

Correspondents' Department

The news in condensed form from all parts of Centre County

NITTANY.

We noticed quite a few of the Hublerburg young gents in Endeavor on Sunday evening, also a number of gents from other nearby towns.

E. Ward Markle, of Hublerburg, visited Albert Williams and family at their place, over Sunday.

We are sorry to note the illness of Perry McCaleb's little boy, also the infant child of Cal. Stover's.

R. F. Emerick sold his driving horse last week to a doctor in Sugarvalley.

W. E. Kessinger, postmaster, was to Bellefonte last week one day on business.

P. S. Rossman was to Lock Haven one day last week on business.

Joe Emerick left on Saturday morning for Johnstown, where he will visit his brother Frank, and where he expects to get employment.

We are glad to note that Lloyd Rogers, who was housed up nearly all winter, is getting along nicely and will soon be able to be around.

We are glad to note that Harry Baker's baby is getting better.

Our farmers are busy plowing, and some will soon be ready to sow.

The ladies are busy cleaning house, hunting dandelion and making garden.

The employees of McNitt's saw mill were given a day off last week, the mill being shut down for repairs.

A number of our fishermen were out last week one day and returned with some fine trout.

Charley Emerick, of Lamar; Earl Cornan and family, of Parvin, and Frank Robb, of Bellefonte, visited here on Sunday.

SPRING MILLS.

The melancholy days have come—house cleaning time is here, when zealous women make things hum and home's no longer dear.

No trout fisher of this town reported any large number thus far.

The debate last Friday night was: Resolved, that emigration is detrimental to the United States. The judges were three of Centre county's bright and energetic school teachers. They decided in favor of the negative. The time has been changed from Friday to Tuesday night. An excellent program is arranged for next Tuesday night.

F. M. Rachau is at present in the Allegheny mountains fishing for trout.

On Sunday some of our people were to the woods for arbutus.

On Saturday evening the presiding elder will preach in the Ev. church.

Methodist preaching on Sunday evening.

Constable Graden had a crew of men fighting the fire which had broken out in the Seven mountains, north of town.

C. P. Long received six hundred peach trees and is planting them on his fruit farm.

A number are attending court this week.

STORMSTOWN.

Some of our good people are anxious to know who the scribe is. I will endeavor to describe him: He is five feet seven inches in height, light complexion, mouse-colored mustache, light brown hair, and wears his hat on the back of his head, very funny and always cracking jokes; he lives in the log hut on the corner. Next week we will give his full name.

George Burns and family spent Sunday with Thos. Smith.

S. B. Mattern and Miss Laura Blake, of Altoona, spent Sunday with C. E. Blake.

Hugh, the next time you write to your best girl put a special delivery stamp on the inside, so that when the old lady gets hold of it she will deliver it.

Stormstown will have one of the strongest amateur baseball teams in the county this season. Challenge them; they are stronger than last year.

Victor Way was the guest of Miss Sadie Lawson on Sunday evening; Victor, you had better be careful.

Go to J. H. Griffin for fancy and staple goods; you'll be sure to get a bargain and he will treat you right.

T. Mattern says the mules he drives are like a bagged cat; we wonder how that is.

Fifteen headaches cured for 10c by using "Moyer's Headache Tablets."

SMULLTON.

Mrs. Smith and little son Charles spent Thursday with her parents, Moses Gilbert's, at Wolfe's Store.

Ralph Walizer is on the sick list; we wish him a speedy recovery.

The prettiest little girl came to the home of William Bair; they thought it came on a visit but it says its going to stay.

Mrs. Lottie Stover and little son Ralph left for Coburn where they will make their home this summer.

Miss Bertha Dooty is spending some time at her uncle's, Harry Dooty.

Beauty is in the blood. It is really pitiful to see some women using cosmetics to produce comeliness in their faces. Beauty—real wholesome beauty that is delicious to the eyes—is in the blood. Impure blood makes muddy, sallow complexions—and wrinkles. The blood feeds the nerves or staves them according to its condition. If it is poor and full of impurities the nerves really starve and become weak. Weak nerves cause wrinkles. Rich, clean, warm blood flows through the skin. It feeds the nerves and makes them strong. Good nerves make bright eyes and pleasant, smooth, hopeful, happy faces.

Vin-te-na purifies the blood, feeds the nerves and brings back the natural beauty of healthy girlhood. There is no sham or humbug about the good looks which Vin-te-na puts into a woman's face. It's all there. It's the real thing. All dealers.

WINGATE.

George Stevens, of near Martha, was a caller at D. W. McCloskey's.

L. G. Brady, of Moose Run, transacted business in our town on Saturday.

When it comes to making garden, Edward Long and Herman Aikey take the lead.

Our blacksmith, John Smith, is busy ironing a wagon that goes to Howard to Lot Nef; it is a dandy; when it comes to working in iron John is O. K.

Mrs. Bottorf, of Scootac, is visiting her parents, at this place. Mr. and Mrs. Blair.

Edith Wagner is visiting her step-father, John Harnish, and her mother, at this place.

The farmers were busy last week. Mr. Stere, of the poor farm, is trying to keep ahead with his work. Jim Davison keeps his eye open and is on the move. Billy Fisher, with his three teams, and three sons (one to each team) keeps things moving. Billy does the smoking and bossing—he says it's the hardest, but he'd sooner do it.

The scribe took a drive up to Union Twp.; it would be very wise of our supervisors to do the same and take a lesson on road making.

In passing through Runville we saw one of the finest displays of house flowers in all our travels; they belonged to Miss Cornelia Friel.

Our old friend Charley M'Laughlin is at home spending a few days with his family at this place.

MILESBERG.

William Smith and family, of Altoona, were recent visitors of his parents, A. S. Smith and wife.

Melvin Derr, of Tyrone, was a recent visitor of his parents.

A Warning.—To the young man that has a very bad habit of spitting and throwing his tobacco chews upon the front steps, of W. B. Miles' porch; he has been spotted by his wife; it will not be tolerated any longer, the law will take its grip; take timely warning and save yourself being made public by the law; you are known by Mr. Miles and wife; for the present will not give the public your name.

Frequent visits are being made to the burg by two young men, one of Tyrone and one of State College, after one of our fair sex. As the story goes the one of State College has the inside track, and holds the fort, while the other utters some disagreeable words; such is life, be not discouraged in your efforts, you may win sooner or later.

Toner A. Hugg left for a southern trip to be gone for some time in the swing interest—he is a good salesman.

Howard Crain and family, of Altoona, were recent visitors of his parents.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church will have ice cream and cake for sale in Crider's building on corner of Market and Mill streets, Saturday evening, April 28th.

GREENBURR.

Snow! Snow! Snow! J. M. Kahl and wife took a trip to Brushvalley on Saturday to visit their son-in-law, John Wert.

Calvin Confer started for school on Monday morning at Loganton.

Newton Bartges returned from Muncy last week where he was attending school—why, we are not able to say.

H. W. Welshans took a trip to the city last week, to buy his spring and summer stock.

Interested in the Telephone line thro' the valley, met in H. A. Lamey's hall on Saturday evening, his friends, to discuss certain matters pertaining to the project. The posts are now standing almost all the way from Greenburr to Loganton. We understand there are still some kickers, but we hope they will soon see the error of their way, and let the work proceed without unpleasantness.

We are informed that W. H. Strohecker has resigned as superintendent of the Reformed Sunday school, and that another will be elected shortly.

B. W. Wyle of Aaronsburg has been awarded the job of painting the house of F. P. Wirth, and Kline A. Frank of Loganton to put up the spouting.

Miss Lillie Smith is the owner of a new guitar. John Musser took a trip to Pennsylvania.

LOVEVILLE.

Two of Karthaus' popular young men, Messrs. Healy and Miller, were seen on our streets on Sunday.

John Confer and son Roy, of Clearfield, were shaking hands with their many friends on Friday.

H. E. Leathers closed his school on Friday; it is Mr. Leathers' third term in this room, and much praise is due him, for it was a successful term.

Our community was shocked on Friday to hear of the death of Harry Weaver, an estimable young man, and was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church. On Feb. 1, 1904, he met with a serious accident in which he had to have his right leg amputated. He leaves to mourn his loss, his father and one sister Rhoda. Mrs. Harry Forney, and three brothers, Charles, James, and Clarence, all at home. The funeral was under the direction of the Masonic, and Red men. He met his death on Friday eve; he was returning to his boarding place in Winburne, after returning from a visit to his home and was struck by a runaway team. The deceased was aged 23 years, 6 months and 15 days. Interment in the Askey cemetery.

PORT MATILDA.

Tyrone was largely represented on Friday last at the funeral of Frank Woodring, who met with a fatal accident. (Mentioned elsewhere.)

On Thursday night last the Allegheny mountain above Port Matilda was on fire doing considerable damage to the paper wood mill company, burning about 200 cords of wood in rank, also doing other damage.

Harry Bridgen of Flemington, who had a contract for hauling and shipping paper wood from east side of the Allegheny mountain near Port Matilda, has finished and broken up camp, and will return home to work on his large farm.

Farmers have considerable plowing done in this vicinity, considering the backwardness of spring; in some places oats has been sowed.

Jacob Moore and wife are jubilant over the arrival of a big, fat dish washer.

Miss Nora Gates made a recent trip to Phillipsburg. Some attraction—can't exactly tell—a fellow I guess.

Miss Hannah Laird will please accept thanks for the nice lot of Easter eggs she presented your correspondent.

Will make news more interesting as fish and snake stories ripen.

C. W. Crain is renovating his store room preparatory to laying in a stock of spring and summer goods.

HAINES TWP.

WOLF'S CHAPEL.

On Monday we had the onion snow.

H. G. Miller and wife, of Rebersburg, spent last Thursday at C. W. Wolf's.

C. W. Wolfe made a trip to Bellefonte one day last week.

MARTHA.

With fine weather last week part of our farmers got some oats sowed and some gardening done.

Wilson Stiver and A. C. Williams were over to the State College last week getting some stone and clay analyzed which they found in prospecting for coal, and they found that they had clay which would make brick.

John Williams of this place, is a juror.

Rev. G. W. Downing, a former pastor of the Baptist church here, but now of Alexandria, Pa., again filled the pulpit at this place last Sunday morn and eve.

Mrs. W. S. Williams spent last Sunday with her mother who is quite ill.

There was a fine crowd of young people of the ridges after arbutus last Sunday afternoon.

Lissie Shawver spent last Sunday with Mattie Steel.

Blanche Williams was a pleasant caller at the home of G. G. Fink on Sunday.

YEAGERTOWN.

Prof. Floyd preached an excellent sermon on Saturday evening in the Lutheran church, preparatory to Holy Communion on Sunday. This will complete the supply work as Rev. A. H. Spangler has returned from his trip to the Holy Land and will at once resume his work.

The rumor that a tinware store and pawn shop combined were being erected for the Spring Mills boys, is incorrect. It is claimed that a dinner bucket sold to them when they started to work, even if it is pawned in but a week or two, of the next day, when they go home, must be sold at pawned prices, and the profits arising from sales do not seem sufficient to warrant success.

Taking bear out of season is positively prohibited by the late act, and women are equally liable. Take warning therefore and read up the game law.

YARNELL.

A handful of enemies will often boost a man into prominence quicker than a multitude of friends.

Pure materials only are used in

Lucas Paints (Tinted Gloss)

That accounts for their unusual brightness and rich gloss; makes them go farther, hold their color better and last longer. Ask your dealer.

John Lucas & Co Philadelphia

WADDLE.

Lester Meek and Charlie Sellers spent Sunday in Bellefonte.

Orris says he was not sick last week; was only a lemonade.

Harry Stine, of Pittsburg, came home last Thursday with his bride; we wish them a happy future.

Last Thursday evening two of our fair young damsels hired a young man to take them for a drive, so he went and got a mule, and all was happy with them except the thought of the coming 50 cts.

When he came to the top of the Stine hill some of the boys at the serenading thought they would play a joke on them. They stopped the mule and began to unhitch it, when one of the girls jumped out over the dashboard and began to cut the boys with the straps, while the young man ran for the constable. Now boys look out or the next thing you will be in the cage; but if these girls had kept quiet, as they passed by there would have been nothing done.

Everybody is busy making garden around here.

We are going to do like one of our neighboring towns did last week, and tell you what we have in our town; one blacksmith, one store-keeper, four farmers, two bachelors, one old maid, five widows, three widowers, eighteen professional loafers, one carpenter, one school teacher. Call and see us some time.

PENN TWP.

Rev. Lauffer and family took supper at Elias Zerby's on Sunday evening.
