

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

Watch for our new story in the Magazine Section. Mrs. Clement Dale is visiting friends in Philadelphia. Gardner Grove and wife, of Gregg, were callers in our sanctum. All the banks in town will close tomorrow at 10 a. m., for the balance of the day. The Garman House was the first in town to put on the festive garb and set the pace for the balance. Reports of good crop prospects keep reaching us from all sections of the county, excepting that clover will be short. Mrs. Mattie Calvert, of Stone Island, attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. M. W. Cowdrick, at this place, Friday. Fred Weaver, of the Peabody Institution of Baltimore, arrived home to spend his summer vacation with his parents. Mrs. James Lane has leased the half of Mrs. J. P. Gephart's house on Allegheny street and will move there about the middle of June. Prof. Angel, the eye specialist, will be at the Brockerhoff House on Friday and Saturday, June 15th and 16th to meet his patrons. Dr. Thomas J. Orbison and wife, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with Mr. Orbison's mother, Mrs. N. J. Orbison, of North Spring street. Our Magazine Section for next week will contain the first instalment of "The White Company," a serial story by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Miss Agnes McGowan left Thursday for Philadelphia, where she will resume her duties as a trained nurse in a large hospital at that place. Our Magazine Section for next week will contain the first instalment of "The White Company," a serial story by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Fred Chambers, who conducts a graphophone store in Tyrone, arrived home on Tuesday for a vacation. He reports business good. Captain L. Harshberger, Cadet Harshberger and Candidate Besse Green left yesterday for their new appointment at Franklin, Pa. Miss Mary E. Kelly, who for several years past has been connected with the Daily News and Republican, has severed her connection with that office. The Bellefonte Browns defeated the Scotia nine at base ball Memorial Day in the afternoon. The score was 7 to 0 and the game was played at Meadowbrook park. Paul D. Sheffer, grocer, of Bellefonte, has the loan of a fine lot of brook trout and Japanese gold fish from the Bellefonte hatchery for an exhibit in his show window. The weekly concerts and dances at Hecla Park will be resumed on Friday, June 15th. Trains leave Bellefonte at 2:45 and 7:05 p. m., and the usual low picnic rates will prevail. Rev. Wm. H. Schoch, of New Berlin, gave us a call being on his return from Philadelphia, where he assisted in the installation of his son-in-law, Rev. Bender, as pastor of that Lutheran church. J. P. Cowdrick, of Williamsport, is the guest of Bellefonte friends and relatives. He is a brother, of Morris W. Cowdrick, of Niagara Falls. Although past 84 years of age he is still hale and hearty. Miss Edna Murray, of Centre Hall, is assisting in the Bell telephone exchange, where she is filling the position of Miss Jennie Irvin, who was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Tuesday for treatment. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Thomas and two sons, Richard and Ashbridge, of North Thomas street left Saturday for New York, from which place they will sail in a few days for a tour of Europe. They expect to be gone all summer. The latest and largest up-to-date photos taken after the completion of the Curtin Monument can now be had from R. O. Oesterich at the following prices: 5 cents, 25 cents, 75 cents and $1.00. Call at his studio over Lyon & Co. store, Bellefonte. Commissioner Calvin A. Weaver has a Russian coin bearing the date 1310 which he obtained among some old papers in settling up an estate. At the time it was corroded, and when cleaned the date came up clear. It is of copper and denomination 2, about 2 cents. J. H. Sands, who had been in ill health during most of this spring, left last week for Atlantic City where he will spend ten days visiting relatives, after which he will visit friends and relatives in Philadelphia and New York. He expects to be absent several weeks. Franklin Fetzer, of Milesburg, was a caller. Mr. Fetzer carries his left arm in a sling the result of a broken shoulder which he sustained some eight weeks ago by being crowded against the stall by a horse in the stable. He still suffers from the injury but his shoulder is improving from the mishap. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Miller of East Curtin street entertained on Friday evening the members of the graduating class. The wives of Mr. Hosterman and Mr. Wagner were also guests of the evening. The party was in honor of Mrs. Miller's sister, Miss Essie Viehdorfer, a member of the class. Mr. and Mrs. Wryley William Prince have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Amy Kathleen Prince, to Donald Somerville Potter, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Potter, of this place, on Thursday evening, June 14th, at 6:30 o'clock, at their home in Crafton, Pa., with a reception at eight o'clock. Wm. Doak, of this place, who is deaf and blind and sells shoe laces and other small articles on the street, after being housed up in the Bellefonte hospital for a week or ten days to have his eye taken out, has so far improved as to be able to leave the hospital and is around again selling his wares. They have hopes of saving his remaining eye. The Philipsburg Ledger in its account of Memorial Day exercises at that place says: "The evening services were held in the Lutheran church, and A. A. Dale, Esq., the orator of the day, made what was pronounced by many the best Memorial Day address ever delivered in Philipsburg. Mr. Dale surprised even his best friends by his eloquence on this occasion.

Roy McCalmont, of Rochester, N. Y., is here to attend the dedication exercises. "The Drummer Boy of Shiloh" will be reproduced in the opera house Friday evening. Our Magazine Section for next week will contain the first instalment of "The White Company," a serial story by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Remember, an excellent dinner in the vacant bakery rooms, on Bishop street, by the ladies of the Lutheran church, 25 cents, on Friday. Governor Samuel W. Pennypacker will arrive in Bellefonte Thursday evening at 8:16 and will be entertained by Col. Edward R. Chambers at his home on East Linn street. The members of the Bellefonte Chapter D. A. R. request the people of the town to celebrate June 14th, flag day, by hanging out flags at their homes and places of business. Grace D. Mitchell, secretary. George T. Bush, the stationer, has had a fine Souvenir Letter prepared containing eight fine views in and about Bellefonte that is neat and tasty and just the thing to send to your friends. It beats the abominable Post Card a mile. For sale at all news stands. The annual reception and assembly of the Bellefonte Academy will be held at that place on Thursday evening, June 14th, from 7 to 10 p. m. All former students and friends of the Academy are hereby invited. This always proves a delightful social event and is largely attended. The Diamond should be trim and dust laid—a model of cleanliness—tomorrow, dedication of the Monument. High and Allegheny streets especially, should have every particle of dust laid by sprinkling. Decoration of business houses and residences should make the town look gay. Persons of distinction from all parts of the state will be here to participate in the Dedication ceremony. Let Bellefonte show off in her best. Mrs. F. K. Lukenbach, formerly of this place, on Friday submitted to an operation for appendicitis at her home in Tyrone. The Herald says: "The operation was skillfully performed by Dr. John B. Nason, assisted by W. A. Nason, of Roaring Spring, and it was thoroughly successful. Mrs. Lukenbach went through the ordeal with great fortitude and her condition since is considered most favorable.

WHAT THEY HAVE DONE.

The query of what the Bellefonte Chapter D. A. R. have done can be answered in the following statement: The contribution to the Curtin Memorial and Soldiers Monument was $175. Through a member of the chapter the names of the Revolutionary soldiers, buried in Centre county, were furnished for the monument. A handsome marker was erected at Potters Fort, in 1898, to preserve that historic spot. In the same year they gave a contribution towards the Division Hospital, at Chickamauga of $72. To the Soldiers Club House at Manila $5. To the Relief Fund of widows and orphans of the Spanish war, $25. Contribution valued at $22, to Co. B, and upon their return home a reception was given them. Annual prizes given the schools for Revolutionary essays. A room furnished and kept in repairs at Bellefonte Hospital. Other work of interest only to the chapter is also kept up.

SARA BURNSIDE VALENTINE, Chairman.

MOSHANNON.

Mrs. Duniwan and son, of Morrisdale, are spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Hugh Ward. Jack Flanagan, of Clearfield, spent several days with his brother Daniel. Mrs. Dan Yeager, formerly of this place, but now of Jersey Shore, is a pleasant visitor among her many friends. The Decoration day services were well attended and some of the out-of-town visitors were as follows: John Confer, wife and family; Henry Bowes, wife and family; A. J. Bowes, wife and family, all of Clearfield; J. K. Johnson, wife and family and Miss Nora Lovelin, of Bellefonte; J. A. Shangers, and family, of Williamsport. Mr. Applebee, wife and son, of Mt. Union, were pleasant guests at the former's parents, R. G. Williams'. J. W. Howard and wife have gone to Altoona where they are attending the soldiers' reunion. Any one wishing to know the correct name of flowers ask Mrs. Cramer. Mrs. Clyde Lucas and daughter Miriam, of Howard, are pleasant guests at the Lucas home. Maurice Gleason, one of our most popular young men, has returned home after an extended visit to Catact. Mrs. James McGroarty, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday at John McGowan's. Miss Mollie Eidel, of Peale, has returned home after several weeks' visit. Letter to C. C. Shuey. Dear Sir: If it took 10 gallons to paint your house last time with somebody else's paint, and takes 8 with Devoe, we save you $5 or $10; for painting costs two or three times as much as paint. Mr. Ezra Rathmell, Williamsport, Pa., always used 11 gallons of mixed paint for his house; Devoe took 6. But that isn't all; that's only first cost; how long will it wear? The paint that goes furthest in covering, wears best too. All paint, true paint, and full-measure, are on one side; part paint, false paint, and short-measure are on the other. What can you expect? Yours truly P. W. Devoe & Co.

OVER THE COUNTY.

The Lutheran congregation at Centre Hall are making preparations to repair their church. H. A. Stover, of Yeagertown, sold his farm, west of Spring Mills, to Elmer Ripka. Consideration $2275. Daniel B. Welch, a brother of V. S. Welch of Howard, died March 21, at his home, in Clifford, Mich., aged 69 years. The cutworm is doing harm to the corn in some sections of the county and on many farms the corn is being replanted. Alexander Shannon, a resident of Smith Centre, Kansas, formerly of Centre Hall, is seriously ill of diabetes, at a sanitarium in Missouri. Our mutual friend Capt. J. A. Hunter, of Stormstown, is confined to his bed from a fainting spell and fell over in the yard. He is improving. The members of the United Evangelical church at Spring Mills will hold a festival on the 16th day of June, on the lawn beside the church. D. A. Grove, to Lemont, will sell a car load of Western Horses at Centre Hall, June 9th, at noon. All fine stock, personally selected by him. Last week M. O. Stover, while working at the lumber job of Motz & Stover, at Woodward, had his leg broken by being caught between two logs. Clell Miller and Miss Sallie A. Pletcher, both of Howard, were married at the Evangelical parsonage, sermon preformed by Rev. M. F. Fosselman. By the skillful treatment of Dr. S. L. Stonebreaker Mrs. J. S. Bickel is getting along nicely from the operation that she underwent recently at Sandy Ridge. Samuel McClintock, a well-known farmer of near Farmers Mills, has been ill for some months, and at this time his life is in doubt. He was a useful citizen in his days. Lloyd Walters, who will graduate from the Susquehanna University in a couple weeks, has accepted a call to become the pastor of the Lutheran congregation at State College. Miss Maude Buddinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Buddinger, of Snow Shoe, is one of the class of sixteen young women who graduate at the Birmingham Seminary this week. The annual Hazle-Schaffer reunion will be held this year at Hecla Park, on Thursday, June 21st. All relatives and friends are hereby invited to attend the gathering and participate in the festivities of the occasion. The abutments for the new county bridge, across Penns Creek, below Spring Mills, are ready for the iron structure. They were erected by Knisely Bros., Bellefonte. The York Bridge company will erect the superstructure. Miss Helen Jodon, daughter of L. E. Jodon, of Pleasant Gap, graduated at the Philadelphia Training school for nurses, on May 23th, in a class containing seventy-one members. Her average grade in examination and test work was 99 per cent. Rev. Thomas S. Land, D. D., president of the Allentown College for Women, was elected pastor of the Aaronsburg Reformed church, at a congregational meeting held throughout the charge Sunday. He was pastor of the Centre Hall charge years ago. David Chambers, of Snow Shoe, was discharged from the Lock Haven hospital a few days ago, after an operation for appendicitis. Dr. Ball performed an operation for appendicitis upon Mr. Chambers three weeks ago and he is apparently as well and strong as ever. The 18th Anniversary of the Mattern family and their kindred in America will be celebrated at Warriors Mark, Huntingdon Co., Pa., on the 21st and 22nd of June. Representatives from nearly every state in the union and perhaps from Switzerland and Germany will be present. The following are members of the class of 1906 graduated from the Philipsburg High school last week: Nancy W. Bigelow, Nell Forsythe, Rose Gilland, Nellie Goldthorpe, George Haworth, Helen S. Irish, Carlton Lichtenthaler, Leland Powell, Grace M. Stanley and Tillie Wright. A pretty marriage was solemnized by Rev. H. I. Crow, on the evening of June 1st, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Carner at Hubersburg, when their son, James P. Carner, was united in marriage to Miss Helen Jodon, of Bellefonte. The happy couple start out in life together with the best wishes of a host of friends. At the Memorial exercises in Salona W. Harrison Walker, Esq., was the orator and most flattering reports came from that place in regard to his address. The Memorial address, by W. Harrison Walker, Esq., of Bellefonte, Pa., was one of the best ever delivered on an occasion of this kind. His remarks were listened to with the closest attention and many compliments were passed on the merits of his address.

Tag Your Lines.

It is legal to fish for eels with outlines in streams not inhabited by trout, but every such line must have a tag on it bearing the name of the owner. Two men from Hummelstown, Pa., were arrested one day last week for fishing with an outline that didn't have a tag, and, being found guilty of violating the law on this point, had to pay the fine.

RECENT DEATHS.

ISRAEL WOLF.—An aged, respected and well-known resident of Madisonburg, died Tuesday morning from general break-down and old age. His wife died last September. As far as we learn he is survived by sons Thomas and George, and daughter, Mrs. Charles Brown. CHAS. KING.—On Saturday, Charles King, a son of Abraham King, dec'd, of Millheim, shot himself in the breast in his room at a hotel in Clearfield, and died soon after. The body was sent to Millheim where interment took place on Monday. He was about 39 years of age, unmarried and had been employed there for some time in a brickyard. No cause is known for the rash deed. GEORGE W. KAUF.—died Friday morning after an illness of more than a month from an affection of the brain. Mr. Kauf was born at Oak Hill, March 3, 1849. He was married to Miss Rebecca Alice Doerman on Nov. 4, 1875. Four children were born by the union, John, Sarah, Vergie and Edward, the latter having died in infancy. After the death of his first wife, Mr. Kauf married the second time choosing as his helpmate Mrs. Sarah M. Potter. She too preceded him to the grave about one year ago. The interment took place Monday at Mt. Bethel, Clinton Co. For over 25 years Mr. Kauf had been superintendent and manager of the Humes farm lying about 1 mile east of Bellefonte. WILLIAM CURTIN NOLL.—died very suddenly at his residence at Madisonburg on May 29th, death was due to neuralgia of the heart and he was sick only one day. He followed his occupation as blacksmith up to within a day of his death. He was married twice, three children, namely, James and Mrs. Faust, of Jeannette, and Mrs. Struble, of Bellefonte, of his first marriage survive him together with his widow and four sons, Harry H., blacksmith at Hubersburg; John E. A., miller at Rebersburg; Geo. T., a farmer at Brookston; and B. L. at home, father, mother and three sons have preceded his death. Two brothers, W. T. of Jeannette and A. G. of Pleasant Gap also mourn the loss of their brother. Deceased was aged 57 years, 10 months and 14 days. His remains were interred in their last resting place in the Evangelical cemetery in the family plot, on Saturday morning June 2.

SENATOR GORMAN.

Arthur Pue Gorman belonged to a school of politicians which is becoming extinct in national affairs. Quay is dead, Platt is a name, Hill has withdrawn from leadership. Gorman was a master of small politics. He never concerned himself much about principles, but he knew how to construct a political machine and how to keep it running. What is known in the vernacular as "the gumshoe" school of politics has had its day. Senator Gorman was a discredited to the name of Democracy. He simply used the party for his personal advantage. Principles, he had none, except that which would advance his selfish aims. An exchange tells of a man who was wonderfully made. The doctors said he had an iron constitution; his friends declared that he had nerves of steel; his wife thought he had a heart of stone; his enemies declared that there was more brass in him than anything else; others said he had a lot of sand, while his admirers maintained that he was all wool and a yard wide.

PUBLIC SALE OF Western Horses!
