

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

Mrs. Annie Caswell, of Coatesville, is visiting her old home. Gen. James A. Beaver has gone to Philadelphia to attend Superior court. Wilbur Twitmore, Jr., of Bellefonte, is taking a medical course in the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia. Roger T. Bayard, who is working for the Babcock Lumber Company at Ashtola, Pa., is home on a short visit. Miss Dora Meyer, daughter of County Commissioner Philip H. Meyer, is in Pittsburgh on a visit to her friend, Miss Nellie Farris. In the absence of Mr. Harter, last week, Rev. Cox rendered some valuable assistance at that office for the mailing of that campaign extra. W. I. Miller, son of Conrad Miller, of this place, left on Monday for Lorretta, Pa., where he will become a student in St. Francis College. Ward Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson I. Fleming, has entered the University of Pennsylvania, where he will take a three-years' law course. Perry Alters, a son of J. M. Alters, of this place, and who is now serving Uncle Sam as a private in the regular army is home on a furlough for a brief visit with his parents. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Valentine celebrated their twenty-first anniversary of their marriage. A number of friends were present to join in the festivities. Harry Otto has rented the cosy rooms over the Gazette office where he and his wife will shortly take up house-keeping, having thus far been boarding with Mr. Otto's mother on Lamb street. Tuesday morning Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt left on a twelve-days' vacation trip. He will visit Lancaster, Atlantic City and Philadelphia; at the latter place he will attend the State Sunday School Convention which meets in the Baptist Temple, Oct. 11-13th. There will be no services in St. John's Reformed church next Sunday except Sunday school, at 9:15 am. The following Sunday the hours for morning service will be changed as follows: Sunday school at 9:45 am., regular morning service at 11 am., instead at 10:30. Andrew Swartz, once of Penn township, now a resident and prosperous citizen of Orangeville, Ill., was a pleasant caller, and reports crops having been large out that way. Mr. Swartz was visiting relatives and acquaintances, and was chaperoned by our friend, Michael Grove of Centre Hill. There was quite a thunder gust set in on Monday evening about six o'clock, lasting over half an hour, accompanied by high winds. There was .70 inch of rain, in addition to .19 in the morning. The storm in the evening tore down the merry-go-round on the fair ground and gave some other objects a severe shake up. Sportsmen after fall game will find their hunting ground considerably circumscribed this fall by any number of notices posted in every section of the county as a warning against trespassers out hunting—additional notices are being put up right along. This makes the hunting grounds quite limited in this county much to the chagrin of the sportsmen and lovers of game. If desiring to hunt on anti-trespass grounds, better first get permission of the owner, which in many instances will be cheerfully granted to such as will not act detrimentally to the owner's property, as oft been the practice of some, by injuring stone and rail fences, carelessly setting fire to the woods, and otherwise being guilty of acts annoying to the owner. Last Sabbath morning the Lutheran pulpit of this place was filled by Rev. Wm. H. Schoch, of New Berlin, who preached an interesting sermon. Rev. Schoch many years ago was the pastor when the Bellefonte church was a mission charge, and when he was yet a young man. He was born in Union county but his father and family moved to Aaronsburg where Rev. Schoch attended the academy and thereafter studied for the Lutheran ministry. His wife was from near this place, nee Musser, a sister of Michael and Samuel Musser, both well known here, the first now a citizen of Aaronsburg and Samuel of Scranton, father of Mrs. Sheffer of this place. It is worthy of mention that Rev. Schoch, when he preached a trial sermon here, 43 years ago, had the same text and sermon preached upon that occasion, viz. 1 John, 1 ch., 3 v., for his discourse last Sabbath. He was unanimously elected to this his first charge, which he served three years, and then accepted a call from Lena, Ill., serving six years, next served a charge at Forest Hill, Ill., serving it eleven years; then received and accepted a call from Jersey Shore, serving it nine years; then accepted a call from New Berlin, has served it 14 years and is still there. Mrs. Rev. Schoch accompanied her husband and took charge of the Luther League of this place on last Sabbath evening. In the evening of the same Sabbath, Rev. Bender, of West Chester, Pa., a young man who had returned from Synod at Pine Grove, filled the pulpit quite ably, and is a son-in-law of Rev. Schoch.

OVER THE COUNTY.

The potato rot, as we learn from farmers, seems to be abating. The Northern Conference of the Lutheran church will meet at Rebersburg, November 7. Nellie Gruver, of Howard, was admitted to the Lock Haven hospital and underwent a very serious operation for appendicitis. She is doing as well as can be expected. Jerome Spigelmyer has bought the stock of goods of the late J. W. Stover in Millheim and took possession of the same, and will continue the business at the same old stand. Miss Catharine Curtin, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. H. R. Curtin, of Roland, departed on Monday to begin a course in the young ladies school at Walnut Lane, Philadelphia. John H. Maize sold his farm a short distance west of Millheim to Samuel Ream for $900. Mr. Maize takes as part pay for the farm the dwelling house owned by Mr. Ream in Millheim. Report is brought the Democrat that the Rock-Farm base ball team and Hubbersburg No. 2, played six innings at Hunter's Park on Saturday, resulting 19-6 in favor of Hubbersburg. Rock team, we are requested to announce, will next play at Snydertown. Ex-Judge Love and D. F. Fortney, Esq., of Bellefonte, with three appraisers were in State College to adjudge damages in the case of David Lauck vs. the Borough of State College. The damage was done to Lauck's property in the widening of Pugh street. The crowd at the Lewisburg fair on last Thursday was immense, Centre county was well represented from the south side; at Coburn alone 260 tickets were sold. The fair was one of the best yet held in the Union county. On Friday there was also a large attendance. James E. Harter, of Coburn, reports some large apples: I have two apples in my store that measure 1 1/2 inches in circumference and they weigh 17 and 18 ounces respectively. They were raised on my father's (Andrew Harter) farm west of Coburn. Who can beat this? The Omaha Daily Herald, has this marriage notice: C. C. Luse, formerly of Rebersburg, assistant superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company in Council Bluffs, and Mrs. Jeanette Duncan, also of this city, were married in Logan, Ia., September 12 by Rev. Bodenham of that city. They will make their home in Council Bluffs. Henry Greninger died at his home, near Logan Mills, of paralysis, aged 56 years. He is survived by four sons—George, of Mill Hall; Israel, of Howard; Jesse, of Loganton; Levi, of Booneville, and five daughters, Mrs. Geo. Fresser, of Mill Hall; Mrs. Charles Brunner, of Greene township; Mrs. James Womeldorf, Mrs. David Wolf, of Logan township, and Miss Rebecca, at home. ADJOINING COUNTIES. The house of David Gramley, in Crawford township, Clinton county, was totally destroyed by fire Friday morning, between 1 and 2 o'clock, together with all its contents. The origin of the fire is a mystery. There is no insurance. Dr. Reese, of Renovo, died at the Lock Haven hospital Saturday morning. He was admitted to the hospital about two weeks ago. He was born in Berlin, Berks county, in 1840, making his age 65 years. His father was the Rev. Charles A. Reese, of Mackeyville who over 40 years ago was pastor of the Aaronsburg Lutheran church, well remembered by many of the Democrat's readers. He has practiced medicine with success in Renovo since the close of the civil war. His death was due to paralysis from which he has suffered two years. His wife, one daughter, Mrs. G. W. Herr, of Salona, two sons, David L., of Philadelphia, and V. B. Reese, of Lock Haven, survive him. Tabernacle Meeting. Rev. Mumau returned on Monday from conference at Emporium. He will remain here for another year, and will begin his Tabernacle Meetings at Runville, this Thursday evening; will hold the first quarterly meeting for the year in the tent, commencing Oct. 13, and continue over the Sabbath. Rev. J. J. Zahniser, District Elder, will preside. All are invited to attend these meetings. The Kennedy Players are alright. Charles Haines, of Beaver Falls, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Haines of this city. Besides the wrecking of the canvas of the merry-go-round tent on the fair ground, the storm on Monday evening also blew down a number of other tents. The Lucky Day was September 22nd, 1905. All holders of tickets, for cash purchases made on the above date will receive the amount of the purchase in cash when presented at our store, YEAGER & DAVIS, Bellefonte. On Saturday evening about twenty minutes of six o'clock Joseph Thal, and John Garthoff, substitute letter carrier, and a small boy named Campbell attempted to cross the track in the rear of the P. R. R. engine house. The Snow Shoe train was shifting a box car into the Glass Works siding which struck the wagon smashing it badly. Garthoff and Thal were thrown out and badly bruised up while the boy escaped without serious injury.

RECENT DEATHS.

MRS. NANCY DELANEY:—living on South Spring street, died Monday morning of infirmities incident to old age. ANNIE M. HARTFIELD:—formerly Ann M. Gramley, of Rebersburg, Pa., died July 30, 1905 at the home of her daughter at Freemont, Neb., age 52 years, 3 months and 28 days. JOHN ROSSMAN:—died at the home of his son, Josiah Rossman, at Penn Cave, on Tuesday afternoon of dropsy and heart disease, aged 78 years. He has left to survive four sons. Funeral services were held on Friday morning conducted by Rev. Daniel Gress, of Centre Hall, and interment made in the Union cemetery at Farmers Mills. CLARA BELLE 'BOYCE'—wife of John Boyce, of Clarence, Pa., died on Thursday morning, Sept. 28th, at Clearfield, Pa., aged 36 years, 9 months and 8 days. The cause of her death was a serious operation performed on Monday of last week. She was married to John Boyce in the year 1888 and from the marriage seven children were born, all of whom, with their father, survive, which is a severe blow to the home in which she was a beloved wife and devoted mother. GEO. A. BERRY:—died at his home in Braddock, on Friday, 22nd inst. He was the son of Dr. Geo. A. Berry who, during his life time was one of the most noted physicians of the county, and was born at Lemont in 1848. After attaining manhood he began the practice of law at Ebensburg, Cambria county, where he accumulated considerable of a fortune in the oil business. In 1885 he removed to Braddock where he resided until his death. LEE ROY IRVIN:—the third eldest son of Lanning and Emma Irvin died Sept. 28th, in the Bellefonte hospital after a lingering illness of brain fever. His remains were taken to his father's home, near Runville. Lee Roy Irvin was born April 4th, 1885, and at the time of his death was 20 years, 5 months and 24 days old. He is survived by his father and stepmother, one sister, Mrs. Annie Crook, of Snow Shoe, one brother and three half-sisters at home. Interment was made in the Stover cemetery near Unionville. MRS. T. FRANK ADAMS:—as the result of a fall last Thursday which induced peritonitis, Mrs. Adams died Tuesday morning at the Phi Delta Beta fraternity club house, at State College, of which she was the matron. The remains will be brought here for interment in the Union cemetery, this Thursday afternoon. She was the widow of the late T. Frank Adams, a former commissioner of our county. She is survived by one son, Lee F. Adams, a student at State College, a brother, Wm. Campbell, of Milesburg, and two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Zimmerman, of Berwick, and Mrs. L. B. Thorp, of Yarnell, survive. A BIG FAIR. As we go to press a little earlier this week to give employees a chance to attend the fair, our report prepared Wednesday, must be brief. This year the display is larger than ever in all the departments—especially so in the line of machinery and farm products. The weather could not be finer and Wednesday the attendance was better than ever for that day. Some fine racing in the afternoon interested the crowds. The first race, 2:17 class, was won by Allie Moore, b. g., of James Shank, Dunlo. Second—Rebe, b. m., of W. D. O'Brien. Snow Shoe; Third—Mount Shasta, b. h., R. M. Waldron, Greensburg. Time 2:23; 2:20 1/4, and 2:20 1/4. The second race, 2:25 class, was won by Omega Elder, b. m., of J. S. Vipond, Altoona; second—Orbisnoia, b. g., J. T. Middaugh, Mifflin; third—Tony Pugh, b. g., Howard Davis, Conemaugh. Time 2:29. The County Race for Centre county horses that never were driven in a race was a most amusing incident. Henry Lowery captured the first prize—a set of harness; A. J. Shivery, the second—a horse blanket; T. G. Leathers, of Mt. Eagle, the third—a whip. Two heats; time 3:22 and 3:10. Attention! Farmers! Attention! I have just purchased from Joseph Bros. & Co. a Birdsel Clover Huller, of the largest size and latest improvement, which is one of the very best machines made anywhere by anybody. This is to take the place of my former machine and it will so thoroughly hull the clover that no seed will be left in the straw. It does its work so well that the seed is ready for market when it comes from the machine without any further cleaning; and your seed thereby commands a better price with less work and expense. Joseph Bros. & Co. expect to buy all seed hulled by this machine without any further cleaning. You are requested to come and inspect this machine and see it work. H. E. ZIMMERMAN, Bellefonte, Pa. Weather Report. Weekly report—Bellefonte Station. DATE TEMPERATURE Maximum Minimum Oct. 1, clear..... 85 48 2, cloudy..... 79 56 3, clear..... 76 50 4, clear..... 80 45 Rain: On 2, morn, 19 inch, evening thundergust, 70 inch. Total rainfall in September, 2.51 inches. Special Notice. For the information of merchants:—The recent ruling of the Revenue Dept. regarding proprietary medicines does not in any way affect the sale of VINTENNA. This remedy does not contain any distilled spirits, and the quality and quantity of drugs used in its manufacture, positively prevent its use as a beverage. PENN CHEMICAL CO. ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.
