

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

A camera club is being organized at the Y. M. C. A. Home grown strawberries are plenty and of unusually fine flavor. Large deck blotters free at this office for the asking—size 10x14. Miss Sabra Foxon is visiting her sister Mrs. Victor Royer at Altoona. Weather has been cool for a week, with thunder showers nearly every day. J. C. Meyer, Esq., and Recorder John C. Rowe are on a business trip to Philadelphia. Miss Regina Ceader, of McKeesport, is here for a short visit at the home of Joseph Ceader. James Bailey and Daniel Rines, of Mill Hill, were pleasant callers, also C. E. Boob of Nittany. The Schaffer-Hazel reunion is being held at Hecla Park today, and a large attendance is assured. Harvey P. Robb, one of Lock Haves progressive teachers, was transacting business in Bellefonte this week. Michael Hess, of this place, who has been critically ill for two weeks, is considerably improved since yesterday. Harry Gentzle, fireman on the Pennsylvania R. R., located at Juniata, is visiting friends in this section for a few days. Miss Grace Blackford entertained a company of friends at her home on Allegheny street Monday evening in honor of Miss McBride. Miss Jennie Irwin has been discharged from the hospital and expects in a few days to be able to resume her position in the Bell telephone exchange. Mrs. Joseph Ceader acted as hostess to a party of friends at the Country Club Monday evening in honor of the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Spangler. Prof. John Hosterman and family are visiting his parents, Dr. G. W. Hosterman, at Centre Hall. Later they expect to visit friends at Lancaster, Pa. Miss Josie White, who recently underwent an operation in St. Luke's hospital Philadelphia, we are glad to state, is on the sure road to recovery. Sunday evening Children's Day exercises will be held in the Presbyterian church. A special musical program will be rendered in connection with the services. Samuel Diehl the coachmaker is erecting a large, bricked double dwelling on the upper side of his lot and adjoining his residence opposite the U. E. church. Miss Margaret Miller, of New Orleans, Louisiana, and Mrs. Blanche Caldwell, departed for their homes Monday after a very enjoyable week spent at the home of Sheriff Kline. H. F. Kessinger, of Blanchard, favored our section with a call, and reports locusts "all right" down there, only the music they make prevents one from hearing anything else that's going on. William H. Miller has been appointed agent for the American Express company at this place to succeed Philip Waddle. He was express messenger between Puncsutawney and Indiana for some time. Ten young students successfully passed their examinations at the Bellefonte Academy last week and their certificates will enable them to enter the Freshman class in any of the leading colleges. The pupils of St. John's parochial school will hold their annual closing entertainment at the opera house on Thursday evening, June 21st. An interesting program has been prepared. Everybody is invited to attend. Rev. Illingworth, of Somerset, favored us with a call; he is pastor of a Presbyterian church in the town named, and years ago was pastor of the Spring Mills M. E. charge. His family is now visiting at his wife's parents, in Ferguson township. The opening chapter of our new serial story will be found in the Magazine Section of the paper this week. "The White Company" by A. Conan Doyle, the famous novelist. Start with the opening chapters so that you can follow it through. Editor "Fritz" Dunham, publisher of one of the most independent stalwart republican papers, the Howard Hustler spent Saturday in town. Fred is every inch a republican, but wears no political collar, and his paper never hesitates to voice an honest opinion. M. J. Bowes, formerly of Gilettown, now of Cherry Tree, Ind. Co., was a visitor in town Friday and also took in the unveiling of the Curtin Monument June 8th. Mr. Bowes is a locomotive engineer on the N. Y. C. R. R. and is at present visiting his parents at Howard. Lewis Ettinger and wife, of Milton, accompanied by her sister Miss Jenkins, and another lady, were in Bellefonte a few hours on Sunday, touring this part of the state by carriage, for sightseeing. Mr. Ettinger was a former Aaronsburg boy, now foreman of the Shimer machine shops at Milton. Company B, accompanied by the Ambulance corps, of the 5th Regiment, N. G. P., left Wednesday afternoon, for Lewistown, Pa., to take part in the parade at the dedication of the Soldiers Monument at that place today. The monument is 63 feet in length and was erected by the county at a cost of $15,000. The pastors of the Bellefonte Ministerial Association had fixed upon Tuesday last for a picnic at Hecla Park, but the rain put a veto upon it, and the ministers and families were obliged to forego the pleasure and no doubt fixed upon some other day when we trust the weather-man will favor them and they have the most pleasurable outing. The Undine Fire company of Bellefonte will hold its annual picnic at Hecla Park on Wednesday, July 4th. Among the features that will afford special attraction is a display of five hundred dollars' worth of fire works in the evening, a high class game of base ball, Ferris wheel, tests of strength and endurance in various contests, good music, dancing and everything that tends to amuse the immense crowd of people expected. The company will serve good meals for dinner and supper on the grounds, and a special train will be run over the Bellefonte Central Railroad from Pine Grove Mills to the Park to accommodate people from the west end.

Mrs. John McSuley and children are visiting her parents, at Williamsport. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cook and daughter Margaret, are on a visit to Atlantic City. Benner Graham, the insurance agent, will buy your insurance policy. See his card in the "Want" column. Mrs. John Shugart, who was in a Philadelphia hospital the past few weeks, is home again and in good health. Prof. Clarence Garbrick is home on his summer vacation. He has been teaching the year in Philadelphia. John Tolbert, one of Nittany's progressive young men, while attending to business in town on Tuesday, paid us a call. Some good bargains in 2nd-hand engines and farm machinery are advertised in this issue by John W. Eby, of Zion. Harry Hutchinson, passenger agent for the P. R. R. Co. at this place, has returned home from a two weeks visit to Kansas. The Epworth League of the Methodist church will give a strawberry social in the lecture room of the church Thursday evening. Bellefonte now has two broker's offices in Temple Court, which certainly will supply ample accommodations for our investors. Mrs. H. L. Sayers, of Clarence, was a pleasant caller, and reports a heavy frost out there last week which did great harm to plants generally. John Cole, of Zion, is growing some exceptionally fine strawberries this season. He left a sample on our desk; therefore we know it is correct. F. S. Strawn, of Pittsburg, has opened a broker's office on third floor of Temple Court, in rooms 10 and 11. The first quotations were received on Wednesday. Our good friend Wm. B. Shaffer, of Zion, as usual dropped around with a sample of the choice strawberries he is marketing this season. There are none better anywhere. The Y. M. C. A. has entered into an agreement with W. T. Speer for the rental of a small plot of ground which will be used in connection with the Association property for a tennis court. The second Ray was registered at the Brockhoff House, Friday, in time for dinner and everybody was happy. No doubt the lad in time will run an automobile and do other clever stunts. Prof. John Hosterman, asst. principal of our schools the past year, and who was recently elected principal of the Phillipsburg schools, will likely accept the offer as it is an advance in position and salary. Wm. Steele, the carpenter, has had several articles of home removed from one of his middle fingers. It was thought that an amputation might be found necessary, but this he thinks will avert the loss of the finger. It caused him much trouble during the past week. John Olesing, the hardware dealer, is having an unpleasant season. During the past week he has been kept at home on account of a large swelling at the side of his neck which required medical attention, while it is annoying and painful, the ailment is not considered serious. Thursday evening Rev. W. R. Goff, of Pittsburg, will deliver his illustrated lecture "Samaria and Galilee" with 105 stereoscopic views, in Petrik Hall. Rev. Goff returned recently from a tour of the Holy Land, and his lecture will prove interesting and entertaining. The regular quarterly meeting of the board of directors of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company was held on Monday, in the rooms of the company in Petrik Hall. Application were passed to amount of $161,099. Cash premium received to amount of $64,753. Premium notes taken to amount of $16,915. There were no losses to adjust. The annual reception at the Bellefonte Academy on Friday evening was well attended. The grounds were artistically decorated and the building illuminated on the outside with electric lights. The reception rooms were banked with blooming plants and cut flowers. Mrs. James R. Hughes, assisted by Miss Overton, Miss Hill and Miss Harper received those who attended the event. Mrs. Jacobs of Clarksburg, West Virginia, and Mrs. Dubarry of Pittsburg were guests from a distance. Smith's orchestra was present and dispensed choice music. The assembly in the armory concluded the affair and was largely attended. The school directors met on Tuesday evening and re-elected the entire former corps of teachers at the salaries as last year. The tax rate for the next year will be mills for school purposes and a mills for buildings. The following committees were announced: Finance: Barnhart, H. P. Harris, and Quigley; Supplies: Parker, H. P. Harris, and Quigley; Repairs: Heinle, Fortney, and Barnhart; Grounds: John P. Harris, Fortney, and Heinle; Text Books: Mingle, Quigley, and Parker; Library: Mingle, John P. Harris, and Mingle; High School: H. P. Harris, Heinle, and Parker; Accounts: Fortney, Barnhart, and John P. Harris. It will be noted in the above that the older members of the Board are allotted to the unimportant committees. The wisdom of this arrangement remains to be demonstrated. Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick, the dentist, has a pardonable weakness, he loves to linger by the warbling brooks to tempt the pecked beauties. He is so sporty that he would not pull a trout from a stream by bait—it must be by casting the fly. On Friday evening he was fishing near the spring and it was quite dark when a jerk told him that a large fish had seized his fly. Jim Furst came to the rescue and the two, by use of the landing net succeeded in bringing out a large fish about 20 inches long. You can imagine their surprise, when they got it to the light they found it was a carp that lives mostly in the mud and is seldom caught by hook and line, and this is the first instance known of one taking a fly. We have bait fishers who will catch more suckers than trout, but Kilpatrick has committed the first offence of catching mud carp on the fly. The fish is in the aquarium at Shaffer's grocery store. For a cough or cold take Kruminer's Compound Syrup of Tar—cures in one day.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Large hail stones fell in the upper part of Pennsylvania, Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Emory Johnson, of Jersey Shore, formerly of Ferguson twp., have moved to Altoona. Miss Rose Casher, of Snow Shoe, has returned from Philadelphia where she graduated in a course in vocal music. On Thursday evening Grover Musser caught a salmon trout in Elk creek, near Millheim, that was 18 inches in length. Locusts are singing at Zion—not the celestial city, but at Zion down in Walker township where some good people live. After a stay of a number of years in the west, Irvin Hockman, of Jewel City, Kansas, is visiting relatives in Pennsylvania. The Citizens Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1, of Milesburg will hold their annual festival on Saturday evening July 21, 1906. The Patton township school board will meet at Waddle school house, July 7, at 2 p. m., to elect teachers. John Haugh, Sec'y., Benore, Pa. John H. Weber, of Centre Hall, who was seriously ill for over a year—has recovered sufficiently to be able to give a good part of his time to business. J. W. Grove, of State College, after a six weeks' siege of typhoid fever, has been able to give the Democrat a call, though still weak from the disease. June 23rd, the voters of State College borough will vote on the proposition of increasing its indebtedness five thousand dollars for the purpose of enlarging the present school building. State Economic Zoologist Surface ridicules the stories that locusts are dangerous and sting people. He says locusts are harmless and that their slight sting is not at all dangerous. The "Old Musser church," located about two miles west of Coburn, was recently bought by the Spring Mills charge, U. E. church, from the Evangelical association, and was re-dedicated on Sunday, 10th. The month of June thus far has been liberal in precipitation. The record of rains is as follows: On 5, at night, .06; on 6, at eve., .06; on 9, .33; on 10, afternoon, .15; on 15, at noon, .88; and at night, .05; on 16, at night, .31; on 17, afternoon, .66; on 18, afternoon, .16, and at night, 1.20. Total, 3.86. Irvin Dreese, who for some months has been living in Baltimore, with his family will soon remove to Lemont. They found the change unhealthy, but Mr. Dreese expects to retain his connection with the commission business in that city, spending most of his time traveling throughout the state. Geo. Jordan, one of John I. Thompson's tenant farmers, in College twp., has had hard luck of late. Last week one of his horses was injured so it had to be killed, and on Friday he turned one to grass in the orchard and in some way it received a deep wound in the abdomen and had to be killed. Amos Nearhood, a farmer near Dix Station, recently lost two valuable horses in a peculiar manner. One of his boys was engaged in plowing in a field along the Bald Eagle creek when the embankment gave way, throwing the horses into the stream and before assistance could reach them both were drowned. "Domino," our popular correspondent at Unionville, of late has been displaying poetical tendencies. It justice to "Domino" we will say that our Spring Mills correspondent in an item this week has another guess—the idea no doubt is an excellent one and in order, but in this case implicates an innocent party. The Hecla Park Baseball Team will hold a festival on the afternoon and evening of Saturday, June 23, at Hecla Park. Dancing, rowing and various other amusements will be on the program; music by the Zion band. Ice cream, cake, tropical fruits, and other delicacies will be served. Ball game at 5 p. m. Samuel, son of John Ruhl, of near Tylersville, left his home last Thursday and has not been heard of since that day. The young man is aged about 20 years and is not of altogether sound mind. His friends are very uneasy about him, fearing that he wandered into the mountains and probably perished. Spring Mills had a fire a few days ago resulting in the burning of the house of A. L. Lingle at that place. The contents of the house were also burned. The loss is about $1200, with an insurance of $6000, of which $750 is in the Lykens Valley Co. and the balance on the contents is insured in the Anville Co. The coach shop owned by W. W. Hackman, at Rebersburg, caught fire last week from a defective flue and the whole second story of the building, with the contents, was burned before the fire was gotten under control. Mr. Hackman's loss is about $500 with no insurance. By aid of the hose the adjoining buildings were saved from destruction. Thunder showers have been frequent over the county within the past two weeks, and all needs for rain have been supplied but it seems the clouds are freighted with moisture and precipitating it without being prayed for. There is no use in growing it, may be better to have much rain than too little, which latter was the condition previous to the setting in of the present wet spell. Sunday afternoon the house occupied by Wm. Catherman on the Daniel Kramer farm near Millheim, was struck by lightning, the bolt knocking off some of the weather boarding and other woodwork, and passing down the flue, killed a dog in the kitchen, which had just gotten up from a dose and was in the act of shifting his quarters. It is rare that a dog is killed by lightning—this is the first case we know of. The force of men who are setting poles on the new line of the Bald Eagle Telephone Co., are closing the gaps above Blanchard and between that place and the bridge. The linemen are stringing eight wires and are now two miles east of Howard. Phones should be in use on this line by July 1, if the work is continued as at present. Connection with the United or Commercial line will be made through the exchange at Howard, which is ready for operation. Miss Cora Bottorf, daughter of Mrs. Ella Bottorf, of Flemington, left home on last Saturday and at Tyrone she was met by Joseph Ricker, who is now employed at Columbus, Ohio, as a machinist. From Tyrone the loving couple journeyed to Columbus where they were married that evening by Rev. Dr. Wood, pastor of the Methodist church, and immediately went to housekeeping in furnished rooms. Mrs. Bottorf was the only one who was let into the secret.

Fire broke out from the mill on the Stewart lands at Pine Glenn recently and raged with great fury for several days in the old choppings where the Surveyor Run lumber company cut the timber a few years ago. Fences near the woods were all burned and six head of cattle perished by being chased to a wire fence and surrounded by the fire. The Pine Glenn school house was saved after a hard fight. On Monday afternoon the large barn on the Meeder farm took fire and soon all buildings except a wash house or summer kitchen were destroyed.

WILLIAMS REUNION.

Saturday, Sept. 1st 1906, has been the time fixed for holding the annual reunion of the Williams families. J. Q. Miles' grove has again been selected as the place. The beautiful grove with its surroundings and its rail road facilities make it one of the most delightful spots in the county in which to spend a day with such a happy crowd as this reunion brings from far and near. From present indications this one will excel all previous ones, as expressed by the enthusiasm shown at the meeting on Saturday evening June 16th. We deem it hardly necessary to advertise this very extensively at this time, as it has grown to such an extent that people from all portions of the state look forward to this reunion with great pleasure and we now predict the largest and pleasantest gathering of all. You will hear from us later on through the county papers, but wish to say here and now that we expect to secure excursion rates, so those expecting to take a day off will do well to wait and spend the day with us where you are free from intoxicated persons, and no evil devices of any kind are tolerated upon the grounds. We give below the names of the prominent officers as well as the various committees and urge that all work in harmony to add to its success. President, J. R. Williams; vice president, A. S. Williams; secretary, Gordon A. Williams; assistant secretary, Miss Maggie Williams; cor. secretary, O. D. Eberts; asst. cor. secretary, R. R. Hartsock; treasurer, W. A. Hartsock; historian, E. S. Williams; finance committee: J. Q. Miles, D. J. Gingery, O. D. Eberts; Entertainment: G. G. Fink, Abednego Williams, W. S. Williams, John Williams, Misses Ida R. Williams, Lola Williams, Transportation: D. J. Gingery, G. W. Bullock, J. Q. Miles; emblem R. Hartsock; Miss Mattie Williams, Blanche Williams; grounds, J. Q. Miles; resolutions: W. S. Williams, Rev. A. C. Lathrop. Please remember the date, September 1st, and bring your baskets and spend the day in social intercourse with us. We hope Clearfield, Clinton, Blair and Huntingdon county papers will take note of this. By order of committee, F. N. Fink, ch.

Bellefonte Girl Married.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Wm. W. Rishel, 7327 Burton street, Swiswale, Pa., a suburb of Pittsburg on Tuesday evening May 12, 1906. The contracting parties were Arthur Pennington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pennington, of Lobliver Ave., Braddock, Pa., and Miss Lulu Kramer, of Swiswale, who has been staying at the home of her sister Mrs. Wm. Rishel. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kramer, of Bellefonte and is well known. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Herbert A. Baum of the Swiswale Methodist church in the presence of a large number of invited guests. The groom holds a very responsible position as foundry foreman of the Sterling Steel Co. of Braddock. The young couple will go to housekeeping in Swiswale, which is one of prettiest suburbs of Greater Pittsburg.

William From Killed.

The Lewistown Free Press contains the following account of the death of William From: William From, aged about fifty years, was killed by the cars just below Lewistown Junction, Wednesday evening of last week. The passenger train which leaves the Junction at 4:47 p. m., struck and buried him about twenty feet and his head was badly crushed. He was picked up by the train that struck him and taken to Millintown, where the body was prepared for burial. Mr. From was killed five years ago and with ten years' rest where his son William was drowned three years ago. His son Aleck was working on the track within a short distance of the point where the accident occurred. He was formerly of Pennsylvania and a brother of Jacob From, of Centre Hall. It isn't fair to even beat a carpet when it is down.

Locusts a Pest.

The little mining town of Monmouth, Clinton county, where the fire clay is mined for the Harbison-Walker Refractories Company, is so overrun with seventeen year locusts that it is feared it will be necessary to close the mines until the pests disappear. They came in a single night, a perfect cloud of them, and are so thick in the mines and about the shafts that it is difficult for the miners to work. They have taken complete possession of the place, and their buzzing can be heard on all sides. Not only are they in the mines, but in the works as well—in the houses, the barns, on the fences, in the roads, the woods, in the butter, the milk and the preserves—there are locusts, locusts, everywhere.

Ravages of Locusts.

All who are interested in C. K. Sober's great chestnut farm in Irish Valley will regret to know that, according to advices, the locusts have already done incalculable damage to the trees, and practically ruining all hope for a crop this season. Mr. Sober, for several years, has had large flocks of chickens running at large in the grove for the good of the insect-destroyers, but the locust pest is so overwhelming in numbers, and with a tendency to "root high," that the chicken army's help amounts to little. Mr. Sober's chestnut farm has long been a place of interest to the state authorities, and the visitation of the locust upon it is a public calamity.

Will Remove Plant

The Monroe H. Kulp and company, one of Lewisburg's foremost industries, will soon move its plant to Oldtown, Maryland, and thus rob this town of an industry that kept about one hundred and fifty men in good employment. This company has been working the timber land in Nittany and Buffalo mountains for the past ten years. During this period they have taken out about 85,000,000 feet of logs from the thirty-six thousand acres of land that the company controls in the forest west of this town.—Lewisburg Journal.

Farmers Paying to Get Harvesters.

Men confined in county jails in the Kansas wheat belt who are unable to pay fines may be released if they agree to go to the wheat fields and help save the crop. In Saline, Stafford and Barton counties farmers have paid fines of men for misdeemeanors and taken them home with them to work in the harvest. Farmers in other counties who cannot get sufficient help will visit the jails on a hunt for helpers. The demand is for 21,000 extra helpers. Fewer than 5000 harvesters have come from other States.
