PENN TWP.

The young people of Spring Mills and vicinity met at the school house at Spring Mills on Tuesday and organized "The Penn Literary Society." The following officers were elected: President, S. G. Walker; vice president, M. T. Zabler; secretary, W. S. Rossman; treasurer, John Foreman; critic, C. R. Stover; sergeant at arms, Bruce McCormick; door keeper, Ralph Shook; program committee, W. S. Rossman, Samuel Leitzell, Ella Condo, John Foreman and Chas. M. Smith were chosen to draw up a constitution. The first regular meeting was held on Friday evening, in the school house, a fair sized and interested crowd was present. Program as follows: "The American Indian," by John Foreman. Next was a debate, the question for debate was, "Resolved, that the Indians were treated worse by the government than the negroes." John Foreman and Chas. M. Smith composed the affirmative side and S. Walker and C. Reno Stover the negative. (The negative side won.) Next was a piece of select reading by Samuel Leitzell, subject, "Peck's bad boy." Next was a recitation by Eugene Allison, subject, "The trials of a school mistress." The next and last was a piece of select reading by Bruce McCormick, subject, "A slow train through Arkansas." The next session will be held in the school house, Friday evening. Subject for debate, "Resolved, that women are intellectually superior to men." Clara Condo and M. T. Zabler compose the affirmative and S. G. Walker and Rufus Finkle the negative. The public in general is invited to attend and aid to make it a success.

Elmer Bowersox was visiting at William Stover's and old friends in this community the past week.

W. H. Bailey and family were visiting at Foster Bower's in Aaronsburg, Sunday.

Perry Deobler and family, from Smithtown, spent one evening last week very pleasantly at the home of C. H. Pressler.

Preaching at the Salem church, Sunday at 10 o'clock.

GREENBURR.

Wm. Sheats, who is employed at Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents and many friends.

Miss Carrie Kahl will leave for Lock Haven on Tuesday.

Frank Wolf and daughter Sallie, from Milton, were the guests of N. D. Tyson's, over Sunday.

While on her way to Sunday school on Sunday morning Mrs. Amanda Jones had a very bad fall; no bones were broken, but bruised her face and arm badly.

There is a very good opening in our town for a blacksmith.

Mrs. A. N. Sheats, who for the past two weeks was nursing her daughter at Pittsburg, returned home last week.

FOWLER.

Mrs. Wm. Lego spent a few days with her sisters, Mrs. Lewis Woomer and Mrs. James Rorabough.

Mrs. Albert Newman was filling a lamp when it exploded and burned her very badly about the hands and face, but she is much better at this writing.

Protracted meeting closed at Hannah last Tuesday eve.

Elizabeth Hoover, one of our school teachers, spent a few days with her parents at Fillmore.

Walter Richards, who has been working at Pittsburg, has returned home.

Edgar, when you find a friend that is faithful and true, always take back the old and give up the new.

An airship may be no good on earth and still fly.

UNIONVILLE.

And now its 'Squire Erhart.

S. K. Emerick is now considered one of the best auctioneers in the county. When Sammy "knocks down" a horse or cow to you you can bet your boots you are paying full price for same.

It is reported that Clifford Calhoun has joined the Baptists. At all events he was immersed in the Bald Eagle creek a few days ago.

Roy Peters, son of landlord W. A. Peters, has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., and will go from thence to California where he will engage in gold mining and as soon as he secures about two bushels gold dust will return home and go into the poultry business.

Miss Minnie Senser, teacher of the Mount Pleasant school, has the enviable reputation of having one of the most orderly and successful schools in the county. I always thought Minn would get there.

Rev. Isaac Wilson, of Bloomfield, Canada, preached an interesting sermon at each of the meetings at the Friends church at this place on last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Brugger left on Tuesday for Lake Helen, Florida, where she will be the guest of her friend Miss Margaret Bottorf, for an indefinite length of time.

Miss Minnie Lipton is seriously ill at her home across the creek.

Miss Alice Buck, teacher of the Unionville grammar school, has her school under perfect control. She is a strict disciplinarian, an earnest and energetic instructor and in visiting her school the other day, we were pleasantly impressed with the splendid order and studiousness that prevailed.

Landlord Wm. A. Peters is tearing down and building greater. He razed the single porch and in its stead will build a double one which will add greatly to the appearance of the Peter's House.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Potter left for Wilkesbarre on Monday being called there on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Potter's sister, Mrs. J. J. Colver, who is not expected to survive.

Three years old Walter Holt suffered so much from tooth ache that he had to have three molars drawn.

Mrs. Annie E. Stere thought it prudent to stop taking the Centre Democrat at least for a time, and what do you think happened? Listen! Her bread wouldn't rise; her buckwheat cakes were sour; two of her best hens stopped laying; her granddaughter had a notion to elope; she put pepper in her pumpkin pies instead of cinnamon; the mother on her wregar died; she lost her spectacles; Joe tramped on her silver thimble and flattened it; broke three sewing machine needles in one day; and many other things too numerous to mention. This is warning to all subscribers to the Centre Democrat. Don't stop your paper.

A very pretty home wedding took place at the home of William Brower in Union township on last Wednesday when his pretty and accomplished daughter, Lona Brower, became the wife of Herbert Way also of Union township. The wedding march was played by the bride's sister, Miss Eva; Miss Jesse Kephart, of Clearfield county, was bridesmaid and Clifford Calhoun was best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Piper of the M. E. church and when Dr. Piper ties a knot there is no danger of it ever becoming "tied loose." The immediate friends of the families of the bride and groom constituted the principal guests. They were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents. In the evening the thumpians gave them the usual cow bell and tin can serenading. The following day the bride and groom left on the 5 o'clock train for Pittsburg where the groom has lucrative employment and where they will be at home in the future. A good joke is connected with this yarn. A lot of young folks had secured their pockets full of rice, intending to give the happy couple the customary deluge of that nutritious cereal, but the groom slipped through the rear door of the freight room and got on the baggage car while the bride, who was waiting for the train at Mrs. Sade Emerick's, slipped out of the back door, ran through the lot and boarded the cars on the rear end of the train. Not a rice did they get to throw over them. Our smarties got left—that's all.

BENORE.

John Dewey couldn't stand it any longer had to go home to see mother, Sunday.

P. E. Hicks is suffering from rheumatism in his arm.

We notice the Spayd's Gap scribe has quite a few mistakes in last week's items. The scribe was dreaming and forgot to put the right names.

William Keller is still in the lumber business, also preparing to remodel his barn, which will bring improvement to his house.

Mrs. Susan Royer, from Johnstown, is spending a week with her sister, Abbie Spayd, at Madisonburg, who is on the sick list.

WEST BRUSHVALLEY.

Had quite a little snow on Saturday night.

Those who Sundayed at the home of James Duck are: B. F. Grenoble, wife and son Charles, Minnie Grenoble, Leah Rider, Katie Crater, John and Charles Wert, Charles Beck and Elmer Phillips, all of Brushvalley, except two, Misses Rider and Crater.

Rev. Snyder preached his farewell sermon on Sunday afternoon.

Douty Bro's stove mill is running in full blast.

The West Brushvalley ball team is going to have another game with the Madisonburg team on Saturday.

Anybody wishing to have shingles sawed, call on C. B. Dnck and H. M. Wert.

R. E. and H. M. Wert transacted business at Wolf's Store last week.

SPAYDS GAP.

N. B.—I, as the regular Spayd's Gap scribe, want to make a few corrections in the Spad Gap items. Dear people, I kindly want to tell you not to think that the regular Spayds Gap scribe wrote those items, it was some other poor kid who didn't know what to do; that person thought he or she could meddle in with Spayds Gap scribe, but let me tell you kindly not to do so again.

John Long moved on Isaac Long's farm on Thursday.

George Jackson, who had been visiting his friends in Nittany, has returned home.

For good lathe call on Harry Gingerlich.

The carpet rag party at B. F. Jackson's was largely attended and all had a good time.

FARMERS MILLS.

A jolly crowd of young folks were down to Spring Mills Sunday eve.

Isiah Bierly spent a few days at the home of A. W. Barner.

COBURN.

On Monday evening a large number of friends gathered at the home of F. H. Bartge in honor of the sixth birthday of their son Ray, who received many useful presents, and the guests were treated to ice cream, cake and other sweet meats and they readily yielded to the temptation. The orchestra and a phonograph furnished music, and everybody present had an enjoyable evening.

J. E. Harter, one of our energetic merchants, is confined to his room with grip and W. H. Grove assists Mrs. Harter in the store. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Mrs. W. G. Hosterman and son Ward, of Piedler, spent Monday at the home of T. A. Hosterman.

The result of Tuesday's election shows that Penn township is still in the democratic column and could elect a democratic president every time if nobody else would help. The vote in favor of a cash road tax was 79 and to keep up the good old way $5. So we will stick to the old way until some of the other townships put on the new style and we can see how it fits and becomes them, then we will follow suit just as all other styles have a following. We are afraid to try something new before some one else has tried it, and perhaps it's a good idea.
