

Correspondents' Department

The news in condensed form from all parts of Centre County

JULIAN.

Fine winter weather. Calvin Williams, who has been employed as a brakman on the Tyrone Division, narrowly escaped being killed while making a trip down the mountain.

SPRING MILLS.

The farmers came to town one day last week in sleighs and sleds. A little girl came to stay at the home of John Brown.

MARTHA.

The youngest daughter of D. J. Gingery is somewhat under the weather at present. There was a play party at the home of Mae Flick last Friday night.

MILESBURG.

A. G. Rager has been appointed Local Registrar of vital statistics for Registration District of Milesburg boro.

YARNELL.

Mrs. Jacob Yarnell, after a brief visit with friends in Snow Shoe, has returned home. Anna Shank is very ill at this writing.

LINDEN HALL.

A new snow came as a guest in our town. James Swabb who is at present filling his office at the county seat, spent Sunday with his family at this place.

HOWARD.

Our town was in an uproar on Saturday night. Some of the boys had too much booze. The town council might have a lock up, say the good citizens of the town.

FROM OKLAHOMA.

Just for the benefit of those who don't know it, I will say that Oklahoma is coming to the front. About two years ago same time, we were having sandstorms and windy weather.

MOSHANNON.

Mrs. Howard has returned home after having been called to Jersey Shore to attend the funeral of a relative. A quilting bee was held at the home of Edward Shannon.

WOODWARD.

Wilson S. Ard, after spending Christmas and New Year's with his brother and sister in Philadelphia, returned home on Wednesday night. Protracted meeting in the United Ev. church is being well attended.

GREEN BURR.

Percy Overdorf will leave for Nittany valley this week to work, this will be the third or fourth season he is working for the same party; that speaks well for Percy. Claud Gramley said good-bye to friends at Green Burr on Thursday.

LIVONIA.

Thomas Adams and Wm. Snook went back to Hyner to work, last week. Manasses Stover, who was hurt while working in the woods some time ago, is able to be out again.

BOALSBURG.

Joseph Hettinger is home again after spending some time at the Philadelphia hospital. S. M. Bell lost a horse last week.

WADDLE.

Miss Mary Balsor, of Altoona, is visiting her brother, Harry Balsor, of this place. Miss Jessie Way, who has been on the sick list for two weeks, is still confined to her bed, but is improving slowly.

IS YOUR BACK ALLRIGHT.

If it isn't the Chances Are That Your Kidneys Are Calling For Aid. The kidneys are the most important of all the organs; they have more work to perform than any other, hence the necessity of heeding the first symptoms of the derangement.

PINE GLENN.

Robt. Newcomer, of Phillipsburg, transacted business in this place recently. Dora Askey returned to Bellefonte, Thursday, after spending her vacation with her parents here.

Weak Lungs Bronchitis. For over sixty years doctors have endorsed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs, colds, weak lungs, bronchitis, consumption. You can trust a medicine the best doctors approve.

the West, returning for the opening of the spring session of College. Simon Kline, who has been identified closely with Penna State College, is moving to Emtisburg where he will take charge of a large dairy farm.

What has become of all the scribes, I believe the West Brushvalley scribe fell asleep in Green's Gap and forgot to come home. Yearick and Zerby's stove mill is running full blast.

Go furthest Lucas Paints. Pure, high-grade materials, finely ground and thoroughly mixed by improved modern machinery. That's what makes Lucas Paints go further, look better and last longer.

John Lucas & Co Philadelphia. President Atherton has recovered sufficiently to leave for Arizona and California. He will spend three months in