—G. W. Ralstin, who has been in the employ of the Howard Creamery company, and was stationed at Lemont, has accepted a position with the Dewart Creamery company at Dewart, and will move his family there about the 10th of September.

—Miss Belle Hoover, residing on Spring St., who within the past two years has had her wrist broken twice and her hip dislocated, and is still on crutches from the effects of the last accident, last Wednesday while coming down stairs on crutches, she fell, cutting a deep gash on her head.

—A. F. Riley, of Brookville, who for some time past has worked for Frank Sasserman, the barber, bought the barber shop of Harvey Ginger, on Bishop street, and hereafter will do business on his own hook. He has a good stand and is a good workman. Mr. Ginger is visiting friends in the vicinity of Brookville.

—The Hoovers have decided to make their home in Philadelphia where Mr. Hoover holds a good position with the Land, Title and Trust company. This includes Mrs. A. M. Hoover, Miss Belle Hoover and Miss Kathryn. They sold their household goods last week and left for the Quaker city where they will live at No. 2551 north Broad street.

—By an order of the Court, Curtin township has been divided into two separate voting districts, the eastern and western. Voters of the eastern, or new district, will vote at Orvis, the new town of the Hayes Run brick company where quite a prosperous town has sprung up, and residents of the western district will vote at the old place, Romola.

—Samuel Thomas, a breakman on the Pittsburg division, whose home is at Bellefonte, saved his life at South Fork recently. The man was on top of a box car when a sudden jolt of the train threw him to the track underneath the car. Thomas, realizing his dangerous position, quickly clutched the axle of the car and, hanging on until the train could be stopped, saved himself from getting under the wheels. In the fall he sustained a sprain of the back and ankle.

—At noon on Wednesday, James Oevlie Brewer, of Bellefonte, and Miss Mary Agusta Nantz, of Kirksville, N. Y., were united in marriage at the home of the bride in that place. Mr. and Mrs. Brewer will make their home in Bellefonte, the groom being the efficient bookkeeper for McAlmont & Co. His friends down in that office knew something was brewing there for a long time, but its all over now. His friends wish for him and his bride much happiness through life.

—W. N. Kurtz, who for the last year had been foreman in the printing department of the Lewisburg Chronicle, tendered his resignation with that paper last week, and as a compliment the Chronicle says that they are sorry to see him go, for he has proven himself a capable and energetic workman. He goes from Lewisburg to Williamsburg, where he has accepted a much better position with the Juniata Manufacturing Co. "Billy" is a good jovial fellow, and for several years was proprietor of the bookstore in Bellefonte, now owned by Dorsey Hunter. His friends here will be glad to learn of his success. He is succeeded by J. C. Cook, of Williamsport.

—Come to town on Friday, 21st, and see the big show.

—Miss Grace Mitchell, daughter of Isaac Mitchell, of Bellefonte, left this week for Philadelphia.

—Mrs. F. Potts Green left Saturday for Lewisburg where she will visit her sister, Miss Ann Harris.

—George Weaver, who has been working in Pittsburg for the past two or three years, is visiting his old friends in Bellefonte.

—Aspirants for the Bellefonte post-office began circulating their petitions this week. Everybody signs everyone that comes along.

—Ed. Irvin, the man who has been creating so much "Racket" in Bellefonte spent several days last week with his brother, Lew Irvin.

—James Hand, of Julian, and Wm. McEwen, of Unionville, were a jolly pair who called on Tuesday. May they live long and prosper.

—Tom and Clarence Hamilton, of New York City, are visiting in Bellefonte at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Hamilton on Howard street.

—This evening the Epworth League of the Bellefonte Methodist church take a moonlight straw ride to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rocky, near Zion.

—Trude Bidwell, a student at the Annapolis Naval Academy, is visiting his parents in Bellefonte. He is quite a student, and is on the right road to success.

—Dr. John Keichline, of Philadelphia, arrived in Bellefonte Monday where he will visit his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Keichline, on Bishop street.

—Drop in and have a cup of coffee and hot biscuits at our store any day next week, will be glad to see you if you intend to buy or not. Potter & Hoy, Hardware.

—Frank Yeager, brakeman on the Bellefonte Central railroad, had the misfortune of having his hand mashed Tuesday afternoon while trying to couple cars at Coleville.

—Rex Cooper, of Watertown, N. Y., is visiting in Bellefonte at the residence of the Misses Benner on High street. He is the son of H. S. Cooper, the wife of whom is visiting in the same house.

—Harry Cook, of Lewisburg, who had been ill and off duty for a year has resumed his position as conductor on the Lewisburg and Tyrone train that reaches Bellefonte in the morning and leaves in the afternoon.

—Rev. Platts and family, Chas. Cook and family, Wm. B. Rankin and family, Mrs. Morgan, of Pittsburg, with a few friends drove to Centre Hall Monday afternoon where they partook of a chicken and waffle supper.

—Steam heat will be turned on in Bellefonte after the 15th if a reasonable number of patrons want this service, which will be given at a reduced rate until October 1st. The company is making a canvass to ascertain the wishes of our people.

—Harvest Home services will be held in the Lutheran church next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The decorations of fruit and flowers promise to be a special feature of attraction. The pastor will deliver a special sermon appropriate to the occasion.

—G. W. Rees, Deputy Revenue Collector, left Bellefonte Tuesday for Pottsville where he will visit his old friends, and at the same time witness the celebration of Old Home Week. Mr. Rees is originally from the coal town and this will afford him an opportunity of renewing old acquaintances.

—John Olewine, the prosperous hardware merchant of Bellefonte, was a pleasant caller at our sanctum Monday. He is a good fellow and a kind neighbor, and no doubt some of these times he will tap a keg of nails and invite us over. We were going to say beer, but as John is going to vote for Swallow that would be entirely out of the question.

—Last week Dr. and Mrs. VanTries, of Bellefonte, returned from a pleasure trip. They visited West Point, Asbury park, New York City and other points of interest. They were in New York when William J. Bryan reached the quarantine harbor, but unfortunately they were unable to get to see the next President of the United States.

—Tuesday the public schools of Bellefonte opened with a large attendance. Supt. John D. Meyer says that every thing is in excellent shape for the most prosperous term. The school board this year will give special attention to the boys who ought to be at school but who try to evade the law by playing truant. They are after a couple already.

—C. M. Parrish, the druggist, recently had on exhibition a choice garden product, two tomatoes on a single stalk and each weighed 1 1/4 pounds. He avers that he dug the ground, cared for the plants, all with his own hands—something we would never have accused him of doing. We always knew him as a good druggist—but not as an expert truck farmer.

—Monday was Labor Day, and everything in Bellefonte took on a holiday attire, the banks were closed, and business practically suspended. Some of the members of the labor unions, with their families, went to Hecla Park where they enjoyed the day. In the afternoon the carpenters and painters and paper hangers played a lively game of base ball, when the carpenters sort of did their brothers up.

—The other night Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick, was on his way home, and when on Curtin street he saw something like a cat run across the thoroughfare. Doc began to feel a little shaky about his joints, and so to protect himself drew from his hip pocket a gun that he has been bragging so much about on his trips to Fishing Creek. To his surprise and amazement the pocket piece wouldn't work worth a cent. There was no time to spare as the pesky animal on the walk was making square for him. Quick as a flash of lightning he picked up a stone and hurled it at the object. The next minute there was an explosion, and he didn't need to be informed that he had struck a cat with a perfume factory. It is needless to state that his office now is closed and he is making a pretense of taking a vacation in Philadelphia.

—Mrs. S. H. Williams, of Bellefonte, is enjoying herself at Atlantic City.

—Mrs. Scott and daughter, of Altoona, are visiting in Bellefonte at the home of S. H. Williams.

—John P. Harris, of Bellefonte, took half day off on Saturday and attended the Williams reunion at Martha.

—Mrs. Louis Lonsbury returned Tuesday from a three weeks trip with friends in Elmira, N. Y., and Tioga county.

—Miss Sprinkle, who has been visiting the McCoys on Thomas street, returned Monday to her home in Altoona.

—Hon. John Nell, of Bellefonte, attended the Williams reunion at Martha. Wherever he goes he is cordially received by hosts of friends.

—Fred Chambers, who is in partnership with G. W. Hall in a photograph enterprise in Tyrone, spent Sunday with his parents in Bellefonte.

—The Free Methodists will hold their annual bush meeting in Moyers grove, beginning Wednesday, Sept. 5th, lasting over two Sabbaths. All are cordially invited.

—The "Willows" have of late been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Beezer, who have been entertaining the two Misses Shields and four young ladies from Altoona.

—Miss Ella Decker and Mrs. W. H. Matter, of near Potters Mills, while on their way home from the Williams reunion, dropped in to pay the Centre Democrat a pleasant call.

—The tennis court in the rear of the Y. M. C. A. lot was completed this week. One creditable feature about it is that the young men did most of the work, grading and erecting the screens.

—Owing to unavoidable delay in getting possession of properties acquired for the use of the Academy, it becomes necessary to postpone the opening of the fall term of the Bellefonte Academy until Thursday, Sept. 13th.

—Miss Blanche Underwood, the expert stenographer for the Pennsylvania Match Co., has returned to Bellefonte from Reno, where she had been school agent for a while. It isn't true that she became homesick.

—Dr. H. M. Hiller, who had been absent from Bellefonte for a couple of weeks, returned Saturday. The doctor is a great fisherman and hunter, and he is just counting the days when he can put his gun on his shoulder and strike for the woods.

—Jos. L. Neff, of Roland, was in town on Friday attending to business. Although considerably crippled as the result of an unfortunate railroad accident, he is as chipper as a three-year-old and insists that when his shoulder improves he will again be crying "O yes!"

—Edward L. Gates, son of Charles L. Gates, of Bellefonte, has become local editor of the Keystone Gazette. He is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School and a very promising young man. If he shows half of the tact and ability of his father as a newspaper man he will be a winner in the field of journalism. We wish him unbounded success.

—Harvest Home services were held in the Bellefonte St. John's Reformed church last Sunday morning. The church was adorned with wheat, oats, sheaves, corn in the stalks, vegetables, fruits and flowers. The offerings were $16.00 for the relief of disabled ministers. Monday morning the fruits, vegetables and flowers were given as a donation to the Bellefonte Hospital.

—F. D. Ray, father of H. S. Ray, proprietor of the Brokerhoff House, Bellefonte, who was formerly in the hotel business at Altoona has leased the "Hotel Albert" on the corner of 11th street and University Place, New York City. It is a large and commodious hotel, with four hundred rooms, having all the modern conveniences to be found in that great metropolis. It is centrally located and has a large patronage. Mr. Ray has associated with him his son, F. D. Ray, Jr., who together will make a success of their new undertaking.

The public schools in Spring township will open on Monday, September 10th.

W. A. Alexander, an experienced dentist, has located at Potters Mills which will prove a great convenience to the residents of that section.

A festival will be held at Snow Shoe Intersection on Saturday evening, for the benefit of the local telephone. All are cordially invited to attend.

See advertisement of Grove & Coldren in this issue. They have established a permanent horse and cattle market, and will regularly announce in this paper what stock they have for sale.

Miss Helen K. Gephart, daughter of Rev. C. F. Gephart, a young lady well known in musical circles, has decided to locate in Altoona. Miss Gephart is a graduate of Irving college and musical conservatory and is a fine musician. It is her intention to follow the profession of teaching in that city. The young lady is a niece of M. C. Gephart, the music dealer.

Bert Robb, a miner in the mines of the Scootab Mining company in Bear Swamp was injured by a sudden fall of Rock from the roof of the room in which he and John Streck were working. He was knocked down and squeezed across hips, his injuries being very painful. He was brought on a horse to the railroad of the Pennsylvania Fire Brick company and thence on a hand car to Mill Hall and driven to his home in Blanchard, where he is getting along very well. This accident occurred in the room in which George Ecard of Blanchard was killed.

RECENT DEATHS.
O. L. SCHOENOVER.—Died suddenly at Phillipsburg on Tuesday. He was a resident of Winburne, Pa., and had large real estate holdings and was a stockholder in several banks in that section, being a man of considerable wealth, aged 64 years; interment at Kylesport, Friday afternoon.

DR. THOMAS C. THOMAS.—A prominent physician, died at the family residence at Peoria, Ill., July 23, aged 70 years. He was a native of this county and in 1860 taught school at Oak Hill. Two sisters, Misses Mary and Louisa Thomas, reside at Lemont; also Mrs. Geo. C. Williams of Lemont.

ROBERT CALHOUN.—of Allport, died one evening recently, aged about 82 years. Mr. Calhoun had been in the Cottage hospital at Phillipsburg about one week, suffering with gangrene in the foot. Deceased was at one time a resident of Phillipsburg, but during the past twenty years had resided at Allport. He leaves a family of nine children.

SARAH MILDRED ROYER.—daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Royer, of North Water street, Bellefonte, died Friday morning Aug. 31st, of cholera, in factum after an illness of only fifteen hours, aged three years. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at their home, conducted by Rev. Stein, of the Methodist church, interment in the Union cemetery. Two other children in this family were in a critical condition with the same disease at the time of the funeral, but are now slowly improving.

WILLIAM H. BROUSE.—a well-known resident of Pine Grove Mills, died at his home in that place Friday morning after an extended illness from paralysis. The deceased was born at the Branch about 75 years ago. All his life was spent in agricultural pursuits. About three years ago he retired from active work and has since lived quietly in Pine Grove Mills. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Rev. C. Y., of Mt. Union; W. H., of Boalsburg; Mrs. Ross Grove, of Scotia; Mrs. Daniel Decker, of Altoona.

WM. G. EWING.—a prominent business man of Mount Union, died Monday morning after a lingering illness from typhoid fever. His death removes from that community a prominent residence and one who was instrumental in many ways towards the progress and advancement of the town. William G. Ewing was born at Grayville, Huntingdon county, on June 22, 1854. On October 10, 1876, he was married to Miss Tinsie Shaver, who, with one son, C. B., and three daughters, Misses Iva, Annie and Helen, survive. At the time of his death he was a director in the First National bank of that place.

JAMES B. LANE.—Was found dead in bed Tuesday evening about 6:15 o'clock in his room at the Bush House. He had not been in the best of health for some time, although he was able to be about. As he failed to come down to supper one of the servants went to his room and found him lying on his bed. When she spoke to him she received no response, and thinking it strange at once notified Philip Waddle, the clerk. A colored man was sent to his room who found him dead. A physician was summoned who upon examining the body stated that he died of heart trouble sometime during the afternoon, probably 5 o'clock. The deceased was born at Lancaster, on the 8th of January 1854. When quite young the family moved to Bellefonte, and for years resided in part of the property now owned and occupied by Mrs. D. H. Hastings, on Allegheny street. In the earlier days of his life he was a clerk in the bank of W. F. Reynolds & Co., now the Bellefonte Trust Co. He and his wife several years ago, moved to Philadelphia, and it was within two years that they returned to Bellefonte. About 24 years ago he was married to Miss Thomasine Thomas, daughter of the late Jacob V. Thomas, of Bellefonte, who with one son Richard, of McKeesport, survive him. He was the grandnephew of James Buchannon, a former President of the United States. He was a good sociable gentleman and had a large circle of friends. He is also survived by two brothers: John N. Lane, of Bellefonte, and E. Elliott Lane, of Hadonfield, N. J. The funeral takes place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence of John P. Lyon on Curtin street. Rev. Afford A. Butler, of the Episcopal church officiating. The casket bearers are Wallace H. Gephart, C. F. Montgomery, J. Howard Lingle, Joseph L. Montgomery, L. T. Munson, Harry Keller, Harry Fenlon, and Dr. Joseph Brokerhoff, interment in Union cemetery.
