

E. P. IRVIN. L. C. IRVIN.

THE RACKET

Our stock of Winter goods is still complete.

Blankets, Haps, Underwear, Outing Flannel, Fleeced and Wool Hose; Mittens, Gloves, Knit Shawls, Toques, etc.

We sell you better goods for the same price than others because we buy and sell for CASH ONLY.

Racket Store Co.

Correspondents' Department

Continued from 7th page.

HOWARD.

Butchering is all the go in our town and vicinity.

Mrs. Mary R. Beck has returned to State College, after spending over four months at this place and vicinity.

Turkeys are as usual very high this Fall; they are selling for 20c per pound at the door.

The boys who have started out robbing the chicken roasts had better stop at once, for some of them are known and if you get in the wrong coop you will be reported, if you escape a load of shot. Take warning.

Lewis Beck, of Snyderstown, has been looking around to suit himself in buying a property in Howard. He wants to retire from farming.

A few of our neighbor farmers have some corn to husk yet. The most of the farmers have the fodder all in and are pasturing their fields.

Wm. Mayes is at present building a fine new marble works on the vacant lot side of his dwelling. He is also all smiles, he says it is a girl and will keep it.

HOWARD NO. 2.

Mrs. Love and children, of Bellefonte, spent part of the week with relatives in this town.

Miss Clara Kline and nephew, Eugene Robb, of Altoona, visited her mother a few days.

Misses Mayme Zeigler and Joe McEntyre attended institute Wednesday and Thursday.

H. C. Holter was in Bellefonte as a juror this week.

J. Eugene Hall, of Fleming, tarried a day with friends in our village.

J. Newton Hall and wife departed for Pittsburg on Saturday. They will visit their daughter Mrs. P. B. Loder; then visit Mrs. Hall's brother, Mr. Allabaugh at Johnstown. We certainly wish them a delightful trip, for not many people of their age venture on a trip alone.

Jennie Kane and Minnie Heverly spent their vacation with the Holter girls in Williamsport.

Many of our people attended the football game at Williamsport.

Messrs. McDonell, Weber, Bowers and a few friends stopped with their parents between trains on Sunday. They accompanied their fellow players to the game.

Mr. Allison, who had been visiting his uncle Thompson Allison, departed for his home in Colorado.

We are sorry to hear that A. A. Fletcher, one of our successful teachers, was taken very sick on Monday morning. He was not able to go to his school. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Quite a number of people and pupils are suffering from vaccination. But their vaccination is nothing compared to some of two years ago.

A. O. Yerger, wife and children, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with relatives.

Mabel Loder has returned to her home after spending some time in Newberry.

Mrs. J. H. Wagner and Jennie were Lock Haven visitors one day last week.

Chas. Holter, who is employed at the Valentine works in Bellefonte, is spending his vacation chasing game on the Allegheny mountains.

Frank Steele, of Bellefonte, visited his sister Mrs. Crider.

Mrs. Frantz and children, of Tylerstown, are visiting friends in the village.

Mrs. Shuman Holter is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Candy in Tyron.

Mrs. Mayes, of Lemont, is visiting relatives this week.

Sherman Holter departed for Poughkeepsie, N. Y., to finish his course. We wish him success.

Grace Schenck is suffering with an attack of lagrippe.

John Lauth departed for an extended trip through the western states to California; from there to Mexico where he will remain some time.

The pupils of our public school are compelled to bring certificates that they were successfully vaccinated or had smallpox.

Will Weber is transacting business in Philadelphia this week.

Miss Kathryn Confer, accompanied by her gentleman friend, visited her parents over Sunday.

About ten of our young men left on Saturday night for Cato where they expect to camp for a week and hunt rabbits.

POTTER TWP.

PLUM GROVE.

M. P. Musser and wife of Zion spent a day in Plum Grove visiting friends.

Gertrude Auman, of Georges valley, spent a day last week with her brother, V. A. Auman.

N. B. Schaeffer and wife made a business trip to Bellefonte on Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Zerby, of Sober, spent a few days with her daughter Mrs. Geo. Brion.

Sidney Poorman and Cloyd Brooks attended a sale in Nittany one day last week.

KELLEVILLE.

C. F. Auman, of Georges valley, assisted his brother Jerome Auman to plow one day last week.

Wm. Keller and nephew, James Keller, spent Sunday at Penn Hall, with the former's sister, Mrs. Frank Fischer.

Squire Schaeffer spent Sunday at V. Auman's.

Thomas Trutt and Mrs. Calvin Snyder and children spent a few days at Centre Hill with Mrs. Snyder's sister.

Wm. Stump, and sister Mamie, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday at the home of S. S. Stump.

POSSUM RIDGE.

Butchering is all the go in Possum Ridge; Jacob Royer made the start and all the rest followed.

Mrs. John Harshbarger and daughter Mand, of Linden Hall, spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Jacob Royer.

Daniel Fahringer returned home after spending a week in Northumberland.

Arthur Holderman, of Reedsville, is visiting friends in Centre county.

Katharine Boal spent Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and two sons, of Lizards Glory, spent Sunday at the home of Henry Fye.

EARLYTOWN.

The corn is about all husked around here, and D. L. Bartges got 3,900 bushels of corn—good measure at that.

The next will be butchering; Frank Moyer was the first one to butcher here on Wednesday, then George Stover's.

Rose Taylor went to Nittany and Lock Haven on a two weeks' visit.

It is reported that the Bradford hunting party killed three bears the first day they were out and the regulars have one deer.

Chester Conaway was a caller at Mr. Moyer's on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. David Bradford was to Rebersburg last week to attend the Lutheran conference and was very much pleased with her trip.

GREGG TWP.

YANKEETOWN.

A number of our young folks attended preaching in Brush valley, on Sunday evening.

Misses Ella and Gertrude Breen visited their friend, Loeda Mark, on Sunday.

John Hoover was the first to butcher in our town last Friday.

Misses Leah Rider, Katie Crader and Maggie Long took a pleasant walk on Saturday—all the way to Pine Creek, to the home of Isiah Rider.

H. Mark made a business trip to Bellefonte on Monday.

Sunday school was well attended at St. Paul on Sunday.

John Heckman's visited in our town on Saturday.

H. H. Mark, of Mackeyville, visited his parents last week.

Katie Rider is visiting her sister Leah.

The polecat hunting club left on Monday morning for Poe valley where they intend to stay a week. The club consists of Calvin Moyer, Harry Weaver, Irvin, Arch, and Hayes Zettie, Allan Burrell, George Shook, Herman Lambert, Clarence Stover, Cleveland Gentzel, with Joe Messmer as president and Frank Osman as cook, and Andrew Mark as general manager.

FILLMORE.

Jessie Sowers, of Bellefonte, spent his vacation with John Rockey's and when he left for home he carried with him four fine rabbits which he had killed.

Mrs. Ed. Wasson visited her son Bruce and wife at Wilkesburg recently.

Violet Garman is spending a few weeks in Altoona visiting her sister, Mrs. Jno. Witmer.

Mrs. A. H. Hoover, who has been ill, is much improved.

Some of our people are attending revival meeting at Waddle, which are being conducted by Rev. Taylor.

Mrs. John Gardner, who has been seriously ill, is getting better.

Perry Wolesslagle, of Tyron, is spending a week at the home of Jesse Wolford.

CLARENCE.

Mrs. Jennie Watson and daughter Florence were Munson visitors over Sunday.

Verna Harnish is at home again.

Quite a few people came to Snow Shoe to hunt but not all hunting game.

Mary Croft was a visitor here last week.

Surveyors are surveying for a new state road from Snow Shoe to Clarence.

Mrs. Blanch Walker went to Yarnell to visit her parents.

R. Glenn was at home a few days last week.

Fifteen headaches cured for 100 by using "Moyer's Headache Tablets," if

ROLAND.

Edward Cox, of Tyron, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l Bryan, of this place.

The furnace is in operation again, after being closed for repairs for some time.

Charley Shultz has gone to Cato to work; Wm. Akey has taken his place at the furnace. Billie do you think that is better than driving the old grav.

Mrs. J. L. Neff spent some time visiting at the home of the late Col. Weaver's at Brookville.

Clair Williams has not been seen on his wheeling chair since election day.

Mrs. Mary Barger went to town on Thursday morning.

Craig Crossmyer has moved his family to Milesburg.

A load of young folks drove to the Inter-tenure on Sunday night to meeting.

The Presiding Elder of the Evangelical church preached a very able sermon in their church, at this place, on Sunday morning.

Toby makes a very accommodating butcher man; you can get steak from any part of the pork.

Mrs. Amanda McMullen has returned home after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Amelia Gingham.

Since Mr. Morrison did not have to go up Salt River, he puts in most of his time at his desk, in his store, at this place.

Jerry Glenn and wife drove to Bellefonte on Sunday.

Soup is the champion now; he took the prize on Saturday night.

Mrs. M. E. Mann spent some time visiting friends in Bellefonte.

Rumor has it there will be a wedding on Broadway, in the near future.

PORT MATILDA.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Woodring were recent guests of Mrs. Bella Woodring, of the Central Hotel, in this place.

We have been informed that H. W. Robert, our genial ticket agent, has concluded to turn a new leaf and settle down. We were not advised who the lady is, but no doubt we will find out in the short future—yes, even so.

E. R. Jones is quite ill at his home with rheumatism.

Town talk says Frank is going to learn the blacksmith trade; it is a good trade Frank, go in on it.

Mrs. F. Chaney made a trip to Tyron one day this week on a special errand.

C. W. Crain is taking time by the forelock in laying in his Christmas goods; he has unpacked a fine stock.

One of our gay boys is looking after the welfare of a Brockerhoff House maid; what do you think Susie will say, when she finds it out?

Some people would like to know what attractions our R. R. agent has at Howard. He no doubt, and a lady of this place is even more anxious to know than he is to enlighten her on this particular subject.

I don't suppose he will be learning the milling trade on that account.

Geo. R. Williams has his new dwelling house on Allegheny street finished and now occupies it.

Miss Ida Woodring, of Tyron, is the guest of Miss Edie Woodring, at the Central Hotel in this place.

MT. EAGLE.

Anna Dietz has returned home after spending a few days with friends and relatives in Lock Haven and Woolridge.

Miss Flossie Leathers spent Sunday with friends in Williamsport.

All our teachers have returned home after spending last week at institute.

Earl Leathers, of State College, spent Sunday at home.

Miss Tracy Leathers and Cora Diets spent Wednesday with Miss Flossie Ringle.

Joseph Henry and wife, from Atlantic City, are visiting Mrs. Henry's brother, T. G. Leathers.

Mrs. Alice Walker spent a few days with her sister Mrs. E. E. Heverley.

Mrs. J. F. Dietz and son, Mrs. J. I. Dunkel and daughter Alice visited a few days at Eagleville.

—That hoarseness may mean croup before morning. Have a bottle of "Oil of Gladness" handy. Use it and go to sleep. tf.

TYLERSVILLE.

V. E. Von Gunden is going to Ebensburg to work in a planing mill.

Prof. Wesley Bierly, of the De Hersh school in New Jersey, is visiting old friends and relatives here.

Robert Albright, who was working in Cambria county, has returned.

Harvey Lambert and family, of Smullton, visited Jos Bressler's on Saturday.

W. H. Caris has a bad sore on his hand which is slowly improving.

Protracted meeting in the Evangelical church is scheduled to begin here on Sunday evening.

August Miller shot a deer last week.

O. A. Caris and A. S. Greninger butchered last week. Israel Weaver is on deck for Thursday.

Last week some of our people saw their window panes shake as a blast of dynamite exploded at Salona about six miles away.

Chas. Weaver is beautifying his residence by the addition of a porch.

P. P. Greninger has added a manure shed to his barn.

ROMOLA.

The primary school began on the 20th but the grammar school will not begin until the 27th for the teacher is spending this week hunting.

Butchering and baling hay is all the go.

Mrs. John McKloskey, of Cross Fork died Nov. 12th and was buried in the Deseciple cemetery on Nov. 14. Aged 63 years and 8 months. She was long a member of the Deseciple church of this place, but moved to Cross Fork a few years ago.

The Weaver party has caught three deer since the season came in.

The people have begun to hunt up their Thanksgiving turkeys.

Mrs. Lola Coons, from Altoona, is visiting a few days at her parents of this place.

We expect to have lots of strawberries next season for Robbs have planted about 800 plants his fall.

Thomas McCloskey and William Boone left for West Virginia on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bottonhorn returned to their home on Saturday.

COBURN.

C. F. Corman, wife and little son, of Duquesne, who visited relatives here several weeks, returned to their home on Monday.

Chester Kerstetter and family visited at Michael Evert's on Sunday.

N. B. Schaeffer and family, of Plum Grove, spent the Sabbath at T. W. Hosterman's.

John M. Stover and wife, of Aaronsburg, visited their daughter, Mrs. C. W. Meyers.

George Weaver and wife of Aaronsburg, spent Sunday with relatives at this place.

Emanuel Kerstetter and Geo. Zerby spent several days with friends at McElhattan last week.

L. L. Weaver and family, of Pine Creek, spent a day at W. L. Hosterman's.

Mrs. F. P. Snyder, of White Deer, visited her son Harry, at this place and her parents, Harvey Stover's east of Aaronsburg.

Adam Corman and family spent a day at John Corman's.

To date no deer was killed in this section and not as much other game as was anticipated.

W. J. J. Harter, of West Virginia, spent several days with his parents, Reuben Harter's.

Mrs. A. B. Meyer is spending this week at Woodward.

The ice house at the creamery is being remodeled.

CENTRE HALL.

A scarcity of water in the borough plant has led to the belief that it is caused by a leak in the main, and a test is being made to discover it but has not yet been successful.

Will Flory is digging a cellar for a new dwelling which John Weaver, miller in Webber's mill, intends to erect two squares north of the station in this place.

Barny Garis is offering his home on east Church street for sale, as he would like to move his family to Burnham, near Lewistown, where he has constant employment.

Miss Flora Love, of Lewisburg, attended the funeral of Mrs. J. D. Murray, on Monday.

Rev. Dr. Boal was to Milesburg a few days ago to attend to some church appointments.

LOGANTON.

John Guiseweit is the champion pork grower. He killed one just to months old that tipped the beam at 450 pounds. Who can beat this?

So far but few deer were slain. The Schwank party got one on Saturday, a small buck, and the others that were slain were reported last week.

Mrs. Andrew Jamison has had another stroke of paralysis and is daily getting weaker.

Scarlet fever at the east end of the valley is abating, although two of the township schools have been closed on account of the disease. The Samuel Woomeldorf and the Eastville schools are the afflicted ones.

CASSANOVA.

A. L. Duck, of Spring Mills, visited his brother Charles, Tuesday.

J. T. Stewart is attending court at Bellefonte this week.

The report is, Fred the prop'r. is away getting married—the calthumpians can hardly wait for his return.

H. P. Lutz, of Viaduct, visited at Chas. C. Duck's, Sunday.

Hugh McBlain is driving Mr. Nugent's team.

GORTON.

Clark Wiggins and family, of Phillipsburg, spent a few days last week at J. W. Wiggins.

Margaret Glasgow and Eva McGown, of Moshannan, visited their friends, the Misses Wiggins, Saturday.

George Clark moved his family to Viaduct.

F. Porcey is night operator here at present.

Lyons Poorman visited at Snow Shoe.

Mary Croft returned on Saturday after spending the week at Snow Shoe.

Susan Fletcher returned home, after spending last week at institute.

Walter Heaton spent last week at Yarnell.

James Croft and family, of Nanty Glo, are visiting at this place.

I. Heaton and wife spent Tuesday at Yarnell.

On next Monday evening, according to Prof. Hicks' predictions, is due a meteoric shower. If the weather is clear and the prediction hits, it is likely a very beautiful sight will be seen.

New York market is overstocked with potatoes. The rot having stopped several weeks ago, the tubers are plenty.

HAVE YOU NOTICED

recently, how many new ready-to-wear clothing stores there are in the fashionable shopping districts of all the large cities and towns? Do you know the reason why?

A visit to our store will be convincing in price, style and finish.

KUPPENHEIMER

Garments are known all over the United States, side by side, (in many cases way in the lead) of all the clothing manufacturers.

We are their exclusive representatives in Bellefonte.

You know, if you should buy a garment which you found unsuited to your style and build, an exchange or money refunded is quickly suggested. We will guide you right, rest assured of that.

Our stock of Hats, Caps, Shirts, Neckwear, Underwear and Gloves is larger by 50 per cent, than any season. Wool and cotton goods have advanced BUT NOT HERE.

Suits and Overcoats made to order as low as $15.00.

Montgomery & Co.

Grand Opening

OF THE

NEW 5 AND 10 CENT STORE!

Saturday Morning, November 18th, with a full line of Hosiery, Notions, China, Glass, Tin, Wood, Granite and Hardware, Toys, Novelties, Jewelry, etc.

Call and examine our lines and be convinced that we sell cheaper than you have ever bought.

Following is a list of prices to give you an idea how we sell goods:

Ladies' lace and embroidery collars	10c	Dust pans	5c
Framed pictures complete with glass	10c	Valencence & Torchon lace	5c a yard
Fancy aprons with or without bibs	10c	Shoe laces	5c a doz
Fancy sewing baskets	15c	Taffeta ribbons, all shades	5c a yard
Veiling (assorted colors)	1c yd	Lamp globes No. 2	5c each
Ladies' belts, leath'r and mercerized	10c yd	Engraved tumblers	5c each
Rushings a'l popular colors	10c yd	Men's black hose	5c a pr
Glass pitchers, 2 quart size	10c	B-ling pins	5c each
Glass cake and fruit stand	10c	Large bottle machine oil	5c
China meat dishes, large sizes	10c	Laundry s-ap	2 cakes 5c
China saucers, pi'n or decorated	10c	Ammonia, quart bottle	5c
Jardaneers, 7 inches	10c	Plain table tumblers	2 for 5c
No. 8 steel skillets	10c	Tin pie plates	2 for 5c
Large granite wash basins	10c	2 papers full count pins	5c
3 and 4 quart granite pudding pans	10c	Egg b-at-rs	5c
3 and 3 quart granite stew pans	10c	Lamp burners with wick	5c
Silk bow ties	10c	Salt & pepper shakers	5c each

Thousands of other articles too numerous to mention. Remember we sell nothing over 10 cents. Call and avoid the rush. Don't forget the address.

THE NEW 5 AND 10 CENT STORE,

Bush Arcade—Next door to Doll's Bakery.