

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

There are a lot of bargains offered in our Want Column. G. W. Grace, of Lock Haven, gave us a call, looking the picture of health. Don't fail to see the beautiful collection of oriental rugs now at Katz & Co's. Robert Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio, was visiting his son Wm. Cassidy during the week. The weekly concerts and dances at Hecla Park will be resumed on Friday, June 15th. Theo. Lucas, of Greeley, Colo., a member of the 4th Penn., was here to attend the unveiling. S. G. Kinney, of Newton, Kansas, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Longacre of this place. Next Monday Philip Waddle will become clerk at the Bush House, a position for which he is well adapted. The Undine's 4th of July blow out at Hecla Park, this year, will be the big event in this part of the state. Hon. Henry Meyer and Thos. E. Royer, of Rebersburg, were pleasant callers, and report crops promising down that way. New potatoes shipped in here are retailing at $1.40 per bushel. Old home potatoes are offered on wagons at 75 cents per bushel. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Rhoads and Henry Faber, of Milton, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McSuley during the past week. George T. Brew, of Reconceverte, Md., and Thomas H. Brew, of Shamokin, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fenion the past week. Many telephones were put out of commission on Saturday by a severe flash of lightning, that accompanied the storm during the afternoon. Had some cool nights and mornings this week following the thunder gust Sunday afternoon, and light frosts in some sections of the county. Capt. C. T. Fryberger's mother, who resides in Bellefonte, celebrated her 98th birthday yesterday. The Captain spent the day with her here. Mrs. James K. Barnhart and two children Martha and Philip are at Punxsutawney where they will visit her mother and sisters for the next month. The pupils of St. John's school will give their annual entertainment at the opera house, Thursday evening June 21. All are cordially invited to be present. We are sorry that our townsman Michael Hess is on the sick list from congestion of the brain which affects his mind. His condition is considered critical. W. L. Dagggett and son Frederick left Monday afternoon for Atlantic City where Mrs. Dagggett has been spending several weeks for the benefit of her health. On Sunday every lively horse and vehicle in town was engaged possibly a week prior by people desiring to attend the commencement exercises at State College. The Children's day services will be held in the U. B. Church, next Sunday evening, at 7:30. An interesting program has been arranged. All are cordially invited to be present. Miss Maude Schuyler, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Edwin H. Finegan, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Harrison Walker during the past week. This Thursday is Flag Day, an event that is not generally remembered or fittingly observed for the reason that our holidays are growing too numerous, and there are some of greater importance. Every body is pleased with the success of the dedication on Friday—it was one of Bellefonte's greatest days. Good order prevailed, save a scrap between a couple of colored men and a white in the evening. On Friday Lemuel Ossman, color-bearer of Foster Post G. A. R. No. 107 paid us a call. He had the credit of carrying the finest Post colors in the parade at the dedication, and of which he can justly be proud. The large mastodon tooth found near Spring Mills, recently, has been left at our office for public inspection by John Ebert, the owner. It will be here for about ten days. Come and see it, no admission charged. Our new serial story, "The White Company" by A. Conant Doyle, will start in the next issue. It will be in the Magazine Section. Watch for the opening chapters next week as you will want to follow it through. The ladies of the Lutheran church cleared about $150 by serving meals and refreshments on the day of the Monument dedication, and everybody was pleased with the bill of fare. They must have served over 500 meals. Miss Rebecca P. Lyon will be in Bellefonte during a portion of the summer and will devote her attention to a special line of instruction, "How to teach music to children." She is a talented musician. An announcement appears in another column that should interest instructors. Any one visiting our town on Monday would not have known that there was a big time here the previous Friday. The flags and bunting were all down, stands were removed, the streets cleaned of paper and rubbish, and everybody going about their business as usual. It does not take our people long to recuperate. Attorney J. A. B. Miller was put out of business several days last week. After shaving, a scratch on the side of the neck became sore and infected with poison that spread rapidly. This affected his system so that for a short time he was paralyzed, unable to move a muscle. It all disappeared under treatment as usual waiting on clients at his law office. The Undine Fire Company announces its annual 4th of July picnic at Hecla Park this year. They have selected some choice features for the entertainment program. There will be plenty to amuse, feed, entertain and have a pleasant time, for the entire county and visiting friends from outside. Everybody goes to the Undine's 4th of July picnic. This year's entertainment will exceed any previous one.

Bellefonte Academy reception this evening. Miss Margaret Sechler, of Baltimore, is home on a brief visit to her parents. Hon. Theodore Rynder, of Erie, was here for the dedication and greeting his many friends. Miss Caroline Orvis left for Lancaster last week for a visit with the family of W. H. Keller, Esq. Miss Mable Otto left on Tuesday for her home in Johnstown after a pleasant visit with Bellefonte friends. Mrs. M. A. Schully, of Tyrone, and Mrs. Kate Brenner, of York, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Woods. Luther Crissman, son of W. Homer Crissman, left Tuesday for Sunbury where he will visit relatives. W. H. Musser was taken ill on Friday at his insurance office, and was taken home, where he is improving. Fred Lane returned last week from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he took a course in Eastman's business college. Roy McCalmont has returned to Rochester, N. Y., after a pleasant visit with friends. Mr. McCalmont will remain here for some time. Rev. W. M. Reरिक went to Selinsgrove this week to attend the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of Susquehanna University. A burning flue set fire to the Haupt residence on Thomas street Wednesday morning. The flames were extinguished without doing any serious damage. Harry Rhine, of Kane, Pa., while on his way from a trip to Philadelphia, stopped off in Bellefonte a few days to visit friends and old acquaintances. Wilbur T. Twitmore, student in the University of Pennsylvania, is home for a short visit. He will spend the summer vacation playing ball with the Sunbury team. Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Hoy and Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Fishburn, of Benner township, are on a trip to Lewistown, Harrisburg, Philadelphia and later make a trip to Illinois to visit relatives. The Bellefonte School Board organized on Tuesday evening by electing the following officers for the ensuing year: President, W. Homer Crissman; Secretary, James K. Barnhart; Treasurer, A. C. Mingle. The Academy base ball nine went to Williamsport Saturday to play the High school of that city. Each side made three runs when the game had to be called on account of rain. The game looked very favorable for the Academy. If the Chicago meat packers were half as concerned to keep their apartments clear of dirt and filth as street commissioner Showers is to have our streets clean, there would be little room for complaint against the meat packers. Wm. H. Garman resigned his position as mail clerk in the Bellefonte office on Tuesday. Morton Smith, assistant mail clerk, succeeds him. Wm. H. Ott secures Mr. Smith's position, as he recently passed a successful civil service examination for clerk. The following ladies are being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Spangler: Mrs. J. A. Melsheimer, Mrs. F. A. Hoake, and Mrs. A. C. Welch, all of Hanover, Pa., a jolly set, young and charming and are enjoying the hospitality of the Spangler house. Locusts are alarmingly plenty in some parts of the county doing harm to trees and vegetation. Their song is listened to by an unwilling audience. It is said that trout are feasting upon the critters, and that their sting is poisonous as that of the rattlesnake, which we take it is swelling it a little too high. The annual reception and assembly of the Bellefonte Academy will be held this Thursday evening, June 14th, at the Academy from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. No formal invitation is issued for this occasion, and all must consider themselves invited and equally welcome. The assembly will be held in the armory and will begin at 10 o'clock. It will be under the auspices of the alumni. Frank E. Harder, the professional safe cracker, came to Bellefonte Monday morning to help Hazel Bros. open their safe. Mr. Harder received a telephone message stating that the safe refused to be opened. The trouble with the safe arose from not using the combination at any time to lock it, and upon closing it a few days previous the bar was turned too far, and the lock refused to act. Mr. Harder found it necessary to totally break the lock, and take it to Lock Haven for repairs. Prof. George Kierman, of Pittsburg, a master of dramatic art, has been engaged to give a complimentary recital of the Old Homestead to members of the Young Men's Christian Association and Women's Christian Temperance Union in Petrikin Hall, Friday evening, June 15th at 8 o'clock. Each member of the organizations mentioned may be accompanied by a friend. Y. M. C. A. members are requested to assist in the distribution of tickets by calling for their own at the rooms before Thursday. Rev. W. R. Goff, of Pittsburg, will deliver one of his illustrated lectures on "Travels in the Holy Land" in the United Brethren Church, at Bellefonte, Tuesday evening, June 19, 1906. Subject, "Jerusalem and the Jordan". Mr. Goff has recently returned from an extended tour of the Orient. His pictures are the best that photographic art can produce. All are hand painted under his personal supervision and are true to the original. This lecture and possibly the second, "Samaria and Galilee," will be given in Julian, U. B. Church, on the evenings of June 20 and 21. Admission, children 15 cents, adults 25 cents. Letter to J. K. Barnhart. Dear Sir: Three gallons saved is $12 to $15 earned. Mr. Hartford Platt of Bridgeport, Conn., ordered 15 gallons Devoe to paint his house, and returned 3 gallons. His painter said it would take 15; a lead-and-oil painter. Hubbell & Wade Co sold it. They say everybody has the same experience there. The reason is, of course: they are used to poor paint. What is poor paint? Anything not Devoe: some water than others. Besides, paints wear about as they cover. Double the $12 to 15. Yours truly F W Devor & Co

OVER THE COUNTY.

The cut worm is giving the farmers trouble in this section, and has necessitated the re-planting of some whole fields of corn. Geo. W. Rider, formerly of Bellefonte, who has charge of the Josephine furnace work, has gone to Virginia where he has charge of another furnace. Claude E. Transue, of Mackeyville, and Rosa Anna Nihart, of Laman, were united in marriage, June, 9th, at Hubersburg, by Rev. H. I. Crow. Capt. W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, is arranging for the 45th anniversary of Co. E. leaving for the seat of war. The gathering will be held at Baileyville early in September. A picnic is being held to-day in one of the parks on Dr. Barker's Reservation near Ingleby, one of the most charming spots in our mountain region. Thanks for an invitation to attend. Rev. Geo. M. Whiteneck, Jr., of Wrightsville, Pa., has accepted the call to be pastor of the State College Presbyterian church and will probably begin his ministry here on July 1st. Mrs. Hattie Stover, of Millheim, left last week for an extended visit in the west. She is now on her way to Dublin, Ind., where she will stay with friends awhile before proceeding further. Nester Sirgy, who gives his home as Frenchville, in Clearfield county, was incarcerated in the Centre county jail last Thursday on the charge of larceny preferred by Mr. Colpetzer, of near Bellefonte. Newton F. Braucht, who has been station agent at McElhattan for the past nine years, has received a well earned promotion and is now ticket agent at Dewart. Mr. Braucht formerly was from Pennsylvania. The road supervisors of Liberty township have been making repairs to a portion of the road between Beech Creek and Blanchard. They made a bed of broken stone and covered it with cinders from the brick works which makes a good permanent road. J. R. Barnes, formerly of Pleasant Gap, who had been located at Juniata, Pa., clerking in the Pa. R. R. repair shops, has been promoted to the shop clerk at Altoona and is living at 1114 Sixth avenue. He took a brief vacation to visit friends in the county and witness the dedication this week. At the Epworth League Convention in session at Bellwood, the following from this county were recognized, by election as officers: President, Rev. Morris E. Swartz, Clearfield; second vice-president, Miss Katharine E. Buck, of Fleming; third vice-president, Miss Helen Bartholomew, Centre Hall. George Black, of Phillipsburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Black, of North second street, was married on Tuesday 5th, to Miss Elizabeth Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walker, of Decatur township, Clearfield county. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, and was solemnized by Rev. William Rafter, of Osceola. Miss Emma Witmer, of Ferguson twp., recently had an experience she will not soon want to repeat. In attempting to check a runaway horse, hitched to a buggy, she was dragged some distance. The horse then leaped over the fence and got tangled in the orchard. Miss Emma was considerably shaken up, but made a narrow escape. The buggy was a wreck. The Phillipsburg Journal boasts as follows: "The boss trout of the season was captured Friday in Six Mile run by John Hayward, of Hawk Run, and is now on exhibition in the show window at W. F. Gill's store. The trout measures 19 1/2 inches in length and weighs 2 1/2 pounds." About Bellefonte several were landed this season that measured over 20 inches. The Georges Valley Lutheran Cemetery Association, (incorporated), have added three acres to the present Lutheran and Reformed cemetery, and are ready to sell lots and issue deeds for same. The present burial ground is largely taken up by graves, and was donated by grandfathers Grove many years ago to the Lutheran and Reformed congregations of Georges Valley. There will be religious services held in Fairview church on June 4th, at 2:30 o'clock p. m. in memory of Mable Confer, daughter of George and Jennie Confer, who died on May 22nd. Owing to quarantine due to her contagious disease no services were possible at that time. Mable was a member of the United Brethren church in the Fairview class; she was a model christian girl and was loved by all her associates. The abundant rains during the past week have given an impetus to all forms of vegetation. The grain is heading nicely and a good crop is assured. Grass fields are short with clover heads in blossom, which means that the crop will be small. Oats and corn are doing nicely. Thus far no discouraging reports have been received of fruit being damaged by late frosts. Our farmers have every reason to rejoice over prospects this season. Centre County Pomona Grange will hold a special meeting in Grange Arcadia at Centre Hall, to-morrow, at 9:30 am. Conferring of 5th degree at 1 pm. Officers of Pennsylvania state grange will confer the 6th degree at 3 pm. A public meeting will be held in evening. All patrons are invited to attend and the public is cordially invited to the evening meeting which will be addressed by Master Hill, of state grange, Secretary Ailman, Hon. W. T. Creasy, and Master Whitehead, of New Jersey. W. W. Rider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rider, of Josephine, Pa., formerly of Bellefonte, and Miss Maud Howard, of Derry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Howard, of Derry, were married at the home of the bride's parents at Derry, on June 7, at high noon, by the pastor of the M. E. church. The ceremony was performed in the presence of their many friends. After a shower of rice they left on their wedding tour to the groom's home in Josefine. After their honeymoon trip they will reside in Belle Mills, where their furnished home awaits them. The groom is employed by the Furnace company, and is boss of the bridge work. Both young people are highly esteemed by all. The bride received many beautiful and costly presents. Emel-Meese. On June 5th, 1906, at 10:30 a. m., Henry S. Emel and Miss Annie Meese, both of Bellefonte, were united in the bonds of matrimony at the Baptist parsonage, Millersville, Pa., by pastor A. C. Lathrop. Both bride and groom are held in high esteem, and the congratulations of their many friends will be extended to them.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. ANDREW IMMEL—living near Millersburg, died Wednesday morning, at 8 o'clock from Bright's disease and rupture of a blood vessel. JAMES FRANCIS SAXON—son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Saxon, of Pleasant Gap, died last Thursday from opiate poisoning taken by mistake. The child was aged 3 years, 5 months and 8 days. Mrs. PEARL SHILLING—the wife of Jacob Shilling, died Friday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry near Mackeyville. Mrs. Shilling's death was very sudden. She was aged 25 years and had been married only a year. Mrs. W. F. CUNNINGHAM—whose maiden name was Johnston and who was born at Bellefonte, this county, died on April 25th at Ningpo, China, where she lived with her daughter, now the wife of Rev. H. K. Wright, both missionaries in the Presbyterian church at Ningpo. WILLIAM BOYD BEAMER—died at his home at Gearhartville, Thursday 31 of dropsy and heart trouble. He was 66 years old and was born at Hannah Furnace, being the last survivor of a family of seven brothers and four sisters. Surviving him are his wife and six children. Interment made in the Phillipsburg cemetery. Mrs. J. W. ADAMS—widow of the late John W. Adams, died Friday afternoon 1st at her home in Howard township, after an illness of about three days with neuralgia. She was aged 72 years and had been a resident of the township for over forty years. She is survived by two children, Mrs. Mollie Walker and Mrs. Deliah Ruch both of Howard township. Interment in the Schenck cemetery. GEORGE W. PACKER—a well known resident of Beech Creek borough, died at his residence Tuesday evening of neuralgia of the heart. Deceased had been a resident of Beech Creek all of his life and was a well to do citizen and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of all his neighbors. He is survived by his widow, two sons, Irvin and Harry, of Beech Creek, and four daughters, Mrs. E. C. Chamberlain, Olean, N. Y.; Mrs. T. M. Barrows, Jersey Shore; Mrs. J. D. Roffe, Millhill, and Ada at home. Mrs. MOLLIE M. LONG—died at her home at Johnsonburg, Pa. of pneumonia, aged 56 years, 4 months, 20 days; she leaves to mourn her husband, five sons and one daughter, all of Johnsonburg; also two brothers and three sisters. The remains were brought to Blanchard for interment, funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dudley of the Christian church. Interment in the Baptist cemetery. The pall bearers were, Alfred Bitter, Alfred Williams, Wm. Harter, Milton Pletcher, Dan'l Glossner, Thomas Bechdel. ADJOINING COUNTIES. From all sections of the state our exchanges report the arrival of the 17-year locusts, and in some places in great numbers. James Hunter, a son of John Hunter, of Beech Creek, was killed in New York a few days ago. He was working with a bridge crew. At the democratic convention in Cameron county Harry Alvan Hall, Esq., was unanimously endorsed for president judge of that district. The dedication of the Soldiers and Sailors monument at Lewistown, takes place on Thursday, June 21st, and promises to be an imposing affair. The Bucktail Regimental Association will hold its annual reunion at Driftwood on September 14 and 15th, the anniversary of the battle of Antietam. John Dersting, an aged gentleman who resided near Loganton, died at the Lock Haven hospital Monday forenoon of a complication of diseases. He was aged 72 years and is survived by two sons. A five year old son of W. K. Kershaw strayed into Jacks mountain near Mount Union on Saturday evening and was not found until eight o'clock next morning. He was little the worse for the adventure, but was well water-soaked by the rain during the night. The fact that the Schuylkill county court has suspended for the space of six months a member of the bar of that county because he was guilty of unprofessional conduct and that the Luzerne county court disbarred one for forgery, ought to be a pointer to other counties in other counties of the state. Professional courtesy should never protect the misdoings of a chronic blackmailer. Courts owe a duty to the community, as well as decent and honest members of the bar, which is not performed when they content themselves with mild admonitions which are not regarded by offenders. Joshua A. Hunter, of Tyrone, has been awarded a scholarship at Yale University. Mr. Hunter's record as a student is a remarkable one. He was graduated from the Tyrone high school with highest honors; afterwards received a scholarship by senatorial appointment at State College, finishing the four years' course there as valedictorian, and has since been teaching Latin and Greek at Millersville State Normal school. Mr. Hunter won the Yale scholarship in a competitive examination. He will pursue his studies at Yale during the summer and will continue as instructor at the Millersville Normal School. Bullock-Faxon. Edward S. Bullock, of Julian, and Miss Bertha E. Faxon, of Bellefonte, were quietly married at the Baptist parsonage, Millersburg, on June 12th, at 9 o'clock a. m., pastor A. C. Lathrop officiating. Mr. Bullock is the popular agent of the Penna. R. R. company at Julian. Miss Faxon is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Faxon, of Bellefonte. They are receiving the congratulations of hosts of friends. In a few days they will be "at home" to their friends in their nicely furnished residence at Julian. M. E. Dedication at Millhill. The new Methodist church at Millhill was dedicated last Sabbath, and the members now have a handsome edifice for worship, and free of debt. M. G. Coffey, the financial secretary, read a list of the $6,500 subscriptions—the cost of the church—after which the dedicatory exercises were conducted by Dr. Boswell. Of the amount subscribed on Sunday, between $600 and $700 was paid in cash. Miss Cora Bathgate, of Lemont, who has been spending a short time at Lancaster and Atlantic City returned home Monday.

QUAY IN CAPITOL BRONZE.

Perched high on one of the great bronze doors at the main entrance to the new Capitol, looking down at people who come and go, with that famous cynical smile, is a bronze head of the late Senator M. S. Quay. The designer of the bronze doors at the main entrance, which were uncovered for the first time Monday morning, that they might be polished, must have been a rare specimen of the genus toady. He has not only put Quay's bronze head on the beautiful doors, but he has also placed thereon the heads of Senator Penrose, the discredited boss, and Governor Pennypacker, Quay's relative. And so Quay's bust gets into the Capitol after all! It is said that the Quay monument, for which a commission was appointed, will be placed in position next January. It is now being made in New York by Carl Becker. How to Teach Music to Children! Summer course of ten lessons for teachers given by MISS R. P. LYON former pupil of Herr Philip Scharwenka, and graduate of the Sternberg Conservatory. Address for particulars, MISS R. P. LYON, Bellefonte. LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.
