

Correspondents' Department

The news in condensed form from all parts of Centre County

FILLMORE.

We have in our town two Willises and they are two jays; you see them go down the road but the man who gets up at 5 o'clock is the only one who sees them come home.

Charles Lutz and family spent Saturday at Spring creek fishing, returning in the evening with a fine string of trout (nit).

The game of base ball between teams Nos. 1 and 2, on Saturday, resulted in a big score for No. 1 with only four of their own players.

Most everybody from this place expects to attend the unveiling of the Curtin monument in Bellefonte next Friday.

The limit for talking over the telephone is three minutes, but we have some people in our town who think they should talk all day, when they are talking to their best girl.

Jesse Wolford, who was at Philadelphia to have his eyes treated, is much improved and will arrive home on Tuesday to take charge of his work again.

Patton township will certainly have good roads this summer as our road master is putting all the dirt along the side in the track and where there is none he hauls it.

William Musser has taken a job of burning twelve thousand bushels of lime for George Hastings.

The festival held by the Fillmore ball club on Saturday evening, was quite a success.

Perce Woomey, who has been attending school at Valparaiso, Ind., is home for the summer.

Wm. Tressler and wife attended the S. S. convention at Howard, Thursday and Friday last week and report having a very nice time.

Geraldine Tressler, of Altoona, is visiting her grandparents, Joseph Tressler's. Mrs. Sidney Poorman and three children are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Louisa Crust.

We wonder why Ed. changed his occupation from carpenter to huckster?

Marian Taylor and friend Charlie, visited in Lock Haven last week.

Charlie Sellers, of Waddle and Miss Bricker, of Bellefonte, were pleasant callers at the Kephart home, Saturday eve.

Mabelle Norris is visiting friends in Altoona.

HAINES TWP.

WOLFES CHAPEL.

Charles Stover and family, of Coburn, visited at this place Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Winters and young bride, of Brush valley, spent Saturday night and Sunday at D. D. Breon's.

David Musser has recently purchased a new Sharples cream separator.

C. W. Wolfe and son Freddie drove to Millinburg on Sunday and were accompanied home by Mrs. Wolfe who had spent a week at that place visiting.

Bessie Hosterman represented the St. Paul Sunday school as delegate to the Centre county S. S. convention held at Howard, May 31 and June 1.

Mrs. John Hetzel and daughter, of Aaronsburg, were callers at D. H. Musser's Sunday afternoon.

Sadie Breon returned to her home at Sober after spending several weeks with her brother at this place.

Wm. Wolfe, wife and grandson, of Fiedler, visited his aged mother on Sunday.

Little Hazel Breon who spent several months with her grand-parents in Brush valley, has returned home.

Rev. Garret made the memorial address at this place on Decoration day.

Bertha Mowery has returned home from State College.

WOODWARD.

The Memorial day services held by the P. O. S. of A. at this place were well attended. The parade composed of the Coburn band, Sunday school children, and order was formed at 7:00 pm., and marched to the cemetery and afterward to the church at which place an address was made by Rev. Garret.

Allen Hess and wife visited Mrs. Hess' parents, N. W. Elys, of this place, the past week.

Geo. Ard and sister Maude spent some time under the parental roof.

Joe Stine, the famous, "any rags man" spent Sunday at the home of Abe Treasurer.

Elmer Smith and family, of near Coburn, spent sometime in our community.

Dr. W. P. Ard, of this place, having been afflicted with an abscess is much improved.

At the democratic primaries on Saturday, L. L. Weaver and Oliver Fiedler were chosen as delegates to the county convention.

Quite a number from this place attended the funeral of Jacob Ketter, held at Aaronsburg on Friday.

YARNELL.

Martin and Toner Petzer, who have been employed at Altoona for some time, are visiting at their home here.

Miss Mary Croft is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Harry Sayers at Snow Shoe.

Maggie Nyman and Millie Kelly, of Fairview, spent Sunday at this place.

Merrill Butler and sister Orpha, of Ashlota, are visiting friends at this place.

Harris Poorman has a force of men at work repairing roads in this section of the twp.

Harry Shawley, who has been working at Pittsburg, is spending his vacation at this place and Bellefonte.

Ella Confer, of Milesburg, was a pleasant visitor at the home of her grand-parents the first of the week.

Nancy Kelley has returned to her home at Fairview after spending several weeks at the home of H. O. Miller.

NITTANY.

W. E. Shaffer and wife, of Millinburg, were the guests of the former's father and mother, B. F. Shaffer and family, recently.

Miss Pearl Winkleman, of Mill Hall, spent several days at her home at this place, visiting her many friends.

H. P. Zerby and wife visited friends at Fishing Creek on Saturday.

The stork visited the home of P. S. Rossman last week and left a bouncing big boy there.

Children's services in the Ev. church on Sunday evening, June 10.

The Misses Minnie and Mittie Winkleman visited Joe Weaver and family, of Hublersburg, one day last week.

Miss Allie Emerick, of Snyderstown, attended Sunday school at this place on Sunday, being the guest of her cousin Irva Kessinger.

Wm. Mauck and wife were to Madisonburg on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mr. Noll, Mrs. Mauck's uncle.

S. Peck spent several days visiting at Brookville the past week.

Charley Gunsallus and wife were to Howard, Saturday evening on business.

This place was very quiet on Saturday night, the young folks all having gone to Hublersburg to attend the festival. The Nittany cornet band furnished the music for the festival; all report having had a good time.

Charley Boon, of Lemont, and his lady friend, Miss Marion Taylor, of Buffalo Run, were the guests of Wm. Brant and family last week.

Quite a number of our people expect to go to Bellefonte on Friday, dedication soldier's monument and Curtin statue.

Don't forget the band festival on Saturday night, June 16.

Our supervisors are working on the roads; Joe Emerick always makes good roads.

Our young folks expect to attend the play at Lamar hall, Saturday night, given by a company from Howard.

HOWARD.

O. M. Lucas was home over Sunday.

Wm. Harvey and wife, of Flemington, visited friends here on Sunday.

The new brick plant is about ready to start operations.

Children's exercises were very appropriately observed in Christian chapel on Sunday eve, June 3. The program was very fine and too much credit cannot be given Mrs. J. Z. Long and Prof. A. A. Fletcher for the interest they took in training the choir and children. The collection amounted to $21.05.

The Hawthorne club gave a party on Tuesday eve in honor of Miss Mary Wilson of Salona, who is visiting her aunt Mrs. Miner.

The Sunday school convention was well attended and all were well entertained by Miss Ermina C. Lincoln, of Philadelphia, and other speakers from a distance. Miss Susie Fletcher deserves much credit for her well attention shown to visitors.

J. Loyd Fexler, of Hyner, visited his cousin W. E. Confer on Monday.

Prof. Zeigler and wife who held summer normal here, closed their school on Thursday June 7.

Ellis Harvey and friend Miss Furst, of Mill Hall, visited Mrs. H. T. Lucas over Sunday.

If the weather proves satisfactory on Friday a large delegation from Howard will be in Bellefonte for the unveiling of the Curtin monument.

There was an exciting game of ball played on Saturday, Howard vs Curtin; the score was 10-0 in favor of the home team. There will be another game on Saturday June 9, Howard vs Beech Creek.

Some of the young folks of this place attended children's service at Julian and Port Matilda last Sunday night.

LEMONT.

Mrs. John Glens spent Tuesday in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Johnstonbaugh, of Oak Grove, is visiting her brother Benjamin Hoy.

Nellie Herman, of Phillipsburg, is spending a month with her parents J. S. Herman.

Mrs. Mary Williams, of Phillipsburg, spent a few days last week among her friends at this place.

Mrs. Dr. Shaffer and son, of Altoona, are spending a few weeks with her parents, John I. Thompson's.

Grant Houser and family, of Boalsburg, spent Wednesday at the home of Harvey Kern.

Charles Thompson, of Logansport, is spending a few weeks at his parental home.

Maurice Bohn and wife, Ira Benner and family, spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Hoy.

A dog in the manger is worth two with the manger.

Even guess work is hard labor for some people.

TYLERSVILLE.

Wilson Rishel met with a frightful accident last week. In unhitching a team of horses, one of which ran away, he was struck by the wagon tongue and hurled away about a rod. He was assisted to the house. Chances are good for a recovery.

Maude Weaver has recovered from her recent illness.

Thomas Slaterbeck and Charles Rhoads were visitors at this place on Saturday evening.

John Meyer, of Rebersburg, made a call on J. I. Shaffer on Friday.

When your tongue gets fuzzy like flannel, it's a sign your liver needs a little help. Vin-te-na Liver Pills will clear your tongue and clean your stomach, liver and bowels. Get a box at the drug store and take some tonight. All dealers.

It is with a sad heart we are called upon to record the death on Tuesday morning of a dear friend and neighbor, Mrs. Lydia Stover. She died of heart disease and her husband and five children who survive her, were all present at the time of her death. She was a kind and loving wife and mother, and a sympathetic friend to all.

Mrs. Clara Schade, Miss Charlotte Schade and Edna Schade are visiting their uncle, at this place.

Mrs. Kate Woodside, of Williamsport, is spending a few weeks at Livonia.

Mrs. Culver, Mrs. Jennie Martin and little daughter are circulating among their many friends at this place.

Miss Jessie Adams is home from school at Rebersburg.

Europe is full of American girls who are completing educations that were never begun.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Susan Rupp, and her niece Mrs. Mable Beaver, are visiting at Lemont, Boalsburg and State College, with the former's son, John Rupp.

J. H. Detweiler and sister and his niece Helen, spent a day at Spring Mills.

Miss Long, from Spring Mills, spent some time with grandma Stambaugh.

Al. Stover and Mrs. Stover, Frank and Mrs. Burd, attended Mrs. Lydia Stover's funeral at Livonia.

E. R. Wolfe, from Wolfes Store, spent a few hours with friends in town.

Jerry Corman's from Coburn, were staying at A. S. Musser's, Sunday.

Edna Weaver and sister Ruth, spent a few days with their grandma.

Ed. Smull and family, Mrs. C. E. Smull and Mrs. Herb Smull, from Smelltown, spent the Sabbath with their mother Mrs. Chestie Wert.

Thomas Brungard, wife and two children, from Wolfe's Store, spent a day with Mrs. Maria Deslier.

Merrill Eisenhauer and brother Clarence, from Lewistown, spent Decoration day at home.

Fred Gisewite, from Feidler, spent a few days with his uncle George Weaver.

Mrs. Levi Vance is visiting her sister at State College.

Mrs. Lenker and daughter Sue, are on a visit to Brinsin, Pa.

Mrs. Sara Leitze took Eliza Moore's place to nurse grandma Harth, an aged lady, 92 years old.

Joseph Holloway and wife from Akron, Ohio, are east to visit their many friends.

T. C. Weaver and Ira Gramley are at Coburn putting down concrete walks for C. A. Weaver.

Mrs. Thos. Edmunds and her grandson Numan Keister and Miss Tammy Haffley, spent a day at Coburn.

Mrs. Shook, from Penn Hall and her boys, spent a day with her sister, Mrs. Annie Detweiler.

MARTHA.

Roger Williams and Miss Helen Stevens were made man and wife last Sunday night, about 10 pm., at the home of Abenege Williams. The marriage ceremony being performed by Rev. A. C. Lathrop of Milesburg. We wish them many long and happy years of their married life.

D. W. Heaton is visiting his son Walter who is in Valparaiso, Ind., studying law.

George Flick, Jr., who has been employed at Apolla, Pa., is at home where he expects to remain for a couple of months.

Hattie Mayes, of Bellefonte, spent last Sabbath with relatives at this place.

Mattie Williams and C. M. Robison spent a few days in Altoona last week.

The memorial services were well attended last Wednesday. Rev. Lathrop made an excellent address for the occasion.

Mrs. W. W. Irwin is again visiting her father at this place.

Children's service will be held in the Baptist church at this place on the 17th of this month; all are invited.

Say, Harry, the next time you go out in the rigges you had better go around the road home, instead of taking a near cut, or else get your breakfast before you start home.

Mattie Steele and Ernest Ardrey were delegates to the Sunday school convention which was held at Howard last week.

Some of the young folks of this place attended children's service at Julian and Port Matilda last Sunday night.

HECLA PARK.

Miss Mazie Hartman, of Philadelphia, spent a few days with her parents here.

A good many of the people here attended the funeral of Mrs. Reuben Stover at Livonia; it was the largest funeral held there for many years.

Mrs. Charles Weaver, of Altoona, is visiting relatives and friends at this place.

Mr. Gephart improved his home by putting a fence in front of the house.

That tired feeling often comes with a rich father-in-law.

OAK HALL.

Miss Pansie Knopf left for Pittsburg on Thursday where she will make her future home.

Mrs. N. J. Rishel has an attack of quinsy.

Musser Heberling and Mary Bailey, of Pine Grove Mills, were seen in our vicinity, Saturday.

Leah and Mary Kline, of State College, spent Sunday at home.

Curtis Wagner and family, of Bellefonte, visited the home of his brother Harry, Sunday.

Mrs. Jared Mayes and daughter, of Watsonstown, Dorsey Segner, of Pine Grove, and Viola Segner, of Boalsburg, were visitors at the home of Ed Zong, Sunday.

Marion Riddle, of Pleasant Gap, and Francis Musser, of Bellefonte, were callers at the Peters home on Decoration day.

Mrs. Rupp accompanied by Mrs. Beaver and daughter, of Aaronsburg, are visiting at the home of E. K. Smith.

Gertrude Homan, of Philadelphia, is at home for a month's stay.

Al. Knopf left for Washington, D. C., Monday.

The children's services at Boalsburg, were well attended and a grand success.

The proceeds of the festival on Decoration day amounted to $104.75.

John Duff, of Altoona, called at the Homan home Saturday night.

WOLFS STORE.

One day last week section foreman Peters and his men were working at the railroad east of Hecla Park; when dinner time came they went under a shade tree to get out of the sun. While there they found locusts by the thousands that were just coming out of the shell. Roney Dermitt, one of the gang said they would make good soap as they were white and tender. After he ate his dinner he filled his dinner pail with the red eyed beauties to make soap. One of the gang asked him what he would call the soap when he replied, "I will call it Locusts soap."

Please Your Hair

Don't have a falling out with your hair. It might leave you! Then what? Better please it by giving it a good hair-food—Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair stops coming out, becomes soft and smooth, and all the deep, rich color of youth comes back to gray hair.

"I was troubled greatly with dandruff until I used Ayer's Hair Vigor. It completely cured the dandruff and also stopped my hair from falling out. It serves me very nicely also in arranging my hair in any style I wish."—Mrs. MARGIE COOK, Livonia, W. Va.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of SARGAPARILLA, PILLS, CHERRY PECTORAL.

FERGUSON AND PINE GROVE.

Miss Lizzie Kustenborder is ill with stomach trouble.

John Burket is hounded up with an attack of rheumatism.

Emery McAfee is nursing a sore foot caused by stepping on a rusty nail.

A kick from a horse causes Ed Woomey to go around on crutches.

Is is Good Policy

to spend your money for paint that is only part paint and part adulterations, when you can buy

Davis' 100 per cent Pure Paint

for the same money per gallon, and cover, in a lasting manner, from one-fourth to one-third more surface. Think it over.

SOLE BY

POTTER-HOY HARDWARE CO.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

McBRIDE BLDG. Workmen's McBRIDE BLDG.

BARGAIN HOUSE

900 yds. Embroidery, 12, 15 and 18c kind.....	9c a yd
800 yds. Embroidery, 25, 30 and 40c kind.....	20c a yd
1500 yds. Linen Lace, 1, 2 and 4 in. wide, 12c kind.....	5c a yd
1800 yds. Insertion, 8, 12 and 15c kind.....	4, 8, 10c a yd
Ladies' Summer Ribbed Vests, 15, 20 and 25c kind.....	10, 12 and 15c
Ladies' Kimonos.....	23, 45, 98 and $1.23
We still lead in Men's Overalls and Working Shirts, 50c kind.....	39c
Men's Working Pants.....	from 75c up
Ladies' Back Combs.....	10c each
A few broken lots in Ladies' Waists, 75c, $1.00, $1.20 and $1.50 kind.....	going at 45 and 95c
Men's, Youths' and Children's Shoes at reasonable prices.
Ladies' Shoes.....	from 95c a pair up

COME AND SEE US AND BE CONVINCED.

Workmen's Bargain House,

McBride Building, Bellefonte, Pa.

Women's... Tan Shoes

TAN SHOES will be on many Women's feet during all the Summer season.

Tan Shoes of the right sort give the wearer an aristocratic appearance.

With stockings to match they're handsome.

Proper shade in Tan Shoes is another important point to consider when buying.

Our Tans are made from selected leather and made by the best makers in

Correct and Artistic Colors

In Oxfords, Ribbon Ties and Pumps, we have some regular shapes.

New shapes and new kinks.

Every Woman is invited to call to see the new comers.

Remember we sell Cousins and Queen Quality Shoes.

A. C. Mingle's Shoe Store.

Lucas Paints

Labor costs too much to waste on paints that soon fade and streak and crack and blister.

Lucas Paints are worth all the labor you put on them because they last so long—and they don't require so much labor either, for they spread so easily.

Lucas Paints pay every way you look at them.

Ask your dealer.

John Lucas & Co Philadelphia

