Irvin left last Friday morning for Atlantic City where they will make their future home. Mr. Irvin has leased a cottage at that famous resort and is preparing to accommodate boarders. The groundhog's six weeks prophesy was up over a week ago, but winter didn't come to time, and spitefully delayed some ten days. The disciples of the groundhog had better join some other church. A., left on Saturday for Clifton Springs, New York, to make preparations to move his family and household goods here; he will occupy the Morrison house on East Bishop street after April 1. We are pleased to note our street crossings have been receiving more attention than heretofore. Snow and mud have been promptly scraped and shoveled away as should be and pedestrians were correspondingly pleased. Keep it up—cleanliness is Godliness. The Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will convene at Tyrone on Wednesday, March 28th. There are four important vacancies to be filled, Danville district, Bloomsburg, Bellefonte and Mulberry street church, Williamsport, Pa. William Pennington has taken the agency for the Williamsport evening Sun, which reaches Bellefonte on the 4:43 pm. train on the afternoon it is printed. This is the only paper printing the Associate Press dispatches to reach here in the afternoon and is one of the best papers in the state. "Simple Simon Simple" coming to the opera house on Friday evening, is a popular production that has been favorably received in all large cities. It is brim full of rare comedy, wholesome and refined. It will be at the opera house on Friday evening. It means a hearty good laugh for everybody. Tom Waters in the new musical mixture, "Neighborhood Neighbors," will be the attraction at the opera house, Monday evening. It is replete with overflowing with mirth and melody of the superior sort. Mr. Waters, the star fun maker, is supported by an able company of twenty-five people, which includes a chorus of bewitching show girls, whose singing and dancing abilities are said to be far above the ordinary.

Lot H. Neff and Miss Osa Bitner, both of Mt. Engle, on February 20th, took their departure for Elmira, where they were quietly married, the announcement of which occasioned much surprise to their many friends. Williamsport will celebrate its Centennial this year, and in fine style. Bellefonte has a much more interesting history from the early days on, and distinguished men to be proud of, and will, no doubt, also celebrate its Centennial this year, the town having been incorporated as a borough in March 1866. Rev. Ralph Bergstresser, of Selinsgrove, has accepted the call of the Pine Grove Mills Lutheran church, consisting of Pine Grove, Gatesburg and Pine Hall and preached at Pine Grove and the other congregations last Sabbath. After his graduation in June, he will take up his abode in the parsonage at Pine Grove Mills. Rev. J. Allison Platt, of Allegheny, who last Sunday was chosen pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church has written to friends here stating that he will accept the call, and that on Sunday, April 1st will be with his wife when he will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening. He expects to get settled here by May 1st. The third basket picnic and reunion of the Mattern family and their friends will be held at Warriorsmark, on the 21st and 22nd of June, 1906. This will be the 150th anniversary of the family in America. The committees appointed for the Mattern reunion will meet at Tyrone on the 31st of March, to make arrangements. The venerable William G. Waring on Wednesday evening, while engaged at odd chores about his premises, slipped and fell and in the fall was rendered helpless, although no serious injury resulted. He was picked up and taken to his home where he is resting quite comfortably. Mr. Waring is 90 years old, says the Tyrone Herald of 14. Mr. Waring was a resident of Boalsburg many years ago, and at the founding of the agricultural (now State) College, was the head of the agricultural department. Friday afternoon and evening Roxanna Brisbin, of Centre Hall, District Deputy President of Centre county, instituted Pink Rebekah Lodge No. 115, at Allport, installed the officers and gave all necessary instructions for the organization of the same. The degree was conferred in full form by the degree team of Hawk Run Rebekah Lodge. Some of the officers of the new lodge are as follows: N. G. Julia Baumgardner; V. G., Caroline Morgan; Secretary, Ellis Boyer; Treas., Mary Shields. The Philadelphia Journal says: "State Zoologist Surface is under Knauf, the town doctor who did a landoffice business in Philadelphia several years ago, being more than good to many of the trees, and who has 'bobbed' up again in this state this year. Mr. Surface pronounces him a fraud, insists that he be arrested, and says he will be glad to appear against him." Same gentleman doctored a lot of trees in Bellefonte and then skipped the town leaving a large board bill unpaid. He posed as quite a "lady's man" while here. Recently we made mention of 222 dozen Alabama quail to be purchased by the state game commission to be used for breeding purposes in our mountain districts. Shipments have already been made to some counties and Centre county will also come in for an apportionment, which, will be shipped soon, as per information the Democrat has received. The price paid for the birds is nine dollars per dozen in any quantity. This is what each dozen is costing the State and what each dozen will cost an individual. The 222 dozen of the purchase will be apportioned among the Forestry Reservations where they will be properly cared for and protected by the deputy wardens. RECENT DEATHS. All Centre county, and in fact the state, is favored with an unusually heavy fall of snow that in some places is almost two feet in depth. The snow began to fall last Thursday and kept up until Tuesday with little cessation. The peculiarity of the situation is that we had an open, mild winter all along, with the exception of one cold snap, with no sleighing until the Spring season set in, but at this time the skies are clearing and the warm sun will soon play havoc with it. This covering to the fields at this time may prove beneficial to the crops. In some parts of the county roads were drifted and impassable so that the rural mail routes had to suspend deliveries. Trains on the Lewisburg road were delayed by the usual drifts at Centre Hall and it required special effort to keep the road open. On the Bellefonte Central R. R. there was more trouble, as several of their engines were put out of commission up near the College, and the schedule was busted for several days. Ex-Congressman Arnold Dead. Word was received at DuBois of the sudden death of William C. Arnold, at Muskegon, Mich., where he went recently on business. Mr. Arnold was born in Clearfield county in 1851, and, except for a brief stay in South Dakota, lived in the county all his life. He was a lawyer by profession, having been admitted to the bar in 1875, but in the course of an active career was more or less deeply engaged in banking and the coal and lumber industries. He was a republican, and served in Congress from 1895 to 1899. He was married to Miss Jennie P. Irvin in 1874, and four children, all surviving, were born on the union. Mrs. Arnold died suddenly in 1897. No Death From Diphtheria. Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, Health Commissioner, makes the marvelous announcement from records compiled in his office, that during the four months of November and December, 1905, and January and February 1906, there has not been a single death from diphtheria where the free antitoxin provided by the state has been used within 24 hours after the onset of the disease and in doses recommended in the circular sent out by the commissioner. The Altoona Gazette tells thus of a polite stranger who glided deferentially into railroad society in that city: Stepping up to the door of the waiting room at the depot yesterday morning a gentleman knocked and upon being invited in, removed his hat and politely asked permission to purchase a ticket to purchase a ticket to Tyrone. The permission was of course granted him and, not to be outdone in politeness, Patrolman Pete Harlow, who was near by was requested to escort the gentlemanly stranger to the entrance gate, which he did with his best bow and sweetest smile. The railroad men are wondering whether or not someone was kidding them.

Royal Baking Powder Absolutely Pure Made from Pure Grape Cream of Tartar In baking powder Royal is the standard, the powder of highest reputation; found by the United States Government tests of greatest strength and purity. It renders the food more healthful and palatable and is most economical in practical use. Housekeepers are sometimes importuned to buy alum powders because they are "cheap." Yet some of the cheapest made powders are sold to consumers at the highest price. Housekeepers should stop and think. Is it not better to buy the Royal and take no chances—the powder whose goodness and honesty are never questioned? Is it economy to spoil your digestion by an alum-phosphate or other adulterated powder to save a few pennies? ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK. PLANTING SEEDS EARLY.
