

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings

in Short Paragraphs

-Sam Hart, of Harrisburg, spent -Dr. H. W. Tate returned from his trip through Virginia. -Col. and Mrs. James P. Coburn day.

-Robt. Gentzel and family, of Beaver Falls, are visiting relatives in town. -No work has been done recently on -James Rote left last Thursday for to spend Easter. Pittsburg, where he expects to make his -Mr. and Mrs. John Hosterman spent

-C. M. Gramley, the machinist of Rebersburg, was in town on Saturday full of business.

-M. J. Zubler and sister, of Gregg twp., while in town on Saturday paid this office a short call. -Miss Mame Hamilton left Saturday for Philadelphia, where she will study to be a trained nurse. -John Derstine and family, of Altoona, spent a few days at Easter with friends in Bellefonte. -Roger A Bayard has gone to Altoona, where he has an offer to take a partnership in a business enterprise -Mrs. Kilpatrick and daughter returned Saturday from a visit to Philadelphia with relatives and friends. -F. W. Crider left Friday afternoon for Philadelphia on a visit to his new grandson, Charles E. Dorworth, Jr.

-This evening a lady from Canada, deliver an address in Petrikin Hall.

home to spend the Easter season with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steel Hunter. -Victor Royer and family of Altoona,

-After being housed up for a time Postmaster Montgomery is able to drive out these fine afternoons and is improving.

evening, April 27th, The Thespians, of State College will present "Facing the Music." The entertainment will be -Elizabeth Ardell is on an extended visit with relatives and friends at Philadelphia, Washington and Waterbury, -Mrs. Elizabeth Calloway is in Washington this week attending the congress of the Daughters of the American Re--Ollie Mader and J. L. McClenathan, both employed in the Luse Mfg. Co., at Centre Hall, were around to give us a -Bellefonte is in need of a score of good tenement houses. Owing to the high prices of material people are not -The leaves are beginning to show their tips, and the robbins are eloquently preaching their bird sermons from house and tree tops. -Charles P. Hewes, Esq., formerly of our town, was chosen City Solicitor for Erie last week. It is an important posi-town Saturday greeting friends. He able to continue their work always brings a new story with him.

-Mrs. Evelyn Rodgers, Regent of the They have good examples to follow. Bellefonte Chapter of the D. A. R., left last week for Washington to attend the National Convention to be held there

-Ernest Spotts, of Port Matilda, one of the hustling young teachers who won passed the annual inspection at the a set of the Encyclopedia paid us a short armory on Spring street. The Coleville a set of the Encyclopedia paid us a short call. He finds the books finner and better than he had expected.

-Dr. James Hosterman, of Potter, gave our sanctum a call, while on a trip to Detroit, Mich. Also Prof. Hoster-man of the Spring Mills Academy, which opened its summer term on Monday.

-Four of a kind always beats two pair and that is what makes Harry Keller, Esq., smile since the robust little fellow called at his home on Sunday. A hand like that will keep a fellow hustof Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jenkins on High in Bellefonte on May 8th, at 10 am. street, on Friday evening of this week, by the Ladies Aid society of the Reformed church. Proceeds for the new chard fund.

Was read. The installation date place in Bellefonte on May 8th, at 10 am. broke into the barn of Al DeForest, along the Ridge near Huntingdon, and poisoned four horses. Their lives were saved with difficulty.

Chard fund.

due to a sprain in his side. He had to give up teaching his winter term at Runville where he was making a fine record as an instructor.

Streets were a sheet of water and gut- at Fillmore ters had an overflow in less than two

-Early Monday morning, before sun-rise, superintendent Ryan at the water works caught a certain young man of our town in the act of fishing for some of the large trout in the big spring at the mencing Friday evening, 20th and conwater works. Last summer some sixty trout over a foot in length were present-ed to the town by one of the state hatcheries and put in the spring as a public The fish are tame and often can be fed from the hand, and thousands have visited the spring to see the fine collection. At present there are only about twenty fish left, which indicates that someone has been contemptible enough to pilfer them at night. As The stockholders of the Bald Eagle vived the game and fish laws are a little pe-Valley railroad, which is leased by the ters. culiar on the fish question we hope that the boro authorities can find some staute under which to severely punish any one at Philadelphia last week and re-elected

-Dr. Joseph M. Brockerhoff went to Atlantic City to spend the Easter season. -For a cough or cold take Krumrine's Compound Syrup of Tar-cures in one

-Rev. Dr. Laurie is at Cape May visiting his daughter, Mrs. Samuel

-Ward Fleming, a student at the the soldiers monument for its completion. University of Pennsylvania, was home

-Mr. and Mrs James R. Hughes went to New York city, Washington and Balti-more, to spend the Easter vacation. -The ladies aid society of the Metho-

-The Pennsylvania Match company has begun work on the erection of a large brick office building on the western side of their plant in this place.

-Mr. and Mrs. G. Murray Andrews arrived in New York last week from their winter's sojourn in England. They expect to return to Bellefonte in a few

-Henry C. Quigley, republican county chairman, has issued his call for the party primaries to be held on Saturday party primaries to be held on Saturday, May 5th, with the convention on the following Tuesday.

Wednesday morning. April 25, to Thursday evening, April 26th.

-Rev. John A. Wood and family went to Curwensville, where they spent Sun-day, and on Monday started for South Pasadena, California, where they ex--Charley Hunter, of Pittsburg, was pect to make their future home. -John G. Uzzle, the veteran hotel keeper, farmer and lumberman of Snow Shoe, was one of our visitors on Wedwere visiting Mrs. Royer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Faxon of this place. among the miners in that section.

-At Garman's opera house on Friday

Foster was announced in Saturday's months abroad.

Philadelphia Public Ledger. Miss Peters is well known in Bellefonte where she Hall, moved to Martha, last week. Geo.

-The American Lime and Stone company have begun the erection of a battery of four new kilns at their quarries employed by extery of the kilns at the Armor gap quarries are almost completed.

-Wednesday forenoon the fire depart-

Erie last week. It is an important position with a good salary.

—Solomon Schmidt, one of Philipsburg's progressive business men, was in ready for business on their own hook.

-Merchant Orndorf and little son of in Berks. ports the grain fields in Haines township

-Last night Company B. 5th regi-ment, National Guard of Pennsylvania, band was present and furnished music. Colonel Elder, of Lewistown, of the 5th regiment, a United States army officer, and Major Jeffery of Pittsburg, inspecting officer of the 2nd brigade were present. The boys made a fine showing and Capt. Taylor is sure of a high rating. -At a meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery held in Bellwood last week a call for the pastoral services of the Rev. Allison Platts, pastor of the Central llow called at his home on Sunday hand like that will keep a fellow husting too.

A social will be held at the residence of the central church. Allegheny, from the church of Bellefonte, promising him a salary of $2.000 per annum was read. The installation takes place on the central known Houtzdale lawyer, is about to locate in DuBois, and frequently visits the latter place.

Some unknown miscreant recently

Wednesday at noon Harry Crust and -Ira Howe, of Juniata, Pa., and Law- Father McArdle, at St. John's Catholic rence Howe, of Allport, paid us a short call on Thursday. The former, Ira Howe, was one of the influential demo. Catherine Rosenhover, of Bellefonte, well, and when it was found four years crats of Philipsburg for years and we are sure he will be missed by leaving the county.

and Leonard Raymond, of Drifting, Pa. later it looked so good that Mrs. Cupp decided to see how long it would keep, and it appears all right yet. Mrs. Charles Custaborder. The wed-The rain on Saturday afternoon was a dasher and splasher. It came on quick and in about twelve minutes there was their friends. After a visit to western in charge was handling it she found that close on to half an inch of rainfall. cities Mr. and Mrs. Crust will reside it was covered with an eruption which forwarded to Harrisburg for the depart-fonte circuit at the Forge church, comnesday evenings. 23 and 24.

Quarterly Meetings.

J. K. Mumau, P. C.

Bald Eagle Valley Dividend.

OVER THE COUNTY.

The body of the late John N. Lauth arrived at his home in Howard Friday from Mexico, the funeral was held Sat-

James Black, of Philipsburg, who conducted a wholesale liquor house formerly, has decided to embark in the butch-evening, April 22, at 7:30 o'clock, H. I. Crow, pastor. A special session of the State Grange will be held at Centre Hall, June 15 for the purpose of conferring the Degree of

Reformed church, Jacksonville, Sunday

Flora in full form. Mrs. Kate Vonada of Zion, and Mrs. Alice Thompson and son Fred of Belle-family in Lock Haven. The engagement of Miss Bess Glenn, eldest daughter of Dr. W. S. Glenn of State College, has been announced to John P. Kottcamp, of York, Penna.

A reunion of company H, 148th Penna volunteers will be held at Port Matilda, Centre county, Pa., May 3rd, 1906, being the 43rd anniversary of the battle of Messrs. T. A. Meyer and C. N. Meyer, of Coburn, sold their farm in Haines township, known as the Burrell farm, to the heirs of Henry Beahm, deceased. The consideration was $4500. Charles Limbert, of Aaronsburg, lost one kicked the other and broke its leg, necessitating the killing of the animal. —Prof. J. Angel, the expert eye specialist, of Williamsport, will be at he Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte, from Wednesday morning. April of the Animal.

While George Miller, of Rebersburg, was engaged in edging lumber on Noah Brungart's sawmill in Brushvalley last week, his thumb accident to

In making up his official staff Major General J. P. S. Gobin, of the National Guard, dropped Col. Austin Countries of the National Guard Guar Guard, dropped Col. Austin Curtin from ppointed Col. Simon B. Cameron, of Marietta, as his successor. The richest and most beautiful green now adorns the lawns and grass fields.

Dame Nature is doing her best and no artist can equal her work. Foliage upon trees and blossoms in all the variety of colors will soon lend additional charm. State College will present "Facing the Music." The entertainment will be given for the benefit of the Bellefonte hospital.

—The engagement of Miss Teresa Peters, of Philadelphia, to Robert G. Foster was appropried in Saturday's while Dr. and Mrs. Horne spend two Gingerich, father of the latter, accompanied them and assisted in getting their new home in shape. Mr. Riter is being employed by ex-Sheriff W. M. Chronis-

C. M. Waple, who recently purchased the valuable lot in Philipsburg, has given an option on the same to Clearfield and ments were called out by an alarm from local parties, who contemplate the erec-Linn street. Charley Richards was tion of a $40,000 opera house building, burning some weeds when a spark set which will also embrace a couple of fine fire to the stable and started a brisk store rooms and several handsome offices. blaze, which was extinguished with little damage done.

The building will be quite an ornament to that part of the town.

-During the past few days the various | Conrad Weiser, of early settlers day, industries about town have had factory and trusted friend of the Indians, has tive, The Historical Society of Berks ways brings a new story with him.

—Messrs. Paul Fortney and James county, at its April meeting, decided to Furst passed very creditable examination operate with a committee of the Berks Crittenden daughter of the Rev. Richard tions last week for their admission to County Teachers' Institute in the move-Crittenden of this place, and George S. the Centre County Bar Association and ment to erect memorial on tablet to Con-Frost of New York City, has been an-by this time have their shingles posted, rad Weiser at the Stichler building. Penn street, east of Fifth. Weiser was the founder of the public school system

While A. A. Alexander, of Penn twp., was loosening the chains that bound a load of large poles on his lumber wagon -Major Richter, the civil engineer, is still busy with his corps of men running lines down through the Bald Eagle. If you want to know what he is doing go and ask him.

looking very fine. D. F. Daley, of Penn'a Furnace, also gave the Democrat a call, and reports crop prospects out that way fine.

Last night Company B. 5th regione was present at the time, but the property of the property of the ground and falling upon him. No Mrs. Albright heard the noise of the falling poles and ran to his assistance. She was unable to remove the wood and running to a neighbor brought help. When Mr. Alexander was released he was found to be severely injured; the blood was running out of his ears and nose. and his back and legs bruised. physicians pronounce him on a fair way

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

cate in DuBois, and frequently visits the C. D. Koch, Philipsburg.

teen years old is possessed by Mrs. S. Cupp, of DuBois. The jar fell into a

A daughter was born to Mrs. William was quickly diagnosed as smallpox. About forty days ago Wm. Lynch, the father, was stricken with smallpox and The Free Methodist will hold the ir third quarterly meeting for the Belle-case is looked upon as a peculiar one but is not without precedent.

tinuing over the Sabbath, the Rev. J. J. caused him to lose his life. He was Zanhiser will preside. All are invited to attend these meetings. Rev. Zanhiser will preach at the Fountain school house near Snow Shoe on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. 23 and 24.

LK Market P. C. caused nim to lose his life. He was breaking up some boulders in a lot near the town when a small piece of metal, not larger than a pea, broke off the sledge and passed completely through one of his eyes and three or four inches into his eyes and three or four inches in the his eyes and three or four inches in the his eyes and three or four inches in the his eyes and three or four inches in the his eye ness and without recovering the same

RECENT DEATHS.

HARVEY STOVER:—age 62 and a resident of Aaronsburg, died Sunday afternoon of paralysis. He is survived by a wife, seven daughters and two sons and is the son-in-law of Claude Kreamer, of this place. Funeral Thursday forenoon at Wolf's Chapel.

There will be preaching service in the James I. and Emma Reed died Tuesday morning at the home of her parents in Pine Grove Mills, after a lingering illness with heart trouble. years of age, a member of the Lutheran church, and leaves to mourn their loss her parents and a number of brothers

MRS. W. S. GLENN :-wife of Dr. Glenn of State College, died Sunday morning fonte, are visiting W. H. Miller and at the Bellefonte hospital after a lingering illness of six weeks. She underwent an operation, and death followed. terment in the Branch cemetery Her maiden name was Minnie Perwilliger, formerly of Owega, N. Y., age 35 years; no children survive,

MRS. MARY F. Ross:-died at her home 16th, aged 67 years. In 1882 she married J. F. Ross. The following brothers and sisters mourn her loss: Jennie, James and Robert Galbrath of Boals burg. In early life she became a member of Methodist church. In her home she will be missed as a loving wife and a kind neighbor. Funeral services Thurs-Interment at Boalsburg, Rev. Sechrist officiating.

DOLYE SHERLOCK HOLMES:-the only son of John Holmes and his wife Ida, of Jacksonville, Pa., died April 7, 1906, after a severe struggle with pneumonia. He was aged 2 years, 5 months and 4 The funeral services were held in the Reformed church at Jacksonville, Tuesday, April 10 and were attended by the list as commissary of subsistence and at Brookville, Jefferson county, Thurs day morning 19th, of an affection of the heart; he had been in ill health for sev eral months. Mr. Fleming was born in Lock Haven. He resided in that city and Flemington nearly all his life. During President Cleaveland's first administration Mr. Fleming served as postmaster of Lock Haven. The remains were of Lock Haven. brought to Bellefonte Saturday afternoon at 1:5. Interment in the Catholic

JESSIE WERT :- died at his home in aronsburg Monday night 16, of paralysis, aged 76 years. Deceased was a life-long resident of Haines township, and a prominent and respected citizen. was twice married, his first wife dying about 18 years ago; to the union of the first wife were born three children: James, of Tusseyville; Luther, of Aaronsburg, and Mrs. Emma Hartman, who several years ago preceded her tather to the great beyond. To the union with with pneumonia. The body was brought to Bellefonte, on Tuesday and the interment took place that afternoon in the Union cemetery. Her husband, Geo. W. Jackson, prominent banker and business man, died in 1898 and since then three sons, George W. Jr., W. Fred, and three sons are sons and three sons and three sons are sons and three sons and three sons are sons and t the family are Maurice of Bellefonte and Mrs. George W. Brew. Since the death of her husband, Mrs. Jackson disposed of her household effects and made her home with her daughter Mrs. Brew.

SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS.

Last Friday and Saturday many school Last Friday and Saturday many school teachers from over the county were in town to attend the special examinations under the direction of County Superinunder the direction of County Superinand no amount of argument could conclasses as follows:

Almah Stein, Boggs; Lutitia Goodhart, Centre Hall; Nancy Heberling, Ferguson; Ida R. Williams, Rush; Wilbur F. Leathers, Howard Boro; Winfield C. Thompson, Liberty; Wm. H. Minnich. Marion; Henry Leathers, Snow Shoe; Ed. R. Wolfe, Haines.

appointed by State Dept:-J. E. Wagner, ADMINISTRATORS NOTICE.

M. Almeda Holter, Howard Boro; Mary E. Penny, Snow Shoe; Eliz. G. Glenn, Saved with difficulty.

William Boyce has disposed of his hotel at Winburne to R. J. Huntzinger, of Milton, Pa., and left on Sunday evening for British Columbia, where he has some valuable copper mine interests.

This milk item may interest some of chapel fund.

—Fred Chambers is able to be about again after a three-weeks' spell of illness due to a sprain in his side. He had to This milk item may interest some of garet Williams. South Philipsburg; Bella Miss Elizabeth Beezer were married by the milk maids who are readers of the B. Barnhart, Spring; Rebecca Heckman: Centre Democrat: A jar of milk thir- Spring; Alice Robison, Spring; Mary M. Woods, Spring; Emma Reese, Worth; Messrs. E. H. Williams, College; M. T. White, Rush; L. H. Yocum, Walker, C. cents. Rate to others, penny-a word for each F. Hoy. Walker; C. E. Royer, Gregg; C. E. Kramer, Haines.

The work on permanent certificates is ment to pass upon.

Having failed in their criminal pro-ceedings against the feed dealers of the ber and woodland. Henry Thompson How-ard, Pa. against them and have retained C. G. and S. D. Furst, as counsel to prosecute

Several of the dealers have been notified that civil suits will be instituted work. Apply at Democrat office. into his brain. He was taken to his against them and E. E. Wentz is asked home, where he lapsed into unconscious- to pay $300 as his share of the fine. The whole business is regarded as an outrage Furnace, Pa. The stockholders of the Bald Eagle died. He was 58 years of age and is ser- by the victims and it certainly does look vived by his wife, three sons and daught like a case of persecution instead of

Some of the dealers feel that the legisunder which to severely punish any one who is so unprincipled as to rob such an exhibit. This paper will contribute liberally for a fund to prosecute and others will join with us.

A "reformer" is looking for son-in-law has been and re-elected that the legislators, so called, who perpetrated that act should be gotten together in a bunch and have the act jammed down their throats, says the Express, rep. Just so married, without taking his job away from him?

A "reformer" is looking for son-in-law lators, so called, who perpetrated that act should be gotten together in a bunch and have the act jammed down their throats, says the Express, rep. Just so married, without taking his job away from him?

A "reformer" is looking for son-in-law lators, so called, who perpetrated that act should be gotten together in a bunch and have the act jammed down their throats, says the Express, rep. Just so married, without taking his job away from him?

Home Baking

ROYAL Baking Powder

The United States Agricultural Department has issued (and circulates free) a valuable report giving the results of elaborate experiments made by and under the direction of the Department, which show the great saving from baking at home, as compared with cost of buying at the bakers. All bread, cake, biscuit, crullers, etc., are very much fresher, cleaner, cheaper and more wholesome when made at home with Royal Baking Powder.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK,

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Jessie O. Norris -Maud E. Ryan -Orien S. Womer Letitia Flegal -Emory Sweetwood Gertrude Auman Norman E. Lighthamer -Luella Strunk . James Clark -Hollidaysburg Mary Hassinger -Daniel S. Brown Anna E. Oshall John Billy -Catharine Mihalow Harry T. Crust . Elizabeth Beezer Earnest Moore -

Port Matilda

Blanche Nearhoff

to the great beyond. To the union with his second wife no children were born. Funeral services were held Thursday morning, conducted by Rev. C. F. Garret and interment made in the Lutheran competers.

Way ist. Address Jno. I dongs Julian Pa x17

FOR SALE: -15 eggs f r $ of "Fishers" White Plymouth R ck or B anchards S C. White Leghorns; satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Orders fined promptly. D. A. Ertel, Spilog Mi is, Fa x 19 Governor, Vance C. McCormick; lieuMRS. GEORGE W. JACKSON:—died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George W. Brew, in Ronceverte, W. Va., on Sunday after an illness of about a week with presuments. The hody was brought to the intelligence of the with presuments. The hody was brought to the intelligence of the week with presuments. The hody was brought to the intelligence of the week with presuments. The hody was brought to the intelligence of the second with pneumonia. The body was brought would appeal to the intelligence of the

Adulterated paint is NOT as good as

Davis' 100 per cent Pure Paint

under the direction of County Superinand no amount of argument could cone the direction of County Supering and no amount of argument could cone and no amount of argument could cone the contrary. Why, then allow anyone to persuade you to accept an adulterated paint, when you can get to be controlled to the controlled t tendent D. O. Etters. There were two vince you to the contrary. Why, then, Davis' carrying an analysis and guar-

POTTER-HOY HARDWARE CO. BELLEFONTE, PA.

James A. Gleason, Esq., the well known Houtzdale lawyer, is about to locate in DuBois, and frequently visits the latter place.

Some unknown miscreant recently Some unknown miscreant recently into the barn of Al DeForest, Benner; Gertrude Keichline, Ferguson;

Bellefonte, ch.; W. P. Hosterman, Gregg; dec'd.

C. D. Koch, Philipsburg.

For Professionals:—Misses Helen B.

Crissman. Bellefonte; Mayme V. Wolfe, Benner; Gertrude Keichline, Ferguson; W. T. Hoover Adm'r Fort Matilda, Pa.

PUBLIC SALE.

PENNY A WORD ADV.

Advertisements less than 25 words from sub Oats.

> WANTED :-Will buy pigs from 6 to 8 weeks o d. Wm Clevenstine, Zion, Pa. WANTED: -20:0 bushels of potatoes, at once. by J. C. Rumberger, Bellefonte. x 16

Lock Haven, the pure food commission has decided to institute civil proceedings bred eggs—15 for 75 cens. D. Wagner Geiss, Bellefonte, Pa.

v ANTED :—A good woman to take charge of house—husband and four children, in belie-fonte. Apply at this office.

WANTED: -men to cut extract wood at Van scoye, on T. & C. R. R. . 2 1/4 miles from Vall station-65 ets per cord. B. F. Davis, Penna. AGENTS:—two men with horse and wagon wanted to take orders and deliver goods in Centre. Blair and Hunningdon counties. Inquire of S. M. Bell, Boaisburg. x-17

FOR SALE:—a first class Lyon & Healy man-dolin, guarant—d by makers. Call or write L. H. Duck. Spring Mills, Pa

BUFF LEGHORNS: -A few eggs for hatching. Apply to Geo. Valentine, Jr., Be lefonte, Pa. 15tf

Philipsburg ... EGGS :- for hatching; White Wyardotts and White Plymoth hacks-1 eggs for 60c. A. J. Heverly, Axaman Pa x 16

Spring Mills
FOR SALF: - ir of 3 ear old ge dings-from gray and bay—wei, ht about 1000 each. For sale by Geo B. Gummo, Buffalo Run.

SEED OATS:-Lebaron Co. White Tartar oa's, weight 41% lbs per bushel, took is: prize at Centre Co. Fair 195 Apply to George Valentine Jr., Belicionte, Pa. Lancaster
Hawk Run
Philipsburg

WANTED:—a furn shed residence on either Linn or Curtin strees during the su mer sea-on, by Sr. A. Wilson Norris. Apply to Bianchard & Blanchard attys

Bellefonte | FOR RENT :-farm of 00 acres, the Keichline farm occur led r-ce-t y by Aif Col in Ferguson township. In mediate possession. In quire of J. M. Keichline Fsq., Bellefonte.

M'Cormick and Castle.

Doctor Swallow, who in a measure

PASTURE LANDS:—I bave b ased 10,000 acres of good pasture lands at Feaver Mills with plenty of free water and will herd castle after May 1st. Address Juo. I dongs Judan Pa x17

FOR SALE:—Rare opportunity for investment, large lot in Spring's reet running parallel with armoly building on Lambstreet, to electric light building adjoining and including a tenement house for 4 families rill rented. Endie property well adapted for manufacturing purpos s or tenement houses.
Location also concenient to the new depot of the Central R. R. of ten a. Inquire of Robert ole, agent, Crider Block, Benk fonte Pa.

HORSES FOR SALE:—A matched pair of black cots, three and four years old full brother and sister, weigh 1933 lbs, height about 15:1, well be ken together. One bay horse five years old 6 han's high, weight about 1300 stred by register-d English Hackney dam a well bred Kentucky mare, a fire stvish driver, will werk anywhere and not afraid of automobiles or steam. Also a three year old half bred Percheron and French coach bay colt, about 15:3, weight 1100 lbs, has been handled some. All this stack is guaranteed sound and kind. Apply to George Valentine, Jr., Belleto te, Pa. 14:11

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Bellefonte--Produce.

The following prices prevailed Thursday morning. The following prices are paid by SECULER & Co. for produce:

Bellefonte-Grain. The following prices are paid by C. Y. WAG-

Coburn Markets.

Lock Haver Markets.

Butter per pound 25 to 30c; eggs per dozen 18 to 20; dressed chicken per lb 16 to 18c; honey per pound 16 to 18c; live chicken per pound to 12c; cabbage per head 12 to 12c; chickens 40 to 60c; potatoes per bushel 60 to 65c; apples per peck doc; squash each 10 to 15c; pumpkin per slice 5 to 8c; corn per bushel 50 to 55c; onions per bushel 55c; celery per bunch 5 to 10c; lard per pound 9 to 12c; applebutter per gallon 50 to toc; dried corn per quart 20 to 25c; sauer kraut per quart 5 to 6c; pepcorn per dezen ears soc; carrots per burch 5c; endive per bunch 5c; smear case per quart 10c; turnips per peck 7 to 12c; water cress per bunch 5c; sassairas per bunch 5c; parsnips per peck 10 to 15c; dried apples per quart 5c rhubarb per bunch 10c; onions per bunch 5c; beets per pk 15c; borse raddish per glass 1cc; maple sugar per lb 13c; horse radish per lunch 5c; onion sets per pt 7 to 10; lettuce per head 5c.