

E. P. IRVIN. L. C. IRVIN.

THE RACKET

Toys and Holiday Goods

We show the largest and finest assortment ever brought to this town. Our complete line is now open. Come in and look around, even if you don't want to buy. Every article marked in plain figures at the Racket's usual low prices.

Come early and avoid the rush.

Racket Store Co.

Correspondents' Department

Continued from 7th page.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

As no paper will be issued from this office Thursday, December 28th, next week, our correspondents will please take note of that fact, and omit news items. The next issue will be Jan. 4th, 1906, for which we would be glad to receive a good newsy letter from each one for the first issue of the New Year.

The Centre Democrat wishes to express its appreciation, as well as that of the great host of readers in Centre County and those far from home, upon the faithful and efficient efforts of our many correspondents who have made these pages so interesting during the past year. Hoping that our relations will continue as pleasant as in the past, and wishing one and all "A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A MOST PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR," we remain

Sincerely Yours,
EDITORS CENTRE DEMOCRAT.
GREENBURG.

Mrs. Delia Smith spent Sunday at the home of her son Wm., at Loganton.

Rev. Eby commenced his revival at Booneville on Sunday evening.

H. A. Lamey took a load of teachers and patrons to Lock Haven to attend the county institute.

Mrs. Chesty Kupp and son William, returned to their home at Bitumen, on Saturday.

Sam'l Snyder and wife, of Logan Mills, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Snyder's aged mother.

The Reformed Sunday school of this place will hold a Christmas service on Christmas forenoon.

Mrs. Jane Kahl is nursing a very sore hand at present.

W. S. Kahl, who was working at his trade in Osceola, returned to his home where he intends to spend the cold winter months.

The revival in the United Evangelical church closed on last Thursday evening; there were some twenty penitents; fourteen were admitted to church membership.

Prof. J. M. Kahl is instructing two large singing classes, one at Tylersville and one at Greenburg, besides a class of private organ students.

In reading the Howard news of last week, we could not help but wonder, if the Howard scribe has any idea of the interval between a mad z in music?

It is said that Mr. Stam's little daughter Edna is very ill.

Harrison Fiedler wears a broad smile at present—it is a boy.

A stranger in the form of a boy, arrived at the residence of Ed. Lebo last week and by all appearance intends to stay.

ROLAND.

The latest premium offer of the Centre Democrat has elicited much favorable comment in this vicinity. It is very generous and the contest will be free from any objectionable features and assures a square deal to all contestants.

Mrs. Arthur Bathurst spent a few days with friends in Nittany.

Fred Curtin, who holds a lucrative position in Philadelphia, and Lattimer Curtin, who has been in the west for a number of years, sons of Mrs. V. E. Curtin, are coming home to spend Christmas.

Cat. One Curtin, daughter of Mrs. H. K. Curtin, who is attending school in Philadelphia, expects to be home for Christmas.

The improvement and decoration Morrison & Glenn have made on the outside of the store, make a very fine show to persons coming down that avenue.

Track foreman Williams, was given the prize for having the best kept division on the line; the sum of fifty dollars is what he received.

Charley Shultz has moved his family to Cato where he has a good position.

Wishing the editor, correspondents and readers of the Centre Democrat, all a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, will stop writing for this year.

Moyer's White Liniment, per bottles 25c.

NITTANY.

W. J. Mauck was to Bellefonte one day last week on business.

Guy Nolan and Charles Mauck were Jacksonville visitors Sunday.

Quite a number of our people expect to go to Lock Haven, Saturday to do their Xmas shopping.

James Nolan and daughter Mary were to Lock Haven last week on business.

Wm. Garbrick, Jr., and J. W. Tolbert were to Howard Saturday night on business.

W. E. Kessinger was to Woodward one day last week on business.

Boyd M. Emerick, who has been employed by Mr. Lingle at this place the past two years, has accepted a position with the same company at Reading and left for that place Wednesday, where he will enter the office of the company. Boyd's success at this place has secured him a fine berth and we wish him success.

Less Swartz lost a valuable cow one night last week.

C. E. Emert and son of Lamar, gave a graphophone entertainment at the hotel at this place recently.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dorman a young daughter, Monday night.

Mrs. G. W. Young returned home after spending a week visiting friends in Lock Haven.

Miss Bertha Lose, of Williamsport, and Miss Helen Beck, of Snyderdowntown, were guests at the Winkleman home on Sunday.

Miss Minnie Winkleman was to Lock Haven the fore part of the week to do her Xmas shopping.

Wilson Ammerman attended the funeral of David Whiteman, at Hublersburg, on Monday.

Those fellows that tried to have an animal show at the church Sunday night had better stay away if they can't behave. A word to the wise is sufficient as their names have been taken.

A Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year to everybody.

PIKE.

Mrs. Samuel Musser visited at John Snyder's on Sunday.

Wilson Haine's spent the latter part of last week visiting relatives in Sunbury.

Mary Deitrich of Madisonburg, spent Saturday and Sunday with her friend Kathryn Meyer.

Wilson Wert and wife from Aaronsburg, spent Saturday at L. E. Rossman's.

Sarah Condo, from Penn Hall, visited her friend Fernie Rossman, on Sunday.

Mamie Zerby, from Nittany, visited relatives in this place last week.

Elias Stover and family, from Millheim, visited at Elias Zerby's on Sunday.

Mary Barner, from Farmers Mills, visited at Harvey Bailey's on Sunday.

Rev. F. E. Lauffer and family spent a short time at Elias Zerby's, Sunday.

The Christmas entertainment which will be held in Salem Reformed church, is progressing rapidly under the supervision of J. S. Meyer, Esq. Come one, come all for the music and recitations will be a rare treat.

The books the Centre Democrat is giving away are a very rare treat to the teachers of Centre County, and should not be missed by any, when they can get such fine books as these for nothing. Seize this opportunity as you might never get such an offer again.

A new scribe burst up in our midst like a volcano some time ago, with his (or her) budget of news.

H. F. McManaway visited at the home of J. S. Meyers, Sunday.

Miss Mayme Zerby, from Nittany, was visiting her friends here.

The Salem Reformed church have a Christmas entertainment Sunday evening. Everybody is invited to attend.

Bright Bittner, Mayme Rossman and sister Ferna, attended protracted meeting at Spring Mills, Sunday evening.

Wonder what became of the Smithtown scribe he must have eaten too many sausages since butchering.

MARTHA.

The cutting and hauling of bank props seems to be the leading business of this place at present.

Geo. Steele and Peter Myers each loaded a car load of baled hay last week.

There was another wreck here last week which was caused by a broken wheel, and it took 60 new rails to replace broken ones, and don't know at present how many new ties it took.

Misses Mattie Steele and Nannie McKelvey spent last Saturday in Bellefonte.

Miss Sylvie, of Halfmoon, has been visiting at the home of her uncle Ellis Williams, of this place.

D. J. Gingery and wife and G. G. Fink and wife are spending a few days in Altoona this week doing their Xmas shopping.

Misses Bethel and Lydia Eberts took dinner with Miss Pearl Fink last Sunday.

The protracted meeting has closed here without any success.

Miss Verna Williams is keeping house for Mrs. Fink while she is in Altoona.

BOALSBURG.

Lloyd Wherl moved to Milroy where he has secured employment in the stone quarry.

The sale of Mrs. Mary Cole was well attended on Saturday.

The Lutheran church will hold their Xmas entertainment on Friday evening 22nd.

We notice that Miss Maggie Wood is home again, after spending two weeks with friends in Reedsville.

Rev. A. A. Black will hold his entertainment on Sunday evening 24th.

Butchering is about all over now for the season.

The store windows are full of articles for Xmas—some being very pretty.

Ross Kramer is back again working for Walter Shutt.

MADISONBURG.

D. C. Caris and little son William, took a business trip to Millheim, Monday.

B. L. Noll, from Wolf Store, Sunday with his parents, W. C. Noll's.

Miss Lizzie Rhule, from Clintondale, is visiting her aunt Mrs. Philip Caris, this week.

W. H. Swartz, wife and children, from Millheim, was the guest of the latter's Jos. Bierly, Sunday.

UNIONVILLE.

It is with feeling of no extraordinary solicitude and internal commotionality that, after a long intermission, I again take up my pencil to note a few items, much as I hope, to the edification of a large number of your readers; so here they are:

Jacob Kerchner had his right foot badly crushed by a saw log rolling on it; but you would have to break both his legs and arms to keep Jake from working all the same.

Clayton Eckley says the Centre Democrat is the best newspaper in the world, but it is N. G. without the Unionville items.

Farmer Shed Parsons is quite ill, having symptoms of appendicitis.

The Hon. Newton Spangler Sunday with ex-commissioner Thos. W. Fisher.

On last Friday morning six fine large wild turkeys flew down off the ridge and landed just outside of Mrs. Mary A. Davidson's garden, where they remained quite a while picking up such bits of provender they could lay their "hands" on.

Recently, Harry Lindemuth, the village blacksmith, fitted and drove 22 horse shoes, including about 18 never-slip shoes, in one day.

Some time ago J. Milton Peters, while helping to thresh at Lundy Lucas, injured or bruised the third finger of his left hand at the third joint. Subsequently an abscess formed and for six weeks he suffered intense pain from it. On last Wednesday he was taken to the Bellefonte hospital and three of his fingers were amputated; the operation was a marked success and the patient is doing well.

Our town is fast forging to the front. We now have a barber, photographer and shoemaker all in the person of Mr. Sprankle, formerly of Warriorsmark.

Landlord Wm. A. Peters now sports a pretty sign over the entrance to his hotel door. The letters are of aluminum and it reads "Peters House."

Constable H. H. Montgomery assisted by two deputies, Dick Hoover and Joe Gill, arrested Jeff Moore, took him to Bellefonte when after a hearing before Squire Keichline, he entered bail for his appearance at court, the charge being an attempt to entrap wild turkeys after the season closed.

Please put Perry Moran down for the biggest hog that was killed in our city this fall. It weighed 227 lbs., 15 months old. Domino killed a spring pig that weighed 565 lbs. Other big hogs were killed in town, but we failed to get report.

The Hon. J. T. Barton left a few days ago for Pittsburg, where he has secured a desirable and lucrative position in the office of the Adams Express Co. Joe is eminently capable to fill any clerical position.

Victor Wagner and Harry Stere will move on the Blair farm in the near future, and will make raising chickens and turkeys a specialty.

J. Milton Peters, aged 59 years, is the oldest resident citizen that was born in the borough of Unionville, and J. C. Smith aged 55 is the next oldest.

Skating on the "Reach" is now the principal enjoyment of our young people.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Aaron Hall, on last Wednesday. The bride was pretty Fanny Green, of Runville, and the groom was Theodore Haverstein, of Tyrone. They received many handsome and useful presents and will be at home in Tyrone in the future. We wish them unbounded happiness. Another million dollar prize slipped away from Bennie Fredericks.

Five year old Harold Griest was watching his grandma plucking the feathers from a chicken. Seeing her picking out the pin-feathers one by one of which there were many, he exclaimed: "Oh Grandma, how do you think that poor chicken could walk with so many splinters sticking in it." Applause in the gallery.

HOWARD.

Miss Carrie Butler and Edith Zimmerman are home from Philadelphia to spend their vacation.

Misses Helen Schenck, Mayme Zeigler, Alma and Orpha Pletcher, were Bellefonte visitors on Saturday.

Geo. Hensyl, a student at Albright College, is spending his vacation with his mother.

Jesse Leather, of Dickinson Seminary will be with his relatives for several weeks.

Ed. Ballock, operator at Julian, visited our burg on Saturday evening.

John D. Hall, wife and daughter departed for Lock Haven and Sunbury where they will visit till January.

Mrs. J. Z. Long went to West Virginia where she will visit her son and daughter.

D. A. Irvin and Geo. Williams made a business trip to Bellefonte one day last week.

Messrs Jordan and Kyler, our operators, visited Mr. Burkholder, operator at Bellefonte.

Miss Fannie Johnson, accompanied by Miss Orpha Pletcher and Mr. Beirley, of Lamar, went to Mill Hall, where she was married to Mr. Aikens. They departed for Philadelphia where they intend to make their home. We wish them a long and happy life.

Mrs. Graden, an aged lady of our town, was buried on Saturday morning.

Mrs. L. C. Thompson and sister were shopping on Friday in Bellefonte.

Miss Ella Hall spent some time with Miss Breth, of Lock Haven.

Mrs. Thomas and daughter Gertrude tarried a day with friends in Williamsport.

ROMOLA.

The oyster supper, held at the home of D. R. Confer, on Saturday evening, was well attended; proceeds for the benefit of the Christian church; the amount was $19.32.

Mrs. L. S. DeLong is ill at this writing; we hope for her a speedy recovery.

J. R. Brickley is on the sick list.

Mrs. Martha Packer, of Mt. Eagle, is visiting at the home of Miss Ellen McCloskey.

Quite a few of the young people of Orvis attended the oyster supper on Saturday evening.

If you wish to purchase fine Christmas candles call on E. B. Robb.

The baptism held at this place on Sunday afternoon was well attended, there were eleven converts. Rev. Aser immersed them.

PENN HALL.

Charles Fisher transacted business in Millheim Monday.

Manassa Guise and wife attended the funeral of his sister last week, at Loganton.

Alfred Hosterman, of Tusseyville, visited his brother F. D. Hosterman several days last week.

Ralph Shook is again able to attend school after recovering from a severe attack of quinsy.

S. G. Burrell transacted business in Centre Hall on Friday.

The corn shredders are kept busy in this vicinity.

Mrs. S. G. Burrell visited her father Charles Horner, one day last week.

Mrs. P. Auman visited her sister, Mrs. R. B. Bartges, on Friday.

The Salem Reformed church will have their entertainment on the eve before Christmas.

Mr. Sinkebine will occupy the Fisher farm.

Clara Smith will spend the Holidays with her parents at this place.

I wonder what the attraction is at Sprucecreek for Charles.

Miss Sally Albright visited at the home of H. C. Rachau, Thursday.

James Keller, of Centre Hall, visited his daughter Mrs. F. M. Fisher last week.

Mrs. William Musser, of Lykens, spent Sunday with her brother Robert Hettlinger.

Mrs. John Dauberman spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guise.

Esther Hennick spent Sunday at the home of Robert Bartges.

GREGG TWP.

WEST PRECINCT.

Hurrah for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

James Wert is on the sick list.

Miss Testa Beck spent Sunday with Ella Phillips.

Rev. Hass preached an interesting sermon in St. Paul's church, Sunday.

Rev. Snyder's big meeting is still in progress; there were thus far twenty-four seekers.

Blanch Limbert was a pleasant caller of Miss Verna Rachau on Saturday.

Hurrah boys, get those horns and bells ready, there will be a wedding in the near future.

Miss Olive Stover, from the Pike, spent a few days last week at J. W. Rachau's.

The St. Paul's church Sunday evening was crowded to its utmost capacity.

YANKEETOWN.

Miss Mary Baney visited her grandparents at Millheim on Saturday.

There will be preaching at the St. Paul's church on Sunday evening, 31st of Dec.

Wallace Bartges and lady friend, Gertie Breen, visited at the home of Foster Bower's, at Aaronsburg on Sunday.

Miss Elsie Ulrich spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Mark.

E. E. Smith and wife spent Sunday with their friends at Farmer's Mills.

Frank Ream, wife and daughter Gladys, spent a day last week with the latter's mother, Mrs. Spayd, at Madisonburg.

Mrs. Isaiah Rider called to see her daughter, Leah, one day last week.

COBURN.

Mrs. Wm. Musser, Jr., of Woodward, spent a week with her parents, J. F. Kishel.

Emmanuel Harter and wife, of near Rebersburg, visited at Reuben Harter's on Sunday.

T. F. Meyer and family, of Millheim, spent Sunday with friends at this place.

Andrew Vonada bought the Henry Kling property; consideration $725.

The Cantata, "The Old Year's Merry Christmas" will be given in the Reformed church, on Monday evening.

T. W. Hosterman and wife spent Monday and Tuesday with their son Warren, north of Woodward.

A few of our people have already seen the books at T. F. Meyer's store, Millheim, and say that any teacher could well be proud of possessing a set. So send in your votes and help some energetic teacher or school to secure a set.

The Highvalley scribe was in church on Sunday and in physical appearance he is almost a perfect Santa Claus, and we are sure if he had the supply of toys and presents the real Santa has he would as cheerfully deliver them to the good boys and girls. His head is profusely covered with gray hairs, he has long flowing gray beard somewhat discolored by something that the real Santa never touched; a red nose, made so not only by the cold of the valley but by something that never caused the redness of the real Santa's nose. The Georgetown scribe answers almost the same description.

HANNAH.

Master Leroy Hoover and little sister Marion, visited friends here recently.

The Hannah and Henderson schools are both preparing for Christmas entertainments; the former will be the Friday afternoon before Xmas and the latter the evening of the same day. Of course Santa Claus expects to be at both.

Mrs. J. J. Shively went to see her new grandson, at Howard a few days ago.

Douglass Condo, of Altoona, spent Sunday at the home of his uncle and aunt, Samuel Hoover's.

Joseph Goss made a business trip to Philipsburg last Monday.

James Goss is able to be at work again, he has been having a serious time with one of his hands; blood poison was feared but under the skillful treatment of Drs. Lowry, of Tyrone, and Harsberger, of Port Matilda, he is almost well again.

HAINES TWP.

WOLFE'S CHAPLE.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

Mr. Moore and wife, of Nittany valley, visited at the home of David Musser over Sunday.

Mrs. D. D. Breen and Gertrude Musser were the guests of William Musser at Pine Creek, on Sunday.

Sphere Breen and wife, of Millheim were the guests of Michael Bewers, on Sunday.

HOUSEVILLE.

The 20th Century Encyclopedia is a gem worthy of an effort on the part of any teacher to secure.

Quite a number of prominent citizens of this place are making an effort to establish a telephone line to make connection with the Bell line near Lemont.

A protracted meeting is being held in the U. B. church under the leadership of Rev. Wolf.

B. F. Homan, of Oak Hall, was in town on Monday looking after the interest of the National cream separator.

Miss Mary Keller has recovered from her recent illness.

H. I. Ailman has resumed operations in the Jacob Houser mill which was idle for a week owing to a break in the machinery; the mill is an ancient landmark being erected in 1836.

As 1905 is drawing to a close we bid adieu to our fellow scribes and many friends of the Centre Democrat, wishing you all a "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

WEST PRECINCT.

Hurrah for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

James Wert is on the sick list.

Miss Testa Beck spent Sunday with Ella Phillips.

Rev. Hass preached an interesting sermon in St. Paul's church, Sunday.

Rev. Snyder's big meeting is still in progress; there were thus far twenty-four seekers.

Blanch Limbert was a pleasant caller of Miss Verna Rachau on Saturday.

Hurrah boys, get those horns and bells ready, there will be a wedding in the near future.

Miss Olive Stover, from the Pike, spent a few days last week at J. W. Rachau's.

The St. Paul's church Sunday evening was crowded to its utmost capacity.

YANKEETOWN.

Miss Mary Baney visited her grandparents at Millheim on Saturday.

There will be preaching at the St. Paul's church on Sunday evening, 31st of Dec.

Wallace Bartges and lady friend, Gertie Breen, visited at the home of Foster Bower's, at Aaronsburg on Sunday.

Miss Elsie Ulrich spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Mark.

E. E. Smith and wife spent Sunday with their friends at Farmer's Mills.

Frank Ream, wife and daughter Gladys, spent a day last week with the latter's mother, Mrs. Spayd, at Madisonburg.

Mrs. Isaiah Rider called to see her daughter, Leah, one day last week.

COBURN.

Mrs. Wm. Musser, Jr., of Woodward, spent a week with her parents, J. F. Kishel.

Emmanuel Harter and wife, of near Rebersburg, visited at Reuben Harter's on Sunday.

T. F. Meyer and family, of Millheim, spent Sunday with friends at this place.

Andrew Vonada bought the Henry Kling property; consideration $725.

The Cantata, "The Old Year's Merry Christmas" will be given in the Reformed church, on Monday evening.

T. W. Hosterman and wife spent Monday and Tuesday with their son Warren, north of Woodward.

A few of our people have already seen the books at T. F. Meyer's store, Millheim, and say that any teacher could well be proud of possessing a set. So send in your votes and help some energetic teacher or school to secure a set.

The Highvalley scribe was in church on Sunday and in physical appearance he is almost a perfect Santa Claus, and we are sure if he had the supply of toys and presents the real Santa has he would as cheerfully deliver them to the good boys and girls. His head is profusely covered with gray hairs, he has long flowing gray beard somewhat discolored by something that the real Santa never touched; a red nose, made so not only by the cold of the valley but by something that never caused the redness of the real Santa's nose. The Georgetown scribe answers almost the same description.

HANNAH.

Master Leroy Hoover and little sister Marion, visited friends here recently.

The Hannah and Henderson schools are both preparing for Christmas entertainments; the former will be the Friday afternoon before Xmas and the latter the evening of the same day. Of course Santa Claus expects to be at both.

Mrs. J. J. Shively went to see her new grandson, at Howard a few days ago.

Douglass Condo, of Altoona, spent Sunday at the home of his uncle and aunt, Samuel Hoover's.

Joseph Goss made a business trip to Philipsburg last Monday.

James Goss is able to be at work again, he has been having a serious time with one of his hands; blood poison was feared but under the skillful treatment of Drs. Lowry, of Tyrone, and Harsberger, of Port Matilda, he is almost well again.

HAINES TWP.

WOLFE'S CHAPLE.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

Mr. Moore and wife, of Nittany valley, visited at the home of David Musser over Sunday.

Mrs. D. D. Breen and Gertrude Musser were the guests of William Musser at Pine Creek, on Sunday.

Sphere Breen and wife, of Millheim were the guests of Michael Bewers, on Sunday.

Alfred Hosterman, of Centre Hill, visited his many relatives and friends in this vicinity last week.

A. A. Stover is all smiles since the arrival of that baby boy.

Charley Stover traded horses with a man in Nittany valley. Charley is preparing to move on a six horse-power farm in the spring.

The scribe had not the privilege of seeing those 20th Century Encyclopaedia but a good friend of mine recommends them very highly. Teachers should avail themselves of this opportunity. I am sorry I'm not a teacher.

HOUSEVILLE.

The 20th Century Encyclopedia is a gem worthy of an effort on the part of any teacher to secure.

Quite a number of prominent citizens of this place are making an effort to establish a telephone line to make connection with the Bell line near Lemont.

A protracted meeting is being held in the U. B. church under the leadership of Rev. Wolf.

B. F. Homan, of Oak Hall, was in town on Monday looking after the interest of the National cream separator.

Miss Mary Keller has recovered from her recent illness.

H. I. Ailman has resumed operations in the Jacob Houser mill which was idle for a week owing to a break in the machinery; the mill is an ancient landmark being erected in 1836.

As 1905 is drawing to a close we bid adieu to our fellow scribes and many friends of the Centre Democrat, wishing you all a "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

Pictures! Pictures!

The finest assortment ever brought to this part of the state. We have 'em in gills, hard wood and burntwood effects, in all the different styles and strictly up to date at extremely low prices. Just the finest line of holiday goods ever exhibited here. Call and see them and be convinced that it is a fact.

We also frame pictures, having all the modern methods of doing the work, insuring complete satisfaction, and have over two hundred different styles of moulding to select from; so don't delay but come early and avoid the rush of the holidays which will soon be on.

House painting and decorating of every description.

Miles of Wall Paper at the very lowest prices, and experienced men to put it on in an artistic manner.

Jap-o-lac and Sap-olin varnish stains. Paints, Oils, Glass, Window Shades, Room Moulding, etc., at Eckenroth Brothers, Bush Arcade.

Katz & Co.'s Store News.

Interest grows in our tremendous sales WOMEN'S COATS.

The sudden turn of the weather has made Coat buying imperative. We have Coats for all of you. What can make a more sensible Christmas Gift than one of these Coats?

Every Coat is at least 1-3 Under Price

Some are nearly 1-2 Price

The styles are the season's latest and so good and staple that they'll be just as desirable next year as this. If you've any thoughts of Coat buying you'll never get a better opportunity than the one we now offer you!

44 inch Loose Box Coats	44 inch Empire Coats
46 inch Loose Coats	52 inch Fly Front Coats
52 inch Empire Coats	52 in. Swagger Box Coats

OF KERSEY CHEVIOT and BROADCLOTH

$12.50 Box Coats at	-	$7.50
$13.50 Empire Coats at	-	$8.50
$16.50 Cheviot Coats at	-	$9.98
$18.00 Loose Coats at	-	$12.50
$20.00 Long Coats at	-	$12.50
$20.00 Empire Coats at	-	$12.50
$20.00 Box Coats at	-	$12.50
$21.50 Box Coats at	-	$13.50

KATZ & CO.