

The Racket.

We were fortunate in securing a lot of granite

Preserving Kettles

white lined, which, while of first quality and guaranteed perfect, we can sell at the price of second grade ware. Prices are as follows.

5qt.	- -	40 cents
6 "	- -	50 "
8 "	- -	60 "
10 "	- -	65 "
12 "	- -	75 "

We also have extra tops and gum rings for jars.

Our store will be open evenings as usual until July 1st.

You can do better at the Racket they sell for cash.

E. P. IRVIN.

Correspondents' Department.

Continued from page 3, this section.

RUNVILLE.

Wm. Crispin, of Bellefonte, was seen on his streets recently.

Baptism was not well attended owing to the bad weather.

Arthur Bedient and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a thirteen lb. boy.

Claude Lucas, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday with his parents.

Philip Shan and lady friend Miss Nora Watson, of Snow Shoe, were guests of James Watson's, Sunday.

There will be children's services held at this place Sunday eve, July 1. Come, you are cordially invited.

Lemuel Poorman and family, of Holts Hollow, Sundayed at our village.

Milligan Lucas, of Bellefonte, tarried in our town Monday.

Elmer Gan, wife and little daughter Mae Eva, of Bellefonte, were pleasant callers to our town some few nights ago.

The stork made another visit to our town, this time leaving a bright little daughter at the home of Forden Walkers.

There will be memorial services held in reverence of Poll Irvin, Sunday, June 24, at the Milesburg hall.

W. T. Kunes is on the sick list.

Adelaide Smoyer departed Monday eve for her home at Butts Station.

Minnie Witherite, formerly of this place but now of Bellefonte, spent a few days with her parents.

Lida Jodon, of Bellefonte, spent Monday with her sister Mrs. Sallie Friel.

Wm. Shirk, of Dix Run, transacted business in our town Saturday.

A few of our young folks attended the festival at Wingate Saturday night.

C. Friel spent Sunday at his home at this place.

Thomas Quick spent Sunday with his daughter at Clarks.

Wingate, you must have been sleeping last week as you had no items.

May Fetzer has returned to Bellefonte.

Lulu Lucas and Addie Shope, of Bellefonte, spent Tuesday at this place.

CENTRE HALL.

Mrs. W. A. Sandoe and daughter Helen, of Pittsburg, are visiting friends here.

Mrs. Geo. Flory spent last week at State College with friends.

Mrs. Henry Emerick is gaining strength gradually.

Mrs. Rebecca Murray, while at work Saturday afternoon, fell from the porch and broke her left arm about three inches above the wrist.

The Children services, held in the Lutheran church, was very well rendered. Everyone who attended enjoyed it very much.

Prof. John Hosterman and wife, of Bellefonte, are visiting Dr. Hosterman's. They will visit in Lancaster, later on.

John Lucas has secured a position in Altoona. He may move thither with his family later on.

The Grangers held a public meeting in Grange Arcadia, Friday. There were many present.

LIVONIA.

The continued rains are putting the farmers back with their work as the ground is too wet to cultivate the corn.

Arctura DeLong left here Sunday for West Chester hospital, where she expects to become a trained nurse.

E. M. DeLong and wife, of Carroll, spent a day here last week.

T. N. Stover took a business trip to Bellefonte, Monday.

Last Wednesday the good people of this place gathered together and gave a much needed cleaning to the church—certainly making a great improvement.

Mr. Spyster and friend Calvin, of Lewisburg, passed through here in their auto stopping to take supper at Stover's.

HAINES TWP.

WOLF'S CHAPEL.

Thunder showers have done some damage to the corn fields.

Forest Stover spent Sunday at the home of Edward Bressler's.

Tammie Arney spent Sunday with her mother near Fiedler.

M. M. Bower, wife and children, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting relatives in George's valley.

Bertha Mowery and sister Miranda visited friends at Spring Mills, Sunday.

Some person or persons have removed the flags from the graves in the cemetery; such parties had better replace them to save trouble as the members of the post are watching for them.

GREGG TWP.

GREEN'S GAP.

Don't forget the festival which will be held at Hoy school house, this coming Saturday evening, 23.; the Penn Hall band will be present to enliven the occasion.

Lewis Rachau and family, of Nittany valley, spent Sunday at Jno. Rachau's.

Prof. Luse will be present in the St. Paul's church, on Sunday morning; he will give a selection of choice vocal music.

L. H. Duck made a business trip to Spring Mills on Monday forenoon.

Mrs. Bessie Krape and children are spending a few days with her parents, Henry Mowery's.

H. M. Wert & Co. broke their shingle machine last week; in about another week they will be prepared to resume their work. He does some very fine work.

H. M. Wert, C. I. Grenoble and G. C. Duck spent Saturday at Spring Mills.

FARMER'S MILLS.

Rainy weather over Sunday.

Mr. Shreckengast, from Union county, spent Sunday with Philip Durst's and Isaac Smith's.

Mary Barner left on Monday for Salona, to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. W. Karstetter.

Quite a few of our people attended the Children's day service at Centre Hall, Sunday evening, and say it was a fine entertainment.

Some people wonder where the Farmer's Mill scribe was last week; the scribe was lost but is found again.

Miss Lodie Rishel attended a very sociable picnic Saturday afternoon which was held near Spring Mills.

Verna what became of Carl?

Miss Blanche Hagan, of Bellefonte, spent a few days visiting with her parents, of this place.

MURREVILLE.

A happy wedding passed through here last week.

Robert Ketter is spending his vacation with his brother Sathuel.

Rev. Snyder, of Rebersburg, and Rev. Snyder, of Spring Mills, took dinner at F. A. Yearick's on Sunday.

There will be a festival at Hoy's school house, June 23; the Penn Hall band will furnish music; all are invited to come.

Bessie Taylor spent Sunday with her friend Verna Rachau.

There will be preaching in St. Paul's church Sunday forenoon. Prof. Luse, of Baltimore, will be there.

Lewis Rachau, wife and son Ray, of Nittany valley, were visiting relatives through here last week.

James Wert, wife and son Paul, spent last week visiting friends in Snyder county.

SUNNY SIDE.

There was quite an excitement at Yearick's stove mill last week, there being a runaway but no one was hurt.

Sallie Albright went home after nursing John Crater's little boy two weeks.

Emanuel Crater is sporting a new spring wagon.

The festival at Spring Mills was a failure on account of the rain.

May Kritzer, of Yeagertown, is visiting among friends here.

JULIAN.

Fine weather for grass.

Farmers are busy between showers with their corn.

Quite a number of our young people attended the children's service at Martha on Sunday night. They say it was fine.

Ira F. Doris is renewing his house roof—and adding other improvements to his dwelling.

Mrs. L. C. Bullock is now visiting her daughters at Punxsutawney.

Henry Hale, who has been very poorly, is about our streets again.

Dr. P. W. Swope, we are very glad to say, is rapidly improving and we hope to see him about again soon.

Philip Straw, our road foreman, is making quite a number of good improvements on our roads which were badly needed, especially right through our town.

Roland McKinsey, who is employed in the shops at Altoona, is spending a few days at home this week.

The U. B. festival was largely attended on Saturday night, considering the very bad weather. The receipts for the night were about $41.

There will be the regular preaching service in the M. E. church by the pastor on Sunday morning at 10:30.

Mrs. I. F. Doris has been confined to the house for the past week, suffering from a large abscess on her body.

Jennie Parsons, of Unionville, is spending a week with her grandparents, John Parsons.

Mrs. Daniel Irvin left on Monday for Atlantic City, where she expects to spend the summer with her son Lewis. Mr. Irvin is running a hotel at that place.

JULIAN NO. 2.

Berries and locusts are very plenty on the mountain.

J. C. Nason has his new barn at the foot of the mountain completed.

We are all glad to see a bright light in the Andrew's home once more, which has been rented and is now occupied by E. C. Bullock, our P. R. R. agent, who has recently become a benedict; we are sure Ed. will make a good citizen and we wish him all the happiness and prosperity this big world can give.

We all welcome our friend H. C. Rice back to this side of the mountain again.

BENORE.

A surprise party was given at the home of Jonathan Parsons, Thursday evening in honor of their son Walter, who was 20 years old. Games were played after which the refreshments served. All present report having a very nice time.

William Bottorf is laid up with an attack of lumbago in the back.

Myrtle Strayer, of Ore Hill, is visiting friends of this place.

Lynn Bottorf and Lawrence Nearhoof were transacting business at Tyrone, on Friday.

Alfred Bottorf, who was hurt some time ago on his knee-cap, got hit with a ball on Thursday evening and was compelled to take his crutches for a couple of days.

UNIONVILLE.

Roy Peters, son of landlord Wm. A. Peters, is migrating through western states. As soon as he finds a state that suits him, he will try it and settle down to business.

Mrs. W. B. Parson and her little daughter Jennie arrived home on Saturday from a week's visit to friends at McKeesport and other western towns.

Ex-county commissioner Thomas W. Fisher was taken to the Pennsylvania hospital at Philadelphia on Saturday and on Tuesday an operation was successfully performed for the removal of an abscess or growth on the liver, and latest reports say that he withstood the operation bravely and that strong hopes for his final recovery are entertained. He was accompanied by his wife and N. B. Spangler, Esq.

Bright little Eveline Hoover, after eating all of her grandpa's wittles, left for her home in Altoona.

I've Stere is awful mad because I reported that Andy Rowan has the best garden in town. Well, that's all right, Pete, but while your garden may be the best you ought to tell the people that your good wife deserves the credit for having dug and planted it while you were taking your morning nap. There now.

Two great, big, over-grown fellows of Phillipsburg, are taking their meals with friends in town now. Their names are Andrew and George Griest.

Mrs. Margaret McDonnell is attending Parochial school in Bellefonte, and is making rapid progress in music; she is taking lessons from the Sister's, who are proficient and successful musicians and teachers.

The other day as huckster Harry E. Turner was crossing the Allegheny on his return trip from Phillipsburg, he drove through a swarm of locusts for miles, and he was badly frightened, being afraid that they would devour both him and his team.

Say, Charley, here's a nice little poem which I decomposed all by myself, every line, except the first one, and every sheep raiser ought to either commit it to memory or pin it in his hat. A word to the wise don't sometimes amount to very much. Here it is:

Mary had a little lamb,
Not much bigger than a rat;
It grew to be a great big sheep,
Cause she takes the Centre Democrat.

DOMINO.

COBURN.

N. H. Corman attended the commencement exercises of F. and M. college and visited his sister at Sunbury last week. He intends to become a student in that institution in September.

C. C. Meyer, who is a student in F. and M. college, is spending his vacation at home and has as a guest Mr. Whitehead, of Manor, Pa.

J. O. Bower and family spent Sunday with friends in Aaronsburg.

The band boys furnished music for a festival at Rebersburg, Saturday evening.

Sabbath School at 9 o'clock, Sunday, communion services in the U. E. church at 10 am., and Children's day services in the evening.

The directors of Penn twp. met on Saturday afternoon and elected the following teachers: Coburn grammar, H. N. Meyer; primary, Miss Bertha Braucht; Pike, W. E. Keen; Liberty, R. H. Kreider; Gentzel, I. A. Meyer; Elk Creek, T. A. Hosterman; Mountain, L. A. Miller.

The teachers elected in Haines twp., are, High school, not supplied, Aaronsburg intermediate, Wm. Mingle, primary, Miss Blanche Weaver, Pine Creek, W. T. Winkleblech; Wolf's Chapel, E. R. Wolfe; St. Paul, Lloyd Stover; Woodward, L. A. Miller; Vonada, Chas. Kreamer; Highvalley, A. M. Martin; Losses, Miss Ruth Swbbb.

HARRIS TWP.

CHESTNUT GROVE.

Those who spent Sunday at Sam'l Coble's were: John Coble, wife and daughter Mary, Jerome Wilkins, wife and son Frank.

Charles Coble is employed at James Rosse's.

Catherine Coble is busy picking strawberries.

George Mokol met with an accident on Tuesday, by breaking Catherine Coble's garden fence down.

Maude W. Decker and Mrs. Samuel Coble, spent two days last week at State College, and reported having a fine time.

Quite a number of teams are hauling for Mr. Well's saw mill, at Chestnut Grove.

Mrs. Frank Beck is spending a few days with her grandpa.

There will be a wedding in the near future; boys, get your cow bells and drums ready.

Elmer Spiker and lady friend, Miss Anna Greninger, spent Tuesday at State College.

SMULLTON.

Mrs. Parks, who had been visiting friends and relatives at Sunbury, has again returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Brungart left for Hublersburg, where they will spend several days with her parents.

Verna Smith came home to take a good rest while Brungart's went to Hublersburg.

Marion Emerick, who had been visiting her brothers, has again returned home.

Those people that are in the habit of attending the festivals should purchase automobiles, then they would not need to walk home and have their shoes loaded with mud, for it always rains when there is a festival.

UPPER MARION.

Nevin Harter is driving team for Geo. Beightol.

Mrs. Clemens, of Milton, spent a few days at C. M. Harter's last week.

Anyone wishing to know anything about sweet pea culture ask C. M. Harter.

Cyrus Shope held a festival at Cooper-town, on Saturday night.

Boys, get your tin cans ready, there will be a wedding in the near future.

Everyone is busy picking strawberries and cherries.

One of our young men makes long and frequent calls to Curtin.

MILESBURG.

Robt. Shirk, of Jersey Shore, was a recent visitor with his dear mother, Mrs. Emma Bavar, of Pike street.

Mrs. Simon Neyhart is visiting her sons at Johnstown.

Richard Hall, of Johnstown, was sailing among his friends and relatives during the dedicating of the soldiers' monument.

Wm. Caldwell, with two sons of Pittsburg, visited his parents.

Harry Kellerman is again papa, a young daughter this time.

Arthur Proudfoot, of Altoona, spent a short season with his mother and sister, on Thursday.

Mrs. Sara H. Wyland and grand daughter, of Pittsburg, were recent guests of Daniel McKinley and family.

George A. McClain and wife, of Ridge-way, spent Tuesday with P. H. Haupt and family.

Mrs. Frank Charles, of Jersey Shore, is visiting in the burg and vicinity.

S. H. Yorks is seen on our streets, since the closing of the school at State College.

Erastus Lipton, of Erie, returned home on Saturday, after a visit to his sister Mrs. Nancy McMinn.

James H. Lipton and wife returned home to Kansas, via Erie.

Mrs. Sara Buffington and grand daughter, Miss Dottie Hamer, of Tyrone, were recent visitors in the burg.

Mrs. Agnes McCulley, of Bellefonte, with her two daughters and niece Mrs. McGrath, spent a short time with Mrs. Mary Boleau, on Friday evening.

Mrs. Ed. Patterson returned home in Sewickley, on Monday.

Miss Elsie Harshberger has opened an ice cream parlor on Mill street; your patronage is solicited. Good x-l-n-t cream will be served.

Mrs. Sarah Frederick, of Union twp., and Mrs. Julia Stevens, with two Miss Miller's, of Clearfield, were recent guests of Mrs. Nancy Weaver and daughter.

The Hook and Ladder Fire Company will hold a festival on the 21st of July.

Willis Weaver returned home to Windber after a pleasant visit in the burg.

POTTER TWP.

COLYER, NO. 1.

Blaine Palmer, wife and daughter Violet, spent Sunday at the home of C. S. Bodtorf.

Quite a number of people attended commencement at State College.

J. S. Housman and wife spent several days at the home of the former's brother John, of Millheim.

Andrew Jordan is quite ill with a paralytic stroke; hope for his speedy recovery.

Samuel Brown, of Milroy, spent Sunday at the home of William Reiber.

G. W. Spangler and wife left on Friday for Altoona where they will visit several days with friends and relatives.

Miss Kathryn Boal spent Sunday at home with her parents, P. S. Boal's.

SUNNY SIDE.

Mrs. James Lytle and children, Ross and Mary, spent Saturday and Sunday at Lemont.

Fannie Knoffsinger is working for James Lytle.

Cleveland Weaver spent Saturday eve at George Michael's.

John Stump was helping at the Grange hall Friday.

We had quite a rain on Sunday.

EARLYTOWN.

George A. Michael visited his sister, Mrs. S. C. Saul at Shilo church, Saturday and Sunday.

James Runkle was a pleasant caller on Monday morning at George Michael's.

Fannie Knoffsinger and C. E. Weaver spent Sunday at Oak Grove Farm.

William Lingle was on the sick list.

Harry Flory, wife and daughter May, spent a few days with her parents at Millheim.

WOLFS STORE.

A good many people were disappointed on Saturday evening, on account of the rain.

Bertha Wise, who had been staying with her sister, Mrs. Sheats for some months, returned to her home at Booneville.

We understand that Chas. Smull, from Smullton, is the teacher appointed for this school here next term.

Edward Stover, the mail carrier from Livonia to Rebersburg, had quite an accident through an automobile; his horse frightened and upset the buggy, broke the shafts, and run some distance, got tangled in the harness, and threw himself, and the horse was caught. The automobiles are a nuisance through here, because its not safe to be on the road with a horse.

Paul Winters is the boss fisher through here for his age; he is not five years old, and caught two fish on last Thursday.

Mrs. Charles Weaver and niece, who had been visiting relatives here, went to Loganton to visit her parents.

A fire started at Noah Brungart's saw mill one night last week, and had it not been for the kindness of the neighbors, no doubt the mill would have burned down; some lumber was destroyed.

GREENBURR.

Stella Kahl returned to her home last week, after a stay of two months in Aaronsburg.

B. W. and Harry Wyle,