BENORE.

E. Markley and friend Miss Parsons spent Saturday and Sunday in Altoona.

Miss Ozula Matters is staying at Mrs. Baisors and going to school to Miss Meek.

Miss Esther Gray and mother entertained friends from Philipsburg over Sunday.

The works were closed down on Thursday to allow the men to attend the Bellefonte fair.

Mrs. Annie Appleby and son, and Miss Moffett, of Pittsburg, are visiting W. G. Murtoff.

Miss Verma Thomas and friend Nell Andrews are spending their vacation with the former's parents, C. C. Thomas.

Mary Root entertained Nora and Ann Gray, Elsie and Myrtle Sellers, of Buffalo Run, and Miss Owens, of Tyrone, on Monday.

Wm. Bottorff was housed up a few days last week with several boils on his knee.

Robert Kustenborder sold tickets for F. E. Hicks Thursday while he took in the sights at the fair.

D. P. Weaver Sundayed in Tyrone.

Robt. Rhoan and wife spent a few days last week at G. C. Lykens on their way home from the fair.

Geo. Thompson had his leg broken near the ankle while loading telegraph poles at this place, Wednesday 11th.

Rev. Taylor commenced a protracted meeting in the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Chestnuts are very plenty this year; a new way to hunt them is with a lantern at night, isn't it Jesse?

Wm. Harris and family left for Tyrone Monday, where he has secured employment.

C. C. Rutter and wife are taking in the Bloomsburg fair this week.

CENTRE HALL.

Henry Kreamer and wife will visit Mrs. Samuel Heckman at Johnstown this week.

Mrs. Lucy Hency has returned from Philadelphia, where she bought her supply of millinery.

Miles Arney and wife spent Sunday with Mr. Arney's father and mother.

Marcellus Sankey and wife spent Tuesday in town.

David and Wm. Mitterling went to Ohio to buy a carload of sheep.

Mrs. Dr. Alexander has been ill for several days but is improving.

The oil drilling project seems to be dead, the parties employed having left, leaving the work in an abandoned state from all accounts. A good strike of oil or gas would have been a fortunate thing and put the old-time life into our town. So oft unfortunate endings followed projects that should be a success. Let us look forward for good luck in store in the lap of the future and not despair.

D. F. Luse, of the Mfg. Co., reports making good sales for his double row corn planters by his exhibit at the county fair last week. This is one of the new promising industries of the town.

GORTON.

Olive Wiggins returned home on Friday night, after spending a few weeks in Indiana county.

Susan Fletcher visited at Snow Shoe, Saturday; Mrs. Harry Poorman on Friday at F. Poorman's; Mrs. G. Clark spent Sunday in Peale; Olive and Sara Wiggins visited at Poorman's, Sunday.

Report of Gorton school, No. 13, Snow Shoe township for the month ending Oct. 6; pupils enrolled, male 10; female 16. Per cent of attendance, males 100; females 84; scholars present every day, Elvin Clark, Walter Heaton, Earl Wiggins, Benner Poorman, Roger Poorman, and Grover Wiggins.

TYLERSVILLE.

The funeral of Henry Greninger of Logan Mills was held here on Saturday.

John Spangler and wife, of Tusseyville, are visiting the former's parents.

Chas. Weaver has come home on a visit to his family.

The Ladies Missionary Society held their monthly meeting on Friday evening.

P. P. Greninger has purchased Samuel Carr's buggy.

SPRING MILLS.

DEAR EDITOR:—As the fall campaign is drawing nigh and the hearts of the honest people are aroused, I will try and tell your many readers of the dream I had one Sunday, the exact time having slipped my memory. I was working hard all week and on the following Sunday I was strolling through a republican neighbor's field and sat down in the shade of an apple tree and straightway began reading the Centre Democrat and the Gazette. In a short time I began to feel drowsy and in a few seconds was in the "land of nod"; in other words, I was asleep.

Well sir, such a dream as I had; a dream that will never slip my memory. I dreamt that the fall election had been past and that Bailey and Miller were given a back seat, and in the nonsensical quality of my dream it appeared to me that the election was dropped into the Editor of the Gazette's hands. Then he arranged Weaver, Dunlap, Bailey and Miller in a row, and in the old counting-out doggerel, began counting out at Dunlap and Weaver in this way:

"Tally Wally sleeky Sue,
What if you were I, and I were you?
Tally Wally sleeky Sue,
Out goes you and you."

And so the Gazette said, "Miller and Bailey come forth! they are defeated."

Then Dunlap said, in reply, "Gentlemen!

When a Tom cat gets a fit
It snarls and says you are it."
Meaning Tom Harter. Now came the Centre Democrat's time to count out. So he pointed his finger at Miller, then at Bailey, going back and forth at every word as spoken:

"As I climbed up the apple tree,
All the apple fell on me!
Bake a pudding, bake a pie,
Miller have you ever told a lie?
Yes, you did deny it, but its true by
That A. H. Buchanan gave you money,
To pay your car fare and boarding besides
And how you try to steal our rights"
I could hold out no longer but yelled in:

"A bushel of wheat, a bushel of rye,
Harter and Bailey and a hard crust pie!"
Here I woke and I was so enthusiastic that I concluded to write a letter to the Editor of the Gazette, here it is:

DEAR EDITOR OF THE GAZETTE:—It has been a long time since I wrote to you last, although I have had a world of letters to write without a single murmur of despair, the sweat rolling off of my cheeks in huge drops, which accounts for the awful things on my face which the boys call freckles, but they are simply lumps of clotted blood. Great was the excitement in the Miller family this morning when Mr. A. V. Miller announced to the rest of the family that he had seen a rattlesnake as long as a hoe handle with seventeen rattles and a button which is not for breeches, neither is it for shirts, but for a defeated republican candidate for commissioner to play with. The other day I met Miller on the street and I asked him to change a 50 dollar gold piece for me; and he said "I don't have that much with me."

"What, says I, a commissioner not having that much money?" whereupon he replied "I don't see how money makes the man, do you?" I answered, "No, and I don't see how some men get their money either;" he walked clamy on.

A man just got done telling me that when Bailey was a boy his raiment consisted of a linsey sack with holes for his head and arms; according to the story he was deeply in love with a neighbor's farm girl. One evening he went over and sparked the girl while she was milking the cow. She sat on one side of the cow, Bailey on the other side, so that he could look her in the eye while she was milking. Bailey felt his love for the girl growing rapidly. It affected him in a peculiar way; something would chase itself up and down his spinal column; he was sure it was Cupid. Just when the sensation was greatest, the girl remarked, "Johnny the calf is chewing the back out of your sack." At any rate Bailey and Miller should be rung off. Here's a poem of mine.

I'm a peaceable man as my
Neighbors all agree,
But there is Miller and Bailey
Who even anger me.
I like the songs of birds, I like the
Warble of the cow,
But I cannot bear the wailing
Of the long nosed sow
I return to rest and soothe the
Goddess of sweet sleep;
But an uneasy rest will cause
My very soul to creep.
I ran from it in childhood, I
Fear it even now,
Its everlasting babble, of that
Long-nosed sow.
When I am to enter the sleep that
Knows no waking,
Ring bells to ot horns, or set the
Earth a quaking,
Ring as y thing you will except,
I humbly beg you now,
Ring off the devil's foghorn, the
Old long-nosed sow.

So now, Dear Tommy, don't be disappointed when Miller and Bailey get defeated, the indebtedness of the county is large enough.

I remain yours for a square deal,
DR. QUICK.

Frank Haines and wife, from South Dakota, visited at Wilson Haines' last week.

John Decker visited his parents on Sunday.

Wm. Stover and wife spent Sunday visiting his grandfather in Millheim.

Peter Haines, from Snyder county, spent several days last week at Wilson Haines'.

H. N. Meyer and wife, from Millheim, spent Sunday at J. S. Meyer's.

Mrs. Lewis Rossman and daughter Fernie spent Sunday in Aaronsburg visiting at Nelson Wert's.

Mrs. H. F. McManaway, from Wolfs Store, spent the latter part of last week at J. S. Meyer's.

Martha Burrell visited her sick grandfather who lives in Brush valley, last Friday.

The farmers have commenced to husk corn already, which is a fine crop.

The Earlstown scribe wondered whether we had any experiences about kissing. I will just say that we had but not as much as the Earlstown scribe, and if he or she hadn't, why that receipt was just written for such bashful scribes as the one mentioned. If you want to know more call or write on the North Precinct scribe.

LEMONT.

Mrs. Marjory Boyer is spending a few weeks at State College.

Mrs. Leah Osman is visiting friends in Clinton county.

Ruth Keller, of Bellefonte, is spending a few days at the home of her grandparents, Wm. Keller's.

Sam'l Wasson and family spent Saturday at the home of Magdalena Wasson.

Mrs. Tabitha Brisbin returned home on Thursday morning after spending several weeks in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Homer Longwell, of Philadelphia, returned to her home on Saturday after spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. Alice Williams.

Dr. F. A. Dale, wife and daughter, are visiting at the home of Dr. J. Y. Dale.

The Ladies Mite Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a social at the home of Sam'l Glenn at the Branch on Thursday evening, Oct. 12. All are cordially invited to attend.

WOLF'S CHAPEL.

Corn husking and chestnut gathering is the day's fare.

Those who bought cattle and sheep at the sale in Millheim on Monday were H. S. Winklerblech, A. A. Stover, J. W. Winklerblech, Wm. Hosterman, C. W. Wolf and R. B. Hosterman.

Luther Geiswite, of Harrisburg, circulated among his friends and relatives on Tuesday.

On Monday Mrs. Thos. Stover was taken to Philadelphia where she will undergo an operation in one of the hospitals.

Mrs. Michael Stover was brought home from the Bellefonte hospital and we are sorry to say not much improved.

We understand John Bowersox left last Tuesday for Canada to enter a veterinary college.

HOWARD.

The canning factory is still running full force, canning pumpkins and tomatoes. The sweet corn and beans are all canned. This year the apple crop is a short one.

The brick works has shut down until they purchase a boiler and engine to run the plant. The water power is too low to give sufficient power.

Chestnuts are a failure in our groves this year.

W. H. Long unloaded a car of coal on Monday. He handles both anthracite and bituminous coal.

Howard was well represented at the fair all week, specially Thursday. Over 400 tickets were sold on that day.

Rural Route No. 2 has not started yet. There are four (4) eligible applicants in the field to be selected from with the one having highest No. to be chosen first.

John Knarr has purchased two horses for his mail route. He says one horse will not stand the trips.

We are told Adam Kline will move today, Thursday, in the house vacated by Mr. Muffly.

Sales are numerous in this vicinity this fall. Now is the time to buy your stock for spring use.

John Lyons is beautifying his house by putting on siding. He also expects to paint as soon as carpenters are through.

Idella Williams spent several days with friends in Williamsport.

Mrs. Bannison spent Sunday with friends in our vicinity.

Mrs. Adam Kline was a Lock Haven visitor on Monday.

Joseph L. Holter and wife departed for a visit to her son, Mr. Kaup, in Pittsburg. Not often our Squire has the pleasure of taking an extended visit. We wish them a safe journey.

On Sunday we were favored with some fine selections of music by the Howard Cornet band. They were situated one-fourth of a mile south east of town along the pike road.

Prof. Zeigler, principal of the Borough schools, expects to have a class to study German. Any one who wishes to study please let him know. You will not have a better opportunity.

J. L. DeHaas, our Syracuse proprietor and wife, are visiting in Milton.

Sherman Holter and his mother were Blanchard visitors this week.

Our public schools have been well attended the first month. The percentage of attendance is over ninety.

J. Z. Loder visited his daughter Mrs. Alison, at Williamsport.

Ronald Welch is at present confined to his bed with a very bad cold. We hope he may soon be around among his many friends.

Mr. Wynn, of Beech Creek, was spinning our streets in his auto.

J. H. Wagner and wife were Lock Haven visitors on Monday.

EARLSTOWN.

Mrs. D. L. Hartges and Mrs. Samuel Durst on Saturday drove to Spring Bank where they were royally entertained at the home of James Moyer, returned home Sunday and report of having a very pleasant time.

Corn husking and applebutter boiling is all the go among the farmers at present.

Roy Stover, who had been on the sick list, is rapidly improving.

Wm. Bradford and family arrived from Jersey Shore Saturday, and will spend some time with the former's parents, Geo. Bradford's.

Quite a number of our people attended the Bellefonte fair.

MOSHANNON.

N. A. Holt, of Philipsburg, was a Moshannon visitor this week.

Mrs. Rush Quick and sister Lucy Fleming made a trip to Philipsburg on Tuesday.

Geo. Gleason now occupies T. D. Weaver's house on Church street.

Miss Lola French has returned to Munsion after several days visit with her many friends here.

Mrs. Ellis and daughter and Mrs. V. I. Ethers, took a trip to Cataract, Tuesday.

Jefferson Martin visited a friend in Julian recently; who was that friend Jeff?

The trouble with the dead beat is that he is so very much alive.

UNIONVILLE.

Mrs. Nellie Erhart, her son Woomer and daughter Flora, of Reedsville, spent several weeks at the home of E. E. Erhart.

Joseph Vogt, of Clyde, Ohio, brother-in-law of the late Sam'l Brugger, is a visitor at the Brugger home.

Mrs. A. T. Leathers, of Washington, D. C., arrived here on Tuesday evening, and will probably remain with her mother, Mrs. Taylor, till spring. Mrs. Leathers has been very ill with typhoid fever for several months but has now nearly recovered.

Mrs. Sadie Emerick packed her fascinator with her dry goods in her suit case and in company with Mrs. W. H. Comley as chaperon, they scooted off on a month's visit to friends in Pittsburg.

Robert Hall, son of Andy Hall, had the machinery to get his foot caught in the machinery of a hay baler and his great toe broken and foot badly crushed and is now laid up for repairs.

At the late Free Methodist conference, John Shadle, who for a number of years worked at the Stevens lime quarries on Buffalo Run, was licensed to preach and was given a circuit with six appointments. May the Lord bless him in his new field of labor.

Next Sabbath will be "old folks day" at the M. E. church and the Rev. Dr. Piper will preach an "Old Folks" sermon and the congregation will sing "old folks" hymns. Let there be a goodly turnout of old folks and young folks too.

The Lit Brothers, better known as T. E. & C. E. Giest, have the 50 foot addition to their already large store about completed. They have remodeled the old part and have it all nicely painted, so that one hardly recognizes it as the same old Bud Giest's store. It is now one of the finest store rooms in the county and it's chuck full of goods, too. J. H. Shipley was architect, builder and decorator and when Jack undertakes to do anything it means at once, presto! change! In justice to Bud, I must say, he did much of the fancy work himself.

John Rowan and Clark Emerick came very near catching a large grey fox the other morning. The reason they did not was the fox out ran them. Take a little salt along next time, boys.

Talk about fishing! Ed. Spry can give you pointers on catching fish, O. K. The other day he caught a string of fish that required the combined strength of him and his little boy to carry home. Big ones, too.

As the nights grow longer, social parties are getting ripe. Last Friday evening a very delightful pie party was given by Miss Fannie Green, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Aaron J. Hall. Our informant did not enlighten us as to the kinds of pie that were on the menu, but as pumpkin pies are ripe I have no doubt but they formed a large portion of the pie menu. The following guests were present: Misses Edith Hoover, Alice Green, Julia Hall, Olive Ammerman, Mabel Ammerman, Tressa Johnson, Tracy Shipley, Lena Resides, Betsy Hall, Hannah and Dora Lucas and Sarah and Ruchie Resides, and the following gentlemen: Harry Hall, Lloyd Spotts, Boyd Stere, Frank Johnson, Elwood and Norman Resides, George and Hugh Barton, Henry, James and Joe Flick and Gilbert and Jesse Parsons. Young folks all.

Next week, if the weather is favorable, and no obstructions placed in the way and nobody turn the switch to side track me, I will give the readers of the U. I. a chapter on "Our Boys" which I hope will prove interesting to many of the readers of the Centre Democrat. Now John Cadwallader and Charley Rowan, and the rest of you, keep your eyes open tight.

COUNTY FINANCES.

The following is a brief comparison of the total expense of conducting the affairs of Centre county under the present Commissioners and the former Board, during a period of five years. The amounts are taken from the annual statements:

COUNTY EXPENSE:
1900—Democratic Board.	$62,502.04
1901— " " "	61,061.41
1902— " " "	66,744.75
Total for 3 years	$190,308.20
Average yearly expenditure	$63,436.06
In 1903 Abraham V. Miller and John G. Bailey constituted the new Republican Board; at this time the estimated assets over all liabilities were.. $25,001.38
COUNTY EXPENSES:
1903—Republican Board.	$60,197.80
1904— " " "	87,574.69
Total for 2 years	$147,772.49
Average yearly expenditure	$73,886.06
An average increase yearly of	$10,450.18
At this time the estimated assets over all liabilities were.. $17,750.41
This is a loss over amount left them by Democratic Board of..... $7,250.97
In other words in two years the average expenses under Miller and Bailey increased..... $20,900.36
Add to this shrinkage in assets..... 7,250.97
Total.....	$28,151.33
That means that under Republican Commissioners it costs the taxpayers of Centre county in two years over $28,000 more than formerly for general expenses.

NEW ROUTE TO CALIFORNIA

With the opening of the line across southern Utah and southwest Nevada, known as the San Pedro route, a new country has been opened which in area is large enough for a good sized empire, the natural resources of which are practically untouched. This region has until now been without railway facilities, and the laws of trade and transportation are such that rapid development is now assured. The Tonopah and Goldfield mining camps are to be reached by branch lines and there is a strong possibility that other mineral districts will be discovered and developed as a result of this new enterprise.

The facilities with which southern California and this newly opened portion of Nevada can be reached in future are indicated by the announcement that the Chicago and Northwestern railway will inaugurate a daily service of through Pullman tourist sleeping cars via this route between Chicago and Los Angeles. This will doubtless lead to a large influx of people looking for opportunities to establish themselves in this new country, where homes are cheap, work is plentiful and men of vim and grit are in demand—something unknown in the densely populated cities of the east.

There is some beautiful scenery along the new route, particularly in what is known as Rainbow canyon, and the citrus fruit region of southern California is reached near San Bernardino, the road leading from that point through Riverside and Pomona and other towns in one of the greatest orange growing districts in the world.

Hindoo Temple in San Francisco.

San Francisco is to enjoy the distinction of having a temple erected within its city for the worship of the creed of the Vedas—the only temple of that creed outside of India, its home. The cornerstone for the new temple was laid recently with appropriate ceremony by the Swami Triguantita. The cornerstone contained the picture of the Master Sri Rama Krishna, a group of pictures of the Swamis of the Belur Math, India, and of the seat of Rudraksha; a brief history of the Vedanta society of San Francisco and a translation in the original Sanskrit, the oldest literature of the Aryan race. Swami Triguantita said that it is the only cornerstone containing the Sanskrit in either America or Europe, as the temple will be the only one erected in the western world. The temple will be of the oriental type of architecture, built upon a lot 25 by 100 feet, and will contain, besides the house of worship, class rooms, an abode for the Swami, who collected the funds for the temple within one year, and for the president of the society. The structure will be finished within three months.

In ten years, according to the testimony elicited by the Legislative Investigating Committee, the McCurdy family—father, son and son-in-law—plucked the Mutual Life Insurance Company to the extent of $3,697,453 for services rendered. Such rich picking has never before been disclosed in this country. No wonder there is anxiety for Federal supervision. To manage an insurance company is better than to own a gold mine. And then several hundred thousand more went to the G. O. P. campaign fund instead of to the policy holders, to whom it belonged as dividends.

That receipt won't go down with the people.

It is much easier to find fault than to lose it.

A train of thought isn't always on time.

The tipping evil extends even to the races.

The real Christian does not have to tell it.
