

Correspondents' Department

The news in condensed form from all parts of Centre County

SPRING MILLS.

We heard a lawn mower in our town. This is one of the positive signs that spring has come, gentle Annie.

MILESBURG.

Samuel Baird and Clyde McKinley last week started to a mountain stream for trout, found many fishermen; they succeeded in catching 40, 8 and 10 inches long—came home rejoicing over their catch.

WINGATE.

Mrs. John Welch and family, of Clearfield and Mrs. James Johnson, of Nittany, are visiting their parents, D. W. McCloskey's, at this place.

WALKER TWP.

I see in the Howard Hustler, of April 21, an item entitled, "A Great Mistake," in regard to our mail service.

NITTANY.

John Woerner and wife, of Bellefonte, visited their many friends at this place on Sunday.

BENORE.

Misses Keichline, Bare and Mr. Smith, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at Haugh's.

MOSHANNON.

Mrs. E. C. French and son Mack, of Clearfield, were pleasant visitors in town on Monday.

PENN TWP.

While helping to move Harry Boop last week, Isaac Lykens had the misfortune of falling off the wagon and badly spraining his ankle.

YARNELL.

A. G. Walker spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. James Poorman, at Snow Shoe.

LOVEVILLE AND VICINITY.

The men are busy getting ready to plant corn.

OAK HALL.

James Hollabaugh and wife, of Altoona, moved into the house which was formerly vacated by Thos. Fishel.

MARTHA.

Budd Thompson was kept quite busy fighting fire on the mountain last week.

PORT MATILDA.

Fire has been raging for several days on the Allegheny mountain, doing considerable damage among fences.

FIDLER.

Some of our farmers are done plowing and others have their seeding out.

STORMSTOWN.

Gibson McAfee has left our town and will make his home in Lewistown where he has engaged work.

SMULLTON.

Mayme Wolfe is teaching a term of summer school at Rebersburg, which she has opened on Monday.

TYLERSVILLE.

The corner stone of the new Reformed church is to be laid on Sunday, May 13, at 1:30 pm., so it has been reported.

John W. Winkleman was painting at Hugettville last week.

Wm. Bottoff and family spent Sunday at Pine Grove.

Miss Mary Lomison, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday at home.

John Winkleman and several other gentlemen of Altoona, spent several days here last week, trout fishing and met with great success.

Wm. Farber attended the funeral of Mr. Funk at Port Matilda, Saturday.

Miss Bertha Lucas has returned home after several months' visit in Lock Haven.

Mrs. J. G. Harter and family, of Walker, visited Cal. Wilson and family on Sunday.

After winning from Fillmore by 15 to 1, and from Baileyville 3 to 3, our 2nd team went down to defeat a big mixed team from Rock State College and Bellefonte, at Hunters park, Saturday by a score of 9 to 7.

Lucy Fleming spent Saturday with her brother Thomas in Beech Creek.

A spring wagon load of people from Eagleville stopped at the home of James Gunsallus on Monday for dinner.

Wilson Sellers, head clerk for Baisor & Sellers, Altoona, came home Saturday to see friends and get good country air.

Miss Dolly Ricketts has gone to Snow Shoe where she expects to attend the summer primary school.

We had quite a fire near town one day last week; the wood shed on the farm owned by Will Beck, and occupied by Harry Tressler, caught fire some way and had it not been for the wind coming from the south and the timely arrival of the neighbors, the house would have been burned also.

Master Cal. Williams spent part of last week at Graysville; he was lucky enough to bring home an 8 inch trout; who caught it, Cal.

Robert Keck (I Z) while returning from drifting passed through our town early Monday morning; so now get ahead of Robert if you can.

Mrs. Horace Winkleman was called to Jersey Shore last week on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Sweely.

Mrs. M. Price, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday at A. L. Craft's.

Several of Karthaus' most popular young men, while on their fishing tour, stopped off at the Ward farm where they were joyfully entertained and the next morning they then started on and finished their trip, but on their return they had no fish—so probably they were not fishing all the time.

Will Zerby and bride, of Spring Mills, were the guests of H. P. Zerby and family one day the past week.

Mrs. Harriet Walker is visiting her parents, at Juniata this week.

Warning—to the young ladies who crossed Lucas' field last Saturday evening, that the next offence will be $5.00 for trespassing, or rather, for the heading of rigs.

Miss Pearl Winkleman, of Flemington, spent Sunday with her many friends at this place.

Arrangements are being made to complete the telephone line running from this place to Milesburg.

Our men and boys around here had a big time fighting fire last week.

Miss Alma Pletcher and gentleman friend, Mr. Robb, of Howard, were the guests of Miss Mittie Winkleman on Saturday night.

Walter Wensel, Agatha Wensel and Minnie Hayes, of Howard, took supper at James Gunsallus' on Sunday night.

Edith M. Beck went home after lending a helping hand for a few days to Mrs. D. J. Beck.

Some people go to the store on purpose for coffee, then walk home without it after buying it.

Send for the Doctor if you can't understand your trouble, but the chances are its due directly to constipation, a clogged liver or a disordered stomach, and Vin-te-na Liver Pills would cure you in less time than the doctor can do it. All dealers.

Edith M. Beck went home after lending a helping hand for a few days to Mrs. D. J. Beck.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Harry Council, of Renova, was a visitor to A. G. Walker's last week.

Edith M. Beck went home after lending a helping hand for a few days to Mrs. D. J. Beck.

The Nittany Cornet Band gave an open air concert in front of Peck's store, also in front of Albert Williams' store, on Saturday night, which was appreciated very much by all who heard them; the band boys are to be congratulated on the success they made last winter, under instructions of Rube Colyer.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Edith M. Beck went home after lending a helping hand for a few days to Mrs. D. J. Beck.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Edith M. Beck went home after lending a helping hand for a few days to Mrs. D. J. Beck.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Edith M. Beck went home after lending a helping hand for a few days to Mrs. D. J. Beck.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Edith M. Beck went home after lending a helping hand for a few days to Mrs. D. J. Beck.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Edith M. Beck went home after lending a helping hand for a few days to Mrs. D. J. Beck.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Edith M. Beck went home after lending a helping hand for a few days to Mrs. D. J. Beck.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Edith M. Beck went home after lending a helping hand for a few days to Mrs. D. J. Beck.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Edith M. Beck went home after lending a helping hand for a few days to Mrs. D. J. Beck.

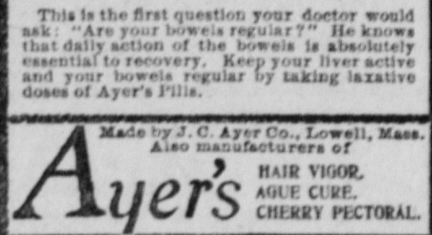

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Miss Marie Nolan, who is teaching summer school here, is getting along very nicely and has quite a large school.

Edith M. Beck went home after lending a helping hand for a few days to Mrs. D. J. Beck.

Pale, Thin, Nervous?

Then your blood must be in a very bad condition. You certainly know what to take, then take it—Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

goods in now, prices away down; any one dealing with him will find him very kind and obliging.

Miss Blanche Griffin was in our town last week.

Some of our farmers are ready to plant corn.

William Confer, John V. Kahl, and Jacob Lamey, started for Yeagertown on the 26, intending to spend the season there at plating.

Stella Feidler and Jennie Reninger were guests of Mrs. Mary Reninger, on Sunday night.

Harry Smith, William Smith, and sister Lillie, will start for Perry county this week, to take charge of a lumber job. We wish them success.

While enroute from Greenburr to Booneville on Sunday, the horse became unmanageable, and Harry Lauback and Charles Bruner were thrown from the buggy.

Rosa and Dessie Ruhl were guests of merchant J. A. Shreckengast over Sunday.

Mrs. Christian Apple, of Booneville, died suddenly on Friday morning, the 27, interment in St. Paul's cemetery, Sunday forenoon; services in the United Ev. church, Rev. Searle officiating. Her age was 68 years, 8 months and 7 days. Her husband preceded her to the spirit world about five months ago.

Moyer's Little Liver Pills. Puny, but oh! My. For sale at Krumrine's.

A careful computation from some known facts satisfies one of the fire insurance experts that the San Francisco losses of the companies will be, for American companies, $98,000,000, and for foreign companies, $80,000,000.

Reports are of a very good meeting at the Union Christian Endeavor meeting at Centennial.

I wonder what is so attractive around Centre Line that the Dry Hollow boys walk away in here every Sunday night—something more than common.

Harry Barker, one of our fancy sports was the guest of Miss Gephart, Saturday evening.

Geo. Ward expects to leave our town next week; we wonder what Sadie will do. Good bye George.

Hugh McAfee carried his lantern all over town last Thursday night so he could witness a great jump that one of our boys said he could make; after carrying the lantern around for several hours the boys all went home leaving Mackey standing in the road with his eyes as big as moons.

Victor Way is an up-to-date and all-around fellow, but he goes to Bald Eagle too often.

We expect Harry Gates to be with us soon.

Herma says it is no lie, it is no bluff, the Stormstown girls are just the stuff.

J. G. Burket has a fall line of spring

I think a man that reaches the age of 55 or 60 years should have a little more common sense and pity for a poor horse than to let him stand in the cold and rain without a blanket while he goes to a place of business which lasts a whole hour or more—as a man from our neighboring town did a few days ago.

Verna Stover has come to stay an indefinite time with her sister, Mrs. D. H. Musser.

Use Moyer's White Liniment for Rheumatism, Sprains, Aches, etc. Pint bottles twenty-five cents. For sale at Krum

Some of our farmers are done plowing and others have their seeding out.

We had a good old thunder shower Sunday night and now the grass and wheat look fine.

Miss Grace, and the young daughter, of A. A. Stover, had the misfortune to fall off the sofa and sprain her arm.

Wm. Boob, while trimming apple trees for G. W. Wolf, cut his leg badly but it is healing nicely.

Archie Witemeyer had the misfortune to be bitten by a dog last week.

A certain young man said he would not plow again in a swamp unless he had a gasoline yacht.

Lester Fiedler was at the home of Jacob Haines.

Benj. Jackson was in town Monday.

T. G. Hosterman, of Coburn, was in town on Saturday.

Fifteen headaches cured for 10c by using "Moyer's Headache Tablets," if

Unquestionably the best

MORNING NEWSPAPER

In Pittsburgh is

THE POST

All Newsdealers Sell it.

Lucas Paints advertisement with logo and product details.

Davis' 100 per cent Pure Paint advertisement with product details.

D-Zerta advertisement with product details.