FOR SALE:—a fresh Jersey cow with twin calves. J. B. Miles, Martha, Pa. 28

FOR SALE: two fine red fox rugs, write S. Harpster, Port Matilda, Pa. 28

PROPERTY:—a house and lot in Millheim Call on Mrs. Samuel Ripka, Millheim. 26-25

WANTED:—to buy 25 good breeding ewes, D. F. Houser, State College, Pa., R. F. D. No. 2

FOR SALE: -2-horse team, wagon and harness, price reasonable. Hydraulic cider press in good condition. Inquire of J. T. Lucas. Moshannon, Pa. 28-29

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

-Judge Telford, of Indiana, held Argument court here Monday.

-If you want to buy a farm write George H. Smull, of Smullton, Pa. -James McKee, of Wilkinsburg, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Stitzer.

-Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hall are in Philadelphia and New York this week. -Mrs. Harry T. Brew, of Pittsburg, is a guest at the home of Hon. John G.

-Andy Bell has been in poor health at his home in this place during the past

-Ambrose Slotman is able to be about again, only his throat is in a delicate

-Mrs. Odila Mott left for an extended visit with friends in Williamsport and were admitted to the Presbyterian church Emanuel Cronemiller of Aaronsburg, is

-Miss Jennie Crittenden, of Waterbury, Conn., is visiting friends and relatives in this place. -Mrs. J. A. B. Miller and her children left Thursday for a few week's vacation in the mountains. -The Misses Laws, of Philadelphia, are guests at the home of Mrs. E. M. Blanchard on West Linn street.

-W. H. Kochler, dentist, of Bellefonte, will be home from his vacation on July 28, located in Harris building, west High street.

-The trout fishing season closes on Tuesday, July 31st and for that reason our fishermen are improving every opportunity that is left.

-Thomas Shaughnessy, Jr., of Mannington, West Virginia, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaughnessy, Sr., of this place.

-Miss Jennie K. Reifsnyder, of Millheim, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCarger to Lake Placid, N. Y., on a pleasure trip of several weeks.

-Miss Eleanor Harris, daughter of Mrs. Louisa Harris, returned home from Baltimore, Md., where she has just graduated from the Woman's College in ing July 21 at the Forge school house, to to take out a license. At present only that place.

-Oline Meek, of Philadelphia, a form-Bellefonter and graduate in the Watchman office, was here shaking hands with old acquaintances the past

-Miss Mabel E. Maxon, of Allegheny, Pa., arrived in this place and will make her future home with Rev. J. Allison Platts and family. She is a sister of Mrs. Platts.

-Wm. I. Walker and Beaulah V. Emenhizer, both of Yarnell, were married Monday morning by Justice of the Peace W. H. Husser, at his office in Crider's stone building.

-Miss Edna Murray, of Centre Hall, who, for the last three months filled a position in the Bellefonte Bell Exchange civil war. emporarily, has again resumed her position in the Centre Hall Exchange.

-The Nittany furnace was banked Monday for repairs that will keep the big plant idle from three to four weeks. uring the past year the furnace made ance is such that restored health seems in prospect.

-Dr. Tate, of Bellefonte, left about ed should they call on him for work dur-

The marriage of Miss Charlotte
Crittenden and George Sherman Frost, of New York City. took place at the residence of the bride's sister. Mrs. John residence of the bride's sister. Mrs. John Ardell, Monday morning; the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard Crittenden, father of the bride.

-The heavy cannon fire crackers installed to do the work. which contain dynamite have sufficient force to jar the connections of underground pipes. The Bellefonte Gas Company always find a number of leaks in their street mains after the 4th of July which they attribute to this cause.

-Charles McClure, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McClure, left Bellefonte last week for Philadelphia from which place he went with a Quaker City family to Grindstone park, near Bar Harber, Maine, as tutor for their young son during the months of July and August.

-Bruce Garman and Miss Anna Gar. man left on Saturday noon for Atlantic City. Miss Anna will now become a resident of that city where her father C. M. Garman is located and conducting a seaside resort at corner of Atlantic and New Jersey Avenue. Bruce will be gone about a week.

-Rev. Edward G. Richardson, of Baltimore, has accepted the call of the St. John's Episcopal congregation, of this place, to become their pastor here and will take up the work about the middle of September. He is a gentleman of scholarly attainments and his sermons with vivid lightning flashes and startling are much appreciated.

measures should be taken to prevent a was the heaviest in this locality. To avoid this little expense would be required. -The first week in September the paying entirely too much for its street ladies of Bellefonte will hold a "Midway" lighting and for that reason have served for the benefit of the hospital, in the armory. Every branch auxiliary in the county will take part in the entertainment. It will open on Monday evening, September 3rd, with a grand street particle offer to furnish the town with better confer to furnish the confer to furnish the town with better confer to furnish the town with better confer to furnish the confer to furnish vaudeville performance on the stage by and fix their rates in proportion to that local talent.

-The Evangelical Sunday school is picnicing at Hecla today.

-Mrs. W. L. Daggett returned home from an extended sojourn at Atlantic one of the lecturers of the graduate

Potter. -Harris Heylman, engaged in banking at Indiana, Pa., is visiting his parents in ty the chestnut trees are in full bloom this place. -Miss Cora Shull, of this place, visited her many friends in Nittany valley the past week.

Belletonte.

at this place. -District Attorney William G. Run. recovery.

kle departed yesterday on a businss trip to New York City. -The Salvation Army Picnic at Hecla of 21 as printed last week. -Geo. S. Frost, of New York City, and Miss Charlotte Crittenden, of Waterbury, Conn., are guests of Rev. R. Crit- the town is booming.

-The Masonic camp is in full bloom down along Bald Eagle, near Roland. It will be kept open during ther emainder of the summer season.

—Miss Margaret Bartley, of Boston, Mass., departed Saturday morning for her home after a week's visit with friends eral invitation is extended. and relatives in this place.

-Pleasant callers were Mrs. Elsie Laird, of Roland, and her sister Mrs. Orpha Laird, of Sharon, Pa., both were nee Funk, and married to brothers.

-The Sunnyside Cemetery Associasecure a new fence for the property, that is much needed. -We had a call from Jacob Gainer,

-At council meeting on Monday a request was made of the local electric light company to furnish bids for lighting after Jan. 1907. It is claimed that our town pays more than others for such service. -Lieut. L. D. Kurtz and wife, of Mifflinburg, where he has an extensive overall factory, gave us a call on return from a visit to friends in this county and in Clinton county. Lieut. Kurtz was a brate their 45th anniversary on that date.

—The rain on Monday was so hard that the water was blown in the tower at the Court House and came down in home, at Rock Springs, when four gentlements of the court that the water was blown in the tower at the Court House and came down in home, at Rock Springs, when four gentlements are the court that the water was blown in the tower at the court that the water was blown in the tower at the court that the water was blown in the tower at the court that the water was blown in the tower at the court that the water was blown in the tower at the court that the water was blown in the tower at the court that the water was blown in the tower at the court the court that the water was blown in the tower at the court that the water was blown in the tower at the court that the water was blown in the tower at the court that the water was blown in the tower at the court that the water was blown in the tower at the court that the water was blown in the court that the water was a court that the water was a water was Such an experience was never known neer in Spruce Creek valley.

operation.

—We are pleased to note that our townsman Michael Hess, is able to appear out of doors again, after a severe illness of several weeks. His appearance is such that restored health seems.

heretofore.

—There will be no preaching in the Lutheran church of this place on Sun last six weeks and is so called in referday, July 29, and Sunday, August 5, as the pastor, Rev. Rearick, will be absent with the sun. It is generally the most guiltry and hottest part of the suns of the be had again, Sunday, August 12, at the The survivors of the Fifty-fourth regiusual hours. the Fourth of July for a month's vacation. His patrons will please make a note of this and escape being disappoint for tably located near the Culvey plot. fortably located near the Culvey plot, regiment are residents of Centre county.

> -The American Lime & Stone Company are erecting a plant to convert the screenings from the lime kilns and the his family to West Virginia nearly four > appearance of the horseless buggy being at what is now Oak Hall. The Dale's built at Milesburg, by the Bullock Swing Works, under the direction of Wm. Jenkins, of Bellefonte. The idea is to attack the motive power to the oruseful conveyance at a moderate cost.

-The Haupt Brothers are building the new Presbyterian parsonage at State College, of concrete blocks; it is the first one of the kind ever erected at State College. They have also secured the contract for making the walks and walls of concrete to be put down at the residence of Col. Spangler at this place.

-"Domino," our Unionville corres pondent, makes another break this week by an elaborate dose of poetical effu-The only way we can account for this is the season of the year when some critters slide off on tangents and do funny stunts. A volume containing "Dominos Gems" will be compiled later.

-Monday afternoon, 4.20, a terrific peals of thunder, and in 45 minutes the lownpour of rain measured 3.05 inches -Prof. I. A. Zeigler, of Hazleton, Pa., -the heavist precipitation in so short a should take steps to prevent the flow of surface water into the spring basin during heavy rains, as was the case during out for a short time. The cellar at the Monday afternoon's downpour. Pollu. Brant House was flooded with mud and tion from streets and stable was washed into the spring's water basin, and the ugly stuff was carried into the town small bridge above Coleville. The damhydrants. This is not oft the case, but age was heavy to corn fields. The rain

-Some of the members of town council are of the opinion that the town is ade in which all those who will take part light on a 5-year contract, for less will appear in costumes, and will include among other features a gathering of nations. Every evening there will be a sthey are willing to meet competition

OVER THE COUNTY.

After a two years trip to the Pacific coast, Henry Potter, of Potter twp., is home again

Mrs. Griffith Lytle, of Downs, Kan. visiting at the home of Laura B. Lytle in Ferguson twp.

Mary Sagner, an aged lady of State College, fell down a flight of stairs on the 4th breaking her right arm.

school of Agriculture in Illinois. -Miss Marie Crane, of Chicago, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth day-and according to the tradition rain will fall on forty consecutive days. In the mountain sections of this coun-> and a big crop of nuts is in prospect. A number of Philipsburgers are now new fire brick plant near the Bean dam. teachers in the Tyrone borough schools. to Reynoldsville, Mifflin county, Pa.

College has been increased from $2000 all of Bellefonte. The funeral took to $2100 a year. That indicates that place Tuesday morning.

Prof. W. F. Zeigler, who for some few years has been principal of the Chelten-ham schools, at Ashbourne, is in Penns valley to pay a visit to his old home. The members of the Spring Mills United Ev. church will hold a festival on

Dr. Kalbfus recommends that a law tion will hold a festival Saturday even- be passed requiring all resident hunters unnaturalized foreigners are required to take out a hunting license.

The seventeen year locusts have about finished their visit. Having deposited her age at time of death 61 years 1 month to Michigan, to visit a brother and other friends, and will remain in the weakened and died; in some sections of the county much damage was done by weakened and Mrs. L. P. Auman, was found drowned in the mill them in this way.

member of Co. D, 148 regiment in the Gen. Beaver and other distinguished speakers will be present.

streams, in the court room, while Judge erations came to spend the day with Telford was holding Argument court. Pappy Goheen, who is the oldest pioment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, will -The Knisely camping party, at hold their annual reunion on the Get-number of the survivors of this fighting and entertained many members and guests. They did the best fishing the last few days in camp.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hosterman, of Hosterman, W. Va., are visiting relatives and friends in Penn twp. Mr. Hosterman is the sawyer for the Hoster-ashes into a fertilizer. The barn near the round house is being altered for that purpose and machinery is now being installed to do the work.

—Everybody in town is awaiting the anniversary of the Dale family locating over the Dale family locating anniversary of the Dale family locating over the Dale family locatin have a large family connection in this county and these reunions always prove

Among the teachers of Potter towndinary vehicle or buggy, and produce a useful conveyance at a moderate cost.

The Haupt Brothers are building the mar, and Miss Nellie Mingle, Potters Mills primary, all of Aaronsburg; Miss Lida Musser, of Millheim, at Centre Hill; and Dale S. Musser will teach the Branch school in College township. The commissioners of Centre and Clinton counties and the supervisors of Liberty and Beech Creek townships met at Mill Hall last week and decided to build a large bridge across Beech Creek at Hubbards The counties will erect the abutments and purchase the bridge and the townships to make approaches. The Newton Hamilton Campmeeting Association is making a number of improvements to the camp grounds at Newton Hamilton. The campmeeting services this year will be held from August 9 to 21 and will be in charge of the Lutherans. The hotel on the grounds will be open to the public about the mid-

—Prof. I. A. Zeigler, of Hazleton, Pa., passed through town on Friday on a brief visit to his parents at Wolf Store. For several years he has been successfully conducting business colleges at different places, but during the past year accepted a prominent position as a principal in the city schools at Hazleton. Prof. Zeigler will be remembered by many of the teachers of our county who will be glad to learn of his success.

—The water authorities of the borough school, Baileyville grammar; Gatesburg and Centre were held over. The are no applicants for the High school. The school tax was fixed at 6 mills.

Weather Report. Weekly report-Bellefonte Station. TEMPERATURE Maximum Minimum 13, clear

14, clear ...

15, pt cloudy 16. pt eloudy 18, cloudy. Rain: On 15, thundergust, at 4:20 to 5:5 p. m. 3.65 inches t on 17; forenoon, 18 inches—a total rainfall, inside of 24 hours, of 3.98 inches—may call it four inches—the first within 45 minute4, the second in about 25 minutes. On 18 feternoon, thundergust, 46 inch.

-Miss Minnie Cherry, of this place, is visiting friends in Sunbury.

RECENT DEATHS.

WILLIAM OTTO:—died at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. W. Weiser, at Burbank, Ohio, on Friday, June 29. He was a former resident of Millheim, where he was born, and still has a number of relatives living here. He was a veteran of the civil war.

HENRY HARVEY :- an old and respected resident of Castanea, was found dead in his home Sunday morning at 6 o'clock by George Moore, a neighbor, he having expired some time during the night of apoplexy. Deceased was 76 years old on July 4th last and had resided at Castanea nearly all his life.

Mrs. Mary Cartin Reed:—died Friday July 6, at Whittier, Cal., after a short illness. Mrs. Reed was a daugh-weeks, so far as the use of her arms are Julian, Pa.

INCUBATOR:—one 60-egg Cyphers's Incubators for sale at a bargain. Box 20, R. B. D. Julian, Pa. taught school in Bellefonte, and is recontemplating the establishment of a membered by our older citizens. Her married life was spent in Springfield, Miss Helen Bartholomew, of Centre Mo., and after her husband's death she -Grace McBride, of Scranton, is spending the week visiting friends in Hall, was recently elected as one of the moved with her son, D. Lawrence Deed, MISS ELLEN LUCAS :- died Saturday complications may follow. evening at the home of her nephews on seriously ill, with no cheering hope of recovery.

Half Moon Hill of Bright's disease. She was 42 years, 3 months and 6 days old, At Pine Grove Mills the stork has been and had been a sufferer of the disease

The I. O. O. F., reunion which was announced for Friday, August 17. at Pine Grove Mills, has been changed to Friday, August 18. A festival will be held by the Union Sabbath school, of Farmers Mills, at the church, on Saturday, July 28. A general invitation is extended.

Samuel Bierly:—died at his home at Tylersville, July 10. He was the younglace, a log struck him, laying the place, a log struck him, laying the place, a log struck him, laying the scalp open over his entire brow, breaking his nose, one bone in his left arm and fracturing a rib, besides other minor cuts and bruises.

WANTED:—either Shepherd, Scotch Collie or Newfouddland dog: young pup preferred and bruises.

While John Dickson and sister, Mrs. Calderwood, were returning from Typrice reasonable. Hydraulic clder press in the McNitt Bro's near that place, a log struck him, laying the place, a log struck him, laying the scalp open over his entire brow, breaking his nose, one bone in his left arm and fracturing a rib, besides other minor cuts and bruises.

While John Dickson and sister, Mrs. Calderwood, were returning from Typrice reasonable. Hydraulic clder press in price reasonable. Hydraulic clder press in the McNitt Bro's near that place, a log struck him, laying the pl

MRS. SAMUEL KERN :- died suddenly neck in the fall. daughters Ruth and Louise, of New York City, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Noonen, at the Brant House.

Onted Ev. church will hold a testival on Friday evening. She had gone over to visit Mrs. Howard Stover, on Lamb sand House.

BOARDING:—when at Philipsburg.stop at the While Perry F. Confer. of Millheim, was assisting in unloading hay in his journal of the lam.

While Perry F. Confer. of Millheim, was assisting in unloading hay in his journal of the lam.

BOARDING:—when at Philipsburg.stop at the variable of the lam.

While Perry F. Confer. of Millheim, was assisting in unloading hay in his journal of the lam.

While Perry F. Confer. of Millheim, was assisting in unloading hay in his journal of the lam.

While Perry F. Confer. of Millheim, was assisting in unloading hay in his journal of the lam.

While Perry F. Confer. of Millheim, was assisting in unloading hay in his journal of the lam.

While Perry F. Confer. of Millheim, was assisting in unloading hay in his journal of the lam. Thomas Meyer, of Millheim. She also

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.
MARRIAGE LICENSES.
Matthew Michish - Bellefonte
William Peters - Bellefonte
Junseppe Schiaro - Bellefonte
Geo. W. Thomas - Bellefonte
G. Cleve Gentzel - Spring Mills Lessie I. Fredericks - New York
Charlotte Crittenden · Bellefonte
John C. Smith - Jersey Shore
Claude E Summers Wingate . Zion
Mike Causlak - Bellefonte
Wm. McManes - Hornelsville, N Y Maria E Smith - Clearfield
5 Wm. Walker Yarnell 7 Beulah V Emenhizer " Henry C Frankenberger - Penn Annie Weaver - "

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. Maggie M Jones et bar to Wm Robison, May 14. 1906; lot in Port Matilda.

Laura M Parker et bar to Chas G Overy, June 1, 1906; premises in Philipsburg. $2,300.

J C Hoffman, et ux to Joseph Hamer, July 28, 1905; lot in Philipsburg. $425. Catharine Gephart, et al to W. I. Gamble. Auman, Sept. 1, 1894; premises in Millheim, $150.

John H. Auman, et ux, et al to R. S. Tas. Hamer to Annie Gette, July 10, 1906; lot in Philipsburg. $440.

-Subscriptions amounting to $3,668 were made Sunday by the members of School room which will be built this

Geo.H.Smull Real Estate Agent

Farms, Timberlands

and other properties, bought, sold and rented.

Guaranteed Mortgages

on improved real estate for sale; also other gilt edged invesiments and securities.

FOR PARTICULARS

Address - Bellefonte, or SMULLTON, PA.

SERIES OF MISFORTUNES.

During last week a number of accidents occurred about the county as follows:

Eugene, the 10-year-old son of Charles Smull, of Smullton, while playing in finger cut entirely off by the binder while cutting grain. Following Mr. Baker's accident his son fell from a load of hay breaking his arm.

In attempting

In attempting to climb over a wire fence at Loganton, Marian Reighard, a young girl, fell to the ground, fracturing one of her arms and severely spraining

Miss Fannie Kennedy, of Buffalo Run FOR SALE:—one Chester white broodsow 2 years old. with seven plgs. Ephraim Fisher valley, had the misfortune to fall, one Runville, Pa. day last week, and break her left arm below the shoulder. The fracture is a Post SALE:—house and lot in Madisonburg, Pa. Price $250. Address, P. O. Box No. 34, day last week, and break her left arm bad one and being so close to the shoul-Madisonburg, Pa. Price $250. Madisonburg, Pa. der there is apprehension that graver omplications may follow.

Miss Ferna Rossman was assisting her

KOR SALE:—fine range with large reservoir and high closet; good as new. J. A. Witmer, State College, Pa. Charles, in loading hay at their home two miles west of Spring Mills, the tine of a pitchfork in the hands of her brother At Pine Grove Mills the stork has been and had been a sunerer of the days at the homes of Geo. Koch, Olie Johnson and Harry Koch leaving a boy at each home.

The only relatives of a pitchfork in the hands of her brother accidentally penetrated her face between the nose and right eye causing a danger-the nose and right eye ca

SAMUEL BIERLY:—died at his home at Cylersville, July 10. He was the youngst son of John and Mary Catharins.

Boyd Cramer, a son of Andy Cramer, boards, sawed four years ago. Inquire of S. H. Shafer, Zion, Pa.

FOR SALE:—about 800 feet of wild cherry boards, sawed four years ago. Inquire of S. H. Shafer, Zion, Pa.

confined to his bed five weeks. He was stricken with paralysis two weeks ago. His age was 78 years and 11 days. He is survived by the following children: Emanuel, Isaiah, Harvey, Zwingly, John C., Rev. A. S., and one daughter, Abbie M., who lives at home.

Calderwood, were returning from 1y rone to their home in Sinking valley on Wednesday evening, their horse took fright at the Snyder twp., steam road roller, near Nealmont, which caused the horse to run away. The horse ran a short distance and fell, breaking its woodward. Pa.

Calderwood, were returning from 1y rone to their home in Sinking valley on Wednesday evening, their horse took fright at the Snyder twp., steam road roller, near Nealmont, which caused the horse to run away. The horse ran a short distance and fell, breaking its woodward. Pa.

and died at the Stover residence at 9 o'clock, of apoplexy. The deceased whose maiden name was Miss Clarissa Garbrick was the daughter of Joseph Garbrick Sr., deceased, and was born in Centre county, May 16th, 1845 making her age at time of death 61 years 1 month Mrs. Kern never regained consciousness fork on the wagon when the lower pul

Auman, was found drowned in the mill race, at Milheim. The child had followed his mother to the race from which From our correspondents we gather leaves three brothers, G. W., of State she was carrying water and while she GERMAN CLASSICS -- all the famous authors. From our correspondents we gather that Monday afternoon's heavy rain was general over the county. Other parts of the state also had a downpour. Weather is cooler since as hail accompanied the Sunday 8th, Geo Graham and wife and their friends Alfred Prichard and bride, were returning from Penn Cave, when Mr. Graham from Penn Cave, when Mr. Graham and Mr. Prichard stepped out of the carriage to speak to a friend. The team became frightened and started up the road at a break neck speed. Mrs. Prichard jumped from the speed. Mrs. Prichard jumped from the speed. carriage escaping serious injury, but Mrs. Graham had a small child in her arms and when trying to get out of the carriage struck a stone and the child was thrown 20 feet away. Marvelous to say the child was not injured in anyway, but Mrs. Jacob Houtz, when the child was not injured in anyway, but the child was not injured Mrs. Graham fainted and was thrown Lemont Pa. from the carriage and terribly bruised hospital, for a serious ailment.

—During the storm on Monday, lightning struck engine No. 5 of the Central Railroad of Penna. out at the Viaduct. It was pushing a train of cars at the time and was operated by Lewis Lonsberry engineer, and John Barnhart, fireman. Conductor Hamilton was ahead turning a switch and saw the flash strike the cab. It entered the ventilator. The chain which opens the fire box of the engine Stover, June 28, 1906; lot in Millheim. It was pushing a train of cars at the time Ele which opens the fire box of the engine St. John's Reformed church, towards flash. None of the men were injured, the erection of the chapel and Sunday further than a severe fright. Locomo. a good conductor and readily carries the flash to the rails and the earth. Picnics at Hecla Park.

The following gatherings have been scheduled for Hecla Park this season, by the Central R. R. of Pa.

Thursday, July 19—Evangelical Sunday school of Lock Haven. Friday, July 20—Trinity M.E. Sunday school of morning.

Bellefonte.

The following and the following a

Tuesday, July 31—United Brethren Sunday school of Bellefonte.

Wednesday, August 1—Salona M. E. Sunday school of Bellefonte. Saturday, Aug. 4-Snydertown Sunday school Wednesday, Aug. 8-Milesburg Sunday schools. Thursday, Aug. 9—Church of Christ Sunday school, of Lock Haven. Wednesday, Aug. 15-Yearick and Hoy Reunion Thursday, Aug. 16-Business Men's Pienic. Friday, Aug. 17-Meyer Reunion.

PENNY A WORD ADV

Any subscriber can insert a want advertisenot exceed 25 words. Charges to others : cent a word, first issue, no adv. less than 25 cents; 2 issues 40 cents : 3 issues 50 cents.

FOR SALE:—top buggy, in good condition. Inquire of John Lohr, Coleville, near Bellefonte.

FOR SALE :- a full line of veterinary instruments, some new, others in good condition, at a bargain. Address Box M. Axemann, Pa. 28

CANVASSER WANTED :- man with horse and though no bones were broken. The team was caught a couple of miles away and feturned to Mr. Graham.

—Ben Williams (colored) recently underwent an operation, in a Philadelphia hospital, for a serious ailment.

WANTED —a first class blacksmith to rent one of the best smithing stands in Central Penna. The opportunity of renting this shop is due to the death of the owner. If you are no mechanic don't bother, as this place requires a first class man. Call on or write to B. L. Noll or phone to Hazle & Co's store, both phones. Madisonburg, Pa.

—Mrs. Morris Tucker, nee Emma Shrock, is visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donachy.
—Deputy Prothonotary David R. Foreman and family are spending this week among friends and relatives at Centre Hall.

WANTED: Will purchase old, line Life Insurance policies on the following plans: 20-year deferred dividend policies. After 14 annual Premiums have been paid. 15-year policies after 9 annual dividends paid. 16-year policies after 6 annual dividends paid, or any form of deferred dividend policy, paying the highest possible cash value. For further information inquire of J. B. Graham. Bellefonte, Pa.

-Miss Mary Lyon and Miss Ellie Wilson, of Lewistown, are visiting this week with Dr. and Mrs. T. C. VanTries on self when it is going to rain. She indicates North Spring street.

—James Gamble, of Antes Fort, and Mrs Sarah Blackwell, of Jersey Shore, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Gamble. The former is the father of Mr. Gamble.

—James Gamble, of Antes Fort, and Mrs Sarah Blackwell, of Jersey Shore, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Gamble.

—Short tis wise to take an umbrella or when you can do without it. She is the simplest and best of barometers. She is an ornament for any home. She or one of her sisters will come to your home for only 10 cents in sliver. Address J. A. Bathurst, Millmont, Pa. R. F. D. No. 2.

—25-29

which opens the fire box of the engine had three links sodered together by the flash. None of the men were injured, further than a severe fright. Locomotives and trains are frequently struck by lightning and it seldom occurs that anyone is injured for the reason that iron is one is injured for the reason that iron is one is injured for the reason that iron is one is injured for the reason that iron is selected variety of fruit trees; good cisterns and all necessary outbuildings. This property selected variety of fruit frees; good cisterns and all necessary outbuildings. This property will be offered at a price attractive to any one desiring a good farm and home, located in a good community, close to the County Seat and Market Centres. For particulars apply to Robert F. Hunter, adm'r., or J. D. Hunter, Index Book Store, Bellefonte, Pa. 28tf

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Bellefonte-Produce. The following prices prevailed Thursday Tuesday, July 21—Salvation Army, Bellefonte.

Wednesday, July 25—Evangelical Sunday school of Lock Haven.

Thursday, July 26—Reformed Reunion.

Saturday, July 28—Mill Hall Sunday schools.

Tuesday, July 28—Mill Hall Sunday schools.

Tuesday, July 31—United Brethren Sunday school of Bullefonte.

School of Bellefonte.

The following prices are pald by SECHLER & Co. for produce:

Eggs, per degen

Lard, per pound

Stide, per pound

Side, per per yound

Shoulder, per p und

Shoulder, per p und Beliefonte-Grain. The following prices are paid by C. Y WAG-Wheat, old ... Barley Corn Shelled ...

> Lock Have Markets The following prices prevailed at Lock Haven curb market Wednesday morn-

Butter per lb 18 to 20c; eggs per doz 18 to ment in this column, one issue free, if it does 200; dressed chickens per lb 180; honey per lb 12c; live chickens per lb 12c; cab bage per head 5 to 100; young chickens per pair 800; old potatoes per bushel 750; corn per bush, so to ssc; onions per banch se; celery per bunch s to 100 lard per lb 9 to 12c; applebutter per gallon so to ooe; dried corn per quart 20 to 25c; beets per bunch to too; radishes per bunch 5c cherriesper qt 3 to 77 string beans per half pk toc; peas per pk 150 LOST: on Saturday night a pocketbook containing five dollars. Finder will be suitably rewarded by delivering to Mrs. Orie A. Kline.

Reliefonte. cucumbers 3 for 10c; currants per qt 8c tomatoes per 1h 6c; new potatoes per