

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

—The Thespians' Friday evening. —There were some light snow squalls on Monday in some parts of the county. —Doll's new soda fountain was put in operation this week at the Bush Arcade bakery. —The marble altar in the Catholic church is being cleaned and polished this week. —The Academy boys have fixed up their base ball diamond at Meadow Brook Park. —L. A. Schaffer has been confined to his home the past few days with an attack of the grip. —Mrs. D. H. Hastings and daughter Sara have returned from a visit with friends in Harrisburg. —New bonnets and gay spring dresses were in evidence on Sunday. The weather just suited the display. —Miss Minnie Shank one of Bellefonte's young ladies is spending a couple of weeks with her sister at Zion. —Mrs. G. S. Hartranft, of Bellefonte, underwent a serious operation in the Williamsport hospital Thursday. —The ladies aid society of the Methodist church will give a supper in the lecture room of the church this evening. —"Cheap John," the cleverest fakir in seven states, has been amusing the populace the past week. He gives big values. —The ladies aid society of the Methodist church will give a supper in the lecture room of the church Thursday evening, April 26. —Joe Katz, the Lewistown clothing merchant, spent Sunday in town among friends. He has established a nice business over there. —Ex-sheriff W. A. Ishler was recommended by the water committee and duly elected for the current year to collect water rents. —Miss Mary Showers and Raymond Jenkins were the lucky winners of the D. A. R. for the best essay on Revolutionary subjects. —Hon. James Schofield, left on Tuesday noon for Canton, Pa., to attend a gathering of Odd Fellows from the Susquehanna district. —Four young foxes in the window at Potter & Hoy's hardware store attract much attention. It is a clever collection and the little chaps play like kittens. —Our next door neighbor, John Olewine, the hardware dealer, gave a demonstration with his auto on Bishop street, last Friday that was strenuous. —Our esteemed townsman, J. Sands, after an illness of over a month, ventured up street the other day, and assured us he was in fairly good condition of health—all in which we were pleased to observe on him. —Mrs. Joseph Stevenson and daughter Prudence, William Throssell, Frank Hartman, James Treaster and Merrill Miller of Millheim left last week for W. Va., where they will stay during the summer. —Invitations are out for the approaching wedding of Mr. John Armstrong and Miss Mary Reedy, which happy event will be celebrated next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, in St. John's Episcopal church, Rev. George L. Browne of Harrisburg officiating. —Wm. T. Royer, engineer on the Central R. R. of Pa., recently returned from a trip to Belington, W. Va., where he was tendered a position on the coal and coke railroad with which Thad. Longwell is connected. He has concluded to remain at Bellefonte and will stick to his old job. —Clair Seibert of class of 1907, in the Bellefonte High school, recently made a colored drawing of the coat of arms of Pennsylvania, which is pronounced a very clever piece of work. It has been on exhibition the past week in the windows of the Index Book store, and attracts much favorable comment. —The condition of Mrs. Jones, wife of mail agent Jones, of Spring street, not having improved during her stay the past few weeks at her parents' home in Williamsport, the physicians, after holding a consultation, concluded that an operation should be performed for her ailment, appendicitis, this week. —Fred Raymond's famous comedy, "The Missouri Girl" will be the attraction at the opera house, on Wednesday, May 2, 1906. The fact that this is the eleventh season for this play is a most conclusive proof that good, clean, wholesome theatrical productions are always welcomed and generously patronized by the theatre-going public. —Monday morning Judge Ellis L. Orvis received several messages that his eldest daughter, Miss Annie, who is attending school in Philadelphia, was seriously ill and departed on the noon train. It proved a bad case of tonsillitis, that at first was thought to be diphtheria. Her condition has materially improved and he is expected to return today. —John Thompson, the young man who had his left leg injured in a railroad accident near Pittsburg last winter and submitted to amputation, arrived home on Tuesday morning and handles himself nicely with crutches. Joseph his younger brother some years ago lost his left leg in a railroad accident. It is a remarkable coincidence in the same family and truly an unfortunate one. —At a meeting of the Bellefonte High School Alumni association held April 18th, it was decided to hold the reception to the graduating class on Tuesday evening, June 5th, of commencement week in the armory. The following committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements: H. S. Taylor, chairman; Misses Mable Fauble, Anna M. Fox, Eva Crissman, Adaline Olewine, Elsie Rankin, Sallie Fitzgerald, Edna Meyer, Louise Brachbill; Messrs. W. T. Kelley, George Miller, Jessie Derstine, Fred Chambers, Sam McClure and Edward Gates. —Architect Robert T. Cole has completed plans for the new chapel to be built by the St. John's Reformed congregation in this place, on the lot in the rear of the church with a connecting door. The building will be 43x47 feet in size and is to be built of brick. The entrance will be from Spring street. The main audience room will be about 30x30 feet in size, with an infant room, two class rooms and a ladies' parlor on the ground floor. A spacious gallery will extend around two sides of the building. Work on the same will be begun early this summer.

—Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bower, of Linn street, are rejoicing over a new baby boy. —A felon on his first finger has induced shoemaker Fox to take a vacation of a week or two. —Mr. Gontrey, physical director at the Y. M. C. A., who has been visiting his parents at Buffalo, returned Monday. —Messrs. Harry and Alfred Baney of Atlantic City attended the funeral of the late Harvey Benner, Monday afternoon. —James Taylor, a student at the West Point Military school, was an arrival home yesterday to be present at the wedding of his sister, Miss Elizabeth Taylor and Robert Burns, of Johnstown. —Robert C. Burns, of Johnstown, and Miss Elizabeth Taylor, of Bellefonte, were united in marriage Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Hugh S. Taylor, Sr., on Howard street, Rev. William Laurie, former pastor of the Presbyterian church officiated. Mr. Burns for a number of years was foreman of the State College Times; at present is employed on the Johnstown Democrat; the bride is an estimable young lady of our town. Mr. and Mrs. Burns left on the afternoon train for a visit to eastern cities after which they will go to housekeeping at Johnstown. —Zeke Dobson's clodhopper dance is one of the features that will be seen in "The Missouri Girl" at the opera house Next Wednesday evening. —Ever get "swelled on yourself"? Watch Zeke and Daisy in the third act of "The Missouri Girl" and get a few pointers. Coming, May 2. —Domino, the Unionville scribble, tells a remarkable incident in this issue of a turtle that was found that had names cut on it over 50 years ago. —James Furst, Esq., left Thursday for Philadelphia where he will be joined by his brother W. S. Furst, and together they will make an extended trip through Florida. —Dennis Collins, of Altoona, and Miss Elizabeth Brown, of this place, were married in the Catholic church at 5 o'clock last Thursday morning by Rev. Father McArdle. —At the U. B. parsonage Wednesday morning, April 25, 1906, Frank W. Dillen and Nannie M. Campbell, both of Julian, Pa., were united in marriage by Rev. A. Davidson. —Grant Hoover, the hustling insurance man from Williamsport, was in town this week looking after business matters. He appears to be prospering and likes that place. —Isaac Mitchell, assistant Treasurer of the Bellefonte Trust Company, is loitering about these days at Atlantic City on a vacation and for the benefit of his health. He is enjoying a few weeks' rest. —Our esteemed townsman, J. Sands, after an illness of over a month, ventured up street the other day, and assured us he was in fairly good condition of health—all in which we were pleased to observe on him. —Mrs. Joseph Stevenson and daughter Prudence, William Throssell, Frank Hartman, James Treaster and Merrill Miller of Millheim left last week for W. Va., where they will stay during the summer. —Invitations are out for the approaching wedding of Mr. John Armstrong and Miss Mary Reedy, which happy event will be celebrated next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, in St. John's Episcopal church, Rev. George L. Browne of Harrisburg officiating. —Wm. T. Royer, engineer on the Central R. R. of Pa., recently returned from a trip to Belington, W. Va., where he was tendered a position on the coal and coke railroad with which Thad. Longwell is connected. He has concluded to remain at Bellefonte and will stick to his old job. —Clair Seibert of class of 1907, in the Bellefonte High school, recently made a colored drawing of the coat of arms of Pennsylvania, which is pronounced a very clever piece of work. It has been on exhibition the past week in the windows of the Index Book store, and attracts much favorable comment. —The condition of Mrs. Jones, wife of mail agent Jones, of Spring street, not having improved during her stay the past few weeks at her parents' home in Williamsport, the physicians, after holding a consultation, concluded that an operation should be performed for her ailment, appendicitis, this week. —Fred Raymond's famous comedy, "The Missouri Girl" will be the attraction at the opera house, on Wednesday, May 2, 1906. The fact that this is the eleventh season for this play is a most conclusive proof that good, clean, wholesome theatrical productions are always welcomed and generously patronized by the theatre-going public. —Monday morning Judge Ellis L. Orvis received several messages that his eldest daughter, Miss Annie, who is attending school in Philadelphia, was seriously ill and departed on the noon train. It proved a bad case of tonsillitis, that at first was thought to be diphtheria. Her condition has materially improved and he is expected to return today. —John Thompson, the young man who had his left leg injured in a railroad accident near Pittsburg last winter and submitted to amputation, arrived home on Tuesday morning and handles himself nicely with crutches. Joseph his younger brother some years ago lost his left leg in a railroad accident. It is a remarkable coincidence in the same family and truly an unfortunate one. —At a meeting of the Bellefonte High School Alumni association held April 18th, it was decided to hold the reception to the graduating class on Tuesday evening, June 5th, of commencement week in the armory. The following committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements: H. S. Taylor, chairman; Misses Mable Fauble, Anna M. Fox, Eva Crissman, Adaline Olewine, Elsie Rankin, Sallie Fitzgerald, Edna Meyer, Louise Brachbill; Messrs. W. T. Kelley, George Miller, Jessie Derstine, Fred Chambers, Sam McClure and Edward Gates. —Architect Robert T. Cole has completed plans for the new chapel to be built by the St. John's Reformed congregation in this place, on the lot in the rear of the church with a connecting door. The building will be 43x47 feet in size and is to be built of brick. The entrance will be from Spring street. The main audience room will be about 30x30 feet in size, with an infant room, two class rooms and a ladies' parlor on the ground floor. A spacious gallery will extend around two sides of the building. Work on the same will be begun early this summer.

—The ladies aid society of the Methodist church will give a supper in the lecture room of the church this evening. —"Cheap John," the cleverest fakir in seven states, has been amusing the populace the past week. He gives big values. —The ladies aid society of the Methodist church will give a supper in the lecture room of the church Thursday evening, April 26. —Joe Katz, the Lewistown clothing merchant, spent Sunday in town among friends. He has established a nice business over there. —Ex-sheriff W. A. Ishler was recommended by the water committee and duly elected for the current year to collect water rents. —Miss Mary Showers and Raymond Jenkins were the lucky winners of the D. A. R. for the best essay on Revolutionary subjects. —Hon. James Schofield, left on Tuesday noon for Canton, Pa., to attend a gathering of Odd Fellows from the Susquehanna district. —Four young foxes in the window at Potter & Hoy's hardware store attract much attention. It is a clever collection and the little chaps play like kittens. —Our next door neighbor, John Olewine, the hardware dealer, gave a demonstration with his auto on Bishop street, last Friday that was strenuous. —Our esteemed townsman, J. Sands, after an illness of over a month, ventured up street the other day, and assured us he was in fairly good condition of health—all in which we were pleased to observe on him. —Mrs. Joseph Stevenson and daughter Prudence, William Throssell, Frank Hartman, James Treaster and Merrill Miller of Millheim left last week for W. Va., where they will stay during the summer. —Invitations are out for the approaching wedding of Mr. John Armstrong and Miss Mary Reedy, which happy event will be celebrated next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, in St. John's Episcopal church, Rev. George L. Browne of Harrisburg officiating. —Wm. T. Royer, engineer on the Central R. R. of Pa., recently returned from a trip to Belington, W. Va., where he was tendered a position on the coal and coke railroad with which Thad. Longwell is connected. He has concluded to remain at Bellefonte and will stick to his old job. —Clair Seibert of class of 1907, in the Bellefonte High school, recently made a colored drawing of the coat of arms of Pennsylvania, which is pronounced a very clever piece of work. It has been on exhibition the past week in the windows of the Index Book store, and attracts much favorable comment. —The condition of Mrs. Jones, wife of mail agent Jones, of Spring street, not having improved during her stay the past few weeks at her parents' home in Williamsport, the physicians, after holding a consultation, concluded that an operation should be performed for her ailment, appendicitis, this week. —Fred Raymond's famous comedy, "The Missouri Girl" will be the attraction at the opera house, on Wednesday, May 2, 1906. The fact that this is the eleventh season for this play is a most conclusive proof that good, clean, wholesome theatrical productions are always welcomed and generously patronized by the theatre-going public. —Monday morning Judge Ellis L. Orvis received several messages that his eldest daughter, Miss Annie, who is attending school in Philadelphia, was seriously ill and departed on the noon train. It proved a bad case of tonsillitis, that at first was thought to be diphtheria. Her condition has materially improved and he is expected to return today. —John Thompson, the young man who had his left leg injured in a railroad accident near Pittsburg last winter and submitted to amputation, arrived home on Tuesday morning and handles himself nicely with crutches. Joseph his younger brother some years ago lost his left leg in a railroad accident. It is a remarkable coincidence in the same family and truly an unfortunate one. —At a meeting of the Bellefonte High School Alumni association held April 18th, it was decided to hold the reception to the graduating class on Tuesday evening, June 5th, of commencement week in the armory. The following committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements: H. S. Taylor, chairman; Misses Mable Fauble, Anna M. Fox, Eva Crissman, Adaline Olewine, Elsie Rankin, Sallie Fitzgerald, Edna Meyer, Louise Brachbill; Messrs. W. T. Kelley, George Miller, Jessie Derstine, Fred Chambers, Sam McClure and Edward Gates. —Architect Robert T. Cole has completed plans for the new chapel to be built by the St. John's Reformed congregation in this place, on the lot in the rear of the church with a connecting door. The building will be 43x47 feet in size and is to be built of brick. The entrance will be from Spring street. The main audience room will be about 30x30 feet in size, with an infant room, two class rooms and a ladies' parlor on the ground floor. A spacious gallery will extend around two sides of the building. Work on the same will be begun early this summer.

—The ladies aid society of the Methodist church will give a supper in the lecture room of the church this evening. —"Cheap John," the cleverest fakir in seven states, has been amusing the populace the past week. He gives big values. —The ladies aid society of the Methodist church will give a supper in the lecture room of the church Thursday evening, April 26. —Joe Katz, the Lewistown clothing merchant, spent Sunday in town among friends. He has established a nice business over there. —Ex-sheriff W. A. Ishler was recommended by the water committee and duly elected for the current year to collect water rents. —Miss Mary Showers and Raymond Jenkins were the lucky winners of the D. A. R. for the best essay on Revolutionary subjects. —Hon. James Schofield, left on Tuesday noon for Canton, Pa., to attend a gathering of Odd Fellows from the Susquehanna district. —Four young foxes in the window at Potter & Hoy's hardware store attract much attention. It is a clever collection and the little chaps play like kittens. —Our next door neighbor, John Olewine, the hardware dealer, gave a demonstration with his auto on Bishop street, last Friday that was strenuous. —Our esteemed townsman, J. Sands, after an illness of over a month, ventured up street the other day, and assured us he was in fairly good condition of health—all in which we were pleased to observe on him. —Mrs. Joseph Stevenson and daughter Prudence, William Throssell, Frank Hartman, James Treaster and Merrill Miller of Millheim left last week for W. Va., where they will stay during the summer. —Invitations are out for the approaching wedding of Mr. John Armstrong and Miss Mary Reedy, which happy event will be celebrated next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, in St. John's Episcopal church, Rev. George L. Browne of Harrisburg officiating. —Wm. T. Royer, engineer on the Central R. R. of Pa., recently returned from a trip to Belington, W. Va., where he was tendered a position on the coal and coke railroad with which Thad. Longwell is connected. He has concluded to remain at Bellefonte and will stick to his old job. —Clair Seibert of class of 1907, in the Bellefonte High school, recently made a colored drawing of the coat of arms of Pennsylvania, which is pronounced a very clever piece of work. It has been on exhibition the past week in the windows of the Index Book store, and attracts much favorable comment. —The condition of Mrs. Jones, wife of mail agent Jones, of Spring street, not having improved during her stay the past few weeks at her parents' home in Williamsport, the physicians, after holding a consultation, concluded that an operation should be performed for her ailment, appendicitis, this week. —Fred Raymond's famous comedy, "The Missouri Girl" will be the attraction at the opera house, on Wednesday, May 2, 1906. The fact that this is the eleventh season for this play is a most conclusive proof that good, clean, wholesome theatrical productions are always welcomed and generously patronized by the theatre-going public. —Monday morning Judge Ellis L. Orvis received several messages that his eldest daughter, Miss Annie, who is attending school in Philadelphia, was seriously ill and departed on the noon train. It proved a bad case of tonsillitis, that at first was thought to be diphtheria. Her condition has materially improved and he is expected to return today. —John Thompson, the young man who had his left leg injured in a railroad accident near Pittsburg last winter and submitted to amputation, arrived home on Tuesday morning and handles himself nicely with crutches. Joseph his younger brother some years ago lost his left leg in a railroad accident. It is a remarkable coincidence in the same family and truly an unfortunate one. —At a meeting of the Bellefonte High School Alumni association held April 18th, it was decided to hold the reception to the graduating class on Tuesday evening, June 5th, of commencement week in the armory. The following committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements: H. S. Taylor, chairman; Misses Mable Fauble, Anna M. Fox, Eva Crissman, Adaline Olewine, Elsie Rankin, Sallie Fitzgerald, Edna Meyer, Louise Brachbill; Messrs. W. T. Kelley, George Miller, Jessie Derstine, Fred Chambers, Sam McClure and Edward Gates. —Architect Robert T. Cole has completed plans for the new chapel to be built by the St. John's Reformed congregation in this place, on the lot in the rear of the church with a connecting door. The building will be 43x47 feet in size and is to be built of brick. The entrance will be from Spring street. The main audience room will be about 30x30 feet in size, with an infant room, two class rooms and a ladies' parlor on the ground floor. A spacious gallery will extend around two sides of the building. Work on the same will be begun early this summer.

—The ladies aid society of the Methodist church will give a supper in the lecture room of the church this evening. —"Cheap John," the cleverest fakir in seven states, has been amusing the populace the past week. He gives big values. —The ladies aid society of the Methodist church will give a supper in the lecture room of the church Thursday evening, April 26. —Joe Katz, the Lewistown clothing merchant, spent Sunday in town among friends. He has established a nice business over there. —Ex-sheriff W. A. Ishler was recommended by the water committee and duly elected for the current year to collect water rents. —Miss Mary Showers and Raymond Jenkins were the lucky winners of the D. A. R. for the best essay on Revolutionary subjects. —Hon. James Schofield, left on Tuesday noon for Canton, Pa., to attend a gathering of Odd Fellows from the Susquehanna district. —Four young foxes in the window at Potter & Hoy's hardware store attract much attention. It is a clever collection and the little chaps play like kittens. —Our next door neighbor, John Olewine, the hardware dealer, gave a demonstration with his auto on Bishop street, last Friday that was strenuous. —Our esteemed townsman, J. Sands, after an illness of over a month, ventured up street the other day, and assured us he was in fairly good condition of health—all in which we were pleased to observe on him. —Mrs. Joseph Stevenson and daughter Prudence, William Throssell, Frank Hartman, James Treaster and Merrill Miller of Millheim left last week for W. Va., where they will stay during the summer. —Invitations are out for the approaching wedding of Mr. John Armstrong and Miss Mary Reedy, which happy event will be celebrated next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, in St. John's Episcopal church, Rev. George L. Browne of Harrisburg officiating. —Wm. T. Royer, engineer on the Central R. R. of Pa., recently returned from a trip to Belington, W. Va., where he was tendered a position on the coal and coke railroad with which Thad. Longwell is connected. He has concluded to remain at Bellefonte and will stick to his old job. —Clair Seibert of class of 1907, in the Bellefonte High school, recently made a colored drawing of the coat of arms of Pennsylvania, which is pronounced a very clever piece of work. It has been on exhibition the past week in the windows of the Index Book store, and attracts much favorable comment. —The condition of Mrs. Jones, wife of mail agent Jones, of Spring street, not having improved during her stay the past few weeks at her parents' home in Williamsport, the physicians, after holding a consultation, concluded that an operation should be performed for her ailment, appendicitis, this week. —Fred Raymond's famous comedy, "The Missouri Girl" will be the attraction at the opera house, on Wednesday, May 2, 1906. The fact that this is the eleventh season for this play is a most conclusive proof that good, clean, wholesome theatrical productions are always welcomed and generously patronized by the theatre-going public. —Monday morning Judge Ellis L. Orvis received several messages that his eldest daughter, Miss Annie, who is attending school in Philadelphia, was seriously ill and departed on the noon train. It proved a bad case of tonsillitis, that at first was thought to be diphtheria. Her condition has materially improved and he is expected to return today. —John Thompson, the young man who had his left leg injured in a railroad accident near Pittsburg last winter and submitted to amputation, arrived home on Tuesday morning and handles himself nicely with crutches. Joseph his younger brother some years ago lost his left leg in a railroad accident. It is a remarkable coincidence in the same family and truly an unfortunate one. —At a meeting of the Bellefonte High School Alumni association held April 18th, it was decided to hold the reception to the graduating class on Tuesday evening, June 5th, of commencement week in the armory. The following committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements: H. S. Taylor, chairman; Misses Mable Fauble, Anna M. Fox, Eva Crissman, Adaline Olewine, Elsie Rankin, Sallie Fitzgerald, Edna Meyer, Louise Brachbill; Messrs. W. T. Kelley, George Miller, Jessie Derstine, Fred Chambers, Sam McClure and Edward Gates. —Architect Robert T. Cole has completed plans for the new chapel to be built by the St. John's Reformed congregation in this place, on the lot in the rear of the church with a connecting door. The building will be 43x47 feet in size and is to be built of brick. The entrance will be from Spring street. The main audience room will be about 30x30 feet in size, with an infant room, two class rooms and a ladies' parlor on the ground floor. A spacious gallery will extend around two sides of the building. Work on the same will be begun early this summer.

—The ladies aid society of the Methodist church will give a supper in the lecture room of the church this evening. —"Cheap John," the cleverest fakir in seven states, has been amusing the populace the past week. He gives big values. —The ladies aid society of the Methodist church will give a supper in the lecture room of the church Thursday evening, April 26. —Joe Katz, the Lewistown clothing merchant, spent Sunday in town among friends. He has established a nice business over there. —Ex-sheriff W. A. Ishler was recommended by the water committee and duly elected for the current year to collect water rents. —Miss Mary Showers and Raymond Jenkins were the lucky winners of the D. A. R. for the best essay on Revolutionary subjects. —Hon. James Schofield, left on Tuesday noon for Canton, Pa., to attend a gathering of Odd Fellows from the Susquehanna district. —Four young foxes in the window at Potter & Hoy's hardware store attract much attention. It is a clever collection and the little chaps play like kittens. —Our next door neighbor, John Olewine, the hardware dealer, gave a demonstration with his auto on Bishop street, last Friday that was strenuous. —Our esteemed townsman, J. Sands, after an illness of over a month, ventured up street the other day, and assured us he was in fairly good condition of health—all in which we were pleased to observe on him. —Mrs. Joseph Stevenson and daughter Prudence, William Throssell, Frank Hartman, James Treaster and Merrill Miller of Millheim left last week for W. Va., where they will stay during the summer. —Invitations are out for the approaching wedding of Mr. John Armstrong and Miss Mary Reedy, which happy event will be celebrated next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, in St. John's Episcopal church, Rev. George L. Browne of Harrisburg officiating. —Wm. T. Royer, engineer on the Central R. R. of Pa., recently returned from a trip to Belington, W. Va., where he was tendered a position on the coal and coke railroad with which Thad. Longwell is connected. He has concluded to remain at Bellefonte and will stick to his old job. —Clair Seibert of class of 1907, in the Bellefonte High school, recently made a colored drawing of the coat of arms of Pennsylvania, which is pronounced a very clever piece of work. It has been on exhibition the past week in the windows of the Index Book store, and attracts much favorable comment. —The condition of Mrs. Jones, wife of mail agent Jones, of Spring street, not having improved during her stay the past few weeks at her parents' home in Williamsport, the physicians, after holding a consultation, concluded that an operation should be performed for her ailment, appendicitis, this week. —Fred Raymond's famous comedy, "The Missouri Girl" will be the attraction at the opera house, on Wednesday, May 2, 1906. The fact that this is the eleventh season for this play is a most conclusive proof that good, clean, wholesome theatrical productions are always welcomed and generously patronized by the theatre-going public. —Monday morning Judge Ellis L. Orvis received several messages that his eldest daughter, Miss Annie, who is attending school in Philadelphia, was seriously ill and departed on the noon train. It proved a bad case of tonsillitis, that at first was thought to be diphtheria. Her condition has materially improved and he is expected to return today. —John Thompson, the young man who had his left leg injured in a railroad accident near Pittsburg last winter and submitted to amputation, arrived home on Tuesday morning and handles himself nicely with crutches. Joseph his younger brother some years ago lost his left leg in a railroad accident. It is a remarkable coincidence in the same family and truly an unfortunate one. —At a meeting of the Bellefonte High School Alumni association held April 18th, it was decided to hold the reception to the graduating class on Tuesday evening, June 5th, of commencement week in the armory. The following committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements: H. S. Taylor, chairman; Misses Mable Fauble, Anna M. Fox, Eva Crissman, Adaline Olewine, Elsie Rankin, Sallie Fitzgerald, Edna Meyer, Louise Brachbill; Messrs. W. T. Kelley, George Miller, Jessie Derstine, Fred Chambers, Sam McClure and Edward Gates. —Architect Robert T. Cole has completed plans for the new chapel to be built by the St. John's Reformed congregation in this place, on the lot in the rear of the church with a connecting door. The building will be 43x47 feet in size and is to be built of brick. The entrance will be from Spring street. The main audience room will be about 30x30 feet in size, with an infant room, two class rooms and a ladies' parlor on the ground floor. A spacious gallery will extend around two sides of the building. Work on the same will be begun early this summer.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE. MARRIAGE LICENSES. Dennis Callahan - Bellefonte Elizabeth Brown - Wilmerding Harry K. Stine - Philipsburg Minnie McClain - Zion George B. Hail - Sober Minnie S. Nesse - Beaver Falls Harrison L. Smith - Axemann Hattie P. Griffith - Warriorsmark Anna E. Heberling - Pa. Furnace Harry G. Ebbs - Howard Charles M. Confer - Elvie Strunk Gustavus T. Rumberger - Philipsburg Lelah A. Grove - Bellefonte Harry J. Yearick - Bellefonte Maud Woomer - Roland Fred P. Gehret - Johnstown Armona Bathurst - Johnstown Robert C. Burns - Bellefonte Elizabeth Taylor - Julian Gordon W. Ardell - Julian Sue M. Sanderson - Julian Frank W. Dillen - Julian Nannie M. Campbell - Lock Haven Emary I. Conley - Aaronsburg Mary B. Yearick - Aaronsburg

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. J. C. F. Motz et al to Cloyd Dinges, March 15, 1906; 14 acres 41 perches in Haines twp. $2650. John Shivery to Nora B. Tice, Feb. 10, 1906; 36 perches in Howard boro. $250. Thomas C. Williams to D. W. Clark, June 20, 1904; lot in Eagleville. $100. Chas. T. Cook et ux to Martha Moserberger, March 30, 1906; premises in Bellefonte. $3000. J. I. Reareck et ux to W. F. McClellan, March 6, 1906; 48 perches in Spring Mills. $1300. Emma G. Gray et baron to Harry W. Wilson, March 8, 1906; land in Philipsburg. $3500. H. A. Brungart et ux to Michael Corman, Jr., March 4, 1906; 5 acres in Walker twp. $100. Harry C. Shirck et ux to Theodore D. Boal, March 31, 1906; 111 acres in Harris twp. $5000. Michael Segner et ux to Theodore D. Boal, March 30, 1906; 25 acres 35 perches in Harris twp. $2250. Howard Creamery corporation to W. Fred Reynolds, April 3, 1906; land in Bellefonte. $10. W. B. Mingle et al exr. of Rebecca Sparr to Chas. D. Bartholmew, March 27, 1906; 40 perches in Centre Hall. $2220. D. F. Kerr et ux to James A. McCool, April 4, 1906; two tracts of land containing 123 acres 251 perches in Potter twp. $23750. John Spicher to Chas. D. Bartholmew, April 5, 1906; 1/4 acre in Centre Hall. $23750. Jane Gussallus et baron to J. G. Confer, Feb. 10, 1906; 50 acres in Liberty twp. $900. Amina C. Evans et al to Kate Grossman, Feb. 13, 1906; 2 acres 100 perches in Potter twp. $500. Isaac May's exrs. to Dannie M. Kline, March 22, 1906; 182 acres in Spring twp. $11000. Geo. M. Boal et ux to Cyrus Brungart, March 28, 1906; 132 acres 52 perches in Potter twp. $5302. Wm. B. Mingle et al exr. of Rebecca Sparr to Geo. M. Boal, March 27, 1906; two tracts of land containing 132 acres and 52 perches in Potter twp. $5302. Margaret Emerick et al to Isaac W. Baney, April 5, 1906; 44 acres and 2 perches in Benner twp. $2600. H. C. Quigley et ux to Jacob H. Bechler, April 4, 1906; land in Curtin twp. $825. Jacob Hick's admr's to Mary E. Sylvers et baron, March 30, 1906; 42 acres 121 5/10 perches in Halfmoon twp. $3500. James B. Strohm et al to Robt. M. Smith, Dec. 1, 1905; 131 acres 34 perches in Potter twp. $4000. J. F. Motz et al to W. P. Ard, Feb. 26, 1906; 5 pieces of land containing 101 acres 380 perches in Haines twp. $4800. Enoch W. Sweeny et ux to Harry C. Shirck, May 13, 1899; 111 acres in Harris twp. $4000. A. M. Brown et ux to S. P. Gray, May 22, 1905; 107 acres 96 perches in Ferguson twp. $1614. Rebecca Sparr's exrs. to Henry Meyer, March 27, 1906; 147 acres 93 perches in Harris twp. $5200. Lot B. Callahan et ux to Geo. W. Howard, April 11, 1906; premises in Philipsburg. $1250. David Pink to W. Fred Fink, April 13, 1906; 51 acres 74 perches in Taylor twp. $500. Caroline Gratz et ux to Reuben Smull, Nov. 2, 1876; 10 acres in Miles twp. $15. Bruce D. Brisbin et al to Harry S. Shirck, April 7, 1906; 100 acres in Potter twp. $1900. James Callahan et ux to Jacob B. Sprow, Sept. 1, 1906; lot in Potter twp. $75. Wm. B. Mingle et al exr. of Rebecca Sparr to Harry S. Shirck, March 27, 1906; land in Centre Hall. $1,062. C. C. Bartges et ux to B. D. Brisbin et al, April 3; 155 acres in Potter twp. $4000. David S. Bechler et ux to Clair R. Schenck, March 26, 1902; 1 1/10 interest in land in Liberty twp. $600. H. N. Waller et ux to E. N. Irvin, Dec. 6, 1904; lot in Snow Shoe twp. $135. John N. Lauth et al to H. A. Moore et al, Nov. 1, 1904; 6 acres 40 perches in Howard twp. $1.

Does your baking powder contain alum? Look upon the label. Use only a powder whose label shows it to be made with cream of tartar.

NOTE.—Safety lies in buying only the Royal Baking Powder, which is the best cream of tartar baking powder that can be had.

FOR SALE—A lot of choice timothy hay, for cash only. Geo. E. Wise, Rebersburg, Pa. FOR SALE—Tresspass notices at the Centre Court office. 5 cents a piece or 6 for a quarter. BUFF LEGHORNS—A few eggs for hatching. Apply to Geo. Valentine, Jr., Bellefonte, Pa. 1511 FOR SALE—A $18 roller Top Desk, good as new. Price now $50. Inquire at the Centre Democrat office. WANTED—A good steady farm hand, good wages and good meals. Apply to S. Lundy Lucas, Fleming, Pa. x 20 FOR SALE—A black horse, weighs over 1600, works in all harness sound and alight. M. C. Stover, Farmers Mills. FOR SALE—grey mare coming 3 years old suitable for all kinds of work, family horse. J. C. Goodhart, Centre Hall. FOR SALE—pure English Berkshire boar 2 1/2 years old, quiet and a good breeder. Will exchange for sows or pigs, at once. J. K. Hise, Centre Hall, Pa. SEED OATS—L. Bason Co. White Tartar Oats, weight 4 1/2 lbs per bushel. 1000 lbs at Centre Co. fair 15¢. Apply to George Valentine Jr., Bellefonte, Pa. 1511 WANTED—A furnished residence on either Linn or Curtin streets during the summer season by Mrs. A. Wilson Norris. Apply to Blanchard & Blanchard city. PASTURE LANDS—I have leased 30,000 acres of good pasture lands, at Beaver Mills, Centre Co., Pa. plenty of fresh water and will herd cattle after May 1st. Address: Jno. Jennings, Julian Pa. x17 FOR SALE—15 eggs for sale. "Fishel's" White Plymouth Rock or Barchers' S. O. White Leghorns; satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Orders filled promptly. The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., 1311-11 ave. Altoona, Pa. WANTED—Good reliable agents to sell our choice tea, coffee, baking powder, extracts and spices. Liberal terms to the right parties. Permanent positions for the entire year. Circulars and terms free. Address: The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., 1311-11 ave. Altoona, Pa. WANTED—Traveling salesman. Must furnish reference and invest One Thousand ($1000) Dollars in our 1 cent boots. Salary and expenses paid. Experience not required. Wet cash business at a mill. The Wheeling Roofing & Corning Co., Wheeling West Virginia. WANTED—An agent is wanted in Bellefonte, under a very liberal and exclusive agency contract to write accident insurance for the oldest Pennsylvania accident company. No industrial plan. If you are qualified for the work and want to represent a good company with good policies and receive good commission for your work, address: The Commercial Accident Company, Philadelphia. x17 FOR SALE—Rare opportunity for investment. Large lot on Spring street running parallel with Army building on Lamb street, to electric light building, adjoining the city. The best lot for 4 families all rented. Entire property well adapted for manufacturing purposes or tenement houses. Location also convenient to the new depot of the Central R. R. of Pa. Inquire of Robert Cole, agent, Crider Block, Bellefonte, Pa. WANTED—By Chicago wholesale and mail order house, assistance in management (man or woman) for this county and adjoining territory. Salary $20 and expenses paid weekly; expense money advanced. Work pleasant; post on permanent. No investment or experience required. Square and valuable. Write for particulars and enclose self-addressed envelope. Superintendent, 132 Lake St., Chicago, Ill. x17 HORSES FOR SALE—A matched pair of black colts, three and four years old full brother and sister, weigh 165 lbs, height about 15 1/2, well broken together. One bay horse five years old 6 hands high, weight about 1300, bred by registered English Hackney, dam a well bred Kentucky mare, a five star harness driver will work anywhere and not afraid of automobiles or steam. Also a three year old half-bred Percheron and French coach bay colt, about 15 1/2, weight 1000 lbs, has been handled some. All this stock is guaranteed sound and kind. Apply to George Valentine, Jr., Bellefonte, Pa. 1411

MARKET QUOTATIONS. Bellefonte—Produce. The following prices prevailed Thursday morning. The following prices are paid by S. W. BARK & Co. for produce: Eggs, per dozen 15 Lard, per pound 10 Butter, per pound 10 Tallow, per pound 8 Butter per pound 25 Shoulder, per pound 8 Potatoes, per bushel 10 Apples per bushel 10c to 11 Bellefonte—Grain. The following prices are paid by C. Y. WAGNER for grain: Wheat, old 80 Wheat, new 80 Oats 75 Barley 45 Rye 55 Corn Shelled 50 Corn new 50 Coburn Markets. Butter 20c per lb Wheat per bu 1.25 Eggs 14 doz Corn per bu 1.00 Ham 10 lb 1.00 Shoulders 10 lb 1.00 Bacon 10 lb 1.00 Potatoes 10c per bu Lard 10c per lb Lock Haven Markets. Butter per pound 25 to 30c; eggs per dozen 15c; dressed chicken per lb 16 to 18c; honey per pound 12c; cabbage per head 12 to 15c; chickens 40 to 60c; potatoes per bushel 20c; apples per peck 50c; corn per bushel 50 to 55c; onions per bushel 50c; celery per bunch 5 to 10c; land per pound 9 to 12c; sauerkraut per quart 5 to 6c; peaporn per dozen ears 10c; carrots per bunch 5c; endive per bunch 5c; 10c; turnips per peck 7 to 12c; water cress per bunch 5c; sassafras per bunch 5c; parsnips per peck 10 to 15c; dried apples per quart 5c; rhubarb per bunch 10c; onions per bunch 5c; beets per pk 15c; horseradish per glass 10c; maple sugar per lb 15c; horse radish per bunch 5c; onion sets per pt 7 to 10; lettuce per head 5c. PENNY A WORD ADV. Advertisements less than 25 words, from subscribers, one issue free. Additional issues 10 cents. Rate to others, penny-a-word for each issue. FOR SALE—A farm with 240 acres of timothy and woodland. Henry Thompson Howard, Pa. 1417 WANTED—Men to cut extract wood at Van Hook, on T. & C. R. R., 2 1/2 miles from Van Hook—6c per cord. B. F. Davis, Penna. Furnace, Pa. AGENTS—Two men with horse and wagon wanted to take orders and deliver goods in Centre, Blair and Huntingdon counties. Inquire of S. M. Bell, Boalsburg. x17 SALESMAN WANTED—Experienced canvassers with horse and buggy for county work, on salary, which with expenses are paid weekly. Extra commissions are earned by competent men. Write at once giving age and experience to M. M. Penner Co., Fredonia, N. Y.

YOU WILL FEEL PROUD of your property when it is painted with Davis' 100 per cent Pure Paint as it produces a refinement of finish not obtainable by using other paints. The cost will be LESS, as DAVIS' covers MORE. You will therefore have fewer gallons to buy. Analysis and guarantee on every can tells you what you are buying. SOLD BY POTTER-HOY HARDWARE CO. BELLEFONTE, PA.