FROM MISSOURI.

Buffalo, Mo., Dec. 6, 1905.

Inclosed find one dollar on subscription. Please place to my credit and oblige. We are having fine weather at present There is some corn to be husked yet but most of it is in the cribs. We had a very wet fall, our streams were never known to be so high as they were in October Along the rivers and creeks a great deal of damage was done; some farmers lost all their crops, and some crops and buildings. Our crops were good but injured some by so much wet weather. Land is advancing in price with us. There has been quite a number of farms sold in our neighborhood lately, from $25 to $40 per acre. I en-close you an article on turkeys, taken from the Record published here in Buffalo, copied from the K. C. Journal. will give you an idea of what kind of a poultry country we have here.
Yours Respectfully,

A. R. ALEXANDER.

Indigestion

There is no rason why a person should not eat anything he chooses -- if he chews it carefully -- the trouble is most people are afraid or every good-looking, good-smelling, good-tasting thing on the bill of fare because it "don't agree with them." They actually starve them-selves into sickness. Dieting cannot cure dyspepsia-if we cut off every article of food that disagrees with us before long we have nothing left, and we find ourselves chronic dyspeptics. When you eat something that don't agree with you, it's time to get after your stomach and tone it up. From our own experience in selling dyspepsia cures, there is nothing that equals Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. From what our customers tell us of this Rexall Remedy we are convinced that consistent use of it will give any one the stomach of an oserich and the appetite of a farm hand.
