AARONSBURG.

Geo. Weaver and wife were visiting friends in Yeagertown last week, returning on Monday.

Mr. Orwig and wife, of Hartleton, spent a few days with their son Walter at the residence of C. G. Bright's.

The Citizens band tendered the following persons a serenade last week: Dr. A. S. Musser and bride, J. C. Condo's and Turb Kreamer's, of Renova, all of which responded very liberally.

Joe Meyer and family, of near Boalsburg, were guests of Mrs. Effie Weaver on Sunday.

Miss Eva Meyer has returned to her home in Philadelphia, her aunt Sara Klime accompanied her home.

Among those who attended the Lewisburg fair from this place were: William Guisewitz, Sallie and John Bowersox, Warren Winklebleck and family, Walter Orwig and wife, John Feidler, Nellie Mingle, Dr. A. S. Musser and wife, Mrs. Wilson Burd and boys, Ira Gramley, Mrs. Harper, John Stover, John Forster and others, who accompanied the band.

Turb Kreamer and Harry Wilt, of Renova, spent the Sabbath with A. S. Stover's; they are enroute to Brush valley for a few days hunt.

Mrs. Eve Mingle had a very weak spell on Saturday noon, but at this writing she is gaining in strength again.

W. H. Phillips took charge of J. H. Detwiler's store last Thursday when Mr. and Mrs. Detwiler and Lola Stover attended the fair at Lewisburg.

Kathryne Frank has just returned from the eastern cities with a fine display of the very latest styles of hats. Call and be convinced of the fact.

Samuel Beaver, who had been on the sick list, is improving.

Mr. Alters, wife and two sons, of Bellefonte, and Elmer Alters and family, of Lamar spent the Sabbath with Foster Bower's and James Weaver's.

ROLAND.

The reopening services held in the M. E. church on Sabbath morning, were well attended. It was a beautiful day, the services were fine all day. Preaching in the morning by Rev. J. W. Forest, a former pastor. In the afternoon by Rev. Cox, of Bellefonte; at night assisted by Rev. Carver, of Miesburg. They succeeded in raising all the funds necessary to defray expenses. The interior of the church is something fine.

Mrs. J. W. Parker and W. G. Morrison are moving to Bellefonte where they have built a fine brick residence. Sorry to lose them from our neighborhood.

Rumor has it there will be a wedding in here this fall; don't tell the band boys, they will surely hide.

Mrs. John Glenn and three children have returned home after visiting in Cleveland, Ohio, for a few weeks.

H. R. Curtin and wife have returned from a week's stay in Philadelphia where they had taken their daughter Catherine to attend school.

Col. Austin Curtin entertained a number of his friends at his beautiful country villa on Saturday evening; among the guests were: Misses Alice Neff, Kathrine Parker, Velta Williams, Miss Mann and W. W. Brooks.

Our People were very glad to hear the church bell ring again; the church having been closed for several weeks. It is hoped there will be more enthusiasm among some of the delinquent ones.

John Brooks has returned home after visiting friends in Jersey Shore.

We are glad to see Mrs. Henry Shultz around again, having had a very serious fall, breaking two of her ribs.

Morrison & Glenn have added a fine new horse to their stock in the livery stable. Its record is a mile in two minutes.

Mrs. Bell Curtin was a pleasant visitor at the home of Mrs. H. R. Curtin last week.

The form of the official ballot in November will be similar to that used at the last general election, although it will be not nearly so large owing to the difference in the number of candidates.

UNIONVILLE.

The lawn mower has gone into winter quarters, and the tack hammer is "it."

The "twins" went out gathering on Monday afternoon, got caught in the big rain storm, didn't get home till next day. John Stover kindly took them in; they had a half pint of nuts.

George Parsons shot one gray squirrel and one piny on first hunting day. Small game reported scarce.

Harry Lindemuth and his pap went coon hunting. They treed a wild cat. It was too dark to shoot; built a fire, and lay down to wait for dawn, fell asleep, wild cat climbed down, awakened Harry, Harry yelled, "Gee, there it goes, pap." Didn't get it nor coon either.

Mary R. Grist left on last Wednesday for Montreal, Canada, where she will spend a month or more seeing the sights in Johnnie Bull's domain.

Joe Stover has moved his family from Pittsburg to Tyrone, which latter place he expects to make his future home.

John P. Harris, Jr., has purchased the Andrew Thompson property and will move into it in a short time.

Mrs. Samuel Brugger left on Monday for a short visit to her son, the pickle man, at Johnstown.

Ed. Wry has moved from Altoona to Tyrone.

Thos. McClellan and wife, of Altoona, visited grandpa George W. Morrison, recently.

Minnie Lipton has been seriously ill, and for a time it was feared she would not recover, but, we are glad to report that she is much better.

Ed. Morrison thinks he is "it" because his cow gave birth to twin calves a few days ago.

Mary E. Grist, after an extended visit to Barnesboro, returned home on Saturday looking the very picture of health.

Elmer Roller, of Ohio, has gotten his crop harvested and will see to getting his cider and applebutter made.

And now, that the Unionville items are again fashionable, Mrs. A. Hoover is happy.

On last Tuesday evening about twenty-five neighbors and friends assembled at the pleasant home of Joseph Spotts "up the pike," in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Resides, of Lock Haven. The table was laden with choice cakes and delicious ice cream and adorned with fragrant flowers.

The evening was spent most joyously and all hoped that sometime they may enjoy a happy return of the occasion; Blain Resides, who, it was thought had taken an overdose of ice cream, came out o. k.

Since Wm. Gill has taken to riding on the train from Julian, instead of walking as heretofore, Pat thinks the track men will have their wages increased.

Landlord Wm. A. Peters raised from one pumpkin seed, five Mammouth golden pumpkins, aggregating nearly 160 lbs., the largest of which weighed 47 lbs. We doubt if there will be any finer pumpkins at the fair. He also showed us a banana squash two feet in length and about 20 inches in circumference. Billy is quite a farmer but he can't fish.

Ed. Wilson, aged about 21 years, fireman on a freight engine on the main line of the P. R. R., was instantly killed on last Saturday afternoon and was brought here on Sunday morning and taken to the home of his aunt, Mrs. Joseph Eckley, from which the funeral was held on Tuesday. He was buried in the cemetery at the Advent church at Bush's Hollow. The accident occurred at the Greensburg tunnel. He put his head out of the window of his cabin just as the engine was entering the tunnel and was caught by the side of the tunnel and his head was torn from his body.

He leaves to survive him, one sister, who lives in Potter county; his father and mother died a number of years ago. For a number of years he made his home with his aunt, now Mary Jane Eckert, at Bushes Hollow.

YEAGER & DAVIS

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Katz & Co.'s STORE NEWS.

We want everybody in Centre county to know we are the sole agents in Bellefonte for Como Never-Tear Silk. This Silk is far superior to any other offered at similar prices. We carry it in all solid colors and changeables. We cannot praise the merits of this silk too highly. Guaranteed to be all silk and never to tear.

A postal card costs but a penny, write us for samples.

A. Michaels & Co., of New York City, we think make the best line of little fellows' garments. We bought our entire line of Children's Coats from them this season. We think we have the noblest line in town. It's up to you to prove it.

Have you ever heard of Little Tudor Sleepers? Manufactured way off in Dubuque, Iowa. Mothers have called at our store for these garments as they are advertised extensively in the "Ladies' Home Journal." It did not take us long to get a stock of them. They keep the little fellows warm on cold winter nights. They come in dainty pink and blue stripes; ask to see them.

One word more. We always give a little space to our Millinery Department. This department is an advertisement in itself, yet we want to put you in mind of the new things we are daily receiving. There's always something new at Katz's.

If you'll take the trouble to look we're always glad to show you around.

KATZ & COMPANY.
