

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

Our streets are on the run again. Consult us when in need of job printing. Borough election comes on Tuesday, February 20th.

"Two Little Waifs" at the opera this Thursday evening. Charles P. Hewes, Esq., of Erie, is a business visitor in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Garman, of Philadelphia, attended the funeral of Mrs. Wm. Smith. When sale bills are printed at this office, free advertisement of same is given in our Sale Register.

George Harris, who was ill with typhoid fever in the Bellefonte hospital the past couple months is around again looking fairly well, considering the long siege he had of it.

The McSuley Brothers placed in the corridor of the Court House a new directory containing the names of the attorneys at the Centre county bar. It is a neat piece of work.

George P. Miller, of Linden Hall, will be ninety-one years old next month. He is a well preserved man, and is reported by his son, George Miller, with whom he makes his home, to be in very fair health.

Wade Cruse, who had been living at Swissvale, Pa., the past year, where he was employed with the Westinghouse company, has returned to Bellefonte, to recuperate his health.

Work on the construction of a bridge at Hubbarth's fording mill at Beech Creek will be begun as early as possible in the spring, the commissioners of Clinton county having agreed to assume one-half of the expense with Centre county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Decker have decided to change their place of residence from Bellefonte to Williamsport. They have closed their house on Bishop street and in March will move their furniture and take up their residence in the lumber city.

Postmaster John Gowland, of Philipsburg, has just received official notice from Washington to the effect that free delivery has been granted to South Philipsburg borough. It will require a couple of weeks to get things in shape to put in operation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Decker have decided to change their place of residence from Bellefonte to Williamsport. They have closed their house on Bishop street and in March will move their furniture and take up their residence in the lumber city.

John S. Borrell, son of William Borrell, of East Nittany valley, went to Philadelphia on Friday, accompanied by Dr. J. M. Dumm, of Mackeyville, and entered the German hospital to undergo an operation for a disease of the bone of the lower jaw.

Recent callers: Harris Clark, Fleming; Samuel Campbell, Millheim; W. H. Lytle, Loveville; S. J. Clevenstine, Zion; J. W. Tolbert, D. O. Dorman, W. E. Garbrick, all of Nittany; G. W. Taylor, State College; W. H. Kaufman, Nittany; moves to Lamar; H. E. Corman, Zion; George Dale, Pleasant Gap; E. B. Poorman, Zion; Frank Wm, Bellefonte; C. P. Miller, Punxsutawney; N. H. Johnson, Blanchard; James Searson, Linden Hall; W. C. Walker, Bellefonte; James Mackey, Zion; A. R. Price, Hannah.

There are twenty-one working days for the bankers in the month of February. Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays and election day are holidays with the men who handle our money.

OVER THE COUNTY.

The new State College hotel is rented to W. H. Housel, who will probably open it up to the public on or before April 1st.

Jas. B. Stroh, teacher of the Centre Hall grammar school, has been sick for the past week with a severe cold and unable to fill his place.

Bowling-alleys are being constructed in the basement of the new hotel building, at State College by Knisely Brothers, in connection with their new billiard room.

Monday evening a temperance rally was held in the Disciple church at Blanchard to oppose the application of Charles F. Bechdel for tavern liquor license at that place.

The Christian Endeavor Union of the Milesburg Presbyterian church will hold a penny social at the home of Mrs. Albert N. Bierly, Tuesday, February 20th.

The formal dedicatory exercises of the new Y. M. C. A. building were held in the Presbyterian church last Friday evening and the large room was filled.

Rev. F. E. Lauffer, pastor of the Aaronsburg Reformed church, has accepted a call from the Martinsburg, Blair county, charge and will leave for that place about April 1st.

The principal address was made by Robt. E. Speer, who occupied the pulpit here some years ago while Dr. Laurie was on a vacation abroad.

George Gutelius, a lineman in the employ of the United telephone company, while working on the line in Ferguson township, fell from a pole, last week and was badly, though not fatally hurt.

Special effort is now being made to secure needed furnishings for the various departments, and thus far many valuable contributions have been made.

Philip Bradford has been transferred from the Linden Hall station to Lemont to succeed I. J. Dresse, recently resigned and Jacob C. Lee has been transferred from Milton, where he was an assistant, to the Linden Hall station.

Seventy-six children are now being cared for in the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home, near Sunbury.

Supper will be served in the old post-office room, Milesburg, Pa., on Saturday evening, Feb. 17, 1906, from 5 o'clock; also ice cream and cake. All are invited to attend. Proceeds for the benefit of Pastor of the U. Evangelical church.

A Wilkesbarre priest claims to have invented a device for carrying messages underground. That is equal to wireless.

Frank Rittenhouse and David C. Dewey, of Philipsburg, have enlisted in the United States Marine corps and left with several others for Norfolk, Va., where they will be mustered into active service in the navy yard at that place.

It is proposed to change the course of the Juniata river between Mt. Union and Ride. A channel sixty feet deep will be excavated parallel with the present Pennsylvania railroad bed.

A new shirt factory will be another enterprise added to Philipsburg's industries in the spring. Prominent New York shirt manufacturers, who own and operate a dozen other plants, in various parts of the country, are at the head of the enterprise.

Forestry experts have recommended the planting of 1500 acres of commercially valuable trees to reclaim denuded lands in Wayne county. The trees declared suitable in that locality are chestnut, red pine, red oak and European larch.

The small snowfall and little rain this winter revive talk by old-time Pennsylvanians of the season of 1824, which followed just such a winter as this, when the Susquehanna River dried up and it was possible to walk across its arid bed at almost any place.

After an illness of less than a week Charles Hughes, of Veagertown, Mifflin county, died Friday morning, Sunday a week a small boil appeared on the back of his neck, the office of the Clerk of the Court in Snyder county. This is the first time such a state of affairs has existed in that county.

Samuel morning Mrs. Ann Gill, wife of Samuel Gill, died at her home in Altoona, of a complication of diseases, superinduced by old age. Deceased was born near Pennsylvania Furnace on August 30, 1835, her maiden name being Ann Singleton. She was married to Samuel Gill fifty five years ago. She was a member of the Evangelical church and was esteemed by a wide circle of friends. She is survived by her husband and four children.

Men's good solid working shoes, $1.19. Ladies' long Jersey leggings, 49c. Baby shoes, 7c. Ladies' $1.75 shoes, $1.19. Men's $4 Russian calf shoes $2.29. G. W. Grove's Shoe Sale, Bellefonte, Pa.

Sanford D. Miller, of Altoona, and Miss Emma S. Price of Port Matilda, were married on Thursday evening 6, at the parsonage of the Chestnut avenue Methodist church, Altoona, by Rev. J. K. Lloyd. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Lytle and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Marta. After the ceremony the happy couple and their attendants repaired to the residence of Mr. Lytle, 1114 Eighth avenue, where a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Miller reside in Altoona. Mr. Miller is a typo by trade, and a native of Millheim.

Men's good solid working shoes, $1.19. Ladies' long Jersey leggings, 49c. Baby shoes, 7c. Ladies' $1.75 shoes, $1.19. Men's $4 Russian calf shoes $2.29. G. W. Grove's Shoe Sale, Bellefonte, Pa.

Public sales are about to open up there will be many as will be observed from the Centre Democrat's sale register. The sales will come off thickest all through March, and are mostly for a selling off of farm stock, horses, cattle, machinery, implements, and in some cases household goods. It is believed all will bring fair prices this spring. Many farmers will quit and new ones will start in to take their places at the plow, harrow, planting and harvesting. At present the wheat fields have a promising outlook.

Men's good solid working shoes, $1.19. Ladies' long Jersey leggings, 49c. Baby shoes, 7c. Ladies' $1.75 shoes, $1.19. Men's $4 Russian calf shoes $2.29. G. W. Grove's Shoe Sale, Bellefonte, Pa.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. GEORGE FORTNEY—died Friday morning, aged 71 years, at the home of her daughter Mrs. Annie Patterson in Boalsburg. Six sons and two daughters survive her, as does one brother and two sisters. Interment at Boalsburg Monday.

GEORGE W. HOY—died Saturday morning at his home in Pine Hall, aged about 40 years. He had been a sufferer for a number of years with bronchial trouble. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Albert Hoy, his wife, eight children, five sons and three daughters, also five brothers and a sister. Interment at Pine Grove cemetery Monday.

Mrs. Wm. SMITH—died at the Hayes sanitarium, last Thursday. A couple days before Christmas she was taken suddenly ill while visiting her mother's home in Bellefonte. Deceased was a daughter of the late Hamilton and Mrs. Martha A. Otto and was twenty-five years of age. In October, 1900, she was united in marriage to Will H. Smith. For three years past they resided in Johnstown. In addition to her husband and two children she leaves her mother, two brothers, Morris H. and Harry D., and two sisters, Mabel and Helen.

"My Wife's Family," which comes to the opera house Tuesday, February 20th, abounds with pretty songs, witty comedy, original singing and dance numbers and contains all the spicy essentials for a most enjoyable evening's entertainment.

There are twenty-one working days for the bankers in the month of February. Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays and election day are holidays with the men who handle our money.

Y. M. C. A. DEDICATION.

The formal dedicatory exercises of the new Y. M. C. A. building were held in the Presbyterian church last Friday evening and the large room was filled. General Beaver presided over the meeting while seated on the platform were ministers of the town, former secretary L. B. Hindman and Robert E. Speer, of New York, while a choir of male voices rendered some choice music. Gen. Beaver reviewed the history of the organization and took occasion to compliment the work of Secretary Hindman and the generosity of F. W. Crider and C. T. Gerberich which made a Y. M. C. A. building possible. The total cost of the Y. M. C. A. Building, equipments and all has been $21,612.00. There is a $5,000 mortgage on the building and a debt of $3,015.82. It is estimated that it will cost $3000 a year to run it. The receipts from various sources will be about $1500.00 a year.

The principal address was made by Robt. E. Speer, who occupied the pulpit here some years ago while Dr. Laurie was on a vacation abroad. Mr. Hindman followed and spoke with much satisfaction in knowing that the labors of several years now had been realized in the completion of the splendid building with the modern gymnasium. He closed by stating that he would refurbish the reading room entirely at his expense. After the meeting many took the opportunity to inspect the new building.

Special effort is now being made to secure needed furnishings for the various departments, and thus far many valuable contributions have been made.

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

Seventy-six children are now being cared for in the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home, near Sunbury.

A Wilkesbarre priest claims to have invented a device for carrying messages underground. That is equal to wireless.

Forestry experts have recommended the planting of 1500 acres of commercially valuable trees to reclaim denuded lands in Wayne county. The trees declared suitable in that locality are chestnut, red pine, red oak and European larch.

After an illness of less than a week Charles Hughes, of Veagertown, Mifflin county, died Friday morning, Sunday a week a small boil appeared on the back of his neck, the office of the Clerk of the Court in Snyder county. This is the first time such a state of affairs has existed in that county.

Men's good solid working shoes, $1.19. Ladies' long Jersey leggings, 49c. Baby shoes, 7c. Ladies' $1.75 shoes, $1.19. Men's $4 Russian calf shoes $2.29. G. W. Grove's Shoe Sale, Bellefonte, Pa.

Men's good solid working shoes, $1.19. Ladies' long Jersey leggings, 49c. Baby shoes, 7c. Ladies' $1.75 shoes, $1.19. Men's $4 Russian calf shoes $2.29. G. W. Grove's Shoe Sale, Bellefonte, Pa.

Men's good solid working shoes, $1.19. Ladies' long Jersey leggings, 49c. Baby shoes, 7c. Ladies' $1.75 shoes, $1.19. Men's $4 Russian calf shoes $2.29. G. W. Grove's Shoe Sale, Bellefonte, Pa.

Buckwheat Cakes made with Royal Baking Powder

Are delicious and wholesome—a perfect cold weather breakfast food. Made in the morning; no yeast, no "setting" over night; never sour, never cause indigestion. To make a perfect buckwheat cake, and a thousand other dainty dishes, see the "Royal Baker and Pastry Cook." Mailed free to any address.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

- Geo. Ingram Kyle - Wheeling, W Va
Lillian K. Gorman - Pittsburg
E. J. Harrington - Phillipsburg
Emma Smith - "
Herbert J. Way - Fleming
Lona B. Brower - "
John W. Meyers - Phillipsburg
Lulu May Craven - "
Robert Reese - Hannah
Maud B. Fink - "
Elmer S. Lowder - Oak Hall
Florence Kline - Linden Hall

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

- Charles Heiner et ux to John B. Miller, Feb. 9, 1906; 45 acres 110 perches in Liberty twp. $300.
J. B. Irish et ux to Mike Stair, Jan. 15, 1906; lot in Rush twp. $120.
Harvey Mann et ux to Chas. Chapman, Feb. 10, 1906; lot in Curtin twp. $100.
Emanuel Harter et ux to George I. Yearick, Dec. 19, 1905; house and lot in West Rebersburg. $1,505.
Mrs. Mary Moyer to Mrs. S. A. Close, Feb. 9, 1906; house and lot in Oak Hall. $125.
Charles Sevis et ux to T. A. Ardell, April 2, 1903; 433 acres 163 perches in Husten twp. $606.69.

- Men's first quality Rubber Boots, $2.85.
Men's snag-proof Lumberman Gums, lace $1.59.
Men's Rolled Edge artics, $1.19.
Men's Felt-Boots 90c.
G. W. Grove's Shoe Sale, Bellefonte, Pa.

A TEST.

Sold Hyomei for Years and Know it Will Cure Catarrh.

S. Krumrine has given Hyomei a most thorough and remarkable test. For a long time he has offered to refund the money to any purchaser of Hyomei, if it failed to benefit. The remedy has made so many cures among his customers that he has urged its use in the most chronic cases of catarrh.

Compare this small expense with fees charged by specialists, and remember, too, if Hyomei does not cure, S. Krumrine will return your money.

Weather Report.

Table with columns: DATE, TEMPERATURE (Maximum, Minimum). Rows for Feb. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14.

Normal.

Boalsburg Normal and Preparatory School.—The spring term of this school will open in the High school room, Monday, April 16th, and continue eight weeks. Classes will be formed to meet especially the needs of teachers and those preparing to teach. The higher branches will also be taught. Boarding may be procured at very reasonable rates. For further information, address: H. C. ROTHROCK, Principal.

PENNY A WORD ADV.

Advertisements less than 25 words, from sub-scribers, one issue free. Additional issues 25 cents. Rate to others, penny-a-word for each issue.

FOR SALE—good fresh cow and 5 shoats. Apply to Ira C. Korman, State College.

NOTICE—after April 1st, 1906, the Centre Democrat and Tribune Farmer will cost $1.10.

FOR SALE—pure bred Buff Leghorns, and eggs for hatching. B. C. Dotter, Mill Hill, R. F. D. 215.

MONEY TO LOAN—$1000 on good real estate security. Sum will not be divided. D. F. Fortney.

FOR SALE—day train 30 years old, weight 325 lbs, 1000 lbs, 1000 lbs.

WANTED—one half dozen wood choppers, to cut chemical wood—50 cents per cord—car measure. Chas. Higger Pleasant Gap.

WANTED—Two regular boarders, in private family. Inquire of J. F. Garthoff, Reynolds avenue, Bellefonte. 17

MONEY WANTED—$10,000 on gilt edge real estate security. Thos. J. Sexton, A. H. J. at Law, Rooms 6 and 7 Eagle Block, Bellefonte, Pa.

FARM FOR RENT—1/2 mile east of Centre Hill formerly known as the Henry Royer farm. Inquire of Edith E. Royer, Spring Mills or J. F. Royer Madisonburg, Pa.

FOR SALE OR RENT—Fruit and poultry farm. 123 acres, good buildings, running water at the house, 111 kinds of fruit, and 2 poultry houses 12x22. E. C. Wagner, Tusseyville, Pa.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—New piano in mahogany case for a good horse, colts, or cattle, or for white pine or chestnut shingles. Address Box 22, Tylersville, Clinton Co. 219

WANTED—twenty five girls to pack matches. For the first two weeks beginners paid $1 per week and all they earn. Apply at the Matchery from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. The Pennsylvania Match Company. 27

FARM FOR SALE—located in Marion Twp known as the Jacob Harter farm; 140 acres, limestone soil under cultivation, with good buildings, and excellent spring water; all adjoining this 100 acres of timberland. Inquire of Geo. Garbrick, Ex., Bellefonte, Pa.

FARM FOR SALE—located in Liberty twp., 2 miles north of Blanchard, containing 114 acres, 75 under cultivation. Good dwelling, new large barn, choice fruit, apple water all house and barn, located conveniently to churches and schools. Apply to David Robb, Blanchard. 29

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Bellefonte—Produce.

The following prices prevailed Thursday morning.

The following prices are paid by SEULER & Co. for produce:

Table with columns: Item, Price. Rows for Eggs, Lard, Butter, Shoulder, Potatoes, Apples.

Bellefonte—Grain.

The following prices are paid by C. Y. WAGNER for grain:

Table with columns: Item, Price. Rows for Wheat, Wheat new, Oats, Barley, Rye, Corn Shelled, Corn new.

Coburn Markets.

Table with columns: Item, Price. Rows for Butter, Eggs, Hops, Shoulder, Bacon, Potatoes, Apples.

Lock Haven Markets.

Table with columns: Item, Price. Rows for Butter, Eggs, Cabbage, Chickens, Potatoes, Apples, Onions, Turnips, Parsnips.

WORKMAN'S Bargain House. New Store in the McBride Building. 30-32 SOUTH ALLECHENY ST. As this is the last week for our Sale, come early and secure your bargains. Remember the right place in the McBride Building, South Allegheny St., BELLEFONTE, PA.