

LINCOLN PARTY EFFECT FUSION

In Their State Convention Endorse Democratic Nominees

EMERY'S ELECTION ASSURED

The Tickets of the Two Parties are the Same—Inspiring Enthusiasm Prevailed—Fusion now Completed—Another Victory is Assured

There was an important political gathering in Philadelphia, on Tuesday, the effect of which will be the election of certain important state officials this year, and the final defeat of the Penrose Machine.

Some weeks ago the Lincoln Republicans of Pennsylvania met and nominated a full state ticket, with Lewis Emery, Jr., for Governor at its head.

At the opening of the convention a prayer by the Rev. Boudinot Seelye, of the Wakefield Presbyterian church, Germantown, expressed hope that in the work of the delegates all considerations except that of the good of the Commonwealth should be set aside.

There were 240 delegates present at the convention and without a dissension endorsed the following ticket: Governor—Lewis Emery, Jr., McKean county, independent republican.

This ticket was nominated on the recommendation of the state committee of the Lincoln party which met previous to the convention. Although there had been a breeze over the Green question in the State Committee meeting, the convention fairly overflowed with harmony, as well as enthusiasm, and each nomination was made by acclamation, not a word having been heard as to Green, except in commendation.

The convention commended the non-partisan course of the Democratic State Convention and called upon all good citizens to join in the fight to drive the gangsters and grafters out of power. Among the many inspiring incidents of the convention were guarantees from intimate friends of Mayor Weaver that he would, if desired, stump the state for the Emery ticket, as far as his official duties would permit.

The following platform was unanimously adopted, setting forth their position in this fight, for civic reforms in our state:

The Republicans of Pennsylvania represented in this reconvened convention of the Lincoln Party accept co-operation with all good citizens who are ready for the salvation of the State to subordinate party prejudices and to temporarily ignore differences of opinion in regard to national policies.

The rare self-abnegation of our other selected leaders, Blankenburg, Merrick and Coray, in voluntarily renouncing all personal claim in order that the public enemy may be met with solid front, is proof of their nobility of character and example of the highest civic virtue.

day, July 17, to decide upon a successor to William H. Berry, their gubernatorial candidate. Mr. McCalmont said he did not know who the nominee would be.

CANDIDATE OBJECTS.

Robert K. Young, of Wellsboro, republican nominee for auditor general, has created a sensation in the Republican camp by his declination to be present last Saturday at the notification ceremonies at Oak Lane.

YEARICK-WENGERT.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Wengert in the West End, Windber, Pa., June 14, when their only daughter Miss Mary M., was united in marriage to Harry Frankline Yearick, of Harrisburg, the Rev. F. M. Brickley, of Johnstown, officiating.

Goodhart-Winegardner.

Miss Myra Goodhart, of Centre Hall, who has been a resident of Milroy for a number of years, and William R. Winegardner, were married June 21, at the home of the bride's mother, at Centre Hall.

Must Sell Their Stock.

General notices, signed by President Cassatt, were issued Monday to more than 2500 officers and employes of the Pennsylvania railroad, directing them to dispose of their coal stocks or any interests which they hold in any coal mining or coal selling agency.

Two billion dollars for expenditures, appropriated by the present congress, are figures that few human minds can comprehend. If you were to start with figure one and count, you would not reach the two billion mark in a lifetime.

The opinion is growing that Emery will be the next Governor of this state. All the spell binders Bull Andrews can import wont save the gang.

MAYOR STUART, of Philadelphia, would hardly be as much of a Governor as Old "Penny." No more of that kind.

The Standard Oil Company's millions are expected to defeat Emery.

BITUMINOUS MINERS' STRIKE ENDED

"Union" Officers and Operators in Central Penna. Agree

30,000 MEN WILL RETURN

An Agreement Effected in Philadelphia On Tuesday—Concessions Made To The Miners—Points in The Controversy—Wage Increase.

For several months there has been a stagnation in business throughout the central part of this state owing to the differences among the miners and operators relative to a new wage scale.

Virtual settlement of the strike of mine workers in the Central Pennsylvania bituminous field was made in Philadelphia Tuesday night at a joint conference between representatives of the United Mine Workers of America and the operators in that field.

A 55 per cent, increase in wages for all mine workers over the scale which existed before the strike.

The check-off was really the only obstacle in the final discussion of the terms of settlement.

By operation of this system, the mining companies for years have deducted the wages of all classes of mine workers a monthly sum equal to the dues of the union members.

WILL AFFECT OTHER STRIKES.

It is expected that settlement of this strike will be speedily followed by adjustment of the differences in the few mining districts of Ohio, where strikes are still in progress.

Through the genius of John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, settlements advantageous to the union have been made in every other field save the two mentioned, and the small district of the South, where for several years operators have tried to exterminate the union.

Settlement of the anthracite problem precipitated settlement of the strikes in the bituminous fields. The operators saw that their trade was being taken over by the bituminous rivals who had settled with the mine workers and by the anthracite operators.

Important Decision.

An important decision was rendered this week by Judge Telford, of Indiana, sitting special, at argument court at this place. The boro of S. Phillipsburg by ordinance put a heavy tax of 75 cents each on every telegraph and telephone pole in that boro.

A Clever Swindle.

A well dressed man stops at a farmhouse and declares that he has lost a valuable diamond pin in the roadway, and all make a search.

Several other boros in the county will find some useless ordinance of this nature, on their books.

CONFERENCE AT DUBOIS.

Last Thursday was the time set for the republican congressional conference, at DuBois. The conferees from Centre, and a few others, failed to report there and for that reason it was continued to this Thursday.

Some republicans about Bellefonte are extremely confident that Mr. Love will land the nomination, or if he don't that satisfactory arrangements will be made, in regard to the distribution of patronage in this county, that will be agreeable to him.

No date has been set for the other conferences, in which Centre county is interested. Clearfield has not held its democratic county convention and for that reason the democratic senatorial and congressional conferences will not be held until later in the month.

DISCOVERED IN TIME.

Lester Sirgner, a French Canadian, who was arrested at Phillipsburg a few weeks ago on the charge of stealing a horse from a man named Miller residing in Taylor township, made an attempt to break from the Centre county jail last week.

Not in years have rattlesnakes been so plentiful in Clinton county as this season. They are especially prolific in the region of Hyner's Run, and some monsters have been slaughtered.

Rattles Plenty.

Not in years have rattlesnakes been so plentiful in Clinton county as this season. They are especially prolific in the region of Hyner's Run, and some monsters have been slaughtered.

Williamsport's Centennial.

Williamsport on the Fourth celebrated the one-hundredth anniversary of its incorporation with the programme that attracted 40,000 strangers who crowded the streets from early morning till late at night.

Suspended Operations.

The Bellefonte Lime and Stone company, who for a number of years have operated the exclusive lime stone quarries and a crusher at Salona, have suspended their operations at that place.

Odd Fellows' Reunion.

At a meeting of the I. O. O. F. Reunion Association, of Centre county held at Centre Hall, July 7, 1906, it was decided to hold the reunion at Centre Hall, on Friday, Aug. 17, 1906.

Died on Her Honey-moon.

Harry D. Miller, who nine days ago, at Flemington was wedded to Carolyn, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Daniel A. Grover, and left with her for a honeymoon trip to the Northwest, on Monday brought his bride home a corpse.

Curfew Law.

The Phillipsburg Borough Council, at Friday night's session, passed a Curfew ordinance very similar to that in vogue in several other places in this part of the state.

Big Storm.

Saturday afternoon, June 30, a fierce wind and rain storm passed over this section of the state. The wind blew a hurricane pace, and in many places damage was done.

STRUCK BY TRAIN AT HUSTON STATION

An Unfortunate Accident On Morning of July 4th.

A RAILROAD FOR LOGANTON

Prospects of a Road Through Sugar Valley—Large Lime Stone Operations Suspended at Salona—Many Men Were Employed There.

What might have been a fatal accident happened at a railroad crossing between Houston and Nittany stations on the Central railroad of Penna. on morning of 4th. Henry Brown, of Millheim, and his grandson, Lewis Brown, aged 11 years, of Madisonburg, were driving along the highway, at that place above mentioned, when they heard the whistle of the passenger train.

The train was stopped and the injured placed on board, and taken to Mill Hall and from there to the hospital in Lock Haven, where they were given surgical attention. That they escaped without further injuries is regarded by those who were witnesses to the accident, as a miracle.

PASSENGERS FOR LOGANTON.

The people of the White Deer and Sugar Valley districts are interested in the proposed extension into the territory of the White Deer and Loganton railroad. The road, which connects with the Philadelphia and Reading near Allenwood, is already in operation as far west as Carrol.

ONE ON MOTHER.

Everybody works but mother. She gnaws around all day. Goes to women's meetings. Takes in the matinee. Father tells and worries. He has a good time—bit Every body works at our house But ma—she's quit.

Never hit a man when he has got you down.

In a poker game many are called but few are chosen.

Many a fellow's wife is too rich to agree with him.

No girl is so selfish as to want a hammock all to herself.

Fish that are so wicked as to bite on Sunday deserve to be caught.

Porous plasters ought to be beneficial. At any rate, they are hole-some.

The man who pays his debts is sooner forgotten than the man who doesn't.

Speaking of office holders few die young and all are too patriotic to resign.

No matter how savage he may be a dog never bites a hole in his own pants.

The collection plate gets the nickels and dimes, but the devil gets the dollars.

When it comes to kisses few fellows are too proud to beg or too honest to steal.

A fellow doesn't always know whether a girl is smiling on him or giving him the laugh.

When a woman gets tired of her husband all she has to do is to make another man of him.

One of our good farmers was telling on the streets yesterday a conversation he chanced to hear between a young boy in his teens and a Christian Scientist.

It appears the Scientist came across a small boy sitting under an apple tree doubled up with pain. "My little man," he said, "what is the matter?"

"I ate some green apples," moaned the boy, "and oh, how I ache!" answered the follower of Mrs. Eddy; "you only think so."

The boy looked up in astonishment at such a statement and then replied in a most positive manner. "That's all right; you may think so, but I've got inside information."

The Dollar Road Tax.

In answer to J. P. B. of Fleming:—The law does not require the payment of one dollar minimum upon every property a person may own, as you were informed. The impression may have arisen from the dollar road-tax, that the law imposes in addition to the millage tax. This was passed at the last session and the proviso in the act reads as follows:

"That upon every taxable the road supervisors of each township shall assess the sum of one dollar, in addition to the millage tax above mentioned." Act, April 12, 1905, sec. 2.

FACT, FUN AND FANCY.

Bright, Sparkling Paragraphs--Selected and Original.

SHE FELT OF HER BELT.

I saw her go shopping in stylish attire, And she felt Of her belt At the back.

Her walk was as free as a springy steel wire, And many a rubberneck turned to admire As she felt Of her belt At the back.

She wondered if all the contraptions back there Were fastened just right—'twas an unceasing care. So she felt Of her belt At the back.

I saw her at church as she entered her pew, And she felt Of her belt At the back.

She had on a skirt that was rasty and new, And didn't quite know what the fastenings might do. So she felt Of her belt At the back.

She fidgeted round while the first prayer was read, She fumbled about while the first hymn was read. Oh she felt Of her belt At the back.

Jack told her one night that he loved her like mad; And she felt Of her belt At the back.

She didn't look sorry, she didn't look glad— She looked like she thought, "Well, that wasn't so bad." And she felt Of her belt At the back.

But—well, I don't think 'twas a grea' deal of harm, For what should the maiden have found but an arm. When she felt Of her belt At the back.

ALL HAIL.

All hail July! The time to fly Into the distant hills, Or else to stay where ocean spray Is charged for in the bills.

All hail July! The month when pie For picnicking is made, And young folks eat their potted meals Down in some leafy glade.

All hail July! The month to buy A ticket and a berth, Give care the slip and take a trip Across your mother earth.

All hail July! The time when rye Combined with ice and mint And other things, unto life brings A soft and rosier tint.

EVERYBODY WORKS BUT MOTHER.

Everybody works but mother. She gnaws around all day. Goes to women's meetings. Takes in the matinee. Father tells and worries. He has a good time—bit Every body works at our house But ma—she's quit.

Never hit a man when he has got you down.

In a poker game many are called but few are chosen.

Many a fellow's wife is too rich to agree with him.

No girl is so selfish as to want a hammock all to herself.

Fish that are so wicked as to bite on Sunday deserve to be caught.

Porous plasters ought to be beneficial. At any rate, they are hole-some.

The man who pays his debts is sooner forgotten than the man who doesn't.

Speaking of office holders few die young and all are too patriotic to resign.

No matter how savage he may be a dog never bites a hole in his own pants.

The collection plate gets the nickels and dimes, but the devil gets the dollars.

When it comes to kisses few fellows are too proud to beg or too honest to steal.

A fellow doesn't always know whether a girl is smiling on him or giving him the laugh.

When a woman gets tired of her husband all she has to do is to make another man of him.

One of our good farmers was telling on the streets yesterday a conversation he chanced to hear between a young boy in his teens and a Christian Scientist.

It appears the Scientist came across a small boy sitting under an apple tree doubled up with pain. "My little man," he said, "what is the matter?"

"I ate some green apples," moaned the boy, "and oh, how I ache!" answered the follower of Mrs. Eddy; "you only think so."

The boy looked up in astonishment at such a statement and then replied in a most positive manner. "That's all right; you may think so, but I've got inside information."

The Dollar Road Tax.

In answer to J. P. B. of Fleming:—The law does not require the payment of one dollar minimum upon every property a person may own, as you were informed. The impression may have arisen from the dollar road-tax, that the law imposes in addition to the millage tax. This was passed at the last session and the proviso in the act reads as follows:

"That upon every taxable the road supervisors of each township shall assess the sum of one dollar, in addition to the millage tax above mentioned." Act, April 12, 1905, sec. 2.

Probably Only a Rumor.

The Harrisburg Telegraph prints a story which, if true, sounds the death knell of Sunbury as a railroad center. The Telegraph states that the Pennsylvania railroad will erect a stone bridge at Northumberland for a shorter connection between Shamokin Dam and Sellingsgrove, and that the contract for the construction of the bridge has been closed. The shops at Sunbury will be moved across the river.