

Correspondents' Department

The news in condensed form from all parts of Centre County

MOSHANNON.

Miss Maude Rankin entertained the Misses Ferguson and Twitmore, of Clearfield, several days last week and was assisted by — and —.

Paul McGowan, of Clearfield, spent several days last at his parental home.

Fred and John Fulmer, of Cooper, Sundayed at the Wagner home.

Mrs. Sarah Viehdefer accompanied by Mildred and Sarah Holt, spent a few days in Winburne last week.

Misses Jennie and Edith Lucas have gone to Lock Haven to attend the Normal graduating exercises, of which their brother Albert is a graduate.

Frank Viehdefer has returned home after several days' visit to Pittsburg.

Mr. Hipple has returned home from the bark woods.

Daniel Flanigan has returned, after having spent several days in Clearfield.

Miss Flora Penny, of Snow Shoe, spent Monday with her friend, Miss Maude Rankin.

The Children's day exercise was well attended on Sunday evening.

We are sorry to note the extreme illness of Ulysses Norton, who is very poorly.

Reed Bierly spent Sunday evening in Lodebar.

A number of our people attended church in Snow Shoe, Sunday evening.

Geo. Daugherty and Harry Beates, of Pine Glenn, were pleasant callers in town on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Vernon Eters has gone to Gramplan, where she expects to stay some time.

Messrs — and — of Bellefonte, were entertained on Sunday by their friend Miss Mary Lomison.

Mr. Conoway, of Clearfield, is a pleasant guest at the home of his brother Elmer.

Wade Craft, and wife have returned after having spent several months in Brockville.

W. T. Vail and wife spent Saturday evening in Snow Shoe.

HAINES TWP.

WOLVES CHAPEL.

A few of our farmers have commenced haying.

David Burd and wife spent last Thursday at Emanuel Confer's west of Millheim.

Frank Tomlinson, of Clearfield, visited his farm and attended to other business at this place last week.

Mrs. Agnes Stover, of Millheim, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. M. Musser.

Durbin Musser, wife and son Paul, and sister Lorilla, spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Musser at Pine Creek Mills.

Cyrus Bower, wife and daughter Martha, visited Mrs. Bower's sister, Mrs. Spere Breen west of Millheim on Sunday.

Mrs. F. W. Wingard, son Coleman and Maud Wingard, of Greenbrier, were callers at R. B. Hosterman's one day last week.

Mrs. Harvey W. Stover and Frank Stover visited her daughter, Mrs. Frank Snyder at White Deer, last week returning on Friday.

F. O. Hosterman and family, of Millheim, visited his brother, R. B. Hosterman on Sunday.

ROMOLA.

Cherries are ripe and plenty around this place, and huckleberries will soon be ripe.

The Fourth of July is drawing near, and everybody talking about going away to have a fine time.

Geo. Heverly has his house nicely painted and Joseph Poorman has his house just finished.

Jacob Welsh is getting his house plastered.

Mrs. Packer, of Houtzdale, is visiting friends at this place a few weeks.

Mrs. Annie Poorman and two children, Frank and Viola, spent Sunday at Viaduct.

Mrs. Ella McCloskey fell down the steps in her house last week and got seriously hurt about her head, just above eyes, by striking her head against the edge of a step.

Conrad Kreager has been ill for the past few days and was unable to work.

They are getting the telegraph poles up around here.

SMULLTON.

Miss Aneta Breen, from Lock Haven, and her brother George, from Philadelphia, spent some time with their sick mother at this place.

Wm. Smull and family, from Illinois, are spending some time with relatives.

Mrs. Lottie Stover and little son Ralph left on Friday for Bellefonte where they will spend a week with her brother, Sham Hackenberg.

Miss Alpha Smull, who spent some time at New Berlin, has again returned home.

—For a cough or cold take Krumrine's Compound Syrup of Tar—cures in one day.

YARNELL.

Children's services at this place Sunday morning were very largely attended.

Mrs. Harry Leathers and two children, of Snow Shoe, were the guests of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Rickard over Sunday.

Misses Elizabeth and Viola Reiter, of Keewaydin, spent last week at the home of their uncle, Harris Poorman.

Mrs. Harry Sayers and family, of Snow Shoe, spent a few days at the home of J. L. Croft.

R. S. Confer and wife, of Milesburg, Sundayed at the home of his father.

Miss Maude Daley, of Romola, visited over Sunday with Fannie Confer.

A very enjoyable party was held at the home of Wm. Shawley's, last Thursday evening.

Malcolm Poorman, who has been employed at Altoona, for some time, has returned home.

Frederick Robb and daughter Emma, of Romola, visited over Sunday at the home of Michael Heaton's.

Edna and Daniel Woomer, of Pitcairn, are visiting relatives at this place.

Mrs. Jonathan Packer is visiting at Clearfield.

J. McKisic, of Summit Hill, spent the past week with his friend Martin Petzer.

John Brady and sister Eva, of Milesburg, spent Sunday at John Croft's.

A number of people from this place attended the memorial services held for Mabel Confer, who died of diphtheria a short time ago.

Wm. Adams, wife and Miss Bessie, of Milesburg, Sundayed at J. A. Confer's.

Rev. C. C. Bingham and son Earl, of Runville, are spending a few days at this place.

Miss Annie Petzer, of Newberry, is visiting her parents at this place.

Miss Bessie Heaton, of Milesburg, visited over Sunday at O. L. Petzer's.

Miss Myrtle Heaton, of Gorton, was a caller in our village Sunday.

G. Witherite and wife, of Chestnut Grove, tarried at I. P. Confer's on Sunday.

Miss Lucy Kline has gone to State College to spend a few weeks.

YARNELL NO. 2.

Another wedding in the near future. Sowing buckwheat and picking geese is all the go around here.

Wilson Heaton and wife, of Milesburg, Sundayed at J. A. Confer's.

Geo Adams and Curt Swiers, of Milesburg, spent Saturday evening at J. A. Confer's.

Tommy Walker is the champion ground hog hunter of this place.

L. P. C., our white vest farmer, has secured a high position from J. A. Confer. He is working corn on the hill.

Clint Swartz, of Milesburg, spent last Thursday evening at J. A. Confer's.

MILESBURG.

Lew Womer and family, of Tyrone, were recent guests of Mrs. Wesly Crain, McClellan Falton and family, of Tyrone, after a pleasant visit with his mother returned home.

Maud Knarr, of State College, arrived home for a visit with her parents.

James E. Laughlin has a watch with his name on the face representing the hours instead of figures, a very beautiful piece of mechanism it is.

Mrs. Steven Cahill and son, of Pittsburg, are spending a short vacation with Mrs. George Quigley.

Seven young ladies of Bellefonte had a delightful time with the Kohlbecker sisters on Saturday afternoon.

Wm. Stanley, with his dog, succeeded in catching a 25lb ground hog on Wednesday eve of last week.

Craig Grassmire, of Barnesboro, was called home recently on account of the illness of his infant.

Lowry Shope and family, of Valley View, Sundayed with his mother.

Oscar Shope, of Johnstown, arrived home for a short season with his mother.

Cora and Amelia Jolon are visiting friends in Blair and Cambria counties.

Jesse Jodon, after a several weeks visit with his son John, returned home to Patton.

Mooly Briggs, of Virginia, and Frank Campbell, Sundayed with W. R. Campbell and family.

Harry Goodman, of Huntingdon, was a recent guest of the Grove family.

Bald Eagle Grange held a memorial service in their Hall on Sunday in honor of the late Roland Irvin.

HARRIS AND FERGUSON.

Vegetation is booming and locusts humming.

Clover crop is short.

E. W. Hess and W. H. Bailey are roofing their barns with steel roofing.

The home of John Frazer was a scene of much merriment upon the celebration of the 21st birthday of Miss Carrie. She had been lured away from home that day and on her return after night found the house filled with happy youngsters and many presents. Refreshments were served and all passed a delightful time.

The Roosevelt Hunting Club will hold a festival next Saturday afternoon and evening at Gatesburg on Col. Lemon's lawn.

Hon. J. T. McCormick left for Butler, Pa., to visit his aunt Mrs. Crozier, who is quite ill.

Mrs. Lankhart, of Nebraska, after an absence of twenty-five years is visiting Centre county relatives and friends.

Will Fisher and family, of Sunbury, are visiting at the Dr. Fisher home. He is quite an angler having caught a 20 inch trout in the Oak Hall dam.

BENORE.

Robert Fogleman, of Fillmore, spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Bortoff.

Hettie Lauffer spent Sunday in Buffalo Run.

A number of our young people were at Stormstown Sunday evening to attend children's services.

SPRING MILLS.

The whooping cough is still raging among children.

Michael Duck visited his son Charles', in Clearfield county.

On Sunday evening the Presbyterian Sunday school will celebrate children's service. They always have splendid entertainments and this will be no exception.

Clark Gramley, from Rebersburg, came over on his new automobile and repaired the planing mill engine.

Miss Florida Duck, who taught the past term of school, in St. Louis, returned home on last Tuesday; she also visited her brother along the line.

Some of the young folks held a picnic at the sand spring a week ago Saturday.

The stores are already supplied with fire crackers for the Fourth, Wednesday.

John Rossman's roommate from Lancaster college, spent a few days with him.

Our schools were assigned as follows: High school—vacant; grammar—Orpha Gramley; intermediate—Alice Robison; primary—Bertha Duck; Penn Hall—Allen Duck; Cross roads—Wm. Haney; Hoy—Geo. Weaver, Murray—Clara Condo; Logan—John Foreman; Farmers Mills—K. U. Bitner; Pike—Theresa C. Rachau; Polk Hill—Chas. Royer; Beaver Dam—Tibben Zubler; Decker—Grover Walker; Mountain—Clarence Musser; schools will open on Sept. 3rd.

Orris McCormick is taking orders for enlarged pictures for the Keystone Co. He has a long list of subscribers.

Bright little Charlie Faxon, from Bellefonte, was visiting at our hotel, Mr. Woods.

Thos. Hosterman and bride passed through town and called on friends here. We wish them a long and happy life.

Miss Allison, from Colorado and Miss Reber, from Howard, are the guests of C. H. Long's.

Several men left here on Monday morning for Renova where they will secure employment.

The M. E. Sunday school had children's service last Sunday evening. They had a splendid entertainment, the only disagreeable part was the house being packed to its utmost.

Penn Literary society meets on Friday evenings instead of Tuesday, as it did while school was in session.

The planing mill is preparing lumber for David Barges who will erect a new house on his property, a mile below town.

C. P. Long has begun the foundation for another house in town.

OAK HALL.

Al. O'Neil and wife returned to their home in Altoona after spending some time at the home of Joseph Stone.

Mrs. B. E. Stamm and daughter, of Altoona, are visiting relatives at this place.

Ed Sellers transacted business at Harrisburg a few days last week.

George Bridenbaugh, daughter and son, of Arch Springs, visited the home of D. B. Lowder over Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Dale returned home on Tuesday after visiting friends in Union county.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Boalsburg was favored with some fine music on Sunday night, by Rev. Chase of Philipsburg.

Ross Lowder and family spent Sunday with relatives near Centre Hall.

A number of our young folks attended the June picnic on Saturday.

Mary Blazer has been so unfortunate as to fall off a cherry tree and break her shoulder blade.

Verna Homan, of Centre Hall, is visiting relatives and friends at this place.

C. H. Kline, wife and daughters spent Sunday at the home of David Glasglow of near Tusseyville.

J. K. From and wife, of State College, visited the Peters home Sunday.

HARRIS TWP.

Willow Springs.

Irvin Stover, from the red bridge, accompanied by his lady friend, Bessie Seanson, attended the picnic, Saturday.

F. W. Coble, wife and little daughter Mary, spent Saturday afternoon at Tusseyville.

Mrs. Ida Harshbarger returned to her home in Altoona.

Mrs. David Glasgo returned to Aaronsburg Monday.

There was a very quiet wedding took place at Bellefonte, the parties being Samuel Coble and Miss Maud Decker, of Linden Hall. We wish them much happiness.

Samuel Coble and wife and son Calvin were callers at their son John's.

Frank Beck, wife and son, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Staumbaugh.

J. Page is driving team for A. G. Noll.

A pretty baby girl came to the home of Jerome Wilkins.

TYLERSVILLE.

On Saturday afternoon Harvey Caris' house was destroyed by fire. It is not known how the fire originated. It was insured.

Cherries and huckleberries are ready for market.

Mrs. Benj. Greninger is on the sick list.

Mrs. John Stoner and daughter, of Millheim, are visiting her mother, sisters and brothers.

CASSANOVA.

Mrs. E. J. Goodyear underwent an operation for appendicitis and is getting along very nicely.

Mrs. J. T. Stewart returned home, after spending several weeks with relatives at Williamsport and Jersey Shore.

The long looked for new station is now being built by the railroad carpenters; it is to be a good one with two waiting rooms, which was very much needed for years.

D. J. O'Brien is visiting relatives at Pittsburg where two of his boys are working.

Mrs. Henry Poorman and family, of Williamsport, visited at J. T. Stuart's over Sunday.

The ball game on Saturday between the married and single men of Munson came out in favor of the single, the score being 18-7.

Miss Lingle, a trained nurse, of Philipsburg, is nursing Mrs. E. J. Goodyear.

Mrs. McGhee, of Osceola Mills, visited her daughter, Mrs. Katie Sughrue, who is on the sick list.

Miss Flora Duck, one of St. Louis' school teachers, visited her brother Chas. over Sunday on her way home to Spring Mills.

M. B. Duck, of Spring Mills and P. C. Frank, wife and daughter Beulah, of Centre Hill, visited at Chas. C. Duck's, Sunday.

Mrs. J. L. Harkins and family returned home, after visiting relatives near Williamsport.

MARTHA.

The Methodists held their annual children's service last Sunday eve, which was conceded to be the best they have had for years; the church was filled to its utmost capacity.

Maggie Stevens spent part of last week with her sister, Mrs. R. G. Williams, of this place.

Mrs. J. R. Williams is visiting her parents at Tyrone.

Ellwood Steele and Gordon Huey are laid up with the measles.

Annie and Celia Andrews took tea at the home of G. G. Fink last Sunday eve.

Ella Myers, who is a nurse at the Bellefonte hospital, has been visiting her parents for some time.

Nettie Cronister, who has been employed at Pittsburg for some time, is now at home.

Miss June Robison is visiting her parents here.

Mrs. J. Q. Miles and her granddaughter Lydia Eberts, spent last week with the former's daughter, Mrs. G. O. Benner of Centre Hall.

Wm. McDonald spent part of last week in Tyrone.

Samuel Hollabaugh is spending a few days in Philipsburg.

BEECH CREEK.

The weather is very pleasant just now and the people in this vicinity are busy working their corn.

We hear the hum of the locust very plainly.

Norris Hubbard is working for J. W. Metzger.

Miles Linn was out on a fishing trip; he says he did nothing but eat trout; we understand he is full of fish bones.

HOUSERVILLE.

God made it to rain on the just and the unjust last week.

Fred Houser has taken charge of the mill as Mr. Ailman is visiting his parents in Juniata county.

Sale at Sarah Hoover's, dec'd, on the 16th was well attended; L. F. Mayes, auct.

Geo. Meyers brought a lot of western cattle to W. H. Thompson's to pasture until fall.

A. E. SCHAD

BOTH TELEPHONES.

Fine Sanitary Plumbing,
Gas Fitting,
Furnace, Steam and Hot Water Heating.

—o—

Slatting, Tin Roofing,
Spouting.

All kinds of Tinware
made to order.

Estimates Cheerfully Furnished

Eagle Block, Bellefonte, Pa.

POTTERS MILLS.

Dr. H. S. Alexander and wife, Michael Smith and wife, Emi. Smith and wife, attended the dedication of the soldiers' monument at Lewistown, Thursday.

Mrs. Aggie Potter and child, of Petersburg, are visiting her father, Alex. McCoy.

Emanuel Smith, the hustling merchant of this place, had quite a pleasant surprise Monday morning when his brother and sister met at his home in honor of his 56th birthday; they were all loaded down with most everything that was pleasing to the eye, and good to the taste; all had a good time but the sick were not forgotten. The writer wishes Mr. Smith many more such pleasant days.

Mr. McCoy and lady friend were to Lewistown, Thursday.

Dr. Smith and wife, from Ohio, visited a day with landlord Reish.

Michael Smith is at Spring Mills helping his brother, the hustling furniture dealer.

Rube Colyer is home for a week with his family.

James Moyer and wife, of Brushvalley, spent a few days with their son in Millinburg.

ZION.

Some of our farmers began to make hay.

Quite a number of our young folks attended the festival at Hecla, on Saturday evening.

Dr. Fisher and George Yarnell, accompanied the latter's wife to Philadelphia on Tuesday where she will undergo an operation.

Mrs. B. A. Noll left on Monday morning for an eastern summer resort for the benefit of her health.

Chas. Shaffer, who had been attending the State Normal at Lock Haven, has returned home; all glad to see you Chas, especially Minnie.

Mrs. Herb Showers and son Ward, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday with friends at this place.

Fannie Stein, Grace Sharer and Lillie Shaffer, spent Sunday afternoon with friends at Hublersburg.

Bunt's free silver mustache is whiter now than ever on account of the arrival of a big boy at his house.

Rumor has it there is to be a wedding at Zion.

Mr. Wetzel and daughter, from Lock Haven, are visiting at the home of Ed. Strohm.

FILLMORE.

Children's meeting in the M. E. church was well attended on Saturday evening and an excellent program was rendered.

Wm. Tressler and wife have returned

Is It Your Own Hair?

Do you pin your hat to your own hair? Can't do it? Haven't enough hair? It must be you do not know Ayer's Hair Vigor! Here's an introduction! May the acquaintance result in a heavy growth of rich, thick, glossy hair! And we know you'll never be gray.

"I think that Ayer's Hair Vigor is the most wonderful hair-grower that was ever made. I have used it for some time and I can truthfully say that I am greatly pleased with it. I cheerfully recommend it as a splendid preparation."—Miss V. Brocke, Warland, N.Y.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. A safe manufacturer of Ayer's
SARSAPARILLA,
PILLS,
CHERRY PECTORAL.

from a week's visit with their son Samuel, of Curwensville.

Mrs. R. M. Henderson, who has been very ill, is recovering.

Miss Boiles, of Altoona, is visiting Mabelle Norris, of this place.

The Resides reunion will be held at Hunters Park, Thursday of this week.

A girl may expect to have her heart broken once in a while.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE to make better paint than Pure Paint. You therefore KNOW when you buy

Davis' 100 per cent Pure Paint

you are getting the very best paint value that money and brains can produce.

Analysis and guarantee on every can.

SOLD BY

POTTER-HOY HARDWARE CO.
BELLEFONTE, PA.

OXFORDS

This Store is fully prepared to meet the requirements of any and every man or woman who has an Oxford want.

We have Oxfords for everybody who wants good taste as far as shape and leather is concerned but who must and will have

FOOT COMFORT

We've Oxfords for the Young Man or Woman who wants exclusive and extreme styles, no matter how pronounced, for the more "Freakish" they are, the better they like them. For these swell dressers we have Oxfords that are strictly

"IN THE SWIM"

We aim to have, and do have all the wanted styles, for we often have to fit a man's ideas in Oxfords as well as his feet.

Black leathers, Tan or Patent Colt, Lace or Blucher Styles, Military Heels, etc., etc. Nothing left out.

MINGLE'S SHOE STORE

McCalmont & Co.

Having purchased McCormick Binders, Mowers, Rakes, Tedders, etc., in carloads outright, for cash, offer the same to the farmer at attractive prices, while they last.

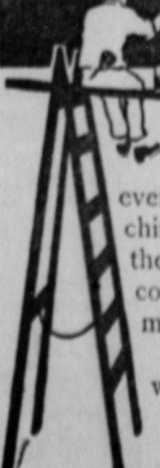

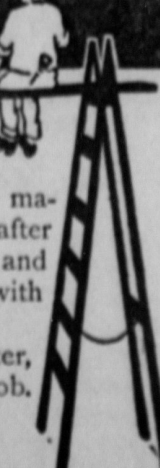

Standard Binder Twine, - - 10 1/2 c. lb., Cash
Standard Hemp Binder Twine, - 9c lb., Cash
Bailey's Hemp Binder Twine, - 8c. lb., Cash
Manilla 1 inch Rope, - - - - 12c, lb., Cash

Farmers who purchase harvesting machinery from us this year, and those using said machinery purchased from us heretofore, are allowed 1-2c. per lb. on twine.

BUSINESS HOURS FROM 7 A. M. TO 6 P. M.

McCalmont & Co.
BELLEFONTE, PA.

Lucas Paints

It doesn't pay a painter to mix his own paint. Lucas Paints are mixed more evenly and thoroughly by improved modern machinery. They save his time and are better after they are mixed. They spread so easily and cover so thoroughly that he can finish a job with much less labor and in shorter time.

Best of all, they hold their color better, wear longer, and always make a satisfactory job. Ask your dealer.

John Lucas & Co Philadelphia