

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

—Frank Garrett left Monday for Atlantic City.
—Mrs. Mitchell Lieb last week fell in the attic and broke her ankle.
—Mrs. S. C. Burnside, of Philadelphia, is here visiting relatives and friends.
—The district firemen's convention will be the next big event for Bellefonte.
—During Friday's storm lightning killed a cow for William Steele in a field on Quaker Hill.
—Mrs. Cain left Friday for Beaver Falls, where she will visit her daughter Mrs. John Miller.
—Miss Grace Brostous left Sunday for Lock Haven where she will spend a month with her parents.
—Mrs. Louis Freedman, of New York City, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holtz.
—Mrs. James R. Hughes and Miss Emma Green left on Monday for Williamsport where they will visit friends.
—Amos H. Copenhaver, of Taylor township, a resident of Centre county all his life, made his first visit to the county seat on Friday.
—Mrs. Henry Harris is visiting her son, Wilbur F. Harris, at Harrisburg. Later she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Galloway, at Radford, Virginia.
—Rev. Edward G. Richardson, of Baltimore, the new pastor of the Episcopal congregation in Bellefonte, will be here about the middle of September.
—W. D. Zerby, of the firm Gettig, Bower and Zerby, is on an extended trip through Illinois, Iowa and Missouri visiting relatives and enjoying a vacation.
—Mrs. D. R. Foreman and children and Mrs. Foreman's niece, Miss Elsie Foreman, were on a visit to the former's mother, Mrs. A. H. Smith, at Cold Stream near Philipsburg.
—During the thunder gust on last Friday afternoon, lightning struck the U. B. church on Thomas street. The damage was light, mostly tearing off some slate from the roof.
—All garden truck, including berries, early potatoes and roasting ears, are plenty in the home market and of fine quality at the usual curb market price with chances that the abundance will have a tendency to lower prices.
—Dr. Alexander, of Pottery Mills, and his brother, the dentist, favored the Democrat sanatorium with a call; also superintendent of schools, C. L. Gramley, and his brother Titus the Spring Mills creamery man, were pleasant callers.
—At a meeting of representatives of both the Logan and Undine fire companies, John J. Bower, of the Logans, was elected chief fire marshal for the coming year; Geo. L. Doll, the Undine, first assistant and John Houser, also of the Undines, second assistant.
—The front of the Garman house is being brightened up with a coat of light paint that makes the building stand out prominently and attractive. This popular hostelry has been undergoing numerous improvements this spring that show enterprise on the part of the new proprietor.
—We were pleased to have a call from Mrs. Griffith Lytle, of Downs, Ks., accompanied by her sister Laura, of State College and Mrs. Margaret Williams of Lemont. The first named left this country twenty-seven years ago, and is the first visit here within twenty-two years. She naturally finds many changes in that time, and many new faces.
—Trout fishing ended on last Tuesday night at 12 o'clock, and the speckled beauties can now come from their hiding places under rocks, logs and stumps in the streams and along the banks. Some large trout have been caught during the season, but most of anglers met poor luck as to number—it didn't pan out to a brag, with a few exceptions, and what were taken went to the pan.
—Company B arrived home on Saturday morning from the annual encampment at Gettysburg. They had a fine trip and all were well pleased. On Thursday evening the Company held an election of officers to fill the vacancies made by the advancement of Capt. Taylor to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. The election resulted in making Philip Garbrick, Captain, Samuel D. Gettig, 1st Lieutenant and Richard Taylor, 2nd Lieutenant.
—The Y. M. C. A. now has a fine tennis court in the rear of the gymnasium, which was constructed within the past few days by the young men of the Association under the instruction of Mr. Messer and his assistants. The Y. M. C. A. is now well equipped with all that will tend to gather in the young men of the town and is a favorite place for them to spend their evenings and other spare hours, away from the influences that would corrupt the morals of the young.
—The finance committee of the business men's picnic association appropriated an aggregate of $750 for various amusements and expenses of the picnic to be held at Hecla Park on August 16th. Among the amusements will be a game of base ball between the Patton and Milton teams, an interesting game of water base ball, an inter-county clay pigeon shoot, free dancing afternoon and evening and a big display of fireworks at night. Remember the date, August 16th.
—Frank Bowersox stepped into the Democrat sanatorium a few days ago jolly as usual. He had returned from a few weeks' stay in Philadelphia with his son, and also to enter the German hospital to undergo an operation for cancer of the lip. The operation was successfully performed and he left the hospital cured, but had to abstain from taking any nourishment for five days, during his stay in the hospital. He speaks very highly of that institution and suffered no pain at all whilst the operation was being performed nor since, and thinks he has been cured of the trouble.
—Paul and Oscar Sternberg spent several days of the past week greeting friends in and about Bellefonte. They are sons of A. Sternberg, a former merchant of Bellefonte, who now resides with some of his children in Philadelphia. Paul is located in Oakland, California, and is engaged in the real estate business and has been prospering. At the time of the earthquake his house was badly shattered and he lost considerable. Oscar is located at Seattle, Wash., where he is in business and doing well. The boys are hustlers and can take care of themselves anywhere.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Walter, son of Hon. J. T. McCormick has taken a position as electrician in New York city, where he went last week.
Last week while W. T. Kunes, of Runville, was mowing grass he killed no less than twelve copperhead snakes in one field.
S. S. C. Bathgate and daughter Corinna, of Lemont, spent a few days with relatives and friends in Franklin, Juniata and Cumberland counties.
J. P. Smithgall, of Montoursville, a graduate of the Looming Normal and Bucknell University has been selected as principal of the Centre Hall schools.
Last week David Sowers, milk agent for the Spring Mills creamery, had one of his limbs broken by the kick of his horse. It is quite a serious fracture.
Charles McClellan, of Millheim, has decided to embark in the mercantile business and will open a grocery store in the Musser & Smith building at that place.
Mrs. J. C. Bennett and daughter Margaret, of Pittsburg, who have been spending a few days at the home of S. C. Bathgate at Lemont, returned home Tuesday.
A car load of fine Western horses will be sold at Centre Hall on Monday, Aug. 6th; mostly heavy draft horses, mated teams. They were selected by D. A. Grove, of Lemont.
The annual reunion of all Centre countians residing in Blair county will be held in the grove beyond Bellwood, on Saturday, August 18th. The program will be announced later.
Howard can boast of the youngest editor in the state; Master Gilbert Hurd aged 9 years, last Saturday issued the first edition of the Howard Times, which was well filled with local news.
The Hublersburg ball team will give a festival on Saturday evening, August 4th, at which refreshments of all kinds will be served. There will be a ball game in the afternoon by the home team.
Newton Hamilton Campmeeting will open August 9th and continue to the 21st; the grounds will be open from July 1st to September. There will be ample accommodations for all who may wish to attend.
Mrs. Anna Berry Beech, of Oakland, California, is visiting friends in the county. Mrs. Beech will be remembered as the daughter of Dr. Berry, of Lemont, who went to California thirty-two years ago and this is her first visit east.
Of the nineteen applicants who took the examinations for scholarships at the State Forestry Academy at Mt. Alto early this month thirteen passed, among them being R. Linn Emerick, of Smulton, and Alfred E. Rupp, of Boalsburg.
A lawn fete will be held in the Driving Park, at Snow Shoe, on Saturday, August 11th, by the members of St. Mary's Catholic church. Dancing and refreshments on the grounds. All are cordially invited to attend.
The venerable Samuel T. Lytle, of Ferguson, was taken to the German hospital in Philadelphia to receive treatment for a growth on his cheek. J. N. Hoy, wife and daughter Grace, accompanied the old gentleman and will visit relatives in the city.
The home of Joseph Spangler, near Freeport, Ill., was destroyed by fire, due to a defective flue. Nearly all the household furniture was lost with no insurance. The property was owned by Alva Dunn. Mr. Spangler was a former resident of Penns valley, Centre county. Mr. Spangler is a farmer and will occupy a tent until the house is rebuilt.
During Saturday's storm in Beech Creek section, the barn on the ridge farm of Alex. Masden was struck by lightning and destroyed. All of the hay crop of this season and some of last year was burned. It cannot be stated whether the insurance was on the barn or the house, as Mr. Masden is not clear on this point. The farm is not tenanted.
C. W. Atherton, of Philipsburg, left recently for Winterburn, Pocahontas, W. Va., to begin work on a large lumber job. The tract, situated on the headwaters of the Greenbrier river, embraces 12,000 acres and contains about 222,000,000 feet of fine timber. Mr. Atherton's contract to stock this great body of timber calls for 20,000,000 ft. per year, which will mean at least a ten-year job.
The town of Philipsburg has a curfew law which went into effect one night last week. A whistle is blown at 5:45 and by 9 o'clock all children under 16 years are to be off the streets. It is a pity parents do not care enough for their children to have them home at that time, but if they don't it is eminently proper that the authorities should compel it. It is to be hoped that the ordinance will be enforced.
A paralytic stroke overtook Jonas Confer, of Gregg township; while in the woods up about Renova, on Wednesday, having been employed at a lumber camp. When Mr. Confer did not make his appearance in the camp at the proper time, search was made for him and he was found in the woods unconscious, and was taken to the camp by evening. He has been speechless since, but has regained consciousness somewhat, but his condition remains critical.
19 cans of trout were received recently at Millheim from the U. S. fish hatchery for distribution in the streams nearby. The cans contained about 5000 trout and all were fingerlings. These trout are large enough to protect themselves when placed into the water and no smaller ones should be used, as the larger trout soon destroy them. Our state hatcheries might learn something to their advantage if they would follow the methods of the U. S. hatcheries and not send the insignificant trout fry out until they are as long as a finger and able to look out for themselves.—Journal.
Edward Minninger, of Nippenose valley, was stunned by a bolt of lightning at his home Saturday evening. He was standing on his porch during a heavy thunder storm, when a bolt came down along the side of the house, knocking him down and stunning him severely. The bolt took an abrupt turn and shot out into an outbuilding and instantly killed Mr. Minninger's valuable dog. The shock was a unusually severe one and was heard over a large territory. Mr. Minninger recovered after an hour or so. The course taken by the bolt of lightning was most peculiar. It shattered the side of the building without doing any serious damage. The dog, which was valued at $50, was standing near the open door in an outbuilding. The bolt killed it instantly without even leaving any marks upon the animal's body.

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

Found guilty of removing ten little wild turkeys from their nest, Abe Sander of Cogan Station near Williamsport, was yesterday afternoon fined $250 by Alderman Kellenbach, before whom the case was tried.
Down at Jersey Shore the other day a party of boys were playing in a patch of weeds. One lad picked up an old tobacco pouch and flung it at playmate. The other, curious at the little sack's bulky appearance, opened it and found in it awad of one dollar bills—seven in all.
Miss Stella Iddings, of Bellwood, has returned home after spending several weeks of her vacation very pleasantly at the home of her aunt, Mrs. W. Rumberger, of "Brookside Manor," Nittany valley. Wonder if she will not sometime ponder and sigh for the "Dear old-fashioned Country Home down on the Farm?"
Eight additional volumes of Pennsylvania archives, to be shortly published by the State, will give a mass of documents relative to early wars and the men who took part in them. The compilation has been made by Luther R. Kelker, of Harrisburg, and has received the indorsement of the Governor for publication.
The large barn on the farm of Michael Slear, near New Berlin, was struck by lightning Friday night 20, about ten o'clock and totally consumed, together with the entire year's crop of wheat, which had just been harvested. The loss is about $1,500, partially insured in the Buffalo Valley Mutual Insurance Company.
A telephone company having refused to pay the tax of $1 levied upon each of its poles, Hazleton is proceeding to test the validity of the ordinance under which the charge is made. The company says at least two of the Judges of Pennsylvania Courts have ruled that $1 is an exorbitant fee, and that ten cents is a reasonable charge.
On Saturday evening, July 14, the steam mill of Wilson & Maclay, located at Reedsville, Mifflin county, was destroyed by fire, together with 5,000 bushels of wheat, 200 barrels of flour, a quantity of corn and other grain. The cause of the fire was a stroke of lightning. The loss is estimated at $20,000, partly covered by insurance.
The various granges of Clinton county will hold their fourth annual picnic at Agar's park on Thursday, August 9. The Hon. William T. Creasy, of Columbia county, has been secured to deliver an address on matters of public interest. Everybody is invited to spend the day at this delightful grove with the grange members and their families.
About 3,000 pones of glass were broken in the P. and E. shops at Renova. The store of Jeweler McCloskey was deluged; the entire roof of the P. and E. hot house was broken through and plants destroyed. The gardens are completely destroyed, but like the roots of the summer's crop of vegetables being left. Wm. Stout and Ed. Kelley, truck farmers on the Southside, are heavy losers.
Water is so scarce at Kane that the public has been warned not to sprinkle the streets and to exercise care in the general use of water for all purposes. At Coudersport there is a similar apprehension of famine. For the first time since it was built ten years ago the Austin paper and pulp mill, Potter county's largest industry, has closed because of insufficient water to operate the machinery, and several hundred men are temporarily idle. In Centre county we have had more than a surplus—actually an excess, the past month.
A. A. Miller, of Lock Haven, Saturday came from Queens Run, Colebrook township, with a can of hail stones gathered two hours previous, some of which measured an inch and a half in diameter. At Renova they fell still larger and one weighed on an apothecary's scales is said to have approximated half a pound. The storm was especially destructive in Bald Eagle, Woodward and Dunstable townships, and caused a loss of thousands of dollars to farmers. Tobacco, just ready for topping, was riddled, as many as twenty-one perforations being counted in one leaf. Corn was laid waste, pears and apples stripped from trees.
William Bowser, of Addison, Somerset county, was mowing the grass in a meadow with his team when the horse and mowing machine passed over a bumble bee's nest and the insects strongly resented this and alighted on horse and also on the man. The team ran away and after going some distance the mowing machine was thrown against a tree. The cutter bar was thrown forward and cut off both hind legs of one of the horses. Mr. Bowser was fortunately thrown back of the bar and was lucky enough to escape with the loss of four fingers. The bees had followed the team and its driver more than one hundred rods when the accident occurred.
A fierce encounter between a bull and a horse on the farm of Abe McHenry, of Beaman township, Clinton county, on Wednesday last week resulted in the death of the horse, which was ripped so badly that it had to be shot. The two had been turned loose in adjoining barn yards and in some manner a communicating gate became unfastened and the horse proceeded over to the bull's enclosure. This raised the ire of the bull and he immediately charged the horse. The fight which followed was a terrific one. The bull was a dehorned one, but he nevertheless proved too much for his antagonist, for backing him into a corner he butted him so repeatedly that the under part of the horse's body was ripped open. Farm hands coming upon the scene drove the bull away with pitchforks, but it was too late to save the horse, which had to be shot.
Smith-Showers.
Miss Bess Estella Showers daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Showers, and George Thurston Smith, of Buffalo, N. Y., were married at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. James B. Stein, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church; the ring ceremony was used, and the bride was given away by her brother, Harry Showers, of Pittsburg. The groom was attended by his brother, Dr. Samuel Smith, of Derry, Pa. After the wedding supper they departed on the 8:16 train for their wedding tour. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will remain the balance of the summer at Asbury Park. Mr. Smith is a graduate of State College and is now a telephone engineer with the Independent Telephone Company of Buffalo, N. Y.
The prisoner at the bar is always open to conviction.

RECENT DEATHS.

D. W. CLARK—an old resident of Blanchard, died Monday morning at 5:30 of heart trouble, after a year's illness. Deceased, who was about 61 years of age, was a well-known resident of that place, an Odd Fellow and an active member of the Methodist church. He is survived by his wife and two children.
RUTH HARSTER—eleven months ago there was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Harster twin baby girls, Ruth and Rachel. Last Friday night death entered and took away Ruth, who was laid away in the cemetery last Sunday. The parents recently moved from Unionville, this county, to Cashmere, Washington.
CYRUS KLINGER—five year old son of Cyrus Jacob Klinger, died in Wheeling, West Virginia, July 27, of pneumonia. After an illness of only one week. The body was brought here Sunday and sent to Lemont and the interment took place later in the Branch cemetery. The mother of the child died last March and was buried at the Branch also.
MRS. M. L. ROBERTS—died at the home of her brother, John H. Krumbine, at Reets, Indiana county, a short time ago, of pulmonary tuberculosis. Her age was almost 38 years. Interment was made at Strongtown, a nearby point. Mrs. Robert's maiden name was Amanda Krumbine, who during her girlhood years lived in Centre Hall. She was ill for about five weeks.
SAMUEL NOLL—died in the Bellefonte hospital Sunday evening after a brief illness. He was taken to the hospital on the previous Monday and death was due to stricture of the bladder. He was a farmer by occupation and 57 years of age, and resided at Pleasant Gap. Surviving him are his wife, one brother, Hon. John Noll, of Bellefonte; two sisters, Mrs. Lucy Stine, of Oklahoma; and Miss Susie, of Pleasant Gap. Interment at Pleasant Gap, Wednesday morning.
Another Medicine Swindle.
Ben. Limbert can say that he failed to catch this swindler in his own snares. Sometime ago a well dressed gentleman appeared at the residence of Ben. Limbert, representing himself as Dr. Jones. This rascal, after examining Mr. Limbert, told him he was afflicted with a very bad case of catarrh and finally persuaded Mr. Limbert to take a treatment, promising him to give back his money, providing it didn't cure him; after the treatment Dr. Jones had disappeared. Later a man called, giving his name as Mr. Fox and tried to sell Mr. Limbert a treatment for catarrh. "All right," says Mr. Limbert, "No cure, no pay; if you cure me I will pay you then and double your charges." Mr. Fox fed his horse and went to dinner and Mr. Limbert went to the field after dinner. Fox said to Limbert's daughters that he would again be around a few days later; that he had only four bottles with him and that he had promised those. He also said he would call a week later and pay for his dinner and horse feed but "Foxy" hasn't appeared yet. Watch for both and turn the dogs loose.

Hitting Centre Pretty Hard.
The DuBois Journal (Republican) of Saturday morning says: "The conferees of Clearfield should learn Centre county a lesson in the Senatorial deadlock, and under no circumstances should they allow the Centre county conferees to carry off the prize. Centre county delegates did dirt in the congressional convention and they should be shown no quarter in the Senatorial fight." There are well founded rumors current that the aforesaid "dirt" implies some sums of not less than four numbers, or that when you loose you get it.

Wants Right to Drink.
James Williams, secretary of the Anti-Saloon League of Roaring Springs, sent a note to the proprietors of the Kellerman House, Holidaysburg, warning them not to sell intoxicating liquors to ten citizens of his town. Joseph Carpenter, one of the men placed under the ban, instituted suit for libel against secretary Williams, alleging that he has suffered damages to the extent of $2000 as his constituent right and freedom to drink.
—Dr. Tate, of Bellefonte, who left about the first of July for a month's vacation will return about the middle of August. His patrons will please make a note of this and escape being disappointed should they call on him to work done.

Who Will be Queen of the Midway.

Bellefonte in true carnival style is to select a queen to preside over the great Carnival of Nations that will be held in the Armory during the week of August 20th to 25th.
The ladies in charge have decided upon the following novel plan of selecting a queen: So that there will be no favoritism or partiality shown, it has been decided to leave it to popular vote. Voting boxes have been placed at Montgomery & Co's store, Yeager & Davis's, Ceadler's and Kisely's cigar store, where any one can get as many ballots as they please for any girl or woman whom they may regard as best fitted for and most deserving of the honor of being crowned queen of the carnival. The only condition in the voting is that each ballot will cost the voter one cent. The count will be announced each week in the papers, and during the week of the carnival it will be announced each evening. The last night of the carnival the queen will be crowned with the most gorgeous and thrilling spectacle of the entire week's entertainment.
It is up to the people now; if you know of some one whom you would like to have as queen of the great spectacle, all you need to do is to go to any one of the ballot boxes and deposit as many votes as you like for her as they will cost you only one cent each.
—Prof. C. Gramley, of Rebersburg, and T. M. Gramley, of Spring Mills, while in town on Monday called around to see us.
