

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

-Miss Mary Wolf, of Curwensville, is visiting friends in Bellefonte. -Dr. J. Coburn Rodgers is visiting his mother on North Allegheny street. -A. D. Strawcutter, H. F. Kessinger, and Henry Kessinger, all of Blanchard, gave us a call. -Mrs. Will Rhinesmith underwent a serious operation in the Bellefonte Hospital last Thursday. -Miss Bella Hoover slipped on the ice in front of the Postoffice Monday afternoon and broke her arm. -Wm. J. Singer, Esq., of New York City, is visiting friends about the county. He is enjoying good health. -Samuel Decker has purchased the Brew property on Spring street and will occupy same after April 1st. -Mrs. Edward Graham, an aged widow lady living on Allegheny street slipped on the ice and broke her hip on Monday. -John H. Weber, of Centre Hall, is now an inmate of the private sanitarium of Dr. Hayes for treatment. His ailment is due to the effects of an attack of typhoid fever. -Mrs. W. Heywood Boone and daughter Ruth, of Clinton, Ky., are in Bellefonte for a two months' stay at the home of Mrs. Boone's mother Mrs. Washington Irvin, on Reynolds Ave. -Owing to the closing down last Friday night, of the glass factory at Altoona for the balance of the season, a number of Bellefonters who were employed at the plant have arrived home. -William A. Lyon has purchased from the Curtin estate the property on High street opposite the Court house, occupied by the Pearl sisters for $2500 and will move his family there in the spring. -Friday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clair B. Williams of Newark, New Jersey, formerly of Bellefonte, there was rejoicing over the advent of a son; naturally the grandparents in Bellefonte are elated. -Last Friday evening at the residence of Dave Kelly just outside of the borough limits, a lamp exploded doing some slight damages. Both fire companies responded promptly but their service was not needed. -The bazaar for the benefit of the new Convent will open Monday, Jan. 29th and continue for one week. If you have not already secured a ticket do so at once, as a number of valuable articles will be disposed of. -O. C. Campbell has been promoted to the position of general superintendent of the Cambria county Telegraph and Telephone company. Mr. Campbell will make that place headquarters and in the spring will move his family there from Bellefonte. -D. A. McDowell, of Marion, managed to get into our sanctum a few days ago, he enjoys good health except that his locomotion is entirely impeded, and his posture is not at all erect, due to rheumatism. He is full of business and a thorough going democrat. -The Academy opened its winter term Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with an increased number of students both in the boarding and day department. Geo. R. Meek was elected a trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late J. W. Gephart.

-C. W. Fisher, merchant of Penn Hall, was a pleasant caller. -Since the stores close at 6 pm, our streets look forsaken in the evenings. -The first story of the brick work, on the Central R. R. passenger station is up. -Mrs. Robert Thompson slipped on the ice Tuesday afternoon and broke her wrist. -The "Office Boy" drew a crowded house on Tuesday evening. The production was a good one. -James Bookmyer, of Bellefonte, slipped on a sidewalk at Altoona, Tuesday morning and sustained painful injuries. -William T. Burnside arrived home Friday evening from Reconvent, Va., where he has been for the last two months. -All the leading sales are found in the Centre Democrat Sale Register, and we are putting out the most attractive bills in the county. -A crew of senior electricals from Penna State College came down on Tuesday to inspect the iron furnaces, match factory, electric light plant and other manufacturing institutions, about Bellefonte. Most of them attended the "Office Boy" in the evening at the opera house. -Save your coupons for some deserving school teacher. Remember when you pay a year in arrears you get 50 premium votes, a year in advance 100, and for a new cash year 200. When there are eighteen prizes it should not be difficult to capture one by a little hustling. -During the past week nearly all the employees in the local printing offices received propositions from New York City printing offices for positions at big wages. There is a strike up there, the Union demanding an eight hour instead of a nine hour day, and the proprietors are trying to fill their offices with printers from the country. While the wages are large the strike is not inviting. -J. C. Reese, of Barnesboro, Pa., took advantage of the editor of this paper. Recently we mailed him a common ordinary "dun," because his subscription was due from April 1905 to April 1906 or three years. He sent it back with payment in full and added several dollars extra putting us in his debt for over two years to April 1st, 1908. That is what we call imposing on a printer, by good nature we can't stand it, because we are not accustomed to such treatment. He certainly has more confidence in printers than most people. -Ex-county commissioner Philip H. Meyer is up to his old capers, organizing singing schools throughout the county. At present he has a large class formed at Zion, and is organizing others at Coleville and Fairbrook this week which will keep him on the move for the next month. Singing schools in Nittany valley are not as plenty as over in Penna valley and as a result when you go to church in different sections the singing by the congregations is noticeable, traceable directly to the education derived largely from the ever popular singing schools in winter time, which always conclude with a monster convention.

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

During the year 1905 there were thirty-six deaths of a mysterious nature in Altoona. The greater number of these were from persons being killed on the Pennsylvania railroad, while three were murdered. S. A. Lutz of Tyrone has purchased the A. H. Kaufman interest in the Irvin house property at Lock Haven. In the spring important changes and improvements will be made in both the interior and exterior by the new owners, Messrs. S. Woods Caldwell and J. A. Lutz. The present landlord, H. R. Landis, will continue. The State Department of Fisheries is about to introduce the muscalonge into the waters of Pennsylvania. At present the only species of this fish in the State is a small variety known as the Chautauqua muscalonge. The Chautauqua fish much resembles some of the pike family. The variety to be introduced will come from Michigan, and is noted for game-ness. H. T. Cole, the hotel man of Mill Hall, died Monday morning at 2 o'clock of diabetes and jaundice, at the Kyler House, of which for the past six months he has been proprietor. He was aged 50 years and one month, and his death was a shock to many of his friends, who while they knew that he could not recover from his illness, had no idea that the end was so near. He was well known as former landlord at Loganton. Jefferson L. Thompson, of Clearfield, and for two days a freight brakeman in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, was instantly killed in the Altoona yard Saturday afternoon as the result of his inexperience in railroad-ing and becoming confused in the shifting of cars on the "ladder" in the lower yard. Fearing an imaginary collision between the two cars he was riding with a draft on an adjoining track he jumped to the track, fell and was ground to death under the wheels.

OVER THE COUNTY.

There is some talk of a petition against liquor license in Howard being circulated. Mr. and Mrs. E. Hugg, of Phillipsburg, who have been quite ill with pneumonia, are getting better. Mrs. James Keller, of Ferguson, who has been very sick with pneumonia, is slowly recovering. John B. Rocky, of Fillmore, is looking after lumber for his new barn he intends building in the early spring. William Lewis and wife, of Port Matilda, have gone to spend the winter with their children in Tyrone. Two inches of snow on Monday was welcomed by the lovers of sleighing as the first this winter and by farmers as it serves as a mantle over the grain fields. The swing factory at Milesburg will continue operations, and have orders in now for several hundred for spring delivery. Local institute will be in session at Howard, Pa., the latter part of this week. They have a fine programme for the occasion. A letter from Prof. J. F. Rearick, now located at Elizabethtown, Pa., indicates that he is prospering. His business is fitting up homes for heat and acetylene light. Little Luther Fishburn, of Pine Grove Mills, lost a finger as he reached too near the teeth of a circular saw, and they made a clean cut of his third finger on his left hand. The steam threshers in Ferguson report this: Clyde Detros's machine tallied 5032 bushels; Peters & Sons' 4120 bushels; Adam Cramer's 40250 bushels; Hess & Musser's 23560 bushels. Charles Cook, of Bellefonte, has turned over to trustees of the Buffalo Run Presbyterian church $450 the Christmas gift of the late Miss Mary Knox of Buffalo Run to that congregation of which deceased was a member. Boalsburg Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 894, will celebrate their 29th anniversary in their hall on Thursday evening, January 1906. There will be a special program for the entertainment of the members and the invited guests. John H. Oswalt and Miss Elizabeth Jordan, of Moshannon, were married on Monday, January 1st, by T. D. Weaver, Esq., after which a sumptuous dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jordan. The annual convention of the Centre county school Directors will convene in the court house at Bellefonte, Thursday, January 18th. Professor Albert, of Bloomsburg, and Professor McNeal, of Harrisburg, will be present and address the directors on the occasion.

The many friends of the venerable Samuel Frank, of Rebersburg, ex-associate judge of this county some years ago, that he is seriously ill and condition not at all hopeful for recovery. He was one of Miles township's most worthy and useful citizens, and is high up in years. Ellis Newlin Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hall formerly of this place, but now of Atlantic City, and Miss Bessie Speer, daughter of Mrs. Alice M. Speer were married at Braddock on Xmas. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will be at home No. 431 Second Street, Braddock, after January 15th. Joseph Wecho, of Gorton Heights, was struck by a Beech Creek train near Snow Shoe on last Thursday night and received serious injuries. He was taken to the hospital at Phillipsburg, where it was found he had sustained a broken shoulder, arm and leg and received cuts on the head. Christmas day Andrew Shook, of Springs Mills, became afflicted with what he thought to be neuralgia, and having business at Altoona went to that place. While in Altoona, his condition grew worse, and his ailment was pronounced Bell's palsy. Friday of last week he returned home, and at present he has improved very much. James Kittridge, nineteen years old, who was a student at State College until a couple months ago when on account of a breakdown in his health he was compelled to relinquish his studies and return to his home at Tankhannock, committed suicide, on New Year's day by jumping from a third story window of Dr. Rickett's private hospital, in Philadelphia, to the pavement, being instantly killed. Howard Riley Pratt, of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Emma Belle Conleton, of Jonestown, Pa., were married at Conemaugh, Thursday, Dec. 28, 1905, at the home of D. N. Burgoon, an uncle of the bride, and after a short visit to Pittsburgh left for Baltimore, Md., where they will make their home. Mr. Pratt is a son of Squire Riley Pratt, of Unionville, and is Engineer Maintenance of Way of the Western Maryland railroad, the eastern connection of the Wabash. A telegraphic news item from Lan caster states: Emanuel Benson, a negro, aged 33 years, and Mable Silknitter, a handsome white girl, aged 22, both residing in this city, were granted a marriage license by Register S. H. Boyd. Recently Benson applied for a license, but the application was held up pending an investigation of the law. It being found that there was nothing to prevent the marriage of blacks and whites, the license was issued. Benson is a native of Bellefonte. Miss Silknitter was born in Tyrone.

Four degrees above zero Wednesday morning. W. G. Murtorf was on Monday appointed postmaster at Benore, Centre county. F. M. Creps, of Parvin, has returned home from a couple weeks' visiting among friends and relatives in Ohio. The White property, Penn Cave, after the first of April will be occupied by Daniel Homan, who will retire from farming at that time. It is reported that Charles Bechdel of Lock Haven, son of James Bechdel of Marsh Creek, is making an attempt to procure a license for a hotel in Blanchard. The general health throughout the county is good—what better could be wished or could we thank a kind Providence for? Good health is the richest of blessings worth more than the millionaire's wealth, which can not purchase it. On Tuesday morning an ice-house on the premises of the Burrel estate, one mile west of Spring Mills, was destroyed by fire. It was not occupied at the time. This gave cause to the unfounded rumor that it was the barn of John Grove that was destroyed by fire. Emanuel Fye will move from the farm of ex-Prothonotary Smith, at Farmers Mills, to the Tibens farm at Penn Cave, now occupied by Daniel Homan, and owned by Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Vonada, of Coburn. Charles F. Stover will continue as tenant on the Smith farm. From all parts of the county we hear of good sleighing from Monday's snow. Some places there were 2, 3 and 4 inches, but the roads and low temperature favored it. The first afternoon's warm sun-fine will lick it up, as it is thin. It offers a good foundation for more snow, should it fall soon. The 54 annual banquet of Penns Valley Lodge 276 I. O. O. F. was held at Pine Grove Mills last Friday evening at which over one-hundred and fifty covers were laid and all partook of a splendid repast. The hall was beautifully decorated with bunting and potted plants. Rev. C. T. Aikens was guest of honor and was chosen toastmaster. A fire was discovered in the house occupied by Mrs. Dorsey Green, up Buffalo Run, on Monday evening, which was supposed to have been caused by the flue. There was considerable damage done to the sitting room in which the fire occurred, before it was extinguished by the exertion of timely assistance. Insurance in the F. M. of Centre county. The list of public sales already noticed in our Sale Register would indicate that the number of sales in this county will be large. The sales are mainly for farm stock, machinery and implements. Many will quit farming others will want to re-ner their stock and occupy smaller farms. Live stock is likely to bring good prices as there is demand for it same as last spring. Keep your eye on the Centre Democrat's Sale Register and you will know when and where the sales are to be. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Bovercox are arranging for their 30th marriage anniversary on the 13th in the I. O. O. F. hall at 11 am. One hundred and fifty invitations are out. Judging from the interest manifested and the preparations being made it will be a great success. This golden wedding will be the event of the year for Pine Grove as Frank has a host of friends all around enough to start a county with. Arrangements are being made for a special train from Bellefonte. Struck in the face by molten lead, thrown by an explosion, the Rev. J. F. Maschman, pastor of the Wesley Methodist church, Phillipsburg, is suffering with severe burns. His friends say that his left eye has been destroyed, and fear it is entangled that the right eye cannot be saved.

Miss Della Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Gates, of Warriorsmark, returned home from Philadelphia, where she has been for the past three weeks, undergoing an operation for appendicitis in the Hahnemann hospital of that city. The way of the transgressor is hard to beat. CERTIFICATE LOST. Certificate of deposit No. 543, dated August 2nd, 1905, amount $700, issued by the Bellefonte Trust Company, has been lost or stolen and notice is hereby given that application has been made for a duplicate certificate. JOHN P. HARRIS, Treasurer. A GOOD LINIMENT should be kept in every family—not the kind that is advertised for "internal, external and eternal" use—but prepared for "external use only." We have such a one—it has been well tried—it does the work, and it costs but 25 cents. When you have an ache or a pain ask for GREEN'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT and you won't be disappointed. We guarantee satisfaction or refund your money. Green's Pharmacy Comp'y, BUSH HOUSE BLDG.
