

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

Gen'l James A. Beaver delivered the Memorial Day address this year at Huntingdon. Mrs. Frank Montgomery, of Bellefonte, is visiting in her old home in Philadelphia. Mrs. Wm. Johnson, of Wallaceport, and Mrs. L. J. Heaton, of Runville, were pleasant callers. Capt. W. C. Patterson, of State College, was shaking hands with his friends in Bellefonte Saturday. Miss Helen Otto, of Johnstown, is visiting friends in town and expects to remain here during the summer. Mrs. Louis Carpeneto was operated upon Sunday at the Bellefonte hospital, and is getting along very nicely. Don't fail to make use of our free want advertising department whenever you have anything you want to sell, rent or buy. Mrs. James C. Wian and her daughter, Irene, and the former's mother, Mrs. Frank P. Davis, are visiting friends in Pittsburg. The Bellefonte Academy nine won from Snow Shoe, Saturday at this place, in a seven inning contest, by the score of 19 to 1. John Ardell, the lumber dealer, was seized with a severe attack of heart trouble on Sunday evening, but is much improved since then. The May Devotion service in St. John's Catholic church came to a close Sunday evening with a processional in which ninety children participated. On Sunday, May 6th, a Bible school was organized in the M. E. church at Rock Forge by unanimous consent, on the same plan as that at Coleville. Postmaster Ira Confer, of Yarnell, was in town this week interested in raising funds to secure the erection of a telephone line from that place to Milesburg. Harry W. Lewis, of New York City, was last week awarded the contract to furnish the veils for the veiling of the Monument. The unveiling will be done by electricity. Frank P. Davis, the moulder left last week for the Westinghouse works near Pittsburg where he will accept a position. Mrs. Davis is visiting friends at Genesee, N. Y. Democratic primaries and county convention, commencement exercises of the High school, and the dedication of the Monument all come in next week. In consequence Bellefonte will be busy. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Potter accompanied by Mr. Potter's sister Miss Tamazine, of Baltimore, arrived in Bellefonte Saturday morning, and spent Sunday at the home of James H. Potter on Linn street. The Bellefonte Republican and the Daily News will be continued under the direction of Earl C. Tuten, the present Register of Centre county. Since January it was under the direction of his father. Remember the excellent dinner which will be served by the ladies of the Lutheran church on the day for the dedication of the soldiers' monument Friday, June 8th, in the vacant rooms on Bishop street, formerly occupied by Doll's bakery. Proceeds for the benefit of the church. Meals 25 cents. At the prize debate on Friday, at the Bellefonte Academy, the judges were Revs. J. A. Piatts, Ambrose M. Schmidt and W. M. Reierick, all of Bellefonte. The first prize of ten dollars was unanimously awarded to Charles Miller and the second prize of five dollars to Howard Creighton. Rev. Reierick of the Lutheran church having been appointed to assist in the installation ceremonies of Rev. Bender, the new minister of the Phillipsburg Lutheran congregation, on next Sabbath, the Lutheran pulpit in this place will be filled in the morning by Secretary Meserve of the Y. M. C. A., of this place, and Rev. Fleck of Zion, on Sunday evening. Joseph Holloway and wife (nee Gramley of Miles twp.) now of Akron, Ohio, were callers, on their way to Aaronsburg, where they will visit friends and also in Brushvalley, Mrs. Holloway's former home. Mr. Holloway is a son of Jacob Holloway, dec'd., a former old resident of Aaronsburg. This is Mrs. Holloway's first visit to her native county of Centre, in twenty-three years. The American Lime and Stone company last week booked an order for thirty cars of furnace stone a day for the next four months to be shipped to a Pittsburg firm. This is one of the largest orders of the kind booked at the company's plants hereabout. The Whitecock quarries at Pleasant Gap have their large crusher ready for operation and orders booked for large quantities of stone. Twice a week the new street commissioner goes over the principal thoroughfares of the town cleaning up dirt and rubbish so that our streets will be more tidy in appearance. Bellefonte is noted for its pretty homes, but in striking contrast are the many dilapidated pavements, irregular curbstones and gutters, and bad streets. During the coming week everyone should take a little time towards ridding up, sweeping and putting front of the homes in tidy condition. The fountain in front of the court house was taken up on Monday morning on account of its proximity to the Curtin statue and soldiers' monument, and the water committee of council will erect two smaller fountains, one at each end of the walk fronting the courthouse. Many think another spot would have been preferable as the location will afford somewhat of a loosing place same as where the former fountain stood. The old fountain will be repaired and erected down at the C. R. R. of Pa. depot. Fire was discovered at the home of William Burrows on East Linn street at 10 o'clock Friday morning, which totally destroyed the house together with its contents. Only by efficient work of the firemen was the adjoining property saved. The fire is supposed to have originated from a chicken-brooder containing several lighted lamps, which was setting on the back porch. The loss on the house, which was owned by Mrs. A. J. Cruise, is about $3000 fully covered by insurance. Mr. Burrows lost almost his entire house-hold goods, and carried no insurance. The flames were so far advanced that the family saved very little, some being compelled to jump from the second story.

Al. S. Garman, of Tyrone, is spending the week in Bellefonte. The Bellefonte Central will resume their usual schedule on Friday, June 1. Gross W. Mingle moved his household effects back to Centre Hall on Tuesday. Watch for our new serial story in the Magazine Section in a few weeks by A. Conan Doyle. At the Gentile horse sale on Saturday, at the Garman House, the average price was $191.09. A game of base ball will be played on the Glass works meadow Friday, June 1st, between Juniata College and Bellefonte Academy. Miss Laura Robinson, daughter of Rear Admiral Robinson, of Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Kilpatrick, Curtin street. Dr. Humes Roberts and wife, of Pasadena, California, are greeting their old friends in Bellefonte at present. The doctor recently underwent an operation and is now recuperating. The Curtin statue will be unveiled by Miss Margaret Burnet, the youngest grand-daughter of the War Governor; the Soldiers' Monument by Miss Helen Fox, daughter of Joseph Fox, dec'd, who was a soldier. On Friday, June 8th, all the banks in Bellefonte will close at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, and remain closed during the remainder of the day. Parties desiring to do business in the banks should call early on that day. Mrs. L. E. Jones is improving at the home of her parents in Williamsport, from the operation she underwent for appendicitis in the hospital of that city several weeks ago, and prospects are she may soon be able to come to her home in this place. Fortney & Fortney is the name of a new legal partnership recently formed at this place. The senior member is Col. David F. Fortney, one of the leading members of the Centre County Bar, and a prominent citizen of the county. The junior member of the firm is his son D. Paul Fortney, who recently passed a most creditable examination and was admitted to the practice. They will continue in the same offices, in the First building opposite the court house, where prompt attention and the best professional services will be given at all times to their clients. F. P. Green, the druggist, proposes to observe his 50th anniversary as proprietor of the popular pharmacy in the Bush House by the formal opening of his new soda fountain on this Thursday, May 31st. All visitors to the store will receive a souvenir on that day. During the past month Mr. Green has made some extensive improvements on the interior, the most attractive of which is his new soda fountain, one of the latest and finest to be had. A large crowd is expected and all will be royally received. Go and help Mr. Green celebrate this important event. Yesterday's Memorial ceremonies in Bellefonte were conducted with imposing exercises. At 1:30 p.m., the parade formed at the diamond and moved to the Union cemetery in the following order: Coleville Band, Company B 5th Regiment, Gregg Post G. A. R., P. O. S. of A., Undine and Logan Fire Companies, and were joined by about a hundred school children bearing flags. At the cemetery the usual program of decorating graves was observed after which the procession returned to the Court House where the dedication address was delivered by Clement Dale, Esq., whose effort was eloquent, patriotic, deeply eulogistic of the departed heroes. It was especially noticeable that the ranks of the old soldiers are growing less, year by year. ABOUT MASTODON TEETH. EDITOR CENTRE DEMOCRAT: I notice in the Democrat of last week the account of a large tooth being found in Penn-creek, supposed to be a tooth of the mastodon, an animal now extinct. This is not the first tooth of this kind found in Centre county. Some twelve or fifteen years ago James Delong found a tooth of the same description in the Bald Eagle creek, near the Bagleyville bridge. He thought it a queer looking stone and gave it to John Leggett, of Beech Creek who has it in his possession at the present time. About five years ago I had this tooth in my possession and in visiting the schools of Boggs township as director, I exhibited the tooth in all the schools. The tooth was broken when found, but the pieces are perfect and weigh within a fraction of five pounds; the enamel was of a green coat. The size of the whole tooth cannot be estimated. Seventy years ago when digging the lock seat at the head of Marsh Creek dam, they found bones of immense size, but they crumbled to dust when exposed to the air. Respectfully yours, JOSEPH L. NEFF, Romola. Mr. Ertle, the gentleman who has the large tooth found recently in Penns creek, below Spring Mills, will leave the tooth at this office for public inspection, and we expect to have it here in a few days and everybody is invited to call and view the curiosity. If any of our readers in the county ever came across a similar find in this county they are requested to report same, to us for publication, as a matter of general information. Weather Report. A sweet girl student thus described the manner in which a goat butted the boy out of the front yard: "He hurried the previous end of his anatomy against the boy's afterward with an earnestness and velocity which backed by the ponderosity of the goat's vertebrae, imparted a momentum that was not relaxed until the boy landed on terra firma beyond the pale of the goat's jurisdiction."

OVER THE COUNTY.

A purse containing about sixty dollars, only about sixty cents of which was in coin, was lost recently by Arber J. Cumming, of near Linden Hall. Mrs. Lee Brooks, of Linden Hall, who lost her watch on Nittany mountain, had it returned; it was found the same day by John Herman, of Pleasant Gap. The Methodist church at Millheim reopened lately, the money necessary to repair the church was contributed and subscribed during the services day of reopening. While assisting in remodeling the house of Joseph Bitner, at Farmers Mills, William Hagen, one of the carpenters, fell from the scaffolding and sustained a serious injury. H. B. Herring, Spring Mills, Henry Meyer and A. N. Corman, Rebersburg, appointed to lay out a bridge across Elk creek in the borough of Millheim, met to perform that duty last Friday. John Benner, of Centre Hall, who has been in Lock Haven visiting friends, underwent a serious operation in the hospital Thursday morning for a growth on his neck, that proved successful. Mrs. Porter Olenick, of Lewistown, formerly of Potter twp., was obliged to go to Philadelphia hospital and undergo a very serious operation peculiar to her sex. Spring Mills is having considerable notoriety of late from the finding of a tooth belonging to a mastodon of past ages, a full account of the find and description of the tooth having been given in last week's Centre Democrat. Harry M. Allison while at work in the Allison's mill at Spring Mills on Tuesday, in some manner his left hand caught in a corn sheller and the first and second fingers on that hand were torn off. Owing to the drought over the central part of this state, mountain fires prevailed in many parts of the county. As a result an enormous amount of bills have been presented to the county commissioners for paying those who were appointed to fight the fires. F. L. Shope, of Boggs township, was in our office on Tuesday, enthusiastic over the test well he is about to sink on his farm out on the Divide annually he thinks there are good surface indications of something valuable underneath, either oil or gas. He is an old-time driller and knows something about the business. J. Newlin Hall, of Howard township, while bringing a heavy iron roller from Jacob Robbs, was thrown off the seat in front of the roller and his limbs and parts of his body was under the roller until Mrs. Robbs summoned help and the roller was lifted from his body. Mr. Hall is confined to bed suffering from many bruises, he has been delirious most of the time, indicating a very serious condition. Miss Bessie G. Glenn, daughter of Dr. W. S. Glenn of State College, and the only woman in the senior class of more than 100 students at the college, has just been awarded the 150 prize annually offered by the Daughters of the American Revolution for the best historical essay on the revolutionary days in Pennsylvania. The testimonial was established several years ago by Miss Julia K. Hogg, and is open to any young woman student of any college in the state. An affair of considerable magnitude and certainly of more than ordinary interest occurred at the Messianian parsonage May 24th, at Snow Shoe Intersection, when James E. Starrette and Miss Rebecca Charles, and Harry Charles and Miss Alydia J. Freeze, all of Centre City, presented themselves for wedlock. The parties presented a splendid appearance and seemed to enjoy the delightfuls of order. May a long and happy life be theirs to enjoy. Friday, June 1, D. W. Heaton starts to attend the graduating exercises of the law students at Valparaiso, Ind., University, where his son Walter will graduate. Mr. Heaton expects to be away about ten days and take in some of the sights at Chicago, and visit friends at Milwaukee. Walter has already opened an office at Michigan City, Ind., and will commence to practice law at once. We congratulate Walter on his success and may his life be as successful in the future as it has been in the past. Mr. Heaton is of Patton twp., and taught school for several years in that section. Mrs. B. W. Rumberger, of Hubersburg, Pa., who for the past two months has been visiting in the West, returned Wednesday, after visiting her sons Wilbur and Guyer, of Elk City, Oklahoma, as well as some of the most hospitable people, and many of the beautiful and progressive cities throughout Oklahoma. On her return, beginning May 1st she visited friends in Iowa, Missouri, Indiana, Ohio, as well as some of the good people from different counties of our own state, many of whom are scattered along the way through the western cities and towns, especially at Pittsburg and suburbs such as Wilson, Crafts, Wilkesburg, Pittsair, Knoxville, Johnstown, etc. While in Pittsburg, the hustling Smoky City, she had the pleasure of watching the grand parade of the Knights Templars of Pa. She reports having had a most enjoyable time. Believing with Dr. Osler that a man past 60 had outlived his usefulness, James Barkid III, aged 61, of Chambersburg, went to Dr. J. H. Koons and asked him to chloroform him and put him out of his misery as a joke. Then Barkidoll's request was a joke. The coroner's jury decided he had taken his life because he was despondent.
