, of Holt's Hollow, had his arm broken one day last week. He was at the ore banks and got between two trucks.

Miss Mertie Fetzer is critically ill at her home at this place.

Mrs. Geo. Walker and children spent Sunday with her parents at Wingate.

A pie social will be held at this place Saturday evening, Sept. 30, by the teacher and pupils of the grammar school. Ice cream and cake will also be served. Everybody is invited to attend.

Miss Libbie Shay, of Milesburg, is visiting her aunt Mrs. Ira Packer.

MILESBURG.

Will Baird and Sam Haupt spent Wednesday in Lock Haven.

Lee Smith Sundayed with his brother William in Altoona.

Frank Baldrige, of McKees Rocks, is spending his vacation at home with his parents.

Mrs. Lizzie Shirey and two children are visiting her parents.

Rev. Foster Piper, of Newark, N. J., is spending his vacation with his parents Rev. M. C. Piper and wife.

Miss Annie Simler, of Phillipsburg, was a recent visitor to the burg.

J. W. Parson, of Lindsey, Pa., was a recent guest of Ed. Bullock and wife.

Wm. Johnson, Jr., who has been employed at the Keller hotel, Lock Haven, as bell boy, found the work was too much for him, all work and no sleep, returned home.

Ed. Borst and family, of Pitcairn after visiting her parents, Wesley Crain and wife, returned home.

L. C. Bullock, Jr., and wife, Sundayed with relatives and friends at Burnham and Lewistown.

Charles Sheekler, of Tyrone, Sundayed with his parents.

James Noll, of Tyrone, was a recent visitor with Geo. Noll and wife his parents.

Isaac Murray had a narrow escape of being seriously hurt by a mule in Armore's Hollow, on Tuesday of last week.

WINGATE.

Mr. Stere and wife Sundayed at the home of Jack Barnhart at Curtin.

Quite a number of our people attended the camp meeting at Runville, on Sunday evening.

Mrs. W. S. Fisher and son Fred Sundayed at the home of their nephew, Reuben Alexander, at Julian.

Grace Boob spent Sunday evening with her friend, Miss Edith Way.

Daniel Boob and wife Sundayed at the home of Harry Branhart, near Curtin.

Sarah Boob spent Saturday in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Maggie Hipple, after spending some time with her parents, returned to her home at Hagerstown, Md., on Saturday.

Lloyd Brower, made a flying trip to the county seat on Saturday.

James Haines and family after spending some time with their parents returned to their home in Youngwood, on Monday.

The bank president may not know much about a yacht, but he often becomes a skipper.

For Thin, Poor Blood

You can trust a medicine tested 60 years! Sixty years of experience, think of that! Experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; the original Sarsaparilla; the strongest Sarsaparilla; the Sarsaparilla the doctors endorse for thin blood, weak nerves, general debility.

But even this grand old medicine cannot do its best work if the liver is inactive and the bowels constipated. For the best possible results, you should take laxative doses of Ayer's Pills while taking the Sarsaparilla. The liver will quickly respond, and so will the bowels.

ROLAND.

Mrs. V. E. Curtin entertained a number of invited guests from Bellefonte at dinner on Saturday noon.

The Misses Holters, of Williamsport, visited Miss Sue Holter on Sunday.

Misses Mann and Alice Neff are improving their school rooms; they are putting beautiful window blinds and white curtains to the windows; besides being a protection to the scholars' eyes in studying, it will be more cheerful and home-like.

We are glad to see Jack Barnhart around again after such a severe attack of rheumatism.

Soup drove to Jacksonsville on Sunday. We wonder what takes him over there. Soup come and explain.

Clair Williams is not so well; at this writing he is suffering with a terrible pain in his hand.

Paul Parker has gotten himself a fine new bicycle; we expect to see his name on top for winning the race at the fair.

WOODWARD.

Wm. Hunsicker and family, who had been visiting at the home of C. W. Hosterman, left for Buffalo, N. Y., Friday.

Mrs. C. H. Motz, accompanied by Miss Lida Hosterman, are spending some time in Buffalo, N. Y.

Wilson Ard attended granger picnic on Thursday; also Robt. Glasgow and family.

H. S. Hosterman made a flying trip to Aaronsburg on Saturday.

Wilson George and Maud Ard made a flying trip to Coburn last week.

Jacob Kettner spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Harter, near Coburn.

Mrs. Ida Kessinger transacted business in Bellefonte one day last week.

Motz and Stover's steam saw mill is in full blast now.

Mable Vonada spent Sunday at the home of C. W. Hosterman.

J. H. Kremer and wife spent some time visiting friends in Nittany valley last week.

HAINES TWP.

Charles Limbert and family, of near Aaronsburg were Sunday visitors at Clayton Musser's.

J. W. Zerby and family, of Millheim, spent Sunday at M. M. Bower's.

Durbia Musser and bride spent their honeymoon at Burnham and Yeager-town.

Warren Benner, Bertha Mowery and brother Fisher, spent Sunday at Woodward.

Harvey Garret and wife, of Sugarvalley, were visitors at David Burd's over Sunday.

Annual Contest

To the Farmer bringing in the largest number of eggs during the month of October:

Table with 2 columns: Egg count and Price. 1st Largest No. of Eggs, $2.50; 2nd " " " " 1.50; 3rd " " " " 1.00.

Market price will be paid for Eggs.

Irritation

of the throat, sore and swollen tonsils, loss of voice, and other throat troubles should never be neglected. These ailments quickly work down to the lungs, and often end in consumption or pneumonia.

HAML