

Bellefonte and Vicinity

The Local Happenings in Short Paragraphs

-Lewis Rearick, of Bellefonte, is seriously ill at his home on Reynolds Ave. -The Pennsylvania State College opened today with the largest attendance in its history. -Last week Kyle McFarlane and family moved from the Armour house on East Linn street to the Gray house on Curtin street. -When the papers attempted to give credit to all those who took part in the recent Mid-way, they undertook an endless task. -Miss Margaret Sechler, of Baltimore, is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Sechler, of Linn street, Bellefonte. She is a nurse in that city and her services are in great demand. -Fred Gearhart, an employe at the boiler house at Pennsylvania State College, was brought to Bellefonte Wednesday morning and taken to the hospital, suffering from appendicitis. -Friday Mrs. Anna M. Caswell, who has been occupying her house in Bellefonte during the summer months, left for Coatsville, where she and her daughter Mildred will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. VanOrmer. -Physical Director Godfrey, of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., has returned after a month's vacation among his friends and relatives in New York state. The gymnasium will now be thrown open for the fall and winter work. -Judge Ellis L. Orvis is one of the directors of the Pittsburg and Erie Telephone Company which was recently granted a charter. The company proposes building a line to connect Erie, Pittsburg and Philadelphia. -A. W. Stine, of Bellefonte, has resigned his position with the Yeager Swing Co., where he has been employed for several years. He has accepted a position as collector and solicitor for the Prudential Life Insurance Co. -Rev. Victor Royer, wife and child of Altoona, who had been visiting Mrs. Royer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Faxon, in Bellefonte for several days, left Tuesday afternoon for Spring Mills where they became guests of Mr. Royer's parents. -Rev. Edwin F. Richardson, of Baltimore, Md., the new rector of the Bellefonte St. John's Episcopal church, will arrive in Bellefonte to-morrow (Friday), and on Sunday will begin his pastorate here. Dr. Butler, who has been filling the pulpit during the summer, preached his closing sermon last Sunday night. -Miss Hattie L. Schmidt, of Washington, D. C., a sister of Rev. Ambrose Schmidt, pastor of the Bellefonte St. John's Episcopal church, is organist in the Roman Catholic church, Washington, where President Roosevelt is a regular and devout worshipper every Sunday. -"Domino," our versatile correspondent at Unionville, has grown jealous of our "That" man; and in order to distance Spear, in his mind will make a tour of the county, and makes his announcement in a threatening manner. See what he says in the Unionville items this week. Somebody may (?) get hurt. -On Thursday Aug. 30th, Fred Kurtz, senior editor of this paper, was taken seriously ill and since then has been confined to his bed, his condition at times being pronounced critical. At this time an improvement is noticeable and he appears to be recuperating. The illness is due to a heavy cold which developed a severe attack of bronchitis. -Senator P. Gray Meek, wife and daughter, Miss Lulu, left Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon for Atlantic City where they will spend the next three weeks. Miss Lulu is slowly recovering from her attack of nervous prostration, and it is the belief of her friends that the ocean will be conducive to her permanent recovery. -Mrs. C. B. Williams and bright little son, Frederick, who have been visiting in Bellefonte during the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Lyon, has left for her home at Jersey City. She was accompanied by her husband who had been a frequent visitor in Bellefonte since May. They had a very enjoyable time here and grand-pa Lyon is at a loss to know how to put in the time without his little grandson. -Mrs. Atchinson and daughter Mrs. Bodine, of Niagara Falls, were visitors at the Bellefonte Academy last week. Mrs. Atchinson brought her son Raymond here to go to school, and both were highly pleased with the Academy and surroundings. Judge Allison Smith, of Clearfield, was also here recently to select a room in the Academy for his son Wallace. Minnie G. Hughes, wife of the late Jacob Hughes, of Wisconsin, has brought her three children to Bellefonte and will educate them at the Academy where Mrs. Hughes has become matron. -Prof. James P. Hughes, of the Bellefonte Academy, one of the oldest citizens of the town, has returned from his vacation feeling like a yearling colt. Among the places he visited was his son's home at Columbus, Ohio; and his daughter, Mrs. Frank Bassett, of Sparrows Point, Md. While in the former place he met, and attended the church of Rev. John Hewitt, formerly rector of the Bellefonte Episcopal church, who has a very large congregation in that thriving western city. Here he also met James Hamill, Esq., who was formerly a Bellefonter, and together they gave Prof. Hughes a royal good time, taking him all over the city, taking with him his father and mother who will make New York City their future home. Dr. Mattern is a dentist, and for years practiced his profession in Milesburg, being probably one of the oldest residents of that place. Several years ago his health began to fail and finally he was compelled to give up his practice and live in retirement. Mr. and Mrs. Mattern are very pleasant people and will be greatly missed at their old home. -G. W. Page, one of Eagleville's well known merchants, was a business visitor in Bellefonte Monday. -James Foreman left Monday on the early train for Chambersburg. He will be gone two or three days. -Mr. and Mrs. Mart Garman, of Bellefonte, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lukenbach, at Tyrone. -Mr. and Mrs. James Harris left Bellefonte Monday, for an extended visit to Wilkingsburg and Atlantic City. -Miss Della Heckman returned on Monday from an eight-weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Illinois and Ohio. -Col. and Mrs. H. S. Taylor and two children returned Monday afternoon from a visit with friends in Phillipsburg. -Miss Sarah Bayard left Monday for Williamsport where she will take a course in stenography at Potts' Business College. -Miss Ella Musser, daughter of Col. W. H. Musser, returned Saturday from a visit with friends in Philadelphia and Atlantic City. -We have received an invitation to attend the dedication of the new State Capitol at Harrisburg, on Thursday, the 4th of October. -Thursday evening a fire broke out on the roof of the casting house at Lingle's foundry. It was put out without doing much damage. -W. Harrison Walker, Esq., of Bellefonte, transacted legal business of importance several days the latter part of last week in Phillipsburg. -Mrs. C. F. Gargan and daughters Margaret and Mildred, of New York City are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Noonan at the Brant House. -Tomorrow (Friday) evening Prof. H. D. Patton, the prohibition candidate for lieutenant governor, will speak in the Court House in Bellefonte. -Miss Helen and Roxie Mingle, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mingle, left Bellefonte Monday for Tyrone to visit Miss Madge Showers. -Ex-Judge John G. Love, J. L. Spangler, Esq., and Harry Keller, of Bellefonte, took dinner at the Fallon House and left for the east on the afternoon flyer Sunday. -Maj. Gen. W. J. McKee, of Indianapolis, has been visiting Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell in Bellefonte, for the past few days. The General stopped here on his homeward trip from the rifle shoot at Sea Girt, New Jersey. -Miss Julia Curtin, daughter of James Curtin, this week was taken to the Bellefonte hospital, suffering with the rheumatism of the head. She has been ill for several weeks, but since going to the hospital she is slowly recovering. -The Ladies' Aid Society of the U. B. church, of Bellefonte, will hold a chicken and waffle supper in the Aid Society room next to the church, Friday evening, Sept. 14th. Supper will begin at 5 o'clock. Ice cream and cake will also be served. -The Misses Meek and Mrs. Thomas K. Morris gave a masquerade euchre party the evening of the 11th, at the Meek residence on West High street, which was largely attended, and it was one of the most stylish social functions that has taken place here for some time. -Mrs. C. U. Hoffer, of Phillipsburg, who while visiting her father, C. T. Gerberich, in Bellefonte, had been in delicate health, left Monday for ALAHCITY, accompanied by her brother, Harry Gerberich. They expect to remain about three weeks, with the hope that the change will be beneficial to Mrs. Hoffer. -Ex-Register A. G. Archey, of Pine Grove Mills, killed two birds with one stone Saturday. He was in Bellefonte calling on his friends, and was in attendance at the reunion of the Centre County Veteran Club at Hunters Park. He says that they have gotten their seedling in and are now waiting to husk pumpkins and corn. -Last Thursday evening a slight fire occurred in Bellefonte, and while the Logan hose cart was going down High street, the boys behind couldn't hold back and had to run to the front and take hold of the tongue. While doing this Edward Overton stumbled and fell, the cart running over his leg. His injuries were slight. -Supt. F. H. Thomas, of the Bellefonte Central Railroad, having some extensive improvements made along the line from Bellefonte to State College. He is cutting out curves, straightening the roadbed and building several new concrete bridges, so that when these improvements are completed it will be practically a new road. A large culvert has been erected under the track near the home of George Hastings, which will carry off the surplus water and debris instead of causing a washout there at every flood. -Monday evening the Order of Red Men, of Bellefonte, held a busy session. They were registering nominations for the different chairs. These nominations will close Sept. 17th and the election will be held Sept. 24th. The following is a list of the nominees already made: Prophet—Frank Sasserman; Sachem—Joseph Apt; Senior Sagamore—W. H. Hamilton; Alex. Morrison; Junior Sagamore—John Cherry, Jas. McSuey, S. S. Walker, Edward Nolen, Wilbur Baney; Trustee—H. C. Quigley, John Strunk, Samuel Bayard, H. S. Taylor. -Rev. George Israel Brown, formerly pastor of the Bellefonte Episcopal church, but now of Harrisburg, arrived in town Tuesday morning, and in the afternoon at 4 o'clock held services in the Episcopal church at which time the child of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Borches, of Knoxville, Tenn., was christened. Mrs. Borches has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. W. F. Reeder, for several weeks, and as Rev. Brown officiated at their wedding it was her desire that the child should be christened by him. The ceremony was attended by a large number of friends and acquaintances. -One day recently Mr. and Mrs. John Ishler, of Benner township, came to Bellefonte to attend to some business, and when they returned they were surprised to find about thirty conveyances tied around the barn. On going into the house Mrs. Ishler was greeted by some seventy of her friends and neighbors, including the Ishlers, the Garbricks, the Lakes, Clevens and others. And in addition a large and handsome array of valuable and useful presents, tokens of the high esteem in which the lady of the house was held. And this was not all, for in the spacious dining room were found two large tables fairly creaking under the load of good things to eat. The occasion of this happy affair was in commemoration of Mrs. Ishler's 51st birthday.

-Mrs. Robert Cole, of Bellefonte, spent several days this week in Williamsport. -Mrs. John S. Walker, of Bellefonte, spent Tuesday with friends in Look Haven. -Miss Mabel Maxon, sister of Mrs. J. A. Platts will open a kindergarten school in Mrs. N. J. Orbison's parlor. -J. C. Meyer, Esq., of Bellefonte, returned Wednesday morning from Look Haven where he had been transacting legal business. -Mrs. Hattie Kurtz, of Bellefonte, entertained a few of her lady friends at a dinner given Tuesday evening at the Broomfield House. -Miss Eleanor Harris, daughter of Mrs. James Harris on Allegheny street, left Bellefonte for Philadelphia where she will visit friends. -Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Quigley and children returned Friday evening from Bradford, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Quigley's father. -A. Katz has just returned to Bellefonte from Philadelphia and New York where he selected his fall stock of goods which are up to date in every respect. -Miss Omacht, Miss Jennie Morgan and Miss Mollie Musser were arrivals Monday morning from Atlantic City where they spent the past ten days. -Pro J. Price Jackson and wife, and L. E. Keiser and wife of State College, were in Bellefonte over Tuesday night to attend the masque euchre at the Meek home. -Mrs. Bryan Waddle, Nettie Christ, of Jersey Shore; Annie Herrington, of Dover, Del., are guests in Bellefonte of Mrs. Sadie Saterfield, on Willowbank street. -J. Roy McKee and Roger T. Bayard, of Altoona, arrived in Bellefonte Wednesday afternoon and are guests at the Bayard home on Spring street. -Thursday of last week John D. Sourbeck, of Bellefonte, returned from a business trip to New York. He couldn't resist the temptation of going down to Cooney Island, which he says has Atlantic City "skinned a mile." -HENRY HALE an old resident of Julian, died at his home in that place Sunday night, from a complication of disorders. He was about 65 years of age, and a man held in high esteem by all who knew him. He was an old soldier and lost his leg during the Civil war. He is survived by a wife and two daughters and one son. The funeral took place Wednesday. -Thursday morning of last week, Miss Rebekah Nolan, daughter of the late Jerry Nolan, of Bellefonte, met with a painful accident that might have cost her a hand. She is an employe of the City Laundry, and while a large ironing machine was in motion she put her left hand on the revolving rolls to see whether it was hot. In an instant her hand was drawn between the rolls, and before the machine could be stopped two of her fingers were broken and her hand badly mashed and burned. It was at first thought that an amputation would be necessary but the indications are that with proper care and attention the hand can be saved, although it may be stiff, and she may not be able to use it as dextrously as before. -The organizing of the Tent of Knights of Maccabees Wednesday evening at the Eagles Hall by Wm. Phillips of Philadelphia, proved to be quite an interesting event as Great Commander W. E. Blaney of Pittsburg was also there and expounded on the beauties of fraternal insurance and the work of the order. A large list of applicants were obligated and instructed, there being no initiatory work until late in the month when a degree team from a nearby city will exemplify the work. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was the result. -Hon. James Schofield, of Bellefonte, the other evening was escorting his friend Joseph Williams, of South Williamsport, around town for the purpose of renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Williams twenty-eight years ago was a resident of Bellefonte, and held the position of water superintendent and engineer at the water works. In that capacity he was very proficient, and ran that department of the borough affairs very economically. He was well acquainted with the business and professional men in Bellefonte at that time, the majority of whom have since passed to that bourne from which no traveller returns; thus, with few exceptions, he found the personnel of the town changed. Mr. Williams is an excellent old gentleman, and as a testimony of his worth and ability for seventeen years he has served on the school board in the town in which he lives. His wife was with him on this little jaunt, and while here had a very enjoyable time.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Charles Gramley, of South Rebersburg, has sold his property to William Blair, of Smulton. -Miss Irene Catherman, of Williamsport, and William H. Howard, of Reading, were married recently. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Catherman, and lived in Centre Hall when her father was station agent at that place. -Recently Mrs. Mary Harper, of Pine Grove Mills, was seventy five years old. She was out calling and on her return found her home well filled with neighbors and friends who had come to gladden her heart. Refreshments were served and she received many presents. -Monday, September, 3rd the Millheim boys put up a great game of baseball in which they defeated the Yeagertown team by the score of 2 to 0. The Yeagertown lads did not even get a hit. Millheim have some cracker-jack players—good as professionals. -The stork's visits to Millheim are beginning to get numerous, which goes to show that race suicide has not yet struck that town. On Saturday morning, Sept. 1st, there was born to Mr. and Mrs. S. R. King a daughter, and on Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller a baby daughter was also a new arrival. On Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Myers a young son arrived. -The Schenck reunion held on Thursday, Sept. 6th, in the grove on Pleasant Hill farm, about two miles north of Howard, was a grand success. About seven hundred people from all over the United States were in attendance and everybody seemed to have enjoyed themselves. The program, as laid out by the committee, was carried out to a letter. The music rendered by the Howard band and that furnished by the choir was excellent.

Ex-Sheriff Robert Cook, of Howard, lost a very valuable horse recently. -Victor I. Walker, who had been spending the month of August with his parents at Rebersburg, left recently for Miami, Florida, where he has accepted a position to superintend the erection of a large concrete bridge. Mr. Walker successfully completed a course in civil engineering, and has been employed by the New York Central railroad for the past two years. Mr. Walker is one of our reliable Centre county boys who is making a success in life. -One Saturday morning recently while Jerry Corman, of Coburn, was operating his threshing machine on the Speer Burrell farm, near Penn Hall, he attempted to adjust the belt on the stacker attached to the machine when his right arm was caught between two cog wheels, and severely lacerated. After the accident Mr. Corman drove to town where his arm was dressed by Drs. G. S. Frank and J. Hardenburg, who found that no bones were broken. The wound is a very painful one for Mr. Corman who is to be congratulated that no bones were broken. -Thursday morning of last week the Methodist Sunday school, of Howard, started from that place in a hack to attend the Schenck reunion. When at the gate to the entrance to the grounds, the driver turned too short and upset the large hack, throwing the occupants out on the ground, the result was that the following five persons were injured: Mrs. J. E. Foresman badly cut about the eye and other bruises, Mrs. Howard Hurd cut on the back of head and otherwise bruised, Miss Myrtle Pletcher had a cut on her head, Myrtle Hinton hips hurt, and a boy had his arm smashed.

About 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening of last week Herbert Showers, of Pleasant Gap, was having a little musical at his home when Edgar Evey, of that place, with two young ladies in a buggy drove up in front of the house, stopped and began to listen, presently John Herman and wife, drove up for the same purpose, and it being dark he drove into Mr. Evey's conveyance. The horse became frightened and Mrs. Herman was thrown out, both the horse and the buggy going over her. She is a very lusty woman, and at first it was thought she was fatally injured, but upon examination it was found that she received several painful bruises on the arm and leg, but was not injured internally. She is now getting along very nicely. -The last Atlantic City excursion was well patronized by Pennsylvania people. Among others who took advantage of the trip were Mrs. Lucy Henney, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Foreman, Mary Foreman, Centre Hall, Thomas Swartz, Tusseyville; M. M. Shires, Miss Rena Shires, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith and little daughter, Misses Ida Condo, Anna Corman, W. B. Ripka, Mrs. Emory Ripka, Wm. Allison Jr., Belle Byers, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Finkle, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wagner, Spring Mills; Adam Harter, Harry Harter, Misses Nettie Springer, Margaret Springer, Eva Miller, Mrs. William Musser and daughter Margaret, Millheim; Mr. and Mrs. George Smull, Smulton; A. E. Strayer, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Garret, J. R. Brungart, Rebersburg; Mrs. Amanda Fisher, Rebecca Harvey, Mary Dougherty, Mrs. Alice McGoffin, Boolsburg.
