

Correspondents' Department

The news in condensed form from all parts of Centre County

SPRING MILLS.

What mean those beautiful spring-like days? The High school now has beautiful bright class colors—blue and white.

The intermediate school was closed last week on account of the death of the teacher's mother, Mrs. M. B. Duck.

John Snavely has opened a picture gallery in the building near his home.

Rev. Eleano Duck, who is minister in a Presbyterian church in New York City, will be at home for several weeks with his father.

The band has practice at Penn Hall every Friday evening.

Wm. Gramley will discontinue his henery. Within the past year he raised many nice poultry but this spring he will sell all the chickens and remove the building.

A number from here have camped in the mountains in Milfill county for trapping animals for their fur.

Chas. Bartges, our hustling printer, is suffering with a severe carbuncle on his neck.

The Evangelical Sunday school elected the following officers for the coming year: Supt., Floyd Bowersox; sec'y., Charles Leitzel; organization, Mrs. Fenstamaker; asst. supt., William Henney; treasurer, Mrs. Bowersox.

Michael Leitzel's wife has adopted Jessie Frederick's infant to raise until of age.

The telephone company are putting a line of poles on the road to Georges valley as several families there purchased phones.

Her many friends gave a birthday surprise party to Mrs. C. C. Cummings, on the eve of January 19, her fifty-fourth mile stone.

She received many useful presents, eatables and wearing material. For refreshments they received very excellent cakes and coffee.

Perival Leitzel, from Illinois, is visiting at the hospitable home of Wm. Pealer.

Mrs. Duncan Runkle, from Shamokin, is circulating among friends and relatives here. They formerly lived here but Mr. Runkle obtained lucrative employment there and Mrs. says they are getting along well.

The democratic caucus on Saturday nominated the following for Gregg township: School directors, Floyd Bowersox, J. M. Heckman and John Hosterman; supervisors, Benj. Lambert, J. P. Grove, overseer, Dan Ripka; tax collector, C. C. Bartges; auditors, W. P. Hosterman; town clerk, W. W. Jamison. West precinct nominated for judge of election, Magnus Duck; inspector, Orvis Beatty; assessor, Ed. Jamison. East precinct, judge of election, Harry Weaver; inspector, D. F. Heckman, assessor, John Eckel.

The Reformed Sunday school purchased a beautiful new organ from C. E. Zeigler; James Osman bought the old one.

T. B. Jamison and wife are in Ohio where their son Harry is sick with kidney disease.

ZION.

Two of our teachers, Alma Stein and Alice Robison, spent Sunday with their parents at this place.

Horace Robison is kept home by a very bad cold.

Fanny Stein, who visited friends and relatives in Jersey Shore, came home on Saturday evening.

On Friday Mrs. Wm. Smith wrenched her ankle so badly that it will keep her in the house for several weeks.

Mrs. George Homan and her daughter, Mrs. Alvan Corl, of Ferguson, visited friends at Zion, on Sunday.

Mrs. Lot Struble, of Mill Hill, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Julia Showers.

L. W. Musser, a traveling salesman, for the Beechnut Packing Co., spent Sunday with his family.

C. N. Fisher expects to sell swings for Yeager Bros., of Bellefonte, next summer.

John Long, who is working on a saw-mill, near Beech Creek, spent Sunday with his daughter, Keturah.

Last week one day Isaac Stover's horse ran away while hitched to a buggy and tore the harness and broke the shafts.

If it takes three men to drive one calf, how many men will it take to drive a cow? Frank, answer.

On Saturday evening some one thought there must be a storm in John Royer's house, but it was only the democrats holding their caucus.

Next Sunday the Lutherans expect to hold communion services.

MILESBERG.

The Misses Gregg have gone to Lewis-town to spend the balance of the winter with their cousin, Mrs. Loomis.

Hannah Green has gone to Altoona to spend a couple of months with friends.

Mrs. Sarah Wilson is visiting her sister Mrs. Brothelau, of Hollidaysburg.

Mrs. F. H. Haupt has returned home after attending the funeral of A. M. McClain, of Ridgway.

NITTANY.

Mrs. Carrie Sweely, of Oak Grove, who visited her mother and many friends here recently, has returned home.

Quite a number of our peopledattended Whitman's sale at Hublersburg on Saturday.

George McCawley and Dave Crayor, of Hublersburg, visited friends here on Sunday.

Quite a number of our young ladies and gentlemen who were visiting on Sunday were missed very much in Sunday school.

There were quite a number of visitors from a distance in our Sunday school on Sunday. Come again.

George Sittler, of Georgesvalley, visited friends here over Sunday.

The democrats held their caucus meeting last Friday night while the republicans held theirs on Saturday. Both parties nominated some good men. So let every voter turn out on election day and do his duty.

A number of our young gents attended auction at Emert's store, at Lamar, on Saturday night.

Old Mr. Allen is spending some time with his daughter, Mrs. O. V. Yarnell at this place.

John Watson and Miss Penina Shields, of Lamar, visited friends here on Sunday.

We noticed Charley Heltman, of Fishing Creek, in our Sunday school on Sunday in company with Clyde Swartz.

The Misses Rosa and Ida Sheats and Annie Minnick were to Millheim recently and report having a good time.

Most of our sick people around here are on the mend.

AARONSBURG.

Tom Meyers and family, of Coburn, spent the Sabbath with Clymer Stover's.

E. R. Wolfe and Tom Stover were the guests, of Oliver Wolfe's at Wolf's Store, on Saturday.

Lizzie Condo has gone to visit her brother Harry, at York, Pa.

Mrs. Caroline Mayes is spending a few weeks with her daughter Alice in New York city.

Miss Blanche Weaver returned home after a few months' stay with friends at State College.

Harry Sauters, of State College, was the welcome guest of Miss Hettie Small over Sunday.

Miss Kathryn Bower has returned home after spending the greater part of a year with friends in Williamsport.

The Misses Carrie Weaver, Lisle Acker and Miriam Keister were the guests of Mr. Keister's, at Woodward, on Sunday.

Albert Mingle, of Bellefonte, and Wm. Mingle, of Centre Hall, made a business trip to our town one day last week.

Wm. Bare and wife and Mrs. Fullmer, of Rebersburg, were guests of Jesse Wert's on Monday.

MARTHA.

Jasper Williams, of Lakemont, and Mr. young, of Hollidaysburg, were down here looking at a tract of timber last week which Mr. Williams has interest in.

Mattie Williams attended the funeral of Miss Meyer at Milesburg last week.

The roads were so bad last week that the mail carrier could not make his trip all around in a day.

Sam'l Steele and daughter are visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Nannie Turner, of Port, was sewing at the home of W. M. Cronister last week.

D. J. Gingery has been spending a few days in Jersey Shore.

Prof. D. O. Eppers was a caller at the Sugar Grove school last Friday.

Mrs. J. P. Stiver is on the sick list.

Mrs. Keating, of Philipsburg, was a visitor at the home of Mrs. John Gingery last week.

Samuel Richards is still in a very bad condition, as blood poison has set in, but we hope he will soon get better.

WINGATE.

Edgar Fisher, wife and little daughter Edna, Sundayed at the home of grandma Fisher, who is very ill.

Geo. Rackark, of Altoona, accompanied by Miss Helen Davidson spent Sunday at the home of Joseph Davidson.

James Haines, wife and little son Earl returned to their home in Youngwood after a week's visit with relatives and friends in this place.

Mr. Harnish is slowly improving. Edward Mitchell is very poorly.

LITTLE POCKET PHYSICIAN.

Hyomei Inhaler that is Guaranteed by S Krumrine to Cure Catarrh.

Thousands who have been cured by Hyomei, call the inhaler that comes with every outfit "The little pocket physician," as it is so small that it can be carried in the pocket or purse.

YARNELL.

Protracted meeting is still in progress. Miss Ethel Woomeer spent Saturday at Snow Shoe.

J. Edw. Confer and wife spent Sunday with friends on Upper Moose Run.

John Fowler and mother, Mrs. Wm. Fowler, of Blanchard, Sundayed at Jerome Confer's.

Miss Ida Sliker, of Milesburg, spent part of last week with Fannie Confer.

Miss Viola Kline, of Bellefonte, visited over Sunday at her home at this place.

Messrs. John Walters, Arthur Confer and Armour Heaton, of Milesburg, were visitors at this place, last week.

Herbert Pownell, of Altoona, is a pleasant visitor at the home of Mrs. Nettie Pownell.

Edw. Coakley attended the entertainment held at Runville, Friday evening of last week.

Messrs. Toner Fetzer and Harry Shawley, two highly esteemed young men of this place, who are employed at Altoona, are home for a week's visit with their many friends.

Misses Alma Stein and Louise Spangler visited over Sunday at their homes in Zion and Bellefonte.

Miles Heaton and family have moved to Hayes Run, where he is employed. Sorry to lose our good citizens.

The little daughter of Wm. Poorman, who has been seriously ill, is recovering.

J. E. Rickard has closed his school for two weeks on account of diphtheria. He has been teaching the Holt's Hollow school.

Wm. Shawley transacted business at Howard one day last week.

Oscar Fetzer, our obliging mail carrier and stage driver, has been obliged to abandon his wagon for a few days on account of the lameness of his horse.

Miss Libbie Shay has returned to her home at Milesburg, after an extended visit with her aunt, Mrs. Ira Packer.

Thomas Walker, who is employed at State College, spent Saturday and Sunday at his home here.

Miss Delphia Woomeer, of Pleasant Valley, was a visitor at this place last week.

Some of our young people attended the spelling school held at Fairview one night last week.

Mrs. Wm. Woomeer, of Pleasant Valley, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Rickard and Mrs. D. W. Boyer, at this place.

WALKER.

I wonder what has become of our scribe, we have not heard from him for a long time.

Parents Day exercises were held at the school house Friday afternoon.

Miss Gertrude Kling is on the sick list, also Mae Royer.

John Yearick lost a valuable horse last week.

Harry Harter is all smiles since the arrival of that bouncing boy.

Miss Kathryn Kling is visiting friends in Altoona.

There is a new blacksmith in our town give him a trial.

Harry Strunk's moved into their new home on Thursday.

Miss Ruth Holmes entertained a crowd of young folks last Thursday evening, all had a nice time.

Enos Ertley is nursing a sore leg. Miss Pearl Royer spent Sunday in Bellefonte.

The lecture in the Ev. church Friday night was largely attended.

Fritz, you had better watch yourself or someone will get after you for taking his girl home.

The Misses Lulu Vonada and Ulusodie Ertley have returned home after spending two weeks in Altoona.

MT. EAGLE.

Miss Kate Harvey, of State College, spent Sunday with her friend Tracie Leathers's.

Mrs. McEen, of Roland, visited at the home of Mrs. Eliza Leathers's.

Wm. Gates, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting his parent's at this place.

Earl Leathers spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Etta R. Leathers.

Milford Lucas, who has been ill for sometime, is somewhat better.

Miss Pearl Gates gave a party in honor of her brother William on Saturday eve; all report a good time.

Miss Bessie Fetzer, of Runville, is visiting her sister Mrs. E. E. Heverley.

Miss Ella Leathers and George Hiram spent Sunday with friends at Lock Haven.

LINDEN HALL.

Elmer Ross, wife and daughter Edith, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of J. H. Ross.

Mr. Mays and wife, of Millheim, spent a few days at the home of J. L. Tressler, recently.

Quite a number of our town folks attended the funeral of Marian Murry, of Boalsburg.

James M. Ross went to Altoona on a business trip.

Jacob Kettner and sister, from near Woodward, took a pleasure trip to Altoona and stopped at this place on their way home.

Mrs. John Diehl and son Earl, spent Saturday at Tusseyville.

Maddie Gingerich plied her needle at the Carper and Wieland homes.

Rev. Sechrist was a pleasant caller through our vicinity.

Mrs. William Bible, of Bellefonte, visited at the home of James Swabb.

The man who makes his money in trade is sneered at by the man who marries it.

—For a cough or cold take Krumrine's Compound Syrup of Tar—cures in one day.

OAK HALL.

Mrs. Henry Homan and children, of Centre Hall, visited at the home of B. F. Homan last week.

Ezra Truessler and wife, of Rock Springs visited in our vicinity last week.

Misses Ella and Kathryn Dale and Mrs. N. J. Rishel, have been on the sick list.

Arthur Rothrock a student of State College, visited at the home of Daniel Lowder over Sunday.

John From and wife, of State College, visited at the home of Mrs. Peters, on Saturday.

Messrs. James Peters and Frank Fishburn, of Rock Springs, transacted business in town on Friday.

A young daughter arrived at the home of Chatmer Houts, recently.

Mrs. Newton Miller, of Altoona, returned to her home on Monday.

The C. E. S. of the Boalsburg Lutheran church will hold a festival in the town hall, at that place on February 17.

Samuel Reitz visited with his friend, Anna Bohn, over Sunday.

Messrs. Gray, Guisewite and McGowan, of Bellefonte, were callers at the Wagner home on Sunday afternoon.

David Johnstonbaugh moved into the vacant house owned by Edward Sellers.

Messrs. Clayton Eppers and N. J. Rishel, transacted business in Bellefonte on Friday.

Quite a number of our young people attended the funeral of Miss Marion Murray at Boalsburg, last Thursday.

Mrs. John Musser and daughter Mrs. Milton Krebs, of Pine Grove, spent Saturday at the home of P. S. Dale.

BEECH CREEK.

The weather is not so pleasant as it had been last week, and the mud seems to be decreasing.

Quite a number attended the serenading of Evely Linn and bride last Friday evening.

Some of the men from around here who are working in the day mines at Monument say they heard the little frogs last week.

Anyone who wishes to be cured of rheumatism should go to Dr. Tibbens, Jr., of this town, who claims he can cure the horrible disease.

Master Max Mosher, of Lock Haven, visited at the home of Wm. Bridgens.

Quite a number of bluebirds have been seen around here also a robin occasionally.

The roads were so muddy last week that the mail carrier had to drive two horses instead of one as he has always been doing.

It will not be many days until the mail will be full of valentines, both comical and sentimental.

The wood cutting must have been a grand affair, as there were only seven present.

Charles Heimer and wife, of Blanchard, passed through this place last Saturday afternoon.

Two of the gentlemen who were working on the saw mill on Wm. Batschlets property passed through here on their homeward journey last Saturday morning, one being their teamster Mr. Smith and the other their setter Mr. Moyer.

TYLERSVILLE.

Mrs. Arthur Herlacher, daughter Miriam and master Ray Greninger, of Loganton, visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

W. H. Caris and Howard made a trip to Millheim on Thursday.

Miss Rosa Ruhl, who is going to school at Greenburr, made a visit to this village a few days last week.

On Thursday evening a group of young ladies and gentlemen met at Adam Walker's and spent the evening in social games.

N. H. Rishel left for Freeport the beginning of this week. He intends to visit his sons who are working there.

Irvin Harry, of Mill Hall, was a visitor here a day or so last week.

Miss Airie Albright, of near Loganton, is visiting her grandparents.

Harry Greninger, who has been working in Bald Eagle valley, is circulating among friends here.

POTTERS MILLS.

Frank McCoy is home from Philadelphia.

Harvey Wilkinson spent Saturday and Sunday in Reedsville.

James Durst and wife have returned home from a trip to Pittsburg and other places, visiting their daughter, Mrs. Harry Harper.

Mr. Mingle deserves much credit for the way he conducts his school at this place; he is well thought of by all his scholars.

Harry Durst is able to be about again.

John Blausner, wife and baby left for Millfill county where they will spend a few days.

Miss Ella Smith is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. G. D. Wagner.

PINE GLENN.

Rev. W. S. Jones went to Baltimore on Wednesday to accompany his wife and little son, who have been visiting in that city for some weeks, home to this place.

Dr. H. E. Lippitt, of Altoona, and Jefferson Woodland, of Keewaydin, transacted business in Pine Glenn on Saturday. Dr. Lippitt is a prominent optician and while here fitted some of our citizens with proper eyeglasses.

Miss Lavina Force is seriously ill at this writing.

Wm. and Harry Hipple, of Baltimore, arrived on Monday for a ten days visit with their parents, Wm. Hipple's of this place.

N. Vallimont transacted business in Snow Shoe on Wednesday.

Wm. Watson, postmaster at this place, spent part of the week attending court at Bellefonte as a juror. Miss Blanche Daugherty had charge of the postoffice during his absence.

Mabel Meeker, who has been employed in Baltimore for several months, is visiting her parents here.

Mrs. Wm. Hipple met with a serious accident while out driving with her son Charles on Sunday. Their horse became frightened at some paper, and in jumping from the buggy Mrs. Hipple injured her knee in such a manner that she has been confined to her bed ever since. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. Geo. Conway has been on the sick list.

H. S. Hoover is ill with measles, also Miss Hazel Lewis.

Messrs. Williamson and Viehdorfer, of Moshannon, attended Epworth League here on Sunday evening.

A number of our young people attended the local institute at Karthaus, Friday and Saturday.

Foster Reichley, of Jersey Shore, is visiting at the home of M. Meeker.

SALONA.

Miss Edna Shaffer spent a few days last week with her aunt in Lock Haven.

Mrs. Sam Brungard spent Sunday with her mother Mrs. Dan Bower, at Rote.

Sam'l Shoemaker purchased a very fine cow from Joseph Gummo.

Harvey Pifer spent a day with Sam Boob last week.

Mrs. Joseph Gummo had a quilting last week which was attended by many friends.

Miss Laura Barner started to school on Monday; the scholars haven't been vaccinated nor have any of them taken the smallpox. The school is getting along finely.

Miss Ida Shaffer, who has been at home on a vacation, left Monday for Woolrich where she is employed in the woolen factory.

Quite a number of the farmers here belong to the grange and had a supper last Saturday evening.

Stiff neck must be all the go now; first Mrs. Wm. Jones, then her son Harry, and now Charles Walkey is afflicted with the same trouble.

Irvin Bower and wife Sundayed with Levi Dresses.

SMULLTON.

Thomas Waite, who has been spending several weeks with friends and relatives here, returned to his home in Ohio.

Clarence Hackenbun and sister Lotie Stover were to Aaronsburg on Sunday to visit their sister, Mrs. Musser.

John Steyers and wife made a trip to Union county.

T. D. Stover sold a valuable horse to Victor Brungart last week.

Charles Shaffer and mother, of Madisonburg, were business callers at Adam Greninger's on Monday.

The infant daughter of C. B. Mallory was seriously ill last week.

Miss Gertrude Yearick, who had been nursing her sister Mrs. Brungart the past week, returned home.

Ruben Small spent last week in Bellefonte as a juror.

Wounds

and sores of any kind, caused by any kind of accident, cuts, burns, scalds, bruises, sprains, etc., are best treated by the immediate application of

HAMLINS WIZARD OIL

This great, soothing, curative remedy relieves pain, reduces swelling and inflammation, and heals up all open wounds and sores. It is the one perfect, modern dressing, or treatment, for a wound. Its quick use will positively prevent blood poisoning. Always keep it at hand.

Says Mrs. Jessie Farris, of Elizabethtown, Ky.: "My little boy was badly burned on both legs, which were so drawn out of shape that he could not even crawl. I tried many remedies without relief, but finally Hamlins Wizard Oil made a perfect cure, and he can now walk and run. We thought we should have to amputate both his legs, and feel that Hamlins Wizard Oil saved his life." Price 50c and $1.00.

Sold and recommended by C. M. Parrish.