

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

—Jas. C. Gilliland, a prominent citizen of Oak Hall, was a pleasant caller. —Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lose, of Altoona, are visiting friends in Bellefonte. —Charles W. T. Phipps, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends and relatives in Bellefonte.

—Miss Mabel Brungart, of Wolf's Store, is visiting friends in Bellefonte. —Mrs. C. H. Fletcher, of Howard, and son master Irvin were pleasant callers. —Mrs. David Keller and son Earl, of Mt. Union, are visiting relatives in this place.

OVER THE COUNTY.

O. F. Mader, one of Centre Hall's skilled mechanics, has changed his residence to Altoona. One day last week Wm. Reiber, of near Tusseyville, shipped one hundred boxes of honey from his apiary of seventy-five colonies. Frank and Will Fisher, two young men of Boalsburg, are interested in a large plant being started at Sunbury for the manufacture of corn starch.

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

A two and one-half years' old daughter of John Frank, of Eastville, Sugar Valley, died Friday morning. The funeral was held on Monday forenoon. Bingham township, Potter county, has been paying some of their school teachers less than $35 per month and for the second time have forfeited their share of the state appropriation.

RECENT DEATHS.

MRS. MARY LUFT:—formerly of this place, but now of Bradock, died at the home of her brother, Michael Luft, Monday, August 13th, of pulmonary disease. She was born in Bellefonte and was 48 years of age. She was a sister of Mrs. James Toner. The remains were brought to Bellefonte and interred in the Catholic cemetery.

—The street committee is greatly improving the street leading up by the jail on the north side of the Court House. Several inches of furnace slag is being put on it so that the water will drain to the sides of the roadway. It is being done right.

—Prof. James Hughes, of the Academy, reports that over sixty students from a distance have registered and will be in attendance at this institution when the fall season opens. This is larger than ever and Mr. Hughes says he could get more but the accommodations are limited.

—The Buffalo Valley railroad, that picturesque lumberline through the mountains of Union county, will soon be a thing of the past. This railroad runs from Lewisburg into the wilds of Clinton county, and during the past ten years has handled a great many million feet of lumber, thousands of acres being cleared off by the Kulp Lumber company.

—A festival will be held at this place Aug. 18, for the benefit of the U. B. church. Every body come. Dean and Bertha Hancock left Wednesday for their homes in Phillipsburg. The Misses Eva Witherite and Tacie Lucas did some shopping in Bellefonte Tuesday.

—The following list of subscribers has been sent to the Centre Democrat at different places and removed without notifying us of the change or leaving directions with the post master. No doubt they are wondering why their papers do not reach them regularly.

WANTED:—a good farm hand for several weeks. Apply at once to Mr. Breen, on Harry Curtin farm, near Bellefonte. WANTED:—a sawyer to run a mill; must be good in bill cutting; will pay good wages to the right man. Address W. J. Smith, Fiedler, Pa.

—On Sunday afternoon merchant A. C. Mingle, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Rode, arrived in town having traveled from Philadelphia in a brand new Cadillac automobile just purchased. They left that city on Friday and ordinarily would have reached home by Saturday evening, but many of the roads were heavy from constant rains which made their pace a little slower than usual.

—The people of Sugar valley who are raising turkeys this season are not having as good success as usual. Mrs. William Womelsdorf, of near Loganton, set fifty-two eggs from which fifty turkeys were hatched. From this number she has left but eleven. The reports of others are similar, nearly all attributing the loss to lice.
